

He was Representative from Cass county in the Thirty-sixth General Assembly.

Mr. Smith was more than a farmer. He was a man who could recognize the progressive character of the times. He was a man of very broad vision.

Early in life Mr. Smith became a member of Cass Lodge No. 412, A. F. & A. M., filling the offices of the lodge with honor. He was also a member of the Methodist church of Griswold. He worked in the interests of the Sunday school and was ready and willing to do his every duty for the uplift of mankind.

He was married to Miss Millie A. Shaffer, October 11, 1877. Five children were born into the happy home, four sons and one daughter. They are Miss Laura, who remained at home with the parents, Ross, John, and Ray, all of whom reside in the vicinity of Griswold. One son, Fred, passed away about three years ago.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Forty-fifth General Assembly, That in the passing of Honorable Charles C. Smith, this assembly take this occasion to express its appreciation of his character and public services and tender to his surviving widow and children its sincere sympathy in their sorrow, and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be instructed to send an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

C. E. MALONE,
G. J. GITTINGER,
M. C. FALVEY,

Committee.

Unanimously adopted April 11, 1933.

HONORABLE LEONARD E. STANLEY

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, which was appointed to report resolutions commemorating the life, character and services of the late Leonard E. Stanley, begs leave to submit the following report and moves its adoption:

Leonard E. Stanley was born in Columbiana county, Ohio, April 4, 1853, and died at his home in Corning, Iowa, August 1, 1932.

When a few weeks old he came with his parents to Johnson county, Iowa, thence to Warren county. Mr. Stanley has been closely associated with the growth and development of Adams county since the settlement days of the early seventies.

On February 4, 1879, he was married to Hannah Hogenkamp. To this union were born six children, five of whom, along with the widow, survive the deceased.

Mr. Stanley's church affiliations have been, for the past thirty-five years, with the Congregational church in Corning, where he served on the Board of Deacons for several years. He was born and reared in a Quaker home and those early influences have ever dominated his life.

The abilities and character of Mr. Stanley have been utilized in public office as Clerk of the Court 1898-1902, town councilman, State Representative to the Thirty-seventh General Assembly, and Justice of the Peace for several years. He has been for many years a member of Instruction Lodge No. 275 A. F. & A. M. and of the Modern Woodmen of America.

The keynote of Mr. Stanley's life has been common honesty and genuine good will. No biting envy or petty jealousy found refuge in his generous mind. Firm in his own beliefs, he never sought to force his views upon others, contrary to their own judgments. A lovable personality has gone but the soul of the man will live like a burning flame in the community to make cleaner and more wholesome every segment of society with which he came in contact.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That in the passing of the Honorable Leonard E. Stanley the state has lost a valuable and honored citizen, a man of sterling quality and irreproachable character, and the House of Representatives of Iowa would tender by this resolution its sympathy to the widow, and the children who survive.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the Journal of the House as an expression of the life and worth of the deceased and engrossed copy hereof be transmitted to the widow and children.

F. H. BEATH,
R. C. HOPP,
PAUL L. MILLHONE,

Committee.

Unanimously adopted April 11, 1933.

HONORABLE JOHN W. SULLIVAN

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare resolutions commemorating the life and public service of the late Honorable John W. Sullivan, of Kossuth county, begs leave to submit the following report:

John W. Sullivan was born in La Salle, Illinois, on June 13, 1862, and died at his home in Algona, Iowa, August 19, 1931, being sixty-nine years and two months of age.

When John W. Sullivan was nine years of age his parents moved to Johnson county, Iowa, where they resided on a farm. He attended the public schools of Johnson county. Later he attended Hiatt's Academy at Iowa City, Iowa, and after finishing a two-year course there, attended the Iowa State University. He was graduated from the law department of that university in 1887.

After his graduation Mr. Sullivan entered the practice of law in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, where he remained for one year. He then returned to Iowa City where he entered the law office of the late Judge Martin J. Wade. In 1890 he moved to Algona, Iowa, where he engaged in the practice of law alone.

On January 24, 1894, Mr. Sullivan formed a law partnership with S. E. McMahon, who had then graduated from the law department of the State University of Michigan. That partnership, without a shadow of mis-
