BEFRE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared ELIZABETH VERCHIO who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

Questions for Women Who have Undergone Abortion:

Tell when and where your abortion occurred: Preterm, [REDACTED] August 1976.
I was told my pregnancy was between 6 and 8 weeks along.

How has your abortion affected you? Negatively. When I saw my husband a few hours after the abortion I felt an intense hatred for him. I determined to make him pay for what he had done to me by taking me to have the abortion as well as supporting me to go through with it. He never once told me we should not end the pregnancy with abortion. He did not offer any options.

Within 6 months of the abortion I had been drinking heavily, whereas before I drank only socially. I began drinking Vodka at 10 o'clock in the morning and continued drinking all day. Feelings of guilt, shame and grief overwhelmed me, but, because I was told abortion was my best choice and it would eliminate all my problems, I never associated the drinking and feelings with the abortion.

Within 2 years of the abortion I was actively trying to destroy my marriage as well as myself. I hated myself and sought for ways to escape the feelings. For many years I was suicidal, I planned my death and waited for the exact moment to carry out the plans.

One thought frequently had was 'If only I could just get away from it all.' My husband and I moved 360 miles away from family and friends in an attempt to escape. The problems came with us. I just wanted to take the trash out but couldn't because the trash was me.

My health began to falter, but several physicians could not determine a cause. I sought psychiatric assistance when I told my gynecologist I was suicidal. The psychiatric was not helpful, she labeled me manic-depressive and insisted I take Prozak or another mood altering drug. I resisted her diagnosis and refused the drugs.

I continued to be suicidal, though never acting on the plans.

How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband has suffered greatly because of our abortion. He was the one who had to deal with my anger and self-destructive actions. In 1979 I determined having an affair would hurt my husband bad enough to make him feel the same way I was feeling. I found several willing men and then came home and told my husband what I was doing. Needless to say he was deeply hurt. This caused a major trust issue in our marriage. I did not trust him to protect me; he did not trust me to be faithful to him and our marriage. I determined our marriage would end over that, but my husband did not want it to. I told my husband at one point, I don't love you as much as you love me so get used to it.

Even with the adultery, my anger and resentment did not abate. It only intensified. I sought comfort and relief through Yoga, Transcendental Meditation, drugs, (both legal and illegal). I took menial jobs just to get away from the house. I was a terrible employee, making problems for the supervisor and other employees. I could not hold a job due to my anger and unwillingness to follow directions. I trusted no one.

I insisted on controlling everything. If my husband made a decision without my input I became enraged and would not speak to him for days.

Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No. I was told, "now was not a good time for me to be pregnant but because I was so caring, I would make a good mother, some other time. One woman demanded her money be returned and left. The employees of the facility spoke very loud saying "she will be back tomorrow. She is not so stupid to not have an abortion."

At one point I was asked what my church thought of abortion, I replied I didn't really know, but thought they might say it was wrong. She did not give me a chance to find out. I told her my husband was to be in the room with me. She excused herself and came back a few minutes later saying we couldn't wait for him, the doctor was ready now.

I was told about the feelings of anger, guilt, shame and grief I would feel months and years later. Even as late as 1989 I experienced strong feelings of anger, guilt and shame. I found it difficult to work on a committee; I became more and more a loner and felt the need to be in control of every situation.

Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain:

No. During group counseling (10 to 12 women) we were shown a uterine model in the pretense to explain the abortion procedure. The uterine model was empty; it did not contain any "product of conception" which we were told 'would be gently removed with a spoon shaped instrument'. We were discouraged from asking any questions. We were told the fine print on the forms we must sign was not worth reading as none of the things listed ever happened. We were not given time to read the fine print. We were told to sign quickly so there would be no further delay. Someone asked a question, but the 'counselor' told her that was a stupid question because nothing would happen to her. I was not told of the increase risk of breast cancer from having my first pregnancy terminated by abortion.

Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be a woman's choice? Pregnancy is short; Abortion is forever. A mother never 'gets over' participating in the death of her unborn child. Abortion does not fix anything; it creates a lot of problems that the pregnancy did not create. I was told I would be a good parent some day when the timing was better. I never became pregnant again. They lied to me! I will never experience the joys and sorrows of motherhood. I will never have the place among my peers as the mother of the bridegroom. I will never be a grandparent. I will never experience these things because abortion ended my one and only pregnancy, abortion took the life of my one and only child. Killing one's unborn child is never the answer to an unplanned or unwanted pregnancy. Why must an innocent child die so his or her parents can live their selfish lives?

Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, why? I felt pressure from my husband. I did not feel he would support my baby and me and I could not see myself a single parent. I felt he wanted me to abort because he had already made it clear he did not want children. Though he did not take responsibility in avoiding pregnancy.

The counselors at the abortion facility put subtle pressure by saying things like, 'now is not a good time for you to be pregnant', 'you are so young it's too soon to be a mother', 'you can be a parent later when you are more ready.' I was never told any options or other resources that would aide me in single parenting or adoption options. I was lead to believe abortion was the only solution to my problem. No one ever suggested they bring my husband in for a conflict resolution session to determine if abortion really was best for us. I was not encourage to discuss any long term consequences to having an abortion. I was asked about my church background and when I answered that my church probably would say abortion was wrong, I was rushed into the procedure room where I was prepped for abortion. No one spoke to me after I was prepped, I was not introduced to the person who was performing the abortion. I never knew her name.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

The State of ILLINOIS

County of SALINE

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared C. R. T. (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: CHICAGO, IL 1977
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I Remember little of this day - but I don't believe that I was adequately informed. It wasn't until several years later after seeing a film that I realized what took place during the procedure.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? YES If so, who? Baby's Father - Family

6) How has your abortion affected you? my own lack of knowledge & misconceptions - I regretted my decision and mourned my child immediately. I avoided small babies & children to the point that today I long to hold a child but I'm uncomfortable doing so. I put up barriers. I longed to become pregnant again & convinced myself that I was pregnant which I wasn't. In many ways I still feel like that 17 yr old as far as my emotions are concerned. When I married my husband he had 2 teens & didn't want any more children - I had many fears about my ability to be a "good mother" so I agreed - Month after month I secretly hoped to become pregnant & I couldn't take the emotional roller coaster so at age 29 had tubal tied - I didn't help.

7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? AFTER THE ABORTION I became a bitter & angry person - particularly towards baby's father arguing daily until break-up 2 1/2 yrs later. My husband has been by my side for the past 14 yrs. with my emotional up & downs.

8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Please, please don't! I don't want you to go through what I went through - continue to go through knowing what I know today - Adoption would have been a much better choice - is a better choice. IF I HAD THE KNOWLEDGE THAT I HAVE TODAY I would not have aborted. May be your only child.

9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? If we can't convince you of the devastation that abortion causes in a woman's life - if we can't convince you to reverse Roe vs Wade, I feel that at the very least that every girl wanting an abortion should have to have counseling with someone who will give them all of the information required to make an informed decision. IF I had this I wouldn't have aborted.

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen of the Court,

I'd like to address the court concerning a matter close to my heart. I'd like to share my abortion story with you. I'd like for you to know why I chose abortion and how that decision has affected my life.

I had just turned 17 years old when I discovered that I was pregnant. At first my boyfriend seemed happy, even excited about the thought of becoming a father. I'm still not sure what changed, fear maybe, he was suddenly pushing me to get an abortion. I didn't want the abortion but that's what I did in the end. I had options but none of them seemed good at the time. Let me explain. My father was the only one who told me to keep the baby because he didn't think that I could handle it emotionally. He said that he would help but he wasn't there for me, how could I expect him to be there for my baby and me. My boyfriend's parents said that they would adopt my baby but that I would have absolutely no say so in the upbringing of my child. How could I handle seeing my child and never being able to tell that child that I was his real mother. I had a friend who had been adopted and for as long as I can remember she had told me how unhappy she was. She felt that her real mother must not have loved her. I didn't want my child to go through that. Also, with adoption I didn't think that I could handle wondering if that little boy or girl might be mine.

Looking back I was so full of misconceptions. I didn't realize that not all adopted children are unhappy. I didn't know that there was a law or would be a law that would allow a child and parent to find one another. My father was right, I couldn't handle the abortion emotionally and I spent many years hiding my feelings so that he would think that I was OK.

Immediately after my abortion I started hoping to become pregnant again, I guess to replace what I had lost. I started eating for two just in case. It doesn't make sense now but at the time that is how my mind worked. Before the abortion my boyfriend and I got along fine but afterwards I became so bitter and angry that I became argumentative. He became emotionally abusive. I tried to break up but I had become dependent upon him. I went to a therapist to get help dealing with the abortion but walked out when she wanted me to role-play by pretending to talk to my baby. I couldn't do it but going to her did give me the courage to finally end my relationship 3 1/2 years after the abortion.

After my abortion I also avoided babies, becoming sad when I would see a mother pushing her baby in a stroller etc. I've isolated myself from children much of the last 25 years. I have been in situations when I have been around small children but I don't find that I'm comfortable around them. I don't know how to interact. I have step-grandchildren now and I struggle with them but I'm learning.

As far as not putting my baby up for adoption because I'd always wonder where he was, what he would look like etc. Well, I still had all those thoughts only now I would think, my child might have looked like that, or I wonder what my child would look like, or he would be about that old now.

After breaking up with my boyfriend I began searching for the love that I didn't feel that I got at home growing up. My boyfriend also had spent years telling me that no one else would want me. I continued to be sexually active still hoping that I would become pregnant. Worse than that is that there have been times that I convinced myself that I was pregnant even when there was little chance of the possibility.

When I was 28 years old I married a wonderful, supportive man who has been by my side. This man was divorced with two teenage boys. He made it clear that he didn't want any more children. He is eight years my senior and did not want to start raising another family when his kids were almost grown. I agreed with him at the time for the reasons that I stated before. I wasn't sure if I could be a good mother. I still had some anger, fears that I would have a less than perfect child and insecurity. I feel that these thoughts were directly and/or indirectly influenced by my abortion.

