

For a time he took the agency of an insurance company as a means of taking in some money until he could build up his law practice.

In 1880 he was united in marriage with Josephine Wonn. To this union were born three daughters.

In 1886, Mr. Smith became county attorney of Shelby county, holding this office for two years and subsequently serving as city attorney for Harlan for two terms.

He was president and member of the Harlan School board for one term. He always took an active part in politics and served as chairman of the Republican county central committee for two years.

Later, in 1910, he was elected state senator, and for one term represented the senatorial district of Shelby and Cass counties in the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth General Assemblies, introducing and backing a number of measures of importance and taking a high rank as a hard working and able member of the state legislature.

Mr. Smith will long be remembered for his physical and mental strength, for his untiring energy in the services of his clients and the best interests of the community in which he lived for more than fifty years. He believed strongly in the moral and spiritual elements in mankind, and, believing in them, he was, in his life and conduct, an example to others in his community. His thoroughly democratic attitude toward his fellowmen and his kindly good humor greatly helped to make for him an enduring place in the history of Shelby county and in the State of Iowa.

Mr. Smith passed away at his home in Harlan, Iowa, on the seventeenth day of September, 1936.

Mr. Smith's passing should not be one of unreasoning sorrow but rather an occasion of pride and consolation in the contemplation of a well-rounded life and a successful career.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That, in the passing of Honorable Thomas H. Smith, the State has lost a worthy and esteemed citizen, and that we extend to his relatives and friends our sincere sympathy; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the records of this body and a copy of the same be forwarded to his family.

L. T. SHANGLE

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee which was appointed to report resolutions commemorating the life, character and services of the late L. T. Shangle, begs leave to submit the following report:

Louis Tuttle Shangle, son of Amos L. and Mary W. Shangle, was born on a farm in Prairie township, Mahaska county, Iowa, March 18, 1862, and died at his home in Oskaloosa, Iowa, September 2, 1935, at the age of seventy-three years. His entire life was spent in Mahaska county with the exception of five years.

Mr. Shangle received his education in the country schools and graduated from Penn College, Oskaloosa, in 1883. He taught school for a number of years; studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1889.

He was united in marriage to Mattie Fauquier at Oskaloosa, June 4, 1902. His wife survives him.

Mr. Shangle was always interested in the affairs of his home town, county and state. For eighteen years he was secretary of the city school board, and had been identified as trustee, member of the executive committee, and treasurer of William Penn College. For years he was secretary of Mahaska County Fair Association, was active in the Ioway Tribe No. 4 of Red Men. He took a great interest in his farm property, and in political activities.

Mr. Shangle was elected to the state senate in 1932 and left the term unfinished. As a Democrat he took an active part in all the deliberations of his party.

Be It Resolved, That in the passing of the Honorable L. T. Shangle, the State of Iowa mourns the loss of one of its honored and distinguished citizens.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be printed in the Journal of the Senate as a commemoration of the life and worth of the deceased, and that an enrolled copy hereof be transmitted to the widow.

A. E. AUGUSTINE,
ROY E. STEVENS,
E. I. MASON,

Committee.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

D. MYRON TRIPP

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee, which was appointed to report resolutions commemorating the life, character, and services of the late D. Myron Tripp, begs leave to submit the following report:

D. Myron Tripp was born on a farm in Clear Creek township, Jasper county, Iowa, September 6, 1882, and died May 15, 1936, at Webster City, Iowa.

He received his education in the Colfax public schools, Des Moines University, and Drake University, graduating from Drake University College of Law in June, 1906.
