

1892-93; and city police judge, 1916. He also was prominent in Republican Party politics for fifty years.

For many years Mr. Emery was associated with the Iowa National Guard, being a charter member of the original Company G of the Second Regiment, in 1884. He served in the Company for seventeen years, rising from private to captain. During the Spanish-American War he was Brigade Quartermaster at Camp McKinley, at Des Moines.

Mr. Emery also had a long record in Masonic circles. He was a 32nd degree Scottish Rite Mason, a Knight Templar, and a Shriner.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Ottumwa for eighty years, served on all of its boards, and was an honorary life member of its Board of Elders at the time of his death. He lived a long, honorable and active life, and will be greatly missed in his community.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-first General Assembly, That in the passing of the late Honorable Daniel Alanson Emery the state has lost a valued and honored citizen, and the House would tender, by this resolution, its sincere sympathy to the surviving members of his family in their sorrow; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be instructed to send an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

Committee.

Unanimously adopted,

J. S. GARBER

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public services of the Honorable J. S. Garber, begs leave to submit the following report:

J. S. Garber was born April 18, 1865, in Floyd county, where he continued to reside until his death on January 14, 1942. His parents were pioneer settlers, coming to Iowa in 1852. He received his education in the rural schools.

On December 7, 1898, Mr. Garber was united in marriage to Marcia C. Petty, of Olean, New York, who now survives him.

Mr. Garber was engaged in farming until the time of his death and also served as President of the Farmers' Co-operative Elevator Company of Marble Rock. He served as director of the Floyd County Mutual Insurance Association for a period of twenty-three years. At the time of his death, he was also agent for the Iowa Mutual Tornado Insurance Association.

In 1918, Mr. Garber, who was a Republican in politics, was elected representative and re-elected in 1920 and 1922. No citizen in his community was held in higher regard and was more beloved by his friends and neighbors, than Mr. Garber.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-first General Assembly, That in the passing of the Honorable J. S. Garber, the state has lost a valued and honored citizen and the widow a loving husband and the House would tender, by this resolution, its sincere sympathy to the surviving members of his family in their sorrow; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to send an enrolled copy to the wife of the deceased.

WILLIAM KRUSE,
ARTHUR C. BLATTI,
HENRY C. KRUEGER,

Committee.

Unanimously adopted,

FRANCIS MARION HARRISON

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Francis Marion Harrison, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Francis Marion Harrison was born in Clarke County and his entire life of 62 years was spent there, except for the years he served in the Army. He enlisted in the National Guard in 1916 and served on the border. When the Guard was called into Federal service again in 1917, he re-enlisted and went to France with the Rainbow Division, serving for a year and a half with that famous organization under General Douglas MacArthur. He was twice wounded in action, for which he was awarded a Silver Star and the "Purple Heart". He served as State President of the Iowa Rainbow Veterans Association.

Returning to civilian life, Mr. Harrison was honored by the citizens of his home county with two terms as Clerk of the District Court and then two terms in the Iowa Legislature. Retiring from public life, he moved to his farm but ill health, resulting from his wounds, forced him to retire and he came to Osceola. About four years ago he suffered a paralytic stroke, from which he never recovered.

Marion was the son of F. M. and Elizabeth Harrison. Most of his early life was spent on the farm, where he attended the rural school, after which he received training at Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa. Later he became a teacher in the rural schools of his home county. He was a member of the First Methodist Church of Osceola, serving in several official capacities.

He leaves to mourn his departure his wife, formerly Violet Cornell Worthington, two daughters, Frances Violet, and Florabelle Marion and Mother Cornell, who was most devoted to him during all the years of his confinement; also two sisters, Dr. B. Ethlyn Healey of Davenport, Iowa, B. Marguerite Harrison of Woodburn, Iowa, and one brother, E. M. Harrison of North Platte, Nebraska, and other relatives and friends.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-first General Assembly, That in the passing of the Honorable Francis