I continued to struggle with the thought of not feeling worthy to be mother and so desperately wanting to be called mom. Month after month I would continue to secretly hope to become pregnant and feelings of disappointment when I wasn't. At the age of 30 I made yet another regretful decision, I could not stand the emotional roller coaster any longer so I underwent a procedure to have my tubes tied. I thought that if there was no chance for pregnancy that this continued agony would cease. I was wrong; it didn't change a thing. The Dr. had planted a seed by telling me that sometimes tubule legations reverse themselves. I clung to this thought and so the roller coaster ride began once again.

It's 25 years later and I am approaching 42 years old now. I continue to struggle with these emotions. Over the years I've been to therapist, clergy and psychologist at different times in my life. Most recently I found post- supportive help through a Pregnancy resource Center/Crisis Pregnancy Center. When I chose to have an abortion I didn't know that I would be killing my only child but that is what I have done and I have to live with the decisions that I have made. God has forgiven me but I still struggle with forgiving myself. Even though forgiven, I will never be able to forget what I have done. I'll live with that regret for the rest of my life.

I've recently found out that there are studies that suggest that there is a link between abortions and breast cancer. So now I also need to pay more attention to my breast health.

The best decision that I could have made would have been to remain abstinent until marriage and believe me, I have wished that I would have so many times over the last 25 years.

I have suffered great emotional stress over the years but I have been able to talk about it or express my feelings in a letter such as this. Many women still live in secrecy, keeping their pain to themselves. Some try to bury the pain in destructive behaviors.

My one great hope in sharing my experience is to be able to save others from going through the pain that I have gone through.

In closing I'd like to say that abortion is not just a women's issue many men suffer emotionally as well from the lose of their child, whether or not they helped in making the decision.

I hope that you get the opportunity to read this letter and that it helps you to understand the after effects of an abortion. I hope that sharing my story will help change the abortion laws as they now stand.

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter.

Respectfully,

A. R. T.

Mary T. Spencer (Print Name),

who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion

occurred: November 8, 1973
Madison, Wisconsin

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?

No - absolutely not. I had no idea at the time. Not a day goes by since I found out exactly what it really is that I am not sickened by what I did.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer?

No - I do not have breast cancer. I have never heard of a link until now.

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who?

NO. On the other hand no one tried to help me with an alternate decision either.

5) How has your abortion affected you?

Not one day has gone by that I haven't mourned over the decision I made. For years I was so afraid of God and I thought everything that happened to me was a punishment.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?

My family has been affected by my battle with panic, Anxiety, & Depression. It took me years of counselling and finally my faith not counseling saved me. Without God in the counseling it would never work or help.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

It is a decision that will be with you the rest of your life. There is so much help out there to make a final decision you can live with. Don't do it! This is a life - given and created by God, honor it.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

Stop bending to political correctness and go back to leading this country and individuals in a morally upstanding way. There is a right way and a wrong way. ABORTION is the wrong way. Protect the unborn. Give these girls another choice.

In September, 1973 when I found out I was pregnant, I was devastated. I was in the middle of a relationship with a young man who had a problem with drugs & alcohol. All I could think of was getting out of this as fast as possible. I thought an abortion was a quick fix and an easy way out. I thought I had no one to turn to. The bottom line is this - I had no thought about anyone but myself & I had no idea what I was truly doing. I had one 30 min. meeting with a counselor and was on my way to getting out of a problem. Or so I thought.

The next 15 years I was tormented with what I had done. That decision touched every area of my life. It wasn't until 1986 that everything I had done truly caught up with me. I cracked like "Humpty Dumpty."

There is so much more to this story but I'm trying to keep it brief.

Thanks to my dear and loving Mom, I saw that my decision was the root of all of my problems. My quick fix decision was still with me + killing me mentally. Thanks to my Mom I turned to God and confessed my sin. There I found forgiveness, compassion and understanding. Only then did I truly start to heal and understand what I had done.

Put more effort into counseling + adoption. Truly help these women know they have another choice. Abortion is wrong and it is murder in the truest sense of the word. I wish I had thought of someone other than myself then. The decision you make today is with you the rest of your tomorrow. You can't see from it. I would be much happier knowing I had given my little angel a chance. This was truly the most selfish act of my life.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

To Whom It May Concern:

I am sending this affidavit so that you can add my name to the list of your pending cases. I am willing to testify to any one that will give me a listening ear. I am 37 years old and it has taken over 15 years for me to be able to except and truly understand the consequences of my 5 abortions. I was one of the lucky ones in life that was able to have children, however it was after two very painful miscarriages (one at 8 weeks and the other at 13 weeks) I am involved with the crisis pregnancy centers in Illinois as a counselor and I'm horrified at the lack of education that these young girls are given. By the time they get to us they have had at least one abortion and they are depressed, suicidal, no education and their will to live is gone, what are these clinics doing to our children!!! I have written out all my answers please note that some of my answers are more detailed on this letter than on the affidavit. I didn't have enough room to answer the questions completely.

1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred:

Between the ages of 16 and 20, and they were performed at Albany Women's Clinic in Chicago, Illinois.

2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is what it does? If not, explain:

No! And that is why I'm filling out this form. If I had had all the information about the entire process, I would not have done what I did. I was 16 years old when I received my first abortion and at 16 making a decision like this was very frightening and I wasn't ever asked if I truly understood the process.

3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion?

No! I was never given any information about counseling, scar tissue, guilt, shame and how it would destroy my self-esteem and keep me from becoming more in life.

4. Were you informed if any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer?

Never was this mentioned over the 4 years of my 5 abortions.

5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who?

Yes! I ran away with my boyfriend and he would tell me if I didn't get them he would leave me homeless. My first abortion my mother made the decision for me. My opinion was never asked, I was told that I didn't have a chose. She was not going to support any babies.

6. How has your abortion affected you?

I truly feel that because of the lack and negligence of the medical industry on informing the women (minor) about post-abortion trauma, I lived in a state of depression, guilt for 15 years not allowing me to further my education and better my life style.

"If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you can move a mountain." Matthew 17:20

7. How has your abortion affected others in your life?

Because I was never told about the abortions leaving scar tissue, I was told that I could not have any children by two doctors, However my faith in God told me different. I have two children now and the truth of the matter is that I have two failed marriages because of all the anger and unforgiveness that I've held over the abortions. I didn't realize until my life almost fell apart that I needed extensive counseling in my life regarding the abortions.

8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell women considering an abortion?

Be prepared to face a lifetime of guilt, shame, disappointment, anger and the possibility of never being able to have children again, because of the scar tissue that an abortion leaves behind.

9. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

I would like for them to explain to me, How is it possible that the remains of a "Fetus" look like human body limbs. And when they are thrown into a trash can that is located behind an abortion clinic we refer to them as an abortion, but when we see human body limbs of an adult and or child thrown in a trash can in an alley of New York city we call that murder! Other than there size, what is the difference? Then I would like to show them some pictures of these abortion procedures and educate them on what is really going on in this nation. Then, I would like to ask them if it would sit right with them to know that one of those "Fetuses" that were behind the clinic came from their youngest daughter, and that that daughter could never have children again, because no one was required by law to give her the truths about what an abortion truly does to your life.

Please contact me with any questions and/or opportunities to testify before any court!!!

I Regret My Abortion

My abortion happened 16 years ago. I was dating a guy that I loved very much. We were in an on again, off again relationship for 4 years. Just before my abortion, we had a fight and broke up – for good. A couple weeks later, I found out that I was pregnant. When I told him that I was pregnant, he said that he wanted me to have an abortion because he didn't think I would be a good mother. Also, he said I was a big baby and challenged me to finally be a woman. I really never thought he would want me to go through with it. I found out that he was dealing drugs and I wanted him out of my life, so I chose to follow through with his plan. He paid for my abortion with his drug money.

The night before my abortion, I couldn't sleep. I was lying alone in bed with my own thoughts, and I knew what I was about to do was very wrong. Two years earlier, I had gone through the same situation, but decided to carry that pregnancy to term. Abortion was never even a consideration to me. But now that I had a 2 year old son, I didn't want others to think I made the same mistake...again. The only people who knew I was pregnant were my mom and sister.

When I woke up that morning, I called my sister and told her that I thought I was "miscarrying". I told her I was bleeding and wanted to know if she would watch my son. After I dropped him off, I went to the abortion clinic. I noticed the picketers, and I wanted to make sure none of them knew me. I drove around the block. None of them looked familiar, so I pulled into the parking lot and went in. The picketers yelled stuff to me, but I felt they didn't know my situation so they didn't deserve my time.

Once inside, I gave the receptionist a fake name. I felt numb. I filled out paper work, talked to a counselor, talked to a nurse, and tried not to think about what I was doing. A nurse escorted me into the abortion room. She helped me get ready for the procedure and just asked me vague questions about the weather and if I was going to school. The abortionist came into the room and began my abortion. The nurse was leaning over me and staring into my eyes. After a little while, she asked the doctor "Is something wrong?" He said, "It is trying to get away – I've tried three times!"

I was shocked!! What he said hit me like a ton of bricks. It is trying to get away! I started to pray and ask God to stop all this from happening – to not let it work – to let it fail - to put His hand in the way of the vacuum. I couldn't believe what I was doing!! Seconds later, the abortionist said, "It's done". He put away his tools and left the room. From that moment on I have REGRETTED MY ABORTION!! I just wanted to run, to die...I was ANGRY! After the nurse left the room, I started to cry. A part of me died in that room. I knew what I did was wrong. The "IT" he was referring to was MY BABY!

As I walked down the steps to leave the place, I just balled. I remember looking in the sky, wondering what God thought of me. The rest of the day, I laid on the couch. I would look at my son and just cry. I wanted to go back to that place and pull my baby out of the dumpster. If only I could live that day over again. My decision to have an abortion was final. It was over. I can't go back.

My mom, who thought I miscarried, encouraged me to name my baby and to write my baby a letter. I named my baby, Baby Chris and I wrote her a letter. I still have things that make me grieve - like when I go to the dentist and hear the suction machine. My abortion happened two days before Valentines Day, so every Valentines Day is a reminder. Baby Chris would have been born in September. By now, she would be 15 years old. I wonder what she would look like. I wonder what her laugh would sound like. I wonder if she would have a boyfriend. On this earth, I will never be able to hold her or kiss her good night. To tell her I am sorry. I can't believe that I took the life of an innocent baby to make myself look better. I really wish I had had the courage to stand up for Baby Chris and to have said NO.

My grief drew me closer to God. I know that He forgives me for what I did. When I asked for His forgiveness, He gave me a clean slate. He remembers my sin no more. For that, I am eternally grateful!!! I know that, when I die, God will welcome me in to Heaven. Standing next to him will be Baby Chris. Only then, will I no longer Regret My Abortion.

If you or someone you know has questions about abortion, please e-mail me at purplelatte@hotmail.com. Abortion is not the only choice. You can parent your baby or release him/her for adoption. I may not have all the answers but I want to encourage you to make a decision you can live with.

- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No. No one told me my baby looked like a baby and that it's little arms and legs would be ripped apart. But the abortionist did feel some kind of obligation to educate me; he brought out a pewee dish with my dead baby in it, poked it ->

- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? Yes. My boyfriend, his parents and the workers at the clinic. My boyfriend told me I might as well because having the baby wouldn't make him stay. His parents (his Mom) told me ->
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I think about it constantly. It's an obsession now. I even tried to kill myself a few times after it happened. I don't ever get to be the same. I doubt if the pain of my experience will ever go away.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It's difficult to talk to anyone about it. But it's such a prominent part of my life now that I'm trying to do something about it, that I talk about it a lot. My friends & family are very ->
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion? Even if you're not concerned about your baby's life, be concerned about yourself. You don't ever get to be the same after an abortion. You almost feel like you've been raped: depressed, suicidal, dirty. These people don't care what happens to you afterward - just that they get their money.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? No one should be able to decide if another human being lives or dies - even if they happen to be housing that human inside their body. If you're dumb enough to get pregnant, it's your obligation to that other ->

2.) said, "See, it doesn't even look like a baby."

5.) I might as well because, being that I was only 14 at the time, they (my boyfriend's parents) would probably end up getting custody and I would never see my baby again. The abortionist himself told me, when asked if it would hurt, snapped at me, "It's gonna hurt a hell of a lot more in a few months if you don't do this!"

7.) wishy-washy on the subject. It makes me angry, like they don't support me. It's like, if a family member is hit & killed by a drunk driver. Many times other members of the family will start fighting against drunk driving in their memory - and the whole family bands together for the cause. Why should my baby's death be any different?

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion

occurred: Westmont, IL 1992

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO - the room was filled with women - it was like an assembly line.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? Not informed - do not have breast cancer

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who?

No one in particular. I would honestly say society's views on the subject makes it seem as natural and harmless as having a mole removed.

5) How has your abortion affected you?

The abortion and the clinic made the procedure seem so meaningless and day to day. I have a son now and realize how precious life is. I know I have been forgiven, but it is still hard to deal with choosing to destroy a life God created.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?

I was in a relationship with someone I loved and it ended. The only other person who knew was my mother and she would never talk about it unless I brought it up - which I have not.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

Don't do it - there are always ways to survive and provide for your child. There are many good people who would love your baby for you and are waiting on a list to 'get' a baby.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

Why are we wasting our money, time & efforts on abortion and not going to the cause? We need to teach our children about celibacy, birth control etc. Just as easy to get an abortion as it is to get birth control. How will our children ever believe life is precious and they are special when it can be destroyed so easily?

I added ^{K.F.} ~~these~~ ^{K.F.} pages to my affidavit, so I can tell more about my experience with abortion.

K.F.

In 1983, when I was almost 19 years old, I had an abortion, at Hope Clinic, in Granite City, IL. I was taught in health class during my freshman year of high school that abortion was a form of birth control. Although I had already had a child in 1981, all I knew was that the feminists on television had said that at this stage of development my child was just a blob of tissue. I really didn't have any reason to doubt that. I had never seen any information on the development of a child in the womb. I never felt my son move inside of me until between the fourth and fifth month. I mean it was on the news after all. Now that I'm older and wiser I know that in order to get on the news all you really need is to work at some university somewhere, or maybe, just have a nice title.

At the time I was dating this man who was 11 years older than I was. He was also married. He told me all the nice things married men tell younger girls, including that he was getting a divorce, before he ever touched me. One night, he was at my apartment and he had to go home. It was a holiday and I was tired of sneaking around and I wanted to go out. I was furious with him, and after he left I went out with some friends to a bar. I got very drunk and I met this guy. I went home with him and got pregnant. I knew it was his baby because my "boyfriend" had had a vasectomy since the early 70's. I knew I was ovulating when I went out but I was so drunk I didn't care.

I was 6 weeks pregnant, but the clinic told me on the phone that you had to be at least 2 months pregnant, to get an abortion. I lied and said I was. They would only take cash, which I didn't have, so I took out a small loan for $200.

When I went to the clinic, they had me take a pregnancy test. Then I waited. Most of the girls in there were teenagers, but younger than me. A lady called my name. She said it was the law that I had to have counseling. I went into the counselor's office. She said, "Are you O.K. with this?" I gave a very weak, "I guess." She said, "O.K.", and that was the end of my counseling session.

Then another lady, I guess she was the nurse, gave me a pill. She said that the pill was to relax me. I asked her if it was going to hurt. She said it might be a little uncomfortable. Nobody explained anything about the procedure. (I wonder why.) Now that I'm older I would probably ask questions, but back then I was really painfully shy. There was this hallway, and I have been left with the impression that it was like being in an assembly line. The room where the abortions were performed was right at the end of the hall. When I went in I was asked to lay on a table with stirrups. The abortion really hurt. I could feel the vacuum ripping the baby and placenta off of the wall of my uterus. (After having the abortion I could not have sexual intercourse without pain for about 3 years. My gynecologist told me that I had scar tissue from the abortion. Some of his exact words were, "Every time we send anybody up there, they get torn up." After my abortion they took me into a room with a lot of other girls who had just had an abortion. I was given a tampon to wear for a certain amount of time, and then I was supposed to lay it on a paper towel in the bathroom. I was also given a pill to dry up the milk that would soon be in my breasts. I was wondering why I would have milk. I was also wondering about the empty spot I could feel inside of my womb. While all the rest of these girls and I, were in this room, somebody brought in this girl wearing a hospital gown. She had short blond hair and looked, maybe, 16. She was also only partially conscious, had an I.V. in her arm, and was covered with blood. She was plopped into a chair and left there. Nobody even bothered to cover her with a blanket. Obviously, she had to be moved out of the abortion room so the assembly line could move on.

I didn't think about the abortion much after that for several years. When I found out the truth about what I did I was devastated. I've done some things in my life, but this was the hardest to forgive myself for. I'm so thankful for Jesus and the peace that he has brought to my life. I can talk about what happened without shame now and I'm not afraid to face those who ask how anyone could ever do anything like have an abortion. The answer is always deception, self or otherwise.

In 1992, I was in collage studying cosmetology. The teacher and the class started talking about abortion. Obviously, everybody was either pro- choice or not speaking up. I told my whole story. After class one girl came to me and said, "You know Kathy, before you said what you said, I would have had an abortion. Now, I would never have one." After that I asked the lord for a good example, to show that a baby is really a life. I immediately saw a tadpole lying on the bank of a lake. A tadpole is alive. Just because it can't survive outside of the water yet and isn't called a frog, doesn't mean it's not a life.

I have read the above page and the forgoing 3 pages and the same is true and correct.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared E. [REDACTED] (Print Name),
who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: My abortion occurred in Chicago on the north side of the city at a planned parenthood facility on December 9, 2003.

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? Yes and no. When I was trying to make the decision while sitting in that room before I went through with it, I was so sick to my stomach, I didn't know what to think or do... let alone listen to what they had to say to me. I remember them describing that this is permanent and there is no way to reverse the process once it's been started and I remember laughing to myself saying isn't that the point. I had no idea how much I wanted to reverse it once I started the process.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No one told me this or if they did, I wasn't listening. At the point of decision, I was making my choice based on whether I could have the child or not... I wasn't worried about myself or my health at that point.

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? Again, yes and no. The father of the baby actually tried to talk me out of it. He was a resident doctor at a Chicago Southside hospital. He told me he wanted to have the baby but give it up for adoption. With me being adopted, I couldn't do that. Here's the thing though... I wanted to have the baby more than anything. When I first told the father we were pregnant, he was so happy yet very nervous. After his family got wind of this, they wedged themselves between Steve and I in an effort to break us up. It worked in the end. Steve and I lived together at the time yet he still felt as if his parent's word was the final word. In the end, he asked me to break off our engagement, move out of our apartment, have the baby on my own and he would see me in the delivery room for support when it came time to sign the adoption papers. I couldn't do that... I wanted her more than anything but no one told me what my options were outside of abortion and adoption. Finally, my family's influence on the situation was just there... They weren't happy about the situation but for me (I was 21 and Steve was 25), they accepted it. They said having the child was fine but they pushed for Steve and I to get married. Steve wanted to marry me but not that quickly so under the pressure of my family to marry him... he put a ring on my finger. He went along for the ride. When his parents stepped in, he stepped away from marrying me. My family wouldn't have their daughter having a child and not being married. When I mentioned to my mother the thought of abortion, she said she wouldn't blame me if I did it. She said she would support my decision. (She said it almost in a way that made me feel like that was the only way out.)

