

Mr. Husted was always interested and active in the Methodist Church and served on the church board for over thirty years. He was often called upon to fill the pulpit for pastors of his county and had given Sunday school talks in almost every church in Madison County.

He is survived by his wife, Etna, three children, four grandchildren, four great grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Belle Brown of Winterset, Iowa.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Fifty-sixth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Ora E. Husted, the people of Madison County and the entire State of Iowa have sustained a great loss and the Senate expresses its appreciation of his character and public service and tenders, by this resolution, its sincere and heartfelt sympathy to his beloved family in their great sorrow and loss.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread on the Journal of the Senate, and that the Secretary of the Senate be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the members of the family of the deceased.

LORIN B. SAYRE,
JOHN D. SHOEMAN,
GEORGE E. O'MALLEY,
Committee.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

ANTHONY MILROY McCOLL

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable memorial commemorating the life and public service of the late Honorable Anthony Milroy McColl, begs leave to submit the following report:

Anthony Milroy McColl, public official, legislator and lumber and grain dealer, died at his home in Woodward, Iowa, on September 14, 1952.

He was born at Caledonia, New York, May 19, 1858; the American born parents, Hugh D. and Jane McColl, with their twin sons, Anthony and Donald, came to Dallas County, Iowa, in 1876, located on a farm near Woodward, and engaged at that place in the lumber and grain business. On October 3, 1903 he was married to Bess C. Craft at Woodward.

Elected in 1890, he served three terms as clerk of the Dallas County district court. He served one term in the Iowa Senate and in 1913 re-elected to that position, sitting as a member in the session that year, but resigned in June to accept appointment as a member of the State Board of Control, serving in that capacity by reappointment for 17 years, being its chairman several times.

Mr. McColl was instrumental in securing the location of the Woodward State Hospital and School at that place and active in all civic and municipal affairs, together with political movements in the county and state; served as a delegate from his county to every Republican state convention for a period of 72 years. He was a member of all branches of the Masonic order, the Elks, the Lions Club, and a local park and recreation center at Woodward was named McColl Park in his honor.

Mr. McColl is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Jean M. Milroy of Washington, D. C., who has died since his death.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Fifty-sixth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Anthony Milroy McColl, the state has lost an able and honored citizen and the Senate tenders, by this resolution, its sincere sympathy to the surviving members of his family in their sorrow.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread on the Journal of the Senate, and that the Secretary of the Senate be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the members of the family of the deceased.

G. E. WHITEHEAD,
ALAN VEST,
GUY LUCAS,

Committee.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

JACOB FREDERICK MILLER

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life and public service of the late Honorable J. F. Miller, submits the following report:

Jacob Frederick Miller was born at Chatsworth, Illinois, August 5, 1887, and died June 19, 1953. When nine years old his parents moved on a farm in Franklin County, Iowa, where he grew to manhood and was educated in the Franklin county schools. He taught school, specializing in manual training at Valparaiso University, and also attended Iowa State Teachers College. He became manager of the Farmers' Cooperative Association at Latimer, Iowa, in February, 1913. In 1919 he purchased a grain and feed business in Humboldt. He was married June 4, 1913, to Miss Gayle Tilton of Humboldt. To this union were born two children, a son, Wayne, and a daughter, Arlene. He was a member of the Methodist Church. He was very active in church and school work, serving fifteen years as a member of the Humboldt board of education. He was also a member of the Rotary Club.

Mr. Miller was elected to, and served in the Iowa House of Representatives during the Forty-eighth, Forty-ninth, Fiftieth, Fiftieth Extra, and the Fifty-first General Assemblies, and served the Fiftieth district in the Senate during the Fifty-second session.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Fifty-sixth General Assembly: That in the passing of the Honorable J. F. Miller, the state has lost one who has always been very active in public affairs and kept interested and well informed on political matters, and the Senate tenders by
