

Surviving Mr. Howard are his children, including Mrs. C. J. (Gladys) Flick of Minneapolis, Charles E. Howard of Florham Park, N. J., J. Robert Howard of Cresco, John W. Howard of Beaver Dam, Wis., Mrs. Paul C. (Betty) Grange of Waterloo, James T. Howard of Cedar Rapids, and Mrs. Robert (Joan) Murray of Cresco. There are 27 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SIXTY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF IOWA: That in the passing of the Honorable James W. Howard, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

FRED B. HANSON,
A. L. MENSING,
VINCENT B. STEFFEN,

Committee.

OLE H. JACOBSEN

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Ole H. Jacobsen, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Ole H. Jacobsen was born on December 4, 1866, in Denmark. He came to America with his parents in 1869. He received his education in schools of Audubon County and Atlantic, Iowa. He attended the Des Moines College at Des Moines, Iowa.

Mr. Jacobsen married Stella Huglin, daughter of J. M. and Sarah Huglin, December 17, 1891. To this union six children were born; Esther, Harold, Zela, Russell, Forest and Ruth.

Upon leaving College he located in Lincoln County, Nebraska, where he lived for 5 years engaged in selling windmills and implements.

In 1893 he returned to Audubon County where he was an extensive breeder and feeder of purebred shorthorn cattle. In 1908 he built the Crystal Springs Brick and Tile factory at Kimballton.

Ole H. Jacobsen was a member of the Baptist Church. He served as Superintendent of the Sunday School for 15 years; also as Deacon, Secretary and Clerk of the Congregation. He was a member of the Board of Township Trustees and was Township Assessor.

Ole H. Jacobsen served in the House of Representatives during the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth sessions of the General Assembly. He was the author of the Act to abolish contract labor in the state.

Mr. Jacobsen spent the last several years at the Baptist Memorial Home in Harlan, Iowa. He passed away September 9, 1965.

Surviving Mr. Jacobsen are three children; Mrs. Esther Milage, Mrs. Ruth McGrew, both of California, and Russell Jacobsen of Lincoln, Nebraska. Also, a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SIXTY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF IOWA: That in the passing of the Honorable Ole H. Jacobsen, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

HARVEY JOHNSON,
ALFRED NIELSEN,
RAYMOND FISHER,

Committee.

JOSEPH HORACE JOHNSON

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Joseph Horace Johnson, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Joseph Horace Johnson was born July 26, 1878 on a farm in Marion County. He attended the public schools, and was graduated from Central College at Pella in 1902 and from the University of Chicago Law School in 1905.

On July 31, 1907 he married Pearl Eastburn, and to this union were born four sons. Mrs. Johnson passed away on August 28, 1966, and Mr. Johnson on September 21, 1966.

Mr. Johnson practiced law more than 60 years. He served 17 years as president of the Knoxville School Board, and was also a member of the Library Board. He was a member of the state and national council of the Y.M.C.A., and a member of the Masonic Lodge.