

lature on the Democratic ticket. He served one term in the Forty-fourth General Assembly. His health did not permit him to seek a second term.

Mr. Kohler was a man of integrity, a true Christian gentleman and a good American. His kindly, genial disposition endeared him to a large circle of neighbors and friends. He was a man of high ideals, a lover of nature and of the beautiful.

Henry Kohler passed away on Sunday, December 26, 1954, at Long Beach, California, and is buried at Rose Hill Cemetery, Whittier, California. His widow, four children, a stepson, ninegrandchildren and one great-grandson survive him.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-sixth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Henry E. Kohler, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful, useful public servant, and the House, by this resolution, would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to his wife and the members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

MAE A. LYNCH

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Mae A. Lynch, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Mae A. Lynch was born in Ashton, Iowa, September 19, 1883, the daughter of Helen and Peter Fritz. She was reared in that vicinity, and following her graduation from Iowa State Teachers College at Cedar Falls she came to Pocahontas where she served as principal of the junior high school.

In September, 1912, she was united in marriage with the late Thomas F. Lynch, a local attorney. Following his death in March, 1928, she studied law at the University of Iowa and was admitted to the Bar in 1932.

She was elected State Representative from Pocahontas County in November, 1942, and served in the Fiftieth, Fiftieth Extra and Fifty-first General Assemblies. She was the only woman ever elected from Pocahontas County to serve in the Iowa Legislature.

She was a member of the Phoenix Club and Sacred Heart Society and took an active part in community affairs.

Mrs. Lynch endured a long illness of three and one-half years, and passed away on June 3, 1953.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Kathryn Mabon, Mrs. Agnes Fitzgerald, a niece, Mrs. Constance Douglas, all of Minneapolis, Minnesota, and a nephew, Richard Shearer.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-sixth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Mae A. Lynch, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful, useful public servant, and the House, by this resolution, would express its appreciation of her service, and tender its sympathy to her sisters and the members of her family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

EARL L. CHAMBERS,
WENDELL PENDLETON,
EDWARD OPPEDAHL,
Committee.

MILO A. MANNING

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Milo A. Manning, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Milo A. Manning was born at Lanark, Carroll County, Illinois, October 16, 1860. He passed away at Ames, Iowa, April 5, 1953.

His education was received in the public schools and business college at Aledo, Illinois. He learned telegraphy at Clarence, Iowa, and became an agent for the Chicago & Northwestern Railway, ultimately becoming train dispatcher at Eagle Grove and Boone, Iowa. He held a similar position at Rawlins, Wyoming, for the Union Pacific Railway. He went into the mercantile business in 1888 at Crawford, Nebraska, and later at Sheldon, Iowa.

In 1930, Mr. Manning moved to Ames, organized the Ames Savings Bank and served as its cashier until 1912, when he sold his interest in that bank and organized the Commercial Savings Bank, being its president for a number of years.

Mr. Manning was a Republican member of the Thirty-fifth General Assembly. He was city treasurer at Ames, Iowa, for eight years and later assessor there. He was a member of the Masonic bodies.

Mr. Manning was married to Clara West in Ames, April 6, 1887. He is survived by two sons, Truman of Ames, and Merrill of Bayside, Long Island, New York, and a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Paustain of Ames. Six grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren also survive him.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-sixth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Milo A. Manning, the state has lost an honored citizen, a hospitable
