

farm credit organization. He was always interested in farming and farm problems. His farm in Cass County was rated highest in Iowa for hog production in 1934 and previously was third for many years. He was a member of the pioneer group in the Rotary Club at Omaha, where he resided for many years, of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce and a Republican.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-fourth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Dennis P. Hogan, the people, not only of Cass County, but of the entire State of Iowa, have sustained a great loss.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

Memorial to the Honorable Frank Hollingsworth of Boone County

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Frank Hollingsworth, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Frank Hollingsworth was born in Edgerton, Wisconsin, and came with his parents at an early age to Iowa, the family traveling in a covered wagon. They located on the prairie southwest of Perry where they encountered all the difficulties of the pioneer days. Mr. Hollingsworth attended school in Perry and following graduation, entered the University of Iowa. He was graduated from the Liberal Arts College and the College of Law, and was admitted to the Iowa bar in 1899.

In 1900, Mr. Hollingsworth came to Boone to begin a law practice which continued through a half century. He was united in marriage to Miss Kethern Esbenhade in Chicago on August 30, 1901, and they always made their home in Boone.

Mr. Hollingsworth was a member of many fraternal and civic organizations, a past president of the Boone Lions club, and had served as vice president of the Boone State Bank and Trust Company for thirty-two years. He served in the State Legislature in the Forty-second, Forty-third and Forty-fourth General Assemblies. He took a keen interest in local, state and national affairs, and traveled extensively to all parts of the globe. He passed away January 10, 1951, at the age of 77 years.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-fourth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Frank Hollingsworth, the state has lost a valuable and honored citizen and the House expresses its appreciation of his character and public service and tenders, by this resolution, its sincere and heartfelt sympathy to the surviving members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

Memorial to the Honorable Charles A. Hollis of Black Hawk County

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Charles A. Hollis, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Charles A. Hollis was born on February 3, 1867, on a farm southwest of Waterloo and his early life was spent in that locality. He was the son of Frank and Nellie Bly Hollis.

On November 27, 1888, he married Carrie Buck of Hudson and the young couple located northwest of Hudson. There they continued to live until 1906, when they moved to Cedar Falls.

Mr. Hollis was a member of the Fortieth, Forty-first, Forty-second, Forty-second Extra, Forty-third and Forty-fourth sessions of the General Assembly. During that time, he was intensely active in promoting the interests of the farmer. He was on the committee that drew up the first draft for what later became the law that was responsible for wiping out bovine tuberculosis from Iowa herds. He was a tireless and conscientious worker in the good roads movement in Iowa.

After retiring from active farming, Mr. Hollis traveled for three years in the interests of the Independent Telephone Association, and promoted the first independent copper toll line between Burlington and Des Moines.

Prior to his death, which occurred February 18, 1944, he was employed as district sales manager for the Funk Seed Company of Bloomington, Illinois.

In politics Mr. Hollis was a Republican.

Surviving, besides his wife, are a daughter, Mrs. Charles L. Hoffman of Waterloo, and a son, Frank R. Hollis of Hudson.

He was a member of the former Brethren Church of Hudson.
