

He was chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs of the Senate, and also chairman of the Senate Committee which selected Marshalltown, Iowa, as the location for the Iowa Soldiers' Home.

He again re-entered politics when on the election of President McKinley he was made postmaster at Aplington, an office which he held until a few years ago.

He was a member of the Presbyterian Church of Aplington, and for over twenty years was an elder in the church, being sent to represent the church in the Presbytery, and being sent in 1898 to the General Assembly as representative of the Waterloo Presbytery.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge of Parkersburg, having been honored as a Knight Templar and as a member of the Mystic Shrine. He was also a member of the John Bradley G. A. R. post at Parkersburg.

Mr. Whaley was married on October 17, 1871, to Jane Hull Smith, daughter of George B. Smith, one of the oldest leading residents of Aplington. She passed away a year ago last July. Four sons are left to mourn their father's death.

Resolved, That in the death of this noble man the state has lost a worthy citizen, soldier and statesman, and the Senate a loved and honored member; and be it further

Resolved, That these sentiments be entered upon the Senate Journal and a copy be sent to the bereaved family of the deceased.

F. P. HAGEMANN,
JOHN L. WILSON,
D. C. CHASE,

Committee.

The resolutions were adopted unanimously by a rising vote.

Senator Hagemann, in moving the adoption of the report of the committee, spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT—It was not my good fortune to know Captain Whaley. He lived in a small town about forty miles from my home town. So I am not in a position to add to anything set forth in the resolutions. I only want to say that a man who performed the services Captain Whaley performed was not only a patriotic man, but a good man and a man who ought to be fittingly remembered, and I therefore take pleasure in moving the adoption of these resolutions.
