

the Republican national convention in Cleveland which nominated Calvin Coolidge for president in 1924; noted for his interest in raising Brown Swiss dairy cattle, and was president of the Iowa State Dairy Association from 1929 to 1937; belonged to the Chamber of Commerce and the Order of the Elks; left Fort Dodge about 1953 to make his home in Clermont; had never married, being survived by a sister, Miss Anna Larrabee of Clermont.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Fifty-ninth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Frederic Larrabee the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant and the Senate, by this resolution, would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the Senate and that the Secretary be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

C. JOSEPH COLEMAN,
GUY G. BUTLER,
HARRY L. COWDEN,
Committee.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

---

JUNIOUS GUY LUCAS

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Junious Guy Lucas, begs leave to submit the following:

Junious Guy Lucas was born in Boone, Iowa, January 8, 1879. He received his early education in the public schools of Madrid.

He was united in marriage to Miss Maude Halsey of Madrid. To them were born four children.

Mr. Lucas was employed as a reporter on several papers, and in 1904 became editor and publisher of the Madrid Register-News. A few years later he established the Western Printing & Lithographing Company, operating this company in the same building with the newspaper. The company operates over Iowa and adjoining states, serving banks and creameries only. The business is operated as a family institution, with a son and a son-in-law in active management.

Mr. Lucas was a past president of Iowa Press Association, and was honored with a Master-Editor plaque. He was a member of the Congregational Church and a Past Master of the Masonic Lodge.

Mr. Lucas served several terms as Chairman of the Boone County Republican Central Committee, and on other party organization activities. He was a member of the Madrid board of education 12 years, and was a charter member of the Lions Club of Madrid.

Mr. Lucas was elected to the Senate in 1944 and again in 1952.

On January 31, 1960, Mr. Lucas passed away in Iowa Methodist Hospital in Des Moines, Iowa.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Fifty-ninth General Assembly: That in the passing of Junious Guy Lucas the State of Iowa has lost a valuable and honorable citizen and by this resolution tenders its sincere sympathy to the surviving members of the family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread on the Journal of the Senate, and that the Secretary of the Senate be directed to forward an enrolled copy to each member of the family of the deceased.

CLIFFORD NYSTROM,
JOSEPH C. COLEMAN,
JOHN A. WALKER,

Committee.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

---

ARCH W. MCFARLANE

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Arch W. McFarlane, begs leave to submit the following:

Arch W. McFarlane was born in Waterloo, Iowa, April 14, 1885, the son of William W. and Emma J. Moss McFarlane. He married Elsie Hawkins, April 6, 1908, in Clinton, Iowa.

He began his legislative career in 1914 when he was elected to the Iowa House of Representatives. He was re-elected in 1916, 1918 and 1920. In 1926 he was elected to the Iowa Senate and in 1928 and 1930 was lieutenant governor of Iowa.

He was again elected to the House of Representatives in 1932, and was re-elected in 1934, 1938, 1940, 1942, 1944, 1946, 1950 and 1952. In 1954 he was elected to the Iowa Senate, the first man to represent the new senatorial district composed of Black Hawk County alone. The district had previously included Grundy County.

Mr. McFarlane was the only Iowan ever to preside over the Senate as lieutenant governor and be sworn in as a returning House member on the same day. He was twice Speaker of the House, and often cited his battle in 1917 to save the infant Iowa Highway Commission as the incident which gave him his greatest satisfaction.

Mr. McFarlane was president of the Waterloo Baseball Association, a member of Waterloo Lodge No. 105, A. F. & A. M., a past patron of the Eastern Star, a member of El Kahir Temple, Cedar Rapids, Sunnyside Country Club, B. P. O. Elks 290, the Knights of Pythias and Loyal Order of Moose. He was a member of United Commercial Travelers for 53 years and was supreme (international) counselor in 1931. In 1958 he was presented with U. C. T.'s first "Most Valuable Member" plaque.

Mr. McFarlane was the first member of the Pioneer Lawmakers invited to join while still a member of the legislature. He was a past president of the organization, which in 1956 presented his portrait to the Iowa Historical Society. It hangs in the gallery of distinguished Iowans in the Iowa Historical Building in Des Moines.

A year ago, Arch McFarlane State Park, east of La Porte City, was dedi-