5) How has your abortion affected you? I cry because I miss her, because I wish I could take back my actions, and most of all, because I made the decision so quickly. I felt it was my choice but with the situation I was in... I didn't see another way out. I had the abortion right before Christmas and then went home for the holidays to be with my mother and father. I moved away from Chicago, quit my job, dropped out of graduate school and started an entirely new life in Springfield, IL for myself... 3 hours southeast. I had graduated just the past May with my undergraduate degree so moving home to Arkansas wasn't a decision to face everyone back there. I started my new job in the beginning of January and put a face of happiness on. I am strong but I also have realized that I turned my feelings off for about a month after I had my abortion. I couldn't hate, love or feel anything. I don't think I even cried that much. One night I let it all go and felt as depressed as I have ever felt in my life. I thought of suicide... seriously. I wanted to hurt myself and suffer the way I made my child suffer. I felt like a hypocrite because I'm adopted. Why couldn't I have walked away from him and support myself, have my child, etc or even give her up for adoption. I didn't want that though... I wanted to have her. In the end, I've spent hundreds of dollars on professional therapy and prozac/Zoloft to just get through the day. My doctor sat down to listen to me and told me I needed to see a professional therapist. She has been working with me since last spring. The hardest times have been July (when she was due) and now in late November and early December as this is when I had my abortion last year. It hurts badly. I think about it everyday. You can't help but think about it. I see a baby and shy away from them. When I am in a store, I avoid the baby section. My co-worker told me she was pregnant and I got jealous (though I never showed those feelings to her). If I hear how old a baby is, the first thing I think about is, "Oh, my daughter would have been 2 months older than your baby". I speak to my friends rarely about it and tell them how hurt I am... but they can't understand only because I'm too embarrassed to tell them about my abortion. I tell them all I had a miscarriage because of stress. My boyfriend I currently have is wonderful about it. He understands only because 5 years ago a woman he was dating had an abortion of his child... he's held me many nights crying. He seems to be over the fact of his abortion but I don't see how. Maybe he didn't want the child so I guess my situation is a little different.

Since the abortion last December (2003), I've thrown myself into my career. I bought myself a house at the age of 22, started graduate school again to get my master's degree, working for a great organization, adopted 2 dogs, started volunteering with Big Brother Big Sister (I have a 11 year old little girl I mentor), started volunteering with the teenage youth group at the church I attend, and finally joined a national society for PR professionals being appointed to their board of directors a few weeks ago. I've kept myself busy... the more busy I am, the less time I have to sit down to think about my lost daughter.

The last way it's affected me is physically... I cringe when I have my period. I didn't have the normal abortion where they put you to sleep and suck the child out of you. I had the medical abortion where you take one pill on the first day and the next day you insert 4 pills inside you female area and wait for your body to expel everything. I had to sit on the toilet for 2 days straight (just about) in the dark because I didn't want to see what was happening. I felt her come out though. What a horrible feeling knowing when you flush that toilet that you are flushing your daughter down the drain... literally. At that point (3 days later when it was all over), I hated myself, I hated my family, the father of my child... everyone. I thought (maybe somehow) that Steve and I would be fine once this was all over. He could barely look at me and told me so. That just added to my pain. I moved out of our apartment a few days after the abortion... I wasn't suppose to lift anything heavy but he made me get my dresser and everything else out of the apartment. Can you believe that someone is as heartless to make someone lift heavy objects after gone through that only 3 days before. Long story short... Took the first pill on a Tuesday afternoon about noon, (missed my graduate class that night), had the other pills put in me on Wednesday morning, after Steve left for work that morning, I surfed the internet for a while between bathroom runs and found the job listing for my current position and sent my resume, they called that afternoon and asked if I could come in Friday for the interview. Thursday afternoon, I went downtown for my graduate class at DePaul University and bought a new suit for my interview the next day. Friday, I went downtown (nervous as hell and only 3 days after the abortion) for my interview. I was so sick during the interview because of the abortion, it wasn't funny! But I held myself together and got through it. Saturday morning came and Steve and I moved everything I owned out of our apartment into my grandmother's garage a few miles away. 3 loads of cars later, I was moved out, he hugged me and said goodbye. On Sunday, I went to church and prayed for my soul and prayed God would forgive me for what I had done. On Monday morning, when I was looking at storage areas to put my stuff into, I got a call from the President of the organization offering me the job (about 10 a.m). I was so happy and thankful to God! I had my last graduate class on that next Tuesday night and went to Springfield to find an apartment on Wednesday. About a week later... I was moving to Springfield, IL. I had movers move everything down state for me. I've been in Springfield ever since.

Just as a side note... since it's Christmas now, I have my tree up in my new house. I have 3 ornaments dedicated to my daughter. On one, I have made it myself and have her name (or the name I would have given to her... Sophia Elisabeth Fials) on it with the date of her conception to her aborted date and to her due date. I don't know how healthy it is for me to have that on my tree but I smile when I think about her. Another is an angel dancing with a little girl. When I saw that I thought about my daughter in heaven dancing with the angels. (A new hallmark ornament this year). Finally, there is another angel holding an infant. I bought it 2 years ago but per it holds a special meaning to me.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? For those who know what actually happened, they support me and love me, resent and hate my ex fiancée, but yet rarely talk to me about it. The feeling is it's over so let's put it behind us and forget it ever happened. The thing is, I can't do that. I live with that regret every day. I find I don't have anyone to talk to about this because no one wants to talk about what I've done. On occasion, I am embarrassed and don't want to talk about it when I should be. Bottling it up inside me won't help anything but yet no one will say... how are you doing? Are you coping alright? I cry myself to sleep because no one else will cry with me. I know the few times my parents have spoken to me about it... they get beyond angry with my ex and my mother starts to cry when she thinks about her first grandchild being dead. She has said she feels horrible about everything that happens but keeps telling me I'm better off now that it's done. I guess I am in a way but I still can't seem to forgive myself for what I have done.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Think, learn your options before you leap, what other choices do you have and please... think about it for a week before you actually follow through with your decision... This is a quick fix with a permanent result that you MAY regret for a long time... the effects WILL affect you if not physically, but emotionally. You will think about your child everyday. Little things will make you cry. When you are suppose to be happy for your cousin or sibling who is pregnant.. you resent them for their ability to have their child. Just stop and think about what you are about to do because you can't turn back and change your mind.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Look at the situation I have gone through. This has ruined my life. If I was dying and pregnant and having an abortion would save my life... maybe... just maybe that would be an extraordinary situation but there are women who do this and don't think it will hurt them. They use it as birth control! This is such a wrong thing. There is such little education on what the other choices are for abortion. Adoption is just one choice. Educating the public should be where money goes to rather than a quick fix such as abortion. Life is precious and treating it any less should not be acceptable. I get sick when I hear about adults who kill their children by strapping them to their car seat and driving it into the lake (such as here in Illinois last year) or the woman who went nuts and suffocated her infant one night because he was crying too much... we prosecute these men and women. What makes an abortion any different? I had one and I feel as if I killed my own child. I DID in the end!! I have a hard time justifying what I did. It was so self serving, it makes me sick because that's not who I am. I help others. There is no excuse for what I did and I would never do it again... but as my grandmother said when I was little... "if you can't listen, you have to feel." They have tried to over turn the roe vs. wade decision for years.. Sooooo many have suffered because they didn't listen and now have felt the pain of the affects.. it's time to stand up and let people know what happens after you make the decision to have an abortion... IT WILL HURT YOU FOR THE REST OF YOUR LIFE. Please, consider the pain of millions. Not just the lost children but the lost life for the women who now suffer in pain quietly. I refuse to suffer and not let other women know about the pain it has caused me. If I make enough noise, maybe I will save at least one person.

- 1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred: 1982 or 1983 in Niles, Michigan.
The month, day, and year is blanked from my memory.
- 2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: NO. In my heart I believed it was a wrong thing to do, but I was so drained emotionally, physically, spiritually that all I could say, "this is the best way out."
- 3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? NO - nothing!
- 4. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? NO
Have you had breast cancer? NO
- 5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes

If so, who? The woman at Blessed Parenthood and the nurse + doctor at the abortion clinic.

- 6. How has your abortion affected you? I will always grieve for the child who had God's plan for her life taken away in such a horrible way. I don't know what dredged lies make up "a woman's choice" I am now working at a problem pregnancy center and will do all I can to uncover the lies and bring hope and answers to women in crisis situations.
- 7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? My sister can't talk or talk about it. My daughters say they understand because of their hatred for the man who raped me. No one else knew until I went through counseling two years ago. Two months ago I told my wonderful husband of five years - he was shocked but forgiving, loving, & supportive. This is all I have talked about it besides director of P.P.C.
- 8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would encourage her to talk about her feelings of fear, helplessness, anger, etc. I would tell her the truth about abortion and then I would help her think of her choices to make the right decision for herself and her unborn child.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Theresa A. ComEAU Jackson (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1. Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: May 1981 - At an Abortion Clinic in Metairie Louisiana
- 2. Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I was informed of a medical procedure in a room with other young girls and older women who were waiting to get an abortion too - I was not informed that it was a life I was taking.
- 3. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? don't know Have you had breast cancer? no
- 4. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? my mother If so, who? my mother
- 5. How has your abortion affected you? It made me suicidal as a teenager, depressed I felt I would go to hell. I felt a lost sense of God's presence inside. As an adult guilt, unworthiness, undeserving of my children & family
- 6. How has your abortion affected others in your life? not sure.

7. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell her that if she goes thru with this she'll regret it the rest of her life. It's a child that you will long for - forever - no other children can replace it.

8. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would tell them that they obviously haven't ever had one or they wouldn't want it to be legal. That abortion is murder. Why would a mother want to murder her own child? Or a grandmother murder her grandchildren.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: OCT 84, HARVEY, ILL
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO, My doctor told me it was a quick No Pain Procedure, it would take approx. 25 minutes and then I could go home. After 5 minutes into the procedure I WAS crying and ASKING the doctor to stop, he said he couldn't.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? But I truly wasn't informed of the truth about the procedure I WAS told it was very common and very safe and not painful which was all untrue!!
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? There's not a day that goes by that I don't think of my child and wish I hadn't had an abortion and I would have had and every since that day to date other people's real problems from abortion and the effect of it. There have been last time even when you have the Grace of God it still is a painful and heartfelt loss for me personally. The following day after my abortion, I ASKED MY DOCTOR for a tubal ligation to prevent MYSELF from the abortion and MY heart only wish and pray is that I could change that decision. I had wanted a large family but instead I punished myself for my sin!!!
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My son would have a 14 year old sister instead of being an only child.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? First and foremost it's not a blob or a nothing it's a child from the first minute of conception and we don't care that child a voice of its own we rob that innocent precious life of being born.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day appeared [Redacted], who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) When and where did your abortion occur? MAY 1995 - Hope Clinic Granite City, IL
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? (Check One) Yes No If no, explain: No one told me how much I would suffer emotionally after my abortion.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Yes No Have you had breast cancer? Yes No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes No If yes, who? My family doctor
- 6) How has abortion affected you?
In 1996, I was admitted to the locked ward of our local mental hospital, suffering from major depression. I spent three weeks there. In 2005, I spent another week on the locked ward. Both times, I was suicidal.
I know now there is no such thing as "therapeutic" abortions. My Down's syndrome son, whom I aborted at 4 1/2 months, was a gift from God.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Before my healing work I distanced myself from others, especially my husband, the father of my aborted son.
- 8) Based upon your experience, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? I would tell her an abortion would change her forever. She will never know innocence again.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Legal abortion makes it easy to do something immoral - evil. It is this knowledge that halts post-abortionive women.

- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? NO, NO
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? NO, I was scared to tell my parents that's all. Looking back that would have been so easy. Especially compared to the pain of what I have done.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I will never forget that I killed a human being. My own flesh and blood my child. It is very painful emotionally to remember this day by day.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband (the father of the baby) doesn't want to talk about it or think about it.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion? Please consider that this is a LIFE - your baby. You will never be able to forget. And you can never go back and change an abortion. Please give the baby a chance to live.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would say abortion truly stops a beating heart - a LIFE. And women can't forget what they have done or sometimes forgive themselves. It will tear them apart day after day.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: February 1997, Indianapolis IN
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? Not by the facility but out of my own personal knowledge
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? my family, unknowingly, out of fear of disappointing them, I had an abortion.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? In countless ways, I suffered from depression, anxiety, nightmares, fear of never being able to be pregnant again, I distrusted people, I was very angry, I stayed in a co-dependant relationship that was emotionally debilitating. I eventually sought counseling and found relief but to this day I deeply regret my abortion, I deeply miss my child, they were that I view my life is pre + post abortion and I am not able to remember / events in my life as well since the abortion.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Initially it made them very angry at me and my boyfriend, they also went through a grieving period.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? This is not an answer to the problem, that this abortion will only cause further problems in her life, she will battle depression, grief, anger, loss. she could also downward spiral into a life of drinking, STD's, more unwanted pregnancy, and abortions.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? This act is an offense to our women. It is morally wrong, a barbaric, torturous act that murders children and causes women to suffer needlessly for years. Feminists of today should realize this isn't a choice, they should fight for the mental, emotional, and physical health of women and the children they are carrying. Life is precious and should be preserved. If abortion was illegal, I never would have had one. There is no good reason, ever, to have an abortion.

1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred: February 13, 1987 Columbus, Ohio
2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No. I was not informed of the procedure that would be used, that there were different procedures for the length of pregnancy; that the Dr. would have to check the body parts, etc.
3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No - not at all; No consequences were discussed, physical, emotional, mental, etc. They told me "You know its just a bunch of cells, don't you?" I didn't believe it in my heart.
4. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No
Have you had breast cancer? Not to my knowledge - No
5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No, however no one said there were any other options for me. I didn't know how I could make it with a baby and thought I had left everybody in my life down.
6. How has your abortion affected you? Emotionally I could not resolve my feelings for more than 11 yrs. I've experienced grief, shame, fear, guilt. I feel sick when I saw pregnant women or babies and just somehow the babies would know I'd allowed my baby to be killed.
7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? Yes. Because of the emotional pain I chose to live a life without emotions - never really feeling any feelings. This contributed to the divorce of my first marriage. I will probably never have kids because of this experience.
8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? That it is a painful experience that will be with her forever no matter what people tell her. It is not something children can be hard to raise but there are ups and downs of joy - even in adoption - but there is no hope, nothing positive, nothing that can be changed once your child is gone.
9. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Women are still not being adequately informed as what this decision means for their life. Yes, we do have evidence through technology that even the youngest unborn baby is a baby and the court should recognize that we know more today than 1973 could consider the facts. The majority that this is to the child is overwhelmingly apparent.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: July, 1987
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? no. I didn't know the physical, spiritual, emotional, and relational consequences of abortion
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? father of the child
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? The abortion occurred in the midst of a physically abusive relationship. Due to abuse, I had a self-concept based on shame. The abortion solidified this concept - that I was unworthy of love and I didn't deserve happiness because I participated in the murder of my child. I was severely depressed and had irradic menstrual cycles
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? When I finally confessed, my family was mournful. My husband and I struggled to conceive.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? To consider all of the ramifications of having an abortion - physical (short-term and long-term), spiritual (mental), emotional and relational.

AFFIDAVIT

THE STATE OF Indiana §
COUNTY OF Grant §

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Wendy A. Hill, (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is Ruth Ogden (Print Name). My address is [redacted].

I want to tell my story if it will help I am willing to be contacted!

When I was in my early twenties, I lived in Jacksonville Beach, Florida. It was a Navy town and there was no absence of men to date or sleep with. I was a nurse, had a decent income, and plenty of time for fun. Unfortunately fun came in the form of dating. That often involved sexual relations with the men that were available. At that time, AIDS was in its early stages of discovery, and the "worst that could happen" for the most part besides a few treatable diseases seemed to be the possibility of getting pregnant. That did not seem to be a problem as I was on "the pill". So I went about life with a somewhat carefree attitude, experimenting sexually with the men I dated.

In 1985, I noticed symptoms that would have made me think that I might be pregnant. Though a critical care nurse, I believe I was still relatively naive. I saw a sign for a place called the Crisis Pregnancy Center that offered free pregnancy testing. I called and all they required was an early morning urine specimen. No problem.

The next day, I rose early, and took my specimen to the address in Jacksonville, near the hospital that I worked at, signed in under a false name which I can not even now remember, and waited for the result. To me, a Crisis Pregnancy Center, would have been a place to turn to where you would receive help with your pregnancy, and truly, that is where I thought I was going. I did not realize until they told me the results of my positive pregnancy test, and escorted me into a room for counseling, that I realized that this was an abortion clinic.

As a younger child, I had been raised in the Catholic Church to believe that murder was wrong and was an unforgivable sin. Though, I no longer attended church, I still believed that God would not forgive murder.

As I sat in the counseling room at that clinic, I was told that this was not murder. That I was not far enough along for the tissue in me to become a true "fetus" yet. I was encouraged to write down all the reasons that an abortion would be the best alternative for me. She helped me think of things. I did that!

- I didn't know who the father was for sure
However, I thought he was probably the one on the drugs that I wanted nothing more to do with.
- If so, the child would probably be born deformed
- I wouldn't make a good mother—
- How would I afford a child, daycare
- How would I find care for a child with the hours I worked as a nurse
- The child didn't stand a chance of a happy life
- He or she would probably end up as unhappy as I was
- Surely his life wouldn't be any better than mine
- Why bring a child into a world where so much misery abounded.
- A child would be inconvenient—It might ruin my chances of getting the Rehab job I was seeking,
- A child would ruin my life
- What would people think of me being pregnant and unmarried.
- No one would ever have to know that I was ever pregnant, especially since I had signed in with an alias.

Then the lady took the paper from me, drew a line down the middle and wrote three things down:

- Possibility of bleeding
- Possibility of infection
- Possibility of missing a day or two of work

Never was anything mentioned to me about the possibility of a link between abortion and breast cancer. We didn't discuss the emotional trauma that might be experienced. I was hesitant. But on the sheet of paper the pro-abortion side was definitely more weighted down.

The lady that was with me asked me if I had eaten yet that morning, and when I said no, she said, well, then we can take care of this for you right now. We have room for you on the schedule. She pulled out a stack of papers from the drawer and handed them to me to sign. When I said I wasn't sure, she told me that I was probably 8 or 9 weeks along and really couldn't afford to wait to make a decision. Besides, there was an ATM right in the building and I could get the money out of the bank and pay cash or I could just write them a check. There would be no record of what I had done because I had signed in as an alias. No time like the present.

So, I agreed to the abortion.

I sat in her office for just a few minutes before they escorted me to what was referred to as the treatment room. I was the only one there. I must have come earlier than all the other scheduled cases.

I was placed in a hospital gown. My legs placed up in stirrups. The Doctor came in and said "OK, we are ready to start, I am going to just put this tube in you and clean that mess out. You might feel a little discomfort." I started to protest. I started to stop him. He said. "We have a full day today, and we are working you in ahead of everyone else. Make up your mind." So I shut up.

He inserted the tube, turned on the machine which did sound just like a vacuum cleaner, and I experienced the most intense pain in my abdomen. I remember screaming out for him to stop. Of course it was too late. He calmly said "It's almost over.". Within a few minutes he was done. My legs were helped out of the stirrups and I heard him tell the nurse that if I had no significant bleeding, I could leave in a couple of hours.

