

was a regent of the State University from the year 1872 until the year 1890, and was for many years a law lecturer therein; and who was a man of commanding ability and held in high esteem by all his associates without regard to party affiliations—a grand and noble man who lent his aid to every good work—a true patriot and a model citizen, widely known and universally respected and honored. Although when he died he had reached the allotted span of human life, we could have wished that his life might have been prolonged for the sake of those who were near and dear to him and for our own profit and pleasure. We, however, realize that our loss is his gain; therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Hon. John F. Duncombe we have lost a most judicious and upright man, and the State has lost a man who was a wise and conservative legislator and a true patriot; his family has lost a devoted husband and an affectionate father, and the community has lost a kind neighbor and a valued citizen; and,

Be it further resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be instructed to forward an engrossed copy of the same to the bereaved wife and family.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee, appointed to draft resolutions commemorating the life and public services of the Hon. L. R. Wolfe of Johnson county, respectfully submit the following report :

WHEREAS, The Hon. Louis R. Wolfe, an honored member of this House in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth General Assemblies, a gallant soldier of the Civil War and a most highly respected citizen in the county in which he resided, passed from his earthly labors on the 16th day of September, 1903:

WHEREAS, The life and character of the deceased were such as to entitle him to the respect and esteem of all who knew him, and his services to the State and nation were of such a character as to command the confidence and gratitude of his fellow citizens; therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of this patriotic citizen, soldier and legislator, this State has lost an influential and upright citizen, his family is bereft of a kind and loving father, his friends of an honest and esteemed man.

Resolved, That we extend to his children and to those nearest to him, whose sorrow is so much greater, our sincere sympathy in their sorrow and affliction; and the Clerk of the House is hereby instructed to transmit an engrossed copy of these resolutions to the bereaved family and to enter the same upon the Journal of the House.
