

THOMAS J. FREY

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Thomas J. Frey, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Thomas J. Frey was born February 5, 1901 at Aplington, Iowa, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Frey. He attended school in Aplington and was graduated from the Waterloo Business College in 1919, the Schmeby School of Advertising in 1922 and the School of Journalism, University of Iowa Extension Department in 1943.

In 1941, Mr. Frey was married to Helen Clure of Greenfield. They had three sons, Tom, Robert and William, and one daughter, Patricia.

A World War II veteran, he was in the Navy from 1942 to 1945 and served overseas for nineteen months. He was past president of the Neola Swimming Pool Association; President of the Neola Civic Association; Commander of the Neola American Legion Post; Pottawattamie County Legion Commander and Seventh District Vice Commander. He was a member of the State Board of the American Cancer Society for ten years and an active member of the Iowa Newspaper Publishers Association. He was publisher of three newspapers, the Neola Gazette-Reporter, the Minden-Shelby News and the Earling Echo.

Tom Frey was elected to the Iowa House of Representatives from Pottawattamie County in 1950 and served during the Fifty-fourth, Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh General Assemblies. He was then elected to the Senate in 1966 and served during the Sixty-second and Sixty-third General Assemblies.

Mr. Frey passed away on July 12, 1973 at the age of 72. He is survived by his wife, Helen, and the three sons and one daughter; another daughter, Janice, by a previous marriage; two sisters and one brother; his step-mother; two stepbrothers; two stepsisters; and two grandchildren.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Sixty-fifth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Thomas J. Frey, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the Senate by this resolution would express its appreciation of his services to his community, state and nation and tender its sympathy and kindest regards to the members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the Senate, and that the Secretary of the Senate be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the Honorable Stanley L. Hart, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Stanley Lawrence Hart was born in Woodstock, Illinois, March 21, 1896, the son of Stark L. and Anna Johnson Hart. He attended public schools in Woodstock and the School of Commerce in Chicago. A veteran of World War I, he served with the American Expeditionary Forces in France and Germany and was a member of the American Legion, the Forty and Eight Club and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

On June 12, 1929, Mr. Hart was married to Kathryn Pyle in Los Angeles, California. They had one daughter and one son.

Mr. Hart was in business in Des Moines, Iowa until 1923 and in Los Angeles, California until 1932. He returned to Iowa and was the Kraft Foods distributor in Keokuk for many years and owner and operator of the Keokuk Barrel Company. He served on the board of directors of the Security State Bank and was an inheritance tax appraiser for twenty years.

Mr. Hart was a longtime member of the Salvation Army and of the Keokuk Rotary Club. He was an active member of St. John's Episcopal Church where he served as a vestryman, junior and senior warden, and delegate or alternate delegate to the Diocesan Convention for twenty-five years. He also served one term as vice president of the Diocesan Convention, two times as member of the Council, as a member of the Executive Council of Province Six of the Northwest District, delegate to the General Convention in Miami in 1968, and as trustee of the Seabury Western Seminary at Evanston, Illinois. He was an honorary trustee of Seabury at the time of his death.

A Republican, Stanley L. Hart was first elected to the Iowa Senate in 1937 to fill a vacancy. He was reelected in 1938, 1942, 1946 and 1950. He served as President pro tempore in the Fifty-first, Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth General Assemblies, and was a member of the Pioneer Lawmakers.

Mr. Hart died at the Graham Hospital in Keokuk, Iowa, November 20, 1973. He is survived by his wife, Kathryn; one daughter, Marilyn Hart Galanoy of Newport Beach, California; one son, Stanley Lawrence Hart II of Hamilton, Illinois; a brother, Elmer G. Hart of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and five grandchildren.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Sixty-fifth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of Stanley L. Hart, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the Senate by this resolution would express its appreciation of his services to his community, state and nation and tender its sympathy and kindest regards to the members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the Senate, and that the Secretary of the Senate be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.
