

I have observed him on many different occasions when people were in trouble and needed some assistance or aid on different matters, and he was always charitable and considerate and I feel that Iowa has lost a great man in the passing of Senator Hogue. His work as Budget Director he took very seriously.

He gave of his strength willingly and gladly and I feel that his work taxed him more than is perhaps known to the public generally.

He has given and contributed to this state a great deal and I feel that we have lost in him a very distinguished citizen.

MR. PRESIDENT, I move the adoption of the report."

The resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

ANDREW J. SHINN.

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee named to draft suitable resolutions commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Andrew J. Shinn, beg leave to submit the following:

Andrew J. Shinn was born in Pottawattamie County, November 7, 1866. In February, 1880, he moved with his parents to a farm in Harrison County where he resided until his death. He received his education in the rural schools and was a farmer by occupation. In 1901 he was elected sheriff of Harrison County and in 1922 was elected to the Senate representing Harrison, Crawford and Monona counties. He died on the eighth day of April, 1928.

Senator Shinn has left a worthy record in this body. He was a man of unquestioned honesty and integrity and whatever he believed he espoused courageously and openly. He typified and was one of the pioneer blood that moulded the commonwealth of Iowa. He loved this State, believed in it and fought for its welfare as he saw such welfare. Men such as he have rendered and will render invaluable service to the State and are needed and wanted in the deliberative and legislative bodies that minister to its service. He has left to those who knew and loved him, a record of unselfish and honest service to his fellow citizens.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That in the death of Senator Andrew J. Shinn the state and community where he lived have suffered the loss of an influential and honored citizen; a man of strong character and unselfish devotion to duty in public and private life; and the Senate of Iowa would tender by this Resolution its sympathy to the widow and children who survive.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these Resolutions be spread upon the journal of the Senate as the expression of the life and worth of the deceased, and an engrossed copy thereof be transmitted to the widow.

O. P. BENNETT,
O. E. GUNDERSON,
WM. E. MCLELAND,

Committee.

Former Senator Pitt spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT: A few moments ago, Senator Bennett asked me if I would say a word for Senator Shinn. It has been my position since leaving the Senate not to embarrass you with addresses, but this seems like a personal duty. Had I been the one to go and Andy Shinn had been asked to say a word for me I know he would have gone through "No Man's Land" and stood there for me.

It is a great thing when the Senate of Iowa, or the Congress of the United States, will stop a moment and give attention to the memory of the honored dead. You must, as a Senate, have memory and forecast, and as long as the Senate will stop to talk over and commemorate the memories of those gone before who have served their public life and pick from their services those sound things that constitute great statesmen, then our republic is safe, and upon such homes as was the home of Andy Shinn, rests the future security of this republic.

I will say for Andy Shinn that his grandfather died in a covered wagon. He was a Methodist minister who came to teach the Word of God. From that stock Andy Shinn was born—born in poverty. Through every vicissitude of life, the burnished banner of honor that Andy Shinn carried was ever without a stain.

Any one knowing him as I have known him, must feel that no matter what is in the future—I don't know, you don't know, and it isn't for mere man to pierce the veil of futurity—but when the name of Andy Shinn is called, he will be there to answer.

The resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

JOHN E. WICHMAN

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee which was appointed to report resolutions commemorating the life, character and services of the late John E. Wichman, begs leave to submit the following report and moves its adoption:

John E. Wichman was born in Galena, Illinois, April 16, 1859. He lived in Galena until 21 years of age. After finishing the public schools he entered the Northwestern German English college, an institution owned by the German Methodist Church, which was then situated at Galena, but later removed to Charles City, Iowa, and in still later years merged with Morningside college at Sioux City. He graduated from the normal department of this school in 1876. After his graduation he taught school and in 1881 came to Iowa, settling near Garner, Hancock County, where he worked on a farm during the summer and taught school during the rest of the year.

He began the study of law at Garner in the spring of 1882, in the office of A. C. Ripley, remaining with him a year and then pursuing his studies in the office of H. H. Bush, of Garner, with whom he formed a partnership which continued for six years. He was admitted to the bar in 1884.

He had practiced law in Garner continuously from that time until the time of his decease. For the past fifteen years he had been in partnership with I. C. Hastings. He was an able and successful practitioner of his profession and was held in the highest esteem by his colleagues.

He served Hancock County in the State Legislature in the Thirty-