As I lay there, separated only by curtains, from other women that were being escorted in, I listened to their screams, and the sound of that vacuum over and over again that morning. I realize that there could not have been more than 5 or 6 beds in that clinic, but the sounds of those women and the sounds of that machine have haunted me ever since. I can hardly stand the sound of a vacuum cleaner or the whine of construction equipment to this day! That night, as I suffered excruciating cramping and moderate bleeding, I wondered if I would bleed to death. I realized that I had killed a baby at that point. I knew without a doubt what I had done was wrong, and that knowledge and guilt and the shame of what I had done followed me ever since.

I have spent the last 23 years of my life regretting that fateful day when I wanted to get a free confirmation of the pregnancy that I suspected. I realize that the decision was mine to make and I could have said no, but I do also think that had I been given more time to think about what I was doing, and not given time pressures, my decision may have been different.

I do know that the outcome of that day has affected the rest of my life.

For one, I quit dating for the next few years. I did not have sex again until I started dating the man that is now my husband, and I have never, ever received any pleasure from sex since then. I can not enjoy the act of sex.

I have nightmares about the abortion procedure, about the child that I aborted and about the father of that child coming after me.

I have two beautiful children now, and as I love them, yet I often mourn for the child that never was.

I fight depression and tears on a regular basis.

I have fought anger and bitterness, I have uncontrolled flare ups of anger that come without warning, and I lost my job last year due to that.

I have lived with guilt and shame.

Until recently, I never told anyone about the abortion. It was this deep, dark secret that I could not share with anyone. So, I never made an effort to get to know people, because I was always afraid that I would be found out.

I have felt unworthy to be befriended by anyone because of my shame.

The decision to marry my husband was very much based on the fact that I knew that he had paid for a previous girlfriend to have an abortion, and so, I felt he could never hold it against me.

And the worst thing of all is that I have spent the last 23 years fearing the wrath of God! Obviously, I could not have all these repercussions from that one fateful experience in my life without it affecting those around me. My children have had to walk on eggshells at times not knowing whether this would be the time Mom would flare up in anger, or cope with a simple situation. My husband has had to deal with my being emotionally removed from him, never really loving him, and honestly, faking the enjoyment of sex with him. He has had to deal with a marriage where sex is avoided. My co-workers, too, have had to deal with my episodes of anger.

Thus, based on my experiences as what I would call a victim of abortion, I would never recommend that any woman, anywhere have an abortion. The long term effects of abortion in my life are a testimony that not only is abortion an atrocity to the child, but it is a long term threat to the health and well-being of the mother.

I am living proof of the long term emotional ill-effects of abortion on women.

I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Holly J Maxwell, (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is Holly J Maxwell (Print Name). My address is [REDACTED]
My telephone number and e-mail address is [REDACTED] I am over the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

July 1989, I was fourteen, I found out that I was pregnant. A few weeks later I went to an abortion clinic in Indianapolis, IN. I was 13 weeks pregnant. Since Indiana, at that time, only did abortions up to 12 weeks, they referred me to an abortion clinic in Dayton Ohio. By the time I was able to get there I was 16 weeks pregnant. It was a 2 day procedure. The first day, they took blood, did an ultrasound, and told what they were going to do. Which was, they would go in that day and insert into my cervix something that looked like a small tampon. It would swell and ~~enlarge~~ open my cervix. They told me some women felt fine afterwards were good enough to go go-cart riding. I went into the procedure room and they inserted the sticks. I immediately started ^{cramping} cramping. My mother was at the clinic and sometime that first day she paid for the abortion. We then went to a hotel at which we were given a coupon for but was included in the abortion cost. I cramping all night and throw up several times. I could hardly eat that night.

The next day we went back. There were some people outside handing brochures to girls and saying abortion was murder and it was not to late to stop it. Fitz One of the women even said she had one (an abortion) and said that it destroyed her. We continued inside. I went into the procedure room. That is when they performed the abortion. They gave me laughing gas for pain. Somewhere in the abortion they gave me a shot in the leg. after it was all done they told me to get dressed and put on one of their pads. I was to go into a recovery room where several other women ~~was~~ were at. I remember one of them crying saying it hurt so bad. They made me change my pad every 15 mins. in front of them for half an hour. after I did that I could wait out with my mom. when I was out there I told her of the lady crying. Her mother over heard me and said the her daughter had to go through it twice because the first time the doctor did not get it all and she got an infection in her tubes. after 2 hours of waiting I was able to go home. The next day I went to school and I started coming near the end of the day so I went home. I thought that was the end of it.

The years following I turned to drugs to numb myself of all I had been through. Once when I was 16 years I thought about suicide, it was an easy out. I figured it would end my pain. I had the knife up to my wrist and started to cut. I thought what would my mom do without me. I stopped and called a friend.

When I ¹⁶almost ~~became~~ ¹⁷ I meet my present husband. I got off the drugs to be with him. He tried to take away the pain and he did the best he could. In 1997, four years of marriage, and after trying to have a child through artificial insemination with no luck I began to think God was punishing me for having an abortion. I cried myself to sleep every night for almost a year begging God to forgive me. We started going to church Jan 98. I talked with my pastor about what had happen. He referred me to PASC (post abortion class). It helped me to receive God's forgiveness but not to forgive myself. I still had a hard time talking about it. In the summer of 2001 (I do believe) I seeked more counseling. I went to a counselor on the Northside of Indpls IN. He helped me to forgive myself and others related in the abortion. I still grieve for my child today.

I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

January 3, 2003

To All Interested Parties:

The following is submitted for use, in whole or part, as testimony for the express purpose of hoping to overturn Roe vs. Wade; and at the sole discretion of Texas Justice Foundation principals. To wit:

I considered myself far-removed from feminist lifestyle and attitude of the mid-70's: I was a working wife and mother of 2 beautiful, tow-headed children, a son aged 5 1/2, and a daughter aged 2. I was living the American Dream by all outward appearances: new home on a safe cul-de-sac, 2 cars and assorted toys in the garage, a poodle in the backyard. Everything and everyone color-coordinated. I couldn't imagine being happier, healthier, or more content, until...

I found out I was pregnant again. And quite simply, I viewed this as if some rude interruption in my ordered, perfect life. Little did I realize that I had indeed assimilated the I-Me-My mindset of the world when I chose to halt the pregnancy. All I know was that I'd rationalized I didn't want more responsibility; I didn't want my life to change; I didn't want... After a few weeks' alternate tearful and contentious discussions with my husband, he finally relented under objection to my request for a now-legal abortion at the most respected OB/GYN clinic in Fort Wayne, I never gave a moment's thought to the possibility that anything could go wrong, or that there might be (even a hint of) repercussion. In His infinite justice and mercy, God had other plans for me.

The procedure was performed in an ultra-modern, sterile environment. Darkly quiet, the only intermittent sounds were the somehow disconcerting-to-me hum of the motor powering the suction device, and the short, forced-light conversations between the nurse/technician and Dr. Ramaprakash. I don't remember either person looking at my face as they addressed me on the few occasions of giving me a directive, or to announce the next step(s) prior to their rapid progression. It was, of course, just an expensive, but run-of-the-mill and perfunctorily-performed D&C, right?

I left the Duemling Clinic as quietly as I'd arrived, with chin tilted toward my chest at just the right degree, not wanting to run the risk of having to acknowledge any known acquaintance. I'd told no one of my predicament or decision, supposing this, the media's much-heralded 'choice', afforded me quality care AND near-anonymity...even with God! (whose Name I'd spoken thousands of times, without conviction or heart as a youth).

There was no follow-up visit required or requested. I went home to go about life just as before. But I felt some trepidation after 3 weeks, about my continuing to pass blood, like a continuous light menstrual cycle unable to cease; and the near-daily presence of small white specks or slivers of... what? The nurse fielded my call, and after having conferred with Dr. Ram, gave my inquiry a wait-and-see dismissal.

Three weeks later, as I stood before the bathroom vanity brushing my teeth as one of those things I always did before easing into the evening bubblebath I'd already drawn, I felt a sudden gush, an overall warmth as if bathwater was pouring down my legs(!) and an immediate light-headed dizziness. I quickly leaned forward, holding onto the sink counter's ledge to keep from swaying; and lowered my head to try to regain my equilibrium. But upon looking downward I saw the blood that covered my legs and feet and, oh my God, the entire floor. I screamed in terror, never having seen so much blood in all my life. And in that instant of recognition, I knew that no one could survive so much loss of blood.

I must have fainted because my next memory was is of lying on the floor in the blood, and 2 paramedics trying to lift me through the narrow bathroom door to position me onto a gurney in the hallway. As they started to wheel me out of the house, I saw my children seated on the family room sofa, wide-eyed and unspeaking; just staring at me. My father, obviously having been summoned by my husband after calling for E.M.S., stood near my children as if their silent protector, all the while gazing at me with what can only be perceived as that awful sadness-pity mix one can't help but wear at a loved one's deathbed watch.

As I was being wheeled through the kitchen and living room, I whispered to the paramedics and my husband that if I wasn't going to make it, I had to say goodbye to my children. Without answering me directly, one paramedic told my husband to let the children come and say goodbye to me. I construed those words as a confirmation of my imminent death; and silently thanked God that my children wouldn't have to witness it. Somehow I was able to summon the wherewithal to smile and tightly hug each child, telling them how much I loved them. The moment they were carried into another room, I started shaking uncontrollably; and remained in that state of shock for the duration of the transport to the hospital, and transferral to the emergency-room examining table.

Momentarily I was met with a smiling face and the soft voice of one of Dr. Ram's associates - I don't remember his identity, I'm sorry to say. He examined me slowly, gently; oh so carefully explaining that the bleeding had stopped, would not resume, and that most assuredly I was going to live. He instructed me and my husband who stood beside me holding my hand, that Dr. Ramaprakash would perform a regular D&C the following day. It was then that I came to the terrible realization that the little white specks amid the tiny flow of blood those 3 weeks had been my aborted child's bone and cartilage left behind by both the suction hose and the doctor's curette.

We were never billed for the latter procedure. Nor did I ever seek further medical care from Dr. Ram or anyone known formerly as Morey, Smith, Lampe Associates. And this is the first occasion I've shared all the details of that nightmare.

It was nearly 2 months later, when I thought I was healed, and been able to successfully push the memory of the abortion and its aftermath from my consciousness that I received a vision and an admonition from the Holy Spirit, convicting me of the unspeakable horror of what I'd committed in arranging the death of my own innocent child. I went through the motions of living for nearly a year, pulling a pushcart overflowing with guilt, remorse and worthlessness...until a woman of astute spiritual discernment befriended me and told me about the Jesus Christ I'd never really known; and the incomparable gifts of Grace and Forgiveness. With a compelling unlike any I'd experienced before or have since, I became like a little girl again... I took a pencil and a piece of my son's school notebook paper from his desk; and wrote down every sin and shortcoming my memory bank would spill out. I then took my daughter's red crayon from among all the others in her precious carrying case, and drew a large red cross over the list. And when my family was all still occupied elsewhere I knelt beside my bed, placed the paper before me as if at a holy altar, and with tearful contrition, asked the Lord to lift all those unholy burdens from my life, forgive me, and to replace them with Him. He did. And my life was forever changed from that moment of incredible release. Hallelujah!

It has been nearly 30 years since that day, and circumstances have led me to live in 9 different states. Into every new town or city I've gone with a resolve not my own, to find the local abortion clinic to quietly picket. And to every local newspaper, to whom I have sent letters of protest like the one enclosed. Sometimes I will be met with hollered derision, obscene gestures and twice, near-misses with car bumpers as I re-trace steps on sidewalks. Sometimes (and I praise God for them) I exult in the honks and thumbs-up of other passersby. Whenever I write anything for the newspapers, I can always count on two things: Some respondents will give a measure of confirmation in encouraging or like-minded words; or the other kind, the ones who accuse me of wanting to turn back the hands of time and deliver womankind back into the hands of back-alley butchers. I can't number the times I've been asked if I would really force my own beloved daughter to carry to full-term a child that had been conceived by rape. We, all of us who call ourselves Pro-Life, know the myriad arguments and put-downs I've had to buffet myself from through prayer...and I won't be deterred, any more than all the others, as long as I have breath!

Thank you Lord and Savior of all, for counting me worthy of being lifted from that former futility, the falseness of self-worth without You. Amen and Amen.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

That there are real choices. Abortion is murder. I would give a life sentence

I would give her the necessary information to protect the life of her child.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

I would encourage a court to realize

Legalized abortion is not a choice.
It is a sentence to life imprisonment

My name is Nicole L Cornett (Print Name). My address is

I was 14 years old when I suddenly found myself pregnant. I had not given much consideration to the risk of pregnancy. I had been involved with my boyfriend sexually for only a few months and we were living together. My mom told me I needed to have an abortion when I told her of my pregnancy I was going to ruin her life and mine too. My only knowledge of abortion was that a friend of mine had had one. She seemed to be OK. I really did not consider abortion at the time but it had been introduced as a way out. She ^{my mom} said I did not have much time to make up my mind only up to 12 weeks. One night as I layed in bed alone while my boy friend played cards with our rent money and drank with his friends, I began to consider how this was going to turn out and to realize I was all alone with no one to support me. I became angry with my boyfriend. he drank and had a terrible temper he beat me up and said horrible hurtful things to me. I decided I could not go through with the pregnancy. I really do not remember much after I made the decision. I do not remember what my boyfriend or parents said. I know his Mom was upset. My mom and Dad dropped me off at a hospital in Glendale, Calif for the procedure and paid for it. I was alone in the room and as the nurse was preparing me for the procedure I began to have fears, second thoughts, she said I would be ok. I had made the right choice, everything was being made ready and I could not change my mind now. I am not sure did I really remember anything of the procedure itself. I think I remember a doctor, a room and a machine. I do not remember receiving any anesthesia but I do not remember any pain either. I do not remember leaving or who picked me up. I do know I went out to dinner with my boyfriend and his brother that night. His brother said he could not believe what I had done - I don't remember my response only that I heard a baby in the restaurant cry and I can still remember that. I never returned to school after my abortion. My life became drugs and alcohol. I do not remember grieving my baby, but I did get pregnant again a few months later and planned on keeping it but I miscarried. I also became promiscuous and when my boyfriend went away for several months I had lots of boyfriends. When he came back I got pregnant again and even though no circumstances of our relationship had changed I carried the baby and had a daughter when I was 17. I finally ended my relationship with this man when he tried to kill me. He continued to stalk me and threaten me until I became a Christian and accepted Jesus as my Savior at 19 years of age and finally he was gone. And I was forgiven I could not believe Jesus could actually love someone like me. Unknowingly my abortion continued to haunt me and after I married and was unable to conceive it reappeared. I felt that God was punishing me by not allowing me to have children. I was so desperate to replace what I had destroyed as I became depressed - suicidal at times

I struggled spiritually and lost all desire to live. God spoke to me to choose life but I did not want to. Eventually we tried IVF which I thought was wrong and it too was unsuccessful.

After agreeing to give up on a baby I became pregnant with an ectopic pregnancy then a out of the uterus pregnancy and finally another tubal pregnancy. After rejecting the possibility that God loved me at all since he allowed this to happen to me and walking away from my faith for 3 years I came to the end of myself and asked Jesus to take me back.

He restored me and began to rebuild me and in August of 2001 a Director from the Crisis Pregnancy Center came to our church and gave her testimony and the weight of my abortion suddenly came down on me as all the walls I had built to hide my secret fell down. I attended the Counselor Training and publicly confessed my abortion for the first time, over 27 years after the fact. Scales fell from my eyes and I realized why I had been so desperate for a child. I also came to realize that even if I had been able to have children, it ^{they} would not have replaced my lost baby. Abortion is deceit, it is robbery, it is not a choice. In order to make a choice you need to know what you are choosing and what the consequences will be. I was only 14 years old with no concept of what I was doing but I can say I knew what I had done was horribly wrong as soon as I had done it. Abortion was not a solution.

to my unplanned pregnancy
 it was the beginning of misery. That only faith in Jesus Christ and belief in the forgiveness and the grace of God can redeem. As women we are created to nurture and love the lives we have within us. This is in our heart and soul our being when we violate that we have gone against everything we are and violated something so vital apart from God there is no healing for it.

I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

County of Hamilton

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared K [REDACTED] L. B [REDACTED] who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) ~~Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred:~~ My first abortion was in 1976, The abortion was performed by an OBGYN in the Bloomington, IN hospital. The second abortion was in 1977 and was performed at a Planned Parenthood Clinic in Indianapolis, IN.
- 2) ~~Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does:~~ No, absolutely no information was offered to me that I recall on either abortion. I was young, naive and very scared, so didn't think it important to ask any questions.
- 3) ~~Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer?~~ No I was not. And no, I have not had breast cancer.
- 4) ~~Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who?~~ No, no one pressured me. It was my choice. I felt at the time that my difficult circumstances didn't offer me any other choice. I didn't want to live with the consequences of my decisions. Now, however, I see things very differently. I was too young and uninformed to be able to make a good lifelong decision.
- 5) ~~How has your abortion affected you?~~ Thankfully, to my knowledge, I have not had any physical consequences to my abortions. However, I suffered tremendously on an emotional and spiritual level for many years. I dealt with my abortion decisions by becoming emotionally numb, and eventually became incapable of attachment even in my relationships with my husband and my two daughters. I had violated my personal moral standards and therefore felt worthless, tainted, unworthy. I continued to make bad decisions that hurt not just myself, but my family, in an effort to escape the guilt and emptiness.
- 6) ~~How has your abortion affected others in your life?~~ For far too many years, I was emotionally unavailable to my young children and my husband. My feelings of unworthiness and inability to give and receive love cost my family a tremendous price. A price, had I known, I would not have been willing to ask them to pay. I continued to make bad choices in the years that followed that created a lack of trust, love and intimacy in our marriage. We were a fractured family for many years. Our marriage suffered and our family suffered because of our abortion decisions.
- 7) ~~Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?~~ Abortion is not an "easy" way to erase poor choices or to avoid unwanted consequences. The unfortunate truth of abortion is that we don't get to determine how this decision will effect us, or if in fact it effects us at all. When you are facing an "unwanted" pregnancy, all the options are difficult, the truth is there is no "easy way out." So please don't make a decision for abortion believing that it's a quick, easy fix. There are better options that won't leave you regretting for a lifetime a decision that you cannot possibly take back. There is tremendous potential for serious physical, emotional and spiritual harm, consequences that can scar you for a lifetime. You do have other options and there are many people, churches and organizations that are willing to help and support you and your family in this decision.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? The information the courts used in order to create the law and uphold the law since its formation is based on lies and half-truths. The two women whose life situations these laws were based, now see the truth about the harmful effects of abortion and they themselves are fighting to reverse the law, that should speak louder than anything. There are numerous statements of "fact" that have been used to support abortion as a legal right. One of the points of persuasion for legalized abortion has been "women have the right to make their own choices regarding their health and future." I completely agree with this statement. But it is also my right within that context to be told the truth about abortion, all of the truth, and nothing but the truth. I should be able to confidently rely on the abortion provider to give me that truth, no matter how my ultimate decision affects the provider. Why, when a woman is given an ultrasound before her procedure, do they turn away the monitor so as to not allow the woman to view what in the context of a "wanted" pregnancy the woman sees as her baby; this "blob of tissue" has hands, legs, eyes, a functioning brain and heart? Why are the potential physical and emotional risks minimized if talked of at all? You have no idea the emotional pain and turmoil I experienced when I saw during my "wanted" pregnancy what that "blob of tissue" looked like at 6-8 weeks, when I terminated. I have the right to know and to make an informed decision that I can live with for a lifetime, this is my most basic human right. The law was supposedly created to protect women, their rights and health. Abortion in no way protected me physically, emotionally, or spiritually, in fact that one decision nearly destroyed my life. It is the court's obligation to hear all the facts, even those that are contrary to the "voices of power."

