

HON. R. F. PRICE

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to prepare resolutions commemorating the life and services of the Hon. R. F. Price, late of Dickinson county, Iowa, beg leave to report the following memorial:

Reuben F. Price was born in Delhi, Iowa, January 1, 1858, and lived practically all his life in his native state. In 1882 he settled on the prairies of Dickinson county, and for a period of eight years applied himself diligently and successfully to farming. March 16, 1886, he married Miss Jennie E. Jones, who survives.

In 1890 Mr. Price became a resident of Milford, where for the remainder of his life he was a substantial community factor. For twelve years he was postmaster, and for a long time he served on the town council. For years prior to his death he was engaged in the real estate business.

So well had he lived and served that when Mr. Price aspired to legislative honors, two terms came to him practically without opposition. He was a useful legislator. All the details of service had his earnest attention and few roll calls found him listed as absent. His judgment was safe, his courage unflinching, his devotion absolute. These elements, vital in legislative character, gave him the confidence of the House as he became rich in friendship through rare temperamental equipment.

In character, in personality, in all the better elements of citizenship, Reuben Price was so strong as to win the esteem of his community and all with whom he served during his life of marked probity and distinct usefulness.

Therefore Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives take this occasion to present this tribute to the memory of a faithful public servant and to express appreciation of his character and public services, and that there be extended to the widow and relatives most sincere sympathy.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to send copy of the same to the relatives.

HON. CHARLES EDWIN STALLCOP

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to prepare resolutions commemorating the life and service of the Hon. Charles Edwin Stallcop, late of Sac county, Iowa, beg leave to report the following memorial:

Honorable Charles Edwin Stallcop, who represented Sac county in the Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth General Assemblies, was born in Minnesota, September 9, 1858. He attended common school, was graduated from Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota, and came to Iowa in 1881, then a young man, as Iowa seemed more alluring to him in a business way. He taught school, was graduated from the Law Department of Drake University in 1884 and became a resident of Sac county, engaging in teaching there. In 1889 he acquired the Sac County News, published at Early, and in 1891 was elected County Superintendent of Schools. He was re-elected two years later, and served from 1892 to 1896.

In the noted campaign of 1896 he delivered many speeches in support of the Republican party, and won recognition as an able speaker. In 1897 he was elected representative and was re-elected two years later, serving in the Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth General Assemblies. For a few years he practiced law in Sac City, being in partnership with Charles E. Lane, and was active in the anti-saloon litigation that put the saloons out of Sac county.

In 1902 he bought the Brooklyn Chronicle and edited it for some years. He was much interested in the Brotherhood of American Yeomen and several years previously had assisted materially in writing its ritual. He became a member of its Supreme Auditing Committee and disposed of his newspaper, removed to Des Moines, the headquarters of the association, and for several years of his later life he gave his entire time to its interest, visiting local lodges, lecturing, and acting as vice-president.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives take this occasion to present this tribute to the memory of a faithful public servant and to express appreciation of his character and public service and to extend to his family and relatives most sincere sympathy.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward to the family of the deceased an engrossed copy.

At his home in Washington county, Iowa, at seven-thirty p. m., Wednesday, September 20, 1922, Hon. Abram Pearson passed away after a brief illness. Mr. Pearson was born near Kansas City, Kansas, on July 15, 1837. They worked in the west for three years, during which time Mr. Pearson was born, and then returned to their home in Ohio.

Abram Pearson was one of a family of eight children and was the last to pass away. He attended the Friends' school near his home and this education was supplemented by two years of study at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio. After completing his education he en-
