

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Kathryn Mabon, Mrs. Agnes Fitzgerald, a niece, Mrs. Constance Douglas, all of Minneapolis, Minnesota, and a nephew, Richard Shearer.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-sixth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Mae A. Lynch, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful, useful public servant, and the House, by this resolution, would express its appreciation of her service, and tender its sympathy to her sisters and the members of her family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

EARL L. CHAMBERS,
WENDELL PENDLETON,
EDWARD OPPEDAHL,
Committee.

MILO A. MANNING

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Milo A. Manning, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Milo A. Manning was born at Lanark, Carroll County, Illinois, October 16, 1860. He passed away at Ames, Iowa, April 5, 1953.

His education was received in the public schools and business college at Aledo, Illinois. He learned telegraphy at Clarence, Iowa, and became an agent for the Chicago & Northwestern Railway, ultimately becoming train dispatcher at Eagle Grove and Boone, Iowa. He held a similar position at Rawlins, Wyoming, for the Union Pacific Railway. He went into the mercantile business in 1888 at Crawford, Nebraska, and later at Sheldon, Iowa.

In 1930, Mr. Manning moved to Ames, organized the Ames Savings Bank and served as its cashier until 1912, when he sold his interest in that bank and organized the Commercial Savings Bank, being its president for a number of years.

Mr. Manning was a Republican member of the Thirty-fifth General Assembly. He was city treasurer at Ames, Iowa, for eight years and later assessor there. He was a member of the Masonic bodies.

Mr. Manning was married to Clara West in Ames, April 6, 1887. He is survived by two sons, Truman of Ames, and Merrill of Bayside, Long Island, New York, and a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Paustain of Ames. Six grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren also survive him.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-sixth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Milo A. Manning, the state has lost an honored citizen, a hospitable friend, an able businessman, and a faithful, useful public servant, and the House, by this resolution, would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

CARL H. RINGGENBERG,
ROBERT W. NADEN,
CHESTER A. SCHEERER,
Committee.

J. F. MILLER

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable J. F. Miller, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

J. F. Miller, son of Heije and Yaapte DeBoor Miller, was born in Chatsworth, Illinois, on August 5, 1886, and passed away on June 19, 1953.

He came with his family to Franklin County where he grew to manhood, being educated in the Franklin County schools. He attended Valparaiso University, State Teachers College at Cedar Falls, specializing in manual training, which he later taught at the old Humboldt College. Mr. Miller married Miss Gayle Tilton of Humboldt on July 4, 1913, and two children were born of this marriage, a son, Wayne, and a daughter, Arlene.

He was a Rotarian; a director of the First National Bank at Humboldt for many years; vice president of the Preferred Risk Insurance Company of Des Moines; was for years a member of the board of education of the Humboldt public school; was a member of the General Assembly in the Forty-eighth, Forty-ninth, Fiftieth, Fiftieth Extra, Fifty-first, Fifty-second, and Fifty-second Extra sessions.

He was for many years an active worker in various areas of service in the Methodist Church in Humboldt, as steward, trustee, Sunday School teacher, and Sunday School superintendent twenty years, and was always an active supporter of its program and services.

He is survived by his wife, Gayle, a son, Wayne, and a daughter-in-law, Helen; his daughter, Arlene and son-in-law, Roland Meyer; four grandchildren, Judith and Christine Miller, and David and Mary Gayle Meyer; three brothers, Chris of Clarion, Henry of Latimer, and John of Valley City, North Dakota; and one sister, Mrs. John Rolfsema of Des Moines.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-sixth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable J. F. Miller, the people of Humboldt County and of the entire State of Iowa have sustained a great loss, and the House expresses its apprecia-