

first General Assembly, That in the passing of the Honorable Charles Rhinehart, the State has lost a valued and honored citizen and the family a loving husband and father, and the House would tender, by this resolution, its sincere sympathy to the surviving members of his family in their sorrow; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be instructed to send an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

G. E. WHITEHEAD,
S. G. HOENESS,
R. E. DUFFIELD,

Committee.

Unanimously adopted,

CHARLES B. SANTEE

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the Honorable Charles B. Santee, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Charles B. Santee was born in Butler county, Iowa, on November 6, 1864, the son of Joseph L. and Jane Nixon Santee, and died at Cedar Falls, Iowa, on July 19, 1943, where he had resided for the past 53 years.

Mr. Santee was an active member of the Republican party and was a prominent figure in Black Hawk county, having served as County Recorder, and also as State Representative during the 37th, 38th and 39th General Assemblies. He later was postmaster in Cedar Falls for twelve years, and during the past forty years he has been active as a real estate agent in that city. The citizens of Black Hawk County are indebted to Mr. Santee for his profound interest in highway improvements and especially for the building of Rainbow Drive between the cities of Waterloo and Cedar Falls, which was one of the first paved highways in the State.

He was united in marriage on April 5, 1899, to Lulu Probert of Shell Rock, Iowa, who with five children, Leslie, Paul and Margaret of Cedar Falls, Mrs. Harriet Bock, Madison, Wisconsin, and Donald Santee, Kansas City, Missouri, and several grandchildren mourn the death of their beloved husband and father.

Mr. Santee was a member of the local Masonic Order and also of the First Methodist Church. Funeral services were conducted on Wednesday, July 21, 1943, at the Dahl Funeral Home.

The life and character of Mr. Santee and his exemplary service, call for such as to place his memory among those highly respected and esteemed in our State.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-first General Assembly, That we express our appreciation of his true worth and extend our deepest sympathy to his surviving wife and children.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and an enrolled copy be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

FLOYD P. DAVIS,
WILLIAM KRUSE,

Committee.

Unanimously adopted,

CHARLES E. SCHOLZ

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the Honorable Charles E. Scholz, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Charles E. Scholz was born at Guttenberg, in Clayton county, Iowa, February 10, 1874. His father was born in Germany and his mother in Iowa. He attended the high school at Guttenberg and later took a special course under a private teacher. In 1900 he entered the Law School of the University of Iowa, from which he graduated in 1902. After his graduation from the University, he formed a partnership for the practice of law with E. W. Weeks of Guthrie Center, Iowa. In August, 1903, he located at Guttenberg, Iowa, and practiced law in that city until his retirement. He was city attorney for the town of Guttenberg for several years and served as county attorney for four years. He was president of the Clayton County State Bank from 1910 to 1930. He was very instrumental in the organization of this bank. In 1921 he formed a partnership with G. W. Hunt, which was maintained for three years, when Mr. Scholz retired from practice. Mr. Scholz was a careful and successful practitioner and had a particularly large probate practice. He was married in 1896. In 1912 he was elected Representative from Clayton county and served in the Thirty-fifth General Assembly. He was a conscientious and capable legislator, being particularly interested in laws pertaining to better public schools.

For several years he spent his winters in Florida and California, finally making his home in California until a year and a half before his death, when he returned to his native town.

He died on January 25, 1944, being survived by his wife, Millie Scholz.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-first General Assembly, That in the passing of the Honorable Charles E. Scholz, the State has lost a valued and honored citizen, and the wife a loving and thoughtful husband and the House would tender, by this resolution, its sincere sympathy to the surviving members of his family in their sorrow; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be instructed to send an enrolled copy to the widow of the deceased.

ERNEST T. SMITH,
C. M. LANGLAND,
C. A. PALMER,
