

sentative, D. Fulton Rice, who was still in office, to hold over under the constitution.

Mr. Scott was a member of the Methodist church. He was a man of good character, and had a wide circle of friends. He had a broad sympathy for all people in every walk of life, which was one of the marked characteristics of Mr. Scott, and his devotion to duty, his loyalty to the interests of the people of his county, as he saw them, endeared him to the hearts of thousands of people who knew him and loved him.

No man has ever doubted his honesty or his integrity of purpose. He stood for a clean, economical administration of the affairs of the state to which he was greatly devoted. His tastes were simple, his manner of life plain, and his purposes were such as to command the respect of all who knew him.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives, of the Forty-second General Assembly of the state of Iowa, that the foregoing memorial be adopted in the expression of its appreciation of the life, character and public service of the Hon. Charles Harvey Scott.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and the Chief Clerk be directed to send an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

D. FULTON RICE,
HOWARD A. MATHEWS,
GEO. E. MILLER,

Committee.

Unanimously adopted April 6, 1927.

HON. IRA JOY SWAIN

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee appointed to prepare resolutions commemorating the life, character and public service of the Honorable Ira Joy Swain of Mills county, Iowa, begs leave to submit the following report:

Honorable Ira Joy Swain was born in Windsor, Dane county, Wisconsin, on the eighth day of March, 1849, and died at his home, near Malvern, Iowa, on the second day of December, 1924.

He received his early education in the public schools in and near Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, and, after completing his studies in high school, he was enrolled as a student at Wayland University from 1863 until 1867. In the late fall of 1867, he moved to Boone County, Iowa, and taught in the public schools of that county. In May, 1870, he moved to Malvern, and for some years was employed as bookkeeper and salesman. Later he engaged in the hardware and implement business in Malvern, and continued in this line until 1888, when he engaged in farming and located on the farm which he occupied at the time of his death.

On the 23d day of December, 1875, he was married to Hannah A. Summers, who survives him. To this union were born six sons.

Ira Joy Swain was for more than half a century one of the most active pioneer settlers in building up this community to its present high standard, in Mills county. For more than thirty years, he was secretary of the Mills County Fair Association and for a number of years he was assistant secretary of the State Fair, and represented Mills county in the Thirty-sixth General Assembly. He was an active member of the Methodist church and a Republican in politics.

Mr. Swain was noble in character, honest in business, generous to the needy, loyal in friendships and leaves a clean record.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives takes this occasion to express its appreciation of his character and public service, and at this time extend to his surviving family its sincere sympathy in their sorrow, and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be instructed to send an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

ROY HANEY,
C. C. ANDERSON,
E. P. LAUGHLIN,

Committee.

Unanimously adopted April 6, 1927.

HON. WILLIAM A. TADE

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee appointed to prepare resolutions commemorative of the life, character, and public services of the late Honorable William A. Tade of Van Buren county, Iowa, beg leave to submit the following report:

Mr. William A. Tade, son of John and Martha Davies Tade, was born in Lee County, Iowa Territory, September 17, 1841, of a large family—two sisters surviving: Lottie T. Davidson of Mt. Pleasant and Mary Dewey of Baldwin City, Kansas.

He attended public school in or near Augusta, Iowa, and after coming with the family to Van Buren county in 1854, at Harrisburg Center. At fourteen years of age he entered Iowa College, then located at Davenport.

October 2, 1861 he entered the service of his country as a private of Company F, Fourteenth Iowa Infantry, and after being mustered in Davenport was with his regiment, assigned to the Army of the Tennessee and sent at once to the front.

He participated in the engagements at Fts. Henry and Donelson, and at the battle of Shiloh was captured by the enemy, remaining a prisoner eight months in Montgomery, Mobile, Macon and finally the Libby Prison where he was afterward paroled and exchanged.

He then rejoined his regiment at Benton Barracks, and later took part in an expedition to Rolla, Missouri, thence to Cairo, Illinois, where he served for several months as river detective in the Provost Marshal department.

At this time he was commissioned Lieutenant of an independent company known as the Liberia Guards, with which company he made an expedition to Helena, Arkansas.
