

Be It Resolved, That the Senate has heard with deep sorrow and regret of his death and that it recognizes the high character of his service to his state and in his death the state has lost a worthy and noble citizen, and,

Be It Resolved, further, that these resolutions be spread upon the journal, that an engrossed copy of the same be sent to the family of the deceased.

W. A. CALDWELL,
T. C. CESSNA,
JNO. R. PRICE,

The resolution was adopted unanimously by a rising vote.

In moving the adoption of the resolution Senator Caldwell spoke as follows:

Judge McCoy was a man who took deep interest in every movement for the advancement of the community in which he lived and his assistance was rendered in every cause that promoted good citizenship. His interest in public affairs was helpful, and in the community in which he lived for so many years, his memory is held in deep regard by the multitude of friends who knew him and appreciated his worth as a man, soldier, legislator, lawyer and public-spirited citizen.

T. W. BENNETT

Senator Tuck, from a special committee, offered the following report and moved its adoption:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your committee appointed to draft resolutions commemorative of the life, character and services of Doctor T. W. Bennett, beg leave to submit the following report:

Doctor T. W. Bennett, a member of the Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth General Assemblies, 1909-1911, died in Long Beach, California, February 2, 1920, age sixty-seven, the funeral services taking place on Thursday, February 7th, in Lenox, Iowa, in which place he practiced medicine for thirty-five years.

Doctor T. W. Bennett was born December 1, 1852, near the town of Crawfordsville, Washington county, Iowa; was educated at the university of Iowa, where he studied medicine. Also at the Rush medical college, Chicago. While a resident of Lenox, Iowa, he was president of the First National Bank and was prominent in civic activities. He served in two sessions in the Iowa state legislature. Dr. Bennett was a Mason, Knight Templar, and Shriner. He also was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church of which he was an active member.

Besides a widow, Mrs. Emma Bennett, the decedent is survived by a son, Floyd, who resides in Long Beach, Cal.
