Committee

CONRAD OSSIAN

Mr. Speaker: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Conrad Ossian, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Conrad Ossian was born in Stanton, Iowa, March 27, 1900, the son of Emma C. and Albert G. Ossian.

He attended grade and high school at Stanton, Iowa and completed a business course at the Business College of Wahoo, Nebraska.

Mr. Ossian married Mabel F. Swanson on November 15, 1922, who preceded him in death on April 10, 1959. To this union two children were born, Donald E. and Crystal.

He was a life time member of the Mamerlund Lutheran Church of Stanton, Iowa, and was secretary for the building committee. He served for two terms as supervisor of Montgomery County, was past member and president of the Red Oak school board, member of the Rotary, Farm Bureau, Masons and Izaak Walton League. He was an ardent sportsman. He also owned and operated the Stanton Grocery and Produce for nineteen years and was a farm owner and operator.

Mr. Ossian, a Republican, was a member of the Fifty-seventh, Fifty-eighth, Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth, Sixtieth Extra, Sixty-first, Sixty-second and Sixty-third General Assemblies, representing Adams and Montgomery Counties. He led the fight on the floor of the House of Representatives to have the gold leaf placed on the dome of the capitol. One of his real interests was in associating with the members of the House and Senate.

Mr. Ossian passed away on June 6, 1976 and is survived by his son, Donald; daughter, Crystal; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Sixty-seventh General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the late Honorable Conrad Ossian, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of the family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

Committee

RICHARD M. RADL

Mr. Speaker: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Richard M. Radl, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Richard M. Radl was born in Chicago, Illinois, August 27, 1911. He married Helen Bartlett. To this union was born a daughter and four sons.

Mr. Radl was owner and operator of the Illini Molded Plastics Company in Lisbon, Iowa. He has been active in the Cedar Rapids chapter of the American Society of Tool and Manufacturing Engineers, YMCA Toastmasters Club in Cedar Rapids, Waubeek Council of Boy Scouts of America and the Cedar Rapids Symphony Orchestra.

Mr. Radl, a Democrat was a member of the Sixty-first, Sixty-second, Sixty-third and Sixty-fourth General Assemblies, representing Linn County. He served on the House Judiciary, Iowa Development, Appropriations, and Environmental Control Committees. He also was a member of the Budget and Financial Control Committee.

In his terms, he established himself as an independent thinker and a frequent critic of professional educators and what he described as waste and mismanagement in Iowa's educational system.

Mr. Radl passed away on February 24, 1977, in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, survived by his wife, Helen, children and eight grandchildren.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Sixty-seventh General Assembly of Iowa; That in the passing of the late Honorable Richard M. Radl, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.
