

ciation, attorney for Illinois Agricultural Association, National Livestock Credit Corporation and Penn Mutual Life in Mexico. Farm owner and operator. He was a Mason and a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors are his wife, Blanche, two daughters, Miss Mary Jean Strawman, Woodward, Iowa; and Mrs. L. D. Amick, Iowa City, Iowa.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Sixty-third General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Clifford M. Strawman, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

ROY A. MILLER
NATHAN F. SORG
LYNN BATTLES, SR.
Committee

HOWARD TABOR

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character, and public service of the late Honorable Howard Tabor, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Howard Tabor was born March 13, 1893, at Baldwin, Iowa. He was the son of George W. and Ella Tabor. Graduated from Baldwin High School and completed the commercial course at the Cedar Rapids Business College.

He married Ella C. Peterson of Sabula, Iowa, June 6, 1923. To this union were born two sons.

Mr. Tabor was in partnership with his son, Jack, in a farming and cattle feeding business on a farm that has been in the family for one hundred years. He served as committeeman for the Agricultural Adjustment Administration seven years. Member of the Methodist Church, Farm Bureau, and American Legion.

Mr. Tabor, a Democrat, served in the Iowa House of Representatives in the Fifty-eighth, Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth and Sixtieth Extra sessions from Jackson County, and Senator from Jackson and Jones Counties during the Sixty-first session.

He passed away April 5, 1968. Surviving Mr. Tabor are his widow, Ella, and two sons, Jack Tabor of Baldwin, Iowa, and Dr. James Tabor of Englewood, Colorado. Also surviving Mr. Tabor are two sisters, Mrs. Leon Gray of Martinville, Indiana, and Mrs. Eloise Stewart of Preston, Iowa, and one brother, Clifford Tabor of Baldwin, Iowa.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Sixty-third General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Howard Tabor, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

LYNN BATTLES, SR.
ROY A. MILLER
JOHN CAMP

Committee

GEORGE J. VAN BUREN

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character, and public service of the late Honorable George J. Van Buren, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

George J. Van Buren was born on March 18, 1882, in Hardin County, Iowa, and passed away on October 25, 1967, at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

He graduated from Epworth Seminary in 1901 and Cornell College in 1904. He then followed the professions of civil engineering in Mexico and teaching in Illinois and Arkansas High Schools, Drury College and Nebraska State Teachers College. He also farmed in Jones County.

On June 12, 1907, he was married to Eda May Cramer and from this union, four children were born.

He served as Republican State Representative from Jones County in the Forty-third and Forty-fourth General Assemblies, and was a Republican candidate for the nomination for Lieutenant Governor in 1936. He was a past president of Jones County Farm Bureau and a chairman of Jones County Republican Central Committee.

Surviving him is his second wife, Harriet; a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Prescott, Grinnell, Iowa; two sons, John W., of Backus, Minnesota, and Paul W., Staples, Minnesota; also a son-in-law, Austin Spahr, Monticello, Iowa. His first wife and a daughter preceded him in death.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Sixty-third General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable George J. Van Buren, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

ROY A. MILLER
NATHAN F. SORG
LYNN BATTLES, SR.

Committee