

Surviving Mr. Held are his widow; two sons, Thomas of Hinton and Dr. Stanley Held of Buffalo, Minnesota; a daughter, Mrs. Katherine Shores of Columbus, Indiana, and seven grandchildren.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SIXTY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF IOWA: That in the passing of the Honorable George Edward Held, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

GORDON STOKES,
HAROLD NELSON,
ELMER DEN HERDER,

Committee.

JAMES W. HOWARD

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable James W. Howard, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

James W. Howard was born June 2, 1884, in Lincolnshire, England. He came to this country in 1888 at the age of four years. He attended the rural schools of Winneshek county and Breckenridge Institute in Decorah.

He was married to Elizabeth L. Sexton in the Decorah St. Benedict's Catholic church, June 27, 1911. Mr. and Mrs. Howard became the parents of seven children, all of whom survive. Mrs. Howard died in 1953. Mr. Howard was a life-time resident of the community since his coming to this country as a small boy with the exception of three years (1915-1918) spent in Postville, and two years (1925-27) in New Orleans.

Mr. Howard was first engaged in farming and later entered the men's clothing business in Cresco from 1911 to 1951.

He was a member of the Assumption church, the Cresco Knights of Columbus and the Holy Name society. He was president of the Chamber of Commerce, and a member of the county Boy Scout board.

Mr. Howard, a Democrat, served in the Iowa House of Representatives in the Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh sessions of the General Assembly as representative of Howard county. He died April 28, 1967.

Surviving Mr. Howard are his children, including Mrs. C. J. (Gladys) Flick of Minneapolis, Charles E. Howard of Florham Park, N. J., J. Robert Howard of Cresco, John W. Howard of Beaver Dam, Wis., Mrs. Paul C. (Betty) Grange of Waterloo, James T. Howard of Cedar Rapids, and Mrs. Robert (Joan) Murray of Cresco. There are 27 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SIXTY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF IOWA: That in the passing of the Honorable James W. Howard, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

FRED B. HANSON,
A. L. MENSING,
VINCENT B. STEFFEN,

Committee.

OLE H. JACOBSEN

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Ole H. Jacobsen, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Ole H. Jacobsen was born on December 4, 1866, in Denmark. He came to America with his parents in 1869. He received his education in schools of Audubon County and Atlantic, Iowa. He attended the Des Moines College at Des Moines, Iowa.

Mr. Jacobsen married Stella Huglin, daughter of J. M. and Sarah Huglin, December 17, 1891. To this union six children were born; Esther, Harold, Zela, Russell, Forest and Ruth.

Upon leaving College he located in Lincoln County, Nebraska, where he lived for 5 years engaged in selling windmills and implements.

In 1893 he returned to Audubon County where he was an extensive breeder and feeder of purebred shorthorn cattle. In 1908 he built the Crystal Springs Brick and Tile factory at Kimballton.

Ole H. Jacobsen was a member of the Baptist Church. He served as Superintendent of the Sunday School for 15 years; also as Deacon, Secretary and Clerk of the Congregation. He was a member of the Board of Township Trustees and was Township Assessor.
