

Mr. Hill was formerly President of the Iowa Judges Association and President of the Drake University Alumni Association. He also belonged to the American Legion, Rotary Club, and I.O.O.F.

Mr. Hill was survived by his widow, Genevieve; son, Dr. G. R. Hill, Jr.; daughter, Mrs. Curtis Jones; a brother; and nine grandchildren.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE SIXTY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF IOWA: That in the passing of the Honorable George Raymond Hill, the State of Iowa has lost a valued and honored citizen, and by this resolution attests its respect for and admiration of him and tenders its sincere sympathy to his family.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the Senate and the Secretary of the Senate be directed to send an enrolled copy to Mrs. Hill, his son and his daughter.

HUGH H. CLARKE, Chairman
JAMES A. POTGETER,
C. JOSEPH COLEMAN,

Committee.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

FRANK D. ICKIS

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Frank D. Ickis, begs leave to submit the following:

Mr. Frank D. Ickis was born at Afton, Iowa, December 12, 1872, and was a life-long resident of the Creston and Afton communities. He was the son of A. F. and Ella R. Pott Ickis. He was married in Highland Township, June 3, 1896, to Grace Bowman who preceded him in death on November 10, 1964.

Mr. Ickis was an active member of the Republican party and served with distinction in the Iowa Senate from 1926 until 1932.

He was one of the organizers of the Spizzerinktum club in Highland Township which was dedicated to the betterment of the community through improved social and business relations. This club, which was the forerunner of the Union County Farm Bureau, observed its 50th anniversary two years ago. He was also a charter member and a past president of the Union County Farm Bureau.

He was a member of the original board of directors of the Farmers' Cooperative Company of Creston and served as treasurer of this organization for eight years. He also served on the board of directors of the First National Bank in Creston and was a member of the Rotary Club there for many years. He was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Ickis died June 5, 1967, and is survived by a son, Ralph B. Ickis of Des Plaines, Illinois; two daughters, Mrs. E. J. Moore of Pompano Beach, Florida, and Mrs. Margaret Fauver of Creston; six grandchildren and seven great grandchildren; also a brother, Lynn S. Ickis of Denver, Colorado.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE SIXTY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF IOWA: That in the passing of Frank D. Ickis, the state has lost a valuable, loyal and honored former citizen, and by this resolution tenders its sincere sympathy to his family.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of this resolution be spread on the Journal of the Senate and that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to forward an enrolled copy to his family.

FRANKLIN S. MAIN, Chairman
 JAMES E. BRILES,
 JOSEPH B. FLATT,

Committee.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

FRANK SHANE

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Frank Shane, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Frank Shane was born to the Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Shane, May 16, 1875, at Granville in Mahaska County. A graduate of Letts High school in 1892, he attended Iowa Wesleyan college, Mt. Pleasant, and the college of Physicians and Surgeons in Keokuk.

Mr. Shane taught school in Appanoose, Van Buren and Lee counties prior to establishing a retail drug business in Stockport in 1900. In 1902 he moved to Eldon, where he owned and operated a drug store until 1912.

During the time the Shane family resided in Eldon, Mr. Shane served as a member of the school board, as justice of the peace and as mayor, and was elected state representative from Wapello county to serve in the thirty-fourth general assembly. He also served as president of the Iowa Pharmaceutical association.

In 1913, the family moved to Ottumwa, where Mr. Shane was engaged in the insurance business for some 20 years and during which time his life in public service continued. In 1922, he was elected to the State Senate and served during the Fortieth, Forty-first, Forty-second and Forty-third General Assemblies. He was President Pro Tempore of the Senate for two sessions and became Acting Lieutenant Governor for several months after the death of Clem C. Kimball in 1928.

Mr. Shane began the practice of law in 1939 after passing the State Bar examinations at the age of 64, practicing in Eldon, but driving to Ottumwa several times each week for court appearances.

A Republican, Mr. Shane was active in his party for some 50 years and was the uncle of former Governor William Beardsley.

He was a member of the Masonic and Knights of Pythias fraternities, of the Rotary club and the Wapello club.

He died October 4, 1965 at Ottumwa. Surviving were his widow, the former Gail Walker of Chariton, whom he married in 1899, a daughter, Elise, Mrs. George Coleman of Brentwood, Missouri, and a son, George, of Des Moines.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE SIXTY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF IOWA: That in the passing of Frank Shane, the citizens of the state have lost a valued, loyal and honored citizen, and by this resolution tenders its sincere sympathy to the members of his family.
