Adopted.

Senator De Armand moved the adoption of resolutions and said:

When a man devotes the best years of his life to the services of his city and his State he comes pretty near being a humanitarian. When he leaves behind him when his earthly pilgrimage is at an end as monuments of his life, the gratitude of a devoted people, he leaves that which will last longer than monuments of stone and tablets of brass. William O. Schmidt devoted the too few years of his life to the welfare of the people and the city of his birth and all his energies were bent to make people happy by making them independent and proud of the heritage of freedom and the opportunity to add to the happiness of others. He builded business blocks to give substantial growth to the city of his home and to the associations having for their purpose the growth of the city he gave of his time and money without stint. He was foremost in works of charity and in his social circle he was a prince. In his profession he was an honor and in his private life he contributed to the happiness of others by being the friend of truth and justice and in his untimely death no man left more sincere mourners. He was the soul of honor and in his ambitions he builded upon no man's downfall but gave freely of that wealth of wisdom and good cheer which made his success the pride of those who came in contact with him. His life was an inspiration and his death was a State's loss.

The resolutions were adopted unanionusly by a rising vote.
