

wrote much for his two sons' papers at Humboldt, Iowa, and Warrensburg, Missouri.

Mr. Jaqua was a man of progressive ideas, always interested in the welfare of his state and county. Among legislative matters, during the later years of his life, he was much interested in, and advocated the use of Torren's Land Title System.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives take this occasion to present this tribute to the memory of a faithful public servant, and to express appreciation of his character and public service, and at the same time extend to relatives most sincere sympathy.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the journal of the House, and that the chief clerk be directed to send copies thereof to the relatives.

HON. CHARLES F. LINNAN

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to prepare resolutions commemorating the life, character and public service of the Hon. Charles F. Linnan of Pocahontas county, member of the House of Representatives in the Thirty-fourth General Assembly, beg leave to submit the following memorial:

Charles F. Linnan was born at Churchville, Warren county, Iowa, May 17, 1867, and died at his home in Fonda, Iowa, May 31, 1919.

His education was obtained in the schools of Warren county and at Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa, also a business course at the Capital City Commercial College at Des Moines, Iowa.

After fitting himself for life's activities he engaged in the mercantile business at Fonda, Iowa, also engaged in real estate and in large drainage contracts in various counties of Northwestern Iowa, and was at the time of his death owner of a large amount of town property in Fonda, Iowa, also of thirteen hundred sixty acres of valuable Iowa land.

In a charitable way Mr. Linman was surpassed by very few, if any. The poor were never lacking in food or clothing if known to him. Many unfortunates of the liquor habit were helped by him to a cure in some institute for their betterment.

Whereas, in view of the loss the state has suffered by the decease of the Honorable Charles F. Linnan of Fonda, Iowa, and the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That in the death of the Hon. Charles

F. Linnan the state laments the passing of a valuable and honored citizen who was ever ready to proffer the hand of aid, to give voice in the counsels of his fellows, and to offer sympathy to the needy. That in the long and active residence in Pocahontas county, being identified with its educational, commercial and political activities, he enjoyed a large acquaintanceship through county and state which he deeply appreciated and profoundly respected.

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting his removal we mourn for one who was worthy of our respect and regard.

Resolved, That we sincerely condone with the family of the deceased on the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best and Whose chastisements are meant in mercy.

Resolved, That this testimonial of sympathy and respect of the state and of the sorrow of the home city, be forwarded to the family of our departed friend by the chief clerk of the House of Representatives.

C. L. GUNDERSON,
T. E. MOEN,
G. A. JUSTICE,

HON. JOHN SHAMBAUGH

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to prepare resolutions and befitting memorial on the life, character and public services of the Honorable John Shambaugh, a member of the 27th and 28th General Assemblies, beg leave to report as follows:

John Shambaugh was born in New Rumley, Ohio, October 13, 1848. He attended the public schools of that place, where he grew to manhood. His occupation was farming and stock raising, and it was there that he formed habits of industry and frugality which contributed to his eminent success and achievement, and gave him the reputation of being one of the foremost and most progressive farmers of Iowa. He emigrated to Iowa in 1873, where he came into possession of a quarter section of the best land in Madison county. He was married to Miss Ellen Evans in 1879.

There was added to his small farm acre upon acre until his possessions extended to Dallas county. Long before his death, he had one of the largest and best equipped farms in Madison county. An imposing and spacious mansion was erected and comfortable sheds and barns were built. It was a model home in every respect, where entertainment was furnished and lavish hospitality dispensed to his friends, and especially to such as were engaged in the same occupation as himself.
