

of Cass and Shelby counties, in the Forty-sixth General Assembly. He brought to the Senate the policies that had made him successful in private life; he commanded the respect of the other members of the body, and of his constituents, insisting that the high ideals and honesty of purpose that had made his private life a success should govern his actions in the services of the state. In 1936 he was appointed postmaster at Atlantic. He personally delivered letters from men overseas to relatives as soon as they were received at the office, whether at night or on holidays, and throughout his lifetime he was active in community and charitable enterprises. He was a member of the Atlantic B.P.O.E. Lodge, and the National Association of Postmasters. He is survived by his widow and two sons, Claude and Cecil, who operate the seed company which was founded by their father.

Therefore Be It Further Resolved by the Senate of the Fifty-first General Assembly of Iowa, That in the passing of Senator Malone, the state mourns the loss of a valuable and honored citizen; a man who devoted many years of his life to public service, and the Senate of Iowa by this resolution extends to the family its deepest sympathy.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this memorial resolution be printed in the Journal of the Senate and that the Secretary be directed to send enrolled copies to the members of the family of the deceased.

MORRIS MOORE

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee, appointed to prepare suitable resolutions commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Morris Moore, begs leave to submit the following:

Morris Moore was born in Washington county, Iowa, September 11, 1874, his father being a practicing physician, who moved with his family to Harlan, Iowa, in 1878. Senator Moore attended the public schools of Harlan and took his professional work in medicine at the John A. Creighton Medical College in Omaha, Nebraska, graduating in 1901. In 1902 he located at Walnut, Iowa, for the purpose of practicing his profession in that locality, and remained a resident of that town until his death.

In 1905 Doctor Moore was united in marriage with Cora F. Backus, who survives him. Two daughters also survive. They are Mrs. T. R. Osborne, Jr., of Des Moines, and Mrs. William Goodyear of Walnut, Iowa.

The life story of Senator Moore is the story of a typical Iowa doctor in a small community. He practiced his profession of medicine and surgery in the locality of his residence for over forty years, reflecting credit upon himself and the noble profession he followed. His professional ethics were never questioned, and as a neighbor and member of the community his presence, his counsel and cooperation were always welcome to those people with whom he lived.

Senator Moore was elected to the State Senate in 1932 and re-elected in 1936, serving two full terms in this chamber. He brought to the Senate the sturdy qualities and fine balance that made him a successful professional man. He prized his membership in this body, and his dignity and fairness commanded the respect of his colleagues and the people he represented. Senator Moore passed out of this life at Council Bluffs, Iowa, on October 16, 1944.

His loyalty to our country, his fidelity to duty, and his faithfulness in every public and private trust was an inspiration to all with whom he came in contact.

Therefore Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Fifty-first General Assembly of Iowa, in Regular Session, That in the death of Senator Morris Moore the state mourns the loss of an honored citizen, a good public servant and a splendid professional man, the loss resulting therefrom being one that will be felt far into the future.

Be It Further Resolved, That the Senate of the State of Iowa takes this means of extending sympathies and condolences to the widow and the daughters and their respective families, for the loss they have suffered and the grief that has been theirs.

Be It Further Resolved, That this memorial resolution be printed in the Journal of the Senate and that the Secretary of the Senate be directed to send copies of the same to the widow and daughters of the deceased.

DE VERE WATSON,
CARL O. SJULIN,
ED. S. WHITE,
O. N. HULTMAN,
H. SAM LOVE,

Committee.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

BYRON W. NEWBERRY

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee, appointed to prepare suitable resolutions commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Byron W. Newberry of Clayton county, begs leave to report as follows:

Byron W. Newberry was born in Lorain county, Ohio, on September 1, 1853, being the first born son of James Newberry and Maria Westfall Newberry. With his parents he joined the westward migration of that period and in the spring of 1855 the family settled on the virgin prairie land in Cass township a few miles southeast of the town of Strawberry Point in Clayton county, Iowa. That farm, known as their homestead, remains in the Newberry family to the present day.

Mr. Newberry lived a long, vigorous and useful life in Clayton county and died at the age of 91 years, on March 17, 1944, at his home in Straw-
