HONORABLE WILLIAM KOCH

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public services of the Honorable William Koch, a former member of the General Assembly of Iowa, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

William Koch was born October 17, 1886, on a farm near Tripoli, Iowa, the son of L. C. and Wilhelmina Duesing Koch, and he passed away at his home in Los Angeles, California, on April 7, 1941, and his funeral was held in St. Paul's Lutheran church, at Waverly, Iowa, with burial in Harlington Cemetery on Saturday, April 12, 1941.

Mr. Koch was the youngest of twelve children and attended the rural schools near his home and graduated from the commercial course at Wartburg College. After working as a teller in the Readlyn Savings Bank and in the general merchandising business at Readlyn and at Aredale, Iowa, he came to Waverly, Iowa, where he entered the grocery business and later became a partner in the Waverly Publishing Company and then a partner in the insurance and real estate business with F. W. Smith.

On November 5, 1908, he was united in marriage to Wilhelmina Diekman, which union was blessed with one son, Kenneth, who will graduate from the college of dentistry of the University of California. He is also survived by his widow, and three brothers, John C. of Tripoli, Fred C. of Waverly and Herman of Grand Junction, Colorado.

He has always been a staunch Democrat and represented Bremer county by serving as a member of the House of Representatives in the Forty-fourth, Forty-fifth and Forty-fifth Extraordinary sessions of the General Assembly of Iowa. No citizen of his community was held in higher regard. He was beloved by his friends and neighbors.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Forty-ninth General Assembly, That, in the passing of the Honorable William Koch, the state has lost a valued and honored citizen and the family a loving husband and father and the House would tender, by this Resolution, its sincere sympathy to the surviving widow and son in their sorrow; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to send an enrolled copy to the wife and son of the deceased.

J. F. GARDNER,
HENRY W. BURMA,
ARCH W. MCFARLANE,

Committee.

Unanimously adopted, April 10, 1941.

HONORABLE FRANK S. LOVRIEN

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee appointed to prepare resolutions commemorating the life, character, and public service of the Honorable Frank S. Lovrien, Humboldt, Humboldt county, Iowa, beg leave to submit the following report:

Frank S. Lovrien was born August 27, 1882, near Bradgate, Iowa. His death occurred at the Clarkson Memorial Hospital in Omaha, Nebraska, July 9, 1939.

As a boy he attended the Humboldt county schools, then Humboldt College, Des Moines College, and Drake University Law School. He was prominent in high school athletics, particularly football, and was captain of Drake's football team in 1905, a team of considerable prominence at that time.

Mr. Lovrien began the practice of law in Humboldt, Iowa, in February of 1908. That May he was married to Miss Caroline Connor of Humboldt. Three children were born to this marriage: Clark Edward Lovrien, Britt, Iowa, now county attorney of Hancock; Philip Connor Lovrien, Humboldt, county attorney of Humboldt; and Harriet Ann Lovrien, Des Moines, Iowa. Mrs. Lovrien died in 1930.

Mr. Lovrien was a member of the Congregational church. He served many years as City Attorney of Humboldt; was active in local banking; a member of the Masons, Eastern Star, Shrine, and the Elks. He also served on the Humboldt School Board.

In 1932 he married Mrs. Harriet Byers Randall of Des Moines, Iowa. They had one child, Jeanne Carolyn Lovrien, and one step-daughter, Virginia Randall.

Mr. Lovrien is survived by Mrs. Lovrien, five children; and brothers, Ned R. Lovrien of Omaha; A. K. Lovrien of Detroit; Orvis Lovrien of Humboldt; and Judge Fred Lovrien of Spencer; two sisters, Miss Genorie Lovrien of Chicago, and Mrs. E. H. Bennett of Ames, Iowa.

Mr. Lovrien was one of Humboldt county's most substantial citizens and always took a prominent part in civic affairs. He was elected and served in the House of Representatives in the Forty-seventh General Assembly of the State of Iowa, and during his service there was one of the active, progressive members. He was a Republican in politics but a man who placed principle above all else. His word was as good as his bond, and he took pride in meeting his obligations promptly and was always willing to share his part of the burden in the performance of any public duty. He served not only his community but the state of Iowa with credit and distinction.
