

Ancient Order United Workmen. He belonged to the Methodist church, in which he held the office of trustee. He was a well informed man, having been a wide miscellaneous reader, and keeping abreast of the times on current matters. He was public spirited and always took a deep interest in movements looking to the betterment of his township, county and state.

In the death of Mr. Dunkleberg, the state of Iowa has lost a loyal patriotic citizen, and a faithful and efficient servant.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That this memorial be spread on the House journal and an engrossed copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

HON. HENRY B. KLING

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee, appointed to prepare resolutions commemorative of the life, character and public service of the Honorable Henry B. Kling, late member of the House of Representatives in the Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth and Thirty-first General Assemblies, beg leave to report the following:

Henry B. Kling was born May 23, 1845, at Troy, Wisconsin. On April 11, 1872, he was married to Flora E. Allen. To them were born a daughter, Mrs. Bessie Nelson, and a son, Herbert A. Kling.

Mr. Kling came with his family to Iowa in 1878, settling at Woodbine, Harrison county, Iowa, where he became a power for good. During his long residence in Woodbine, he was identified with every movement which tended to augment the growth and prosperity of the town.

In politics he was a republican and as a representative, he was an untiring and conscientious worker.

He was a charter member of Woodbine Lodge of the I. O. O. F. and a consistent worker in the fraternity.

Whereas, The life and character of the deceased were such as to entitle his memory to the respect and esteem of all who knew him.

Therefore Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives take this occasion to express its appreciation of his character and public services, and at this time to extend to his family its sincere sympathy in their sorrow, and,

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the journal of the House, and that the chief clerk be directed to send an engrossed copy to the family of the deceased.

BRUCE R. MILLS,
JNO. M. RANKIN,
E. H. KNICKERBOCKER, Committee.

Adopted March 23, 1921.

HON. JOHN FRANKLIN GLOVER

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to prepare suitable resolutions commemorating the life and work of the Hon. John, Franklin Glover, late of Osceola county, Iowa, beg leave to submit the following memorial:

Honorable John Franklin Glover was born September 16, 1845, in Hartleton, Union county, Pa., the son of William and Eliza (Fisher) Glover. In 1846 his parents moved to Stephenson county, Ill., where they lived until their deaths. When but one year old Mr. Glover moved to Monroe, Wis., and he was living there when the Civil War broke out.

In 1864 he enlisted in Company D, Thirty-eighth Regiment, Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry, and was later transferred to Company F in the same regiment. He was promoted to second lieutenant. He served under General Grant in Virginia.

Mr. Glover had not completed his education when he enlisted. He had some schooling at Freeport, Ill., and Monroe, Wis., but at the close of the war he entered the university of Wisconsin and was graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1871 and Master of Arts in 1874. The same year he came to Osceola county and was elected clerk of courts. In 1878 he was admitted to the bar. A few years later he was elected to the state legislature and served in the 16th General Assembly. Later he was mayor of Sibley for three years and county attorney for two years.

The deceased was married to Mary Frances Upton, who died May 23, 1886, leaving one son, Lyn Fisher, who is now living in Sibley. In 1908 he was ordained to the ministry of the Congregational church and since that time has served as a supply minister in Iowa, Minnesota and Missouri. For many years he has served as pension attorney.

His wealth of knowledge has been the cause of wonder of all who had his acquaintance. History and political questions were his hobbies. He cited events and dates of ancient history as surely as he could point out the minute details of congressional bills. He followed the events of the late war so closely that he could give the minute details of every battle. Mr. Glover was a philanthropist with his knowledge. He gave of his services freely.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives take
