

Forty-first General Assemblies. Mr. Rees died at his home in Hamburg, Iowa, on March 1, 1929.

Mr. Rees was a man of honor and stood high in the confidence and esteem of his associates. He was kind, considerate and generous and served well in every capacity in which he was engaged. In public or private life, Mr. Rees was a man of pronounced convictions, candid and outspoken, and there was never room for doubt as to his stand on any public question; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of Hon. Sylvester Calvin Rees, the State has lost a worthy and influential citizen, and that we extend to his relatives and friends our sincere sympathy; and be it further

Resolved, That this resolution of respect and appreciation be printed in the journal of the Senate and that the Secretary be directed to forward an engrossed copy to the family of the deceased.

DENVER L. WILSON,
OSCAR ULSTAD,
F. C. GILCHRIST,

Committee.

Senator Wilson spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT AND SENATORS: I am glad to say a word by way of commemorating the life and public work of Senator Rees. He was a product of Iowa, born within the borders of this state, in 1849 and died at his home March 1, 1929. He was a success in business and in his legislative service. He was a man of pronounced convictions, backed up with sound judgment. His work as a legislator was a credit to his district and the state, and in his going this state has lost a valuable citizen.

The resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

---

GEORGE FRANKLIN COBURN

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee which was appointed to prepare resolutions commemorating the life, character, and services of the late George Franklin Coburn of Marcus, Iowa, beg leave to submit the following:

George Franklin Coburn was born at Belvidere, Illinois, on the twelfth day of May, 1856. At the age of twenty-one years he moved to Iowa and located upon a farm near Marcus. Later in the same year Mr. Coburn married Mary Ann Pettengill. To this union were born five children.

He was the proud owner of a stretch of prairie which was transformed largely by his own personal labor into one of the best farms in Iowa. Upon this same farm Mr. Coburn passed away on the seventeenth day of March, 1929. From this farm home the funeral party proceeded on the twenty-first day of March to the Mount Pleasant Presbyterian Church. Inside accommodations were available to less than one-half of the crowd of friends who had gathered. Interment was made in the little cemetery near the church. Mr. Coburn was one of the founders of this cemetery in earlier years.