"I have read the above and I hereby state that the same is true and correct."

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: May 1985, Abortion Clinic in Grand Forks
 - 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No It NO. Was very impersonal. The doctor asked for the money. Approx $275.00 and then had me lie on a table and leave right after the procedure. I was only 16 years old.
 - 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No Have you had breast cancer? old.
 - 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No If so, who? _____
 - 5) How has your abortion affected you? It has damaged my soul in a way that can never be healed. I was a young scared girl who got pregnant at 16 years old. I panicked and when I contacted a hospital in Canada I was told I needed parental consent. My parents were going through a separation and I didn't want to burden my Mom so I was given the name of an abortion clinic in Grand Forks, N.D. who would do the procedure, no questions asked. I just wanted it to be over and told myself it wasn't a baby. I just chose not to think.
 - 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My mother just cried when I told her what I had done. She said if only we could have talked about it. Maybe things would have been different.
 - 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Having an abortion is not the easy way out. You can run but you can't hide. Maybe for awhile, but not forever. The pain and the reality of what you did will come. Find you maybe 10 or 20 years later but it will come and when it does, look out. Don't do it to yourself or your baby. You are worth more than that and you are loved.
 - 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? It's easy to think that we are not really killing babies. I know. I felt the same way. But no one will ever convince me that the beating heartbeat of a 7 week old embryo is not a baby. I seen it I felt it and I watched it grow. Medical technology helps us sustain life all the time and we are given medicines to help us live. A embryo is given a mother's womb.

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred:

I live in Canada but was unable to have the procedure done here so I went to a clinic in Grand Forks, N.D. on Jan 19, 1987.

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?

The only thing I was aware of at the time was that I was terminating an unwanted pregnancy. I was a Christian, so I knew it was wrong but was never informed that I was actually ending the life of my baby.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer?

No, I was not informed about the link between the two. No, I have not had breast cancer.

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who?

No. It was a mutual decision.

5) How has your abortion affected you?

For years I struggled with guilt, depression, feeling unloved, low self-esteem. Just seeing babies made me feel guilt and brought back the pain. I also had an ectopic pregnancy which almost killed me later on, due to scar tissue in my fallopian tube ~~and had to have~~ as a result of the abortion and had to have life-saving surgery in which one of my fallopian tubes was removed.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?

I have a hard time being a loving person to my family because I spent so many years purposely numbing myself to my feelings that I became uncaring to everyone around me.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

I would tell her that abortion kills an innocent life, that the consequences do not go away, it is not a quick fix, and she would have to live with the pain of those consequences for the rest of her life.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

Murder is not legal; therefore abortion should not be legal. They are the same thing. I've had ultrasounds that show babies' heartbeat & movement at a very early age, that is a wonderfully created, living human being from the moment it is conceived. Dear Gueta:

It was so nice to speak with you. First, I thank God for you, Operation Outcry and the initiative you have made to encourage women like me to come out of the closet and share the pain and remorse abortion brings.

For over 15 years now I have been sharing my horrid abortion testimony publically in order to expose the damage, warn women of the dangers and save tiny babies created in the image of God. It sure has been a difficult and emotional road, for years I have been praying that God would raise up multitudes of other women to ALSO share their remorse and proclaim the truth that abortion always has at least two victims.

With more and more studies now confirming the fact that abortion causes depression, suicides, infertility, cervical and breast cancers and premature births in future pregnancies, we must be on the front-lines teaching and warning young women of all of the risks and declare the humanity of the pre-born.

The two greatest lies promoted in this generation is one, that it is a "safe" procedure, and two, it is not a "baby"...together with one voice dispelling these lies we can stop this holocaust.

May God bless, strengthen and prosper you all, and may we be a voice shouting down the goliath of abortion on our continent as living stones in the mighty name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

As requested please find enclosed my Affidavit and some details regarding the events of my horrible abortion experiences. Please note that like thousands of other Canadian women I had one abortion in Buffalo, New York, and thereby feel a connection to your country.

Sincerely,

Denise Mountenay

I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

After being raped at the age of 13, I turned to alcohol + drugs + under the influence I became promiscuous. My first boyfriend got me pregnant when I was 16 years old + he tried to deny he was the father. My Mother encouraged me to have this "operation" + go on with my life. The gynecologist never explained anything and I was asleep during the abortion. About 10 years later I was again pregnant and feared losing my boyfriend - I even asked my doctor, DR. FRED FREDMAN, what was developed? He took a pen + piece of paper and put a dot on the page and told me it was "nothing" + just a clump of tissue. HE LIED, as I later discovered. This abortion was done with pressure from my Mom + girlfriends + so I thought well - if the government think its OK, + the doctors + my Mom + friends - it must be OK, this abortion was done in a "clinic" while WIDE AWAKE - it was the most horrible - excruciatingly painful experience - like being raped again. I got an infection from this abortion in a Buffalo, NY clinic. Quickly I spiralled into depression + despair + drugs + alcohol. I barely remember my last abortion. Now I am speaking out to WARRIOR women of the breast cancer clinic + try to save perfect healthy tiny babies. God help us!

7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My son will never know his siblings. My parents will never know some of their grandchildren. My brothers will never know niece(s) or nephew(s) They don't tell me their feelings.
8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? God loves you and your baby. You will love your child and be able to do what's best for the child. Someone cares about you! This infant is a part of you. Death is not the answer. The only sane "choice" is life.
9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Think of a mother's heart. It should not be legal to kill human babies. Do you wipe away the Iowa is experiencing a shortage of workers. The children are innocent and have the potential to contribute to society. Adoption would be better. Abortion destroys faith and family. It will make you feel dead.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1985 - Warren, Michigan
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I was given a pregnancy test, told I was pregnant, but that it was only a blob of tissue, they would use a vacuum type procedure to remove it.
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? NO Have you had breast cancer? Never tested
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? YES If so, who? The father, he wanted nothing to do with me since I was pregnant. Also I was too young and unwed so it just wasn't right in society's eyes.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? Emotional pain, depression, angry at those responsible, lots of guilt, no body to talk to and understand all that happened. They give you the abortion, a drink - some rookies then send you home not telling you all the physical & emotional problems that will come. You're expected to just go home and act as if nothing happened.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My family lost a member (granddaughter niece, aunt, sister.) They didn't even have a choice.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? It is very wrong. Don't do it. There are so many right choices, adoption, keep the child, get help from family. Taking a life is wrong.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion is wrong, it hurts innocent children, never giving them a chance at life. It also hurts women, young too. It's something you will regret the rest of your life. Please reverse your decision to make abortion legal. It's not the right choice for anyone.

1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred: January 1990 in Colorado Springs, CO when I was 16 years old.
2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No. I was not given any information specific to what abortion does to a fetus. I was only given information about the procedure itself.
3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? I was given a form that stated normal complications that would be given to any biological patient.
4. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No
Have you had breast cancer? Not yet, but I fear for this to happen
5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No, but I was asked leading questions that led me to believe it was my only option.
If so, who? _____
6. How has your abortion affected you? It has made me fearful to have other children. It has caused emotional trauma that cannot be explained in this space. More over I feel a sense of guilt that cannot be explained or anything.
7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? It has caused a painful estrangement with my father (who knows of the abortion & was against it) & myself. It will take years to fully heal myself.
8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I feel aged & would not do your choice now that I've gone through this. I would unequivocally say - DON'T.
9. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion should be legal for as many women as when they were illegal. But if bills that force women being legal, it's an "easy" answer to what is 1st presented as a problem. However if forced to carry the baby to full term, these women would be afraid for their lives & health. I know and will never be able to know it.

- 6) How has your abortion affected you?
I was 33 yrs old + unmarried at the time, you have no idea how it affected me emotionally! I went back to work the next day, but it wasn't until the anniversary date of abortion that it hit me. I was depressed, cried a lot, I had counselling several times. It took me 17 yrs + lots of counselling before I finally got over the emotional trauma. Incidentally, I never did become pregnant again.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My younger sister went with me that day. She has never even mentioned it again. My ex-husband later told my father against my better judgement. My dad never even mentioned it either.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?
Consider all your options being I had before going thru with it. There are so many couples who want children, but can't. But above all - don't dump babies in the trash or abandon them either.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion may be legal, but no one ever tells you about the legal right to abuse, pain, headache and self destruction.

1978 - Madison Wisconsin 1981 - Iowa City, IA

- 1. Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1979 - Iowa City, IA
- 2. Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No I was not informed at all of the nature or of the consequences of the abortion. In fact I was told that it was a blob of tissue and it would be easier + safer for me to abort than carry to term. At my 2nd abortion in I.C. Iowa I was even shown a firm strip of blobs of tissue.
- 4. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? boyfriend, peers
- 5. How has your abortion affected you? It has caused me to be infertile. It damaged me physically that I have had to have a hysterectomy. It has caused emotional pain, depression, anger, drug use, alcohol use to numb the pain. It has caused pain + heart ache in my marriage and family life.
- 6. How has your abortion affected others in your life? My parents do not have 3 grandchildren, my brother and sisters don't have 3 nieces + nephews. My husband can't have his own biologically children. It has changed my family history
- 7. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell her that abortion will not solve her situation it will only add to her pain and problems. An abortion is final. You will never see your child again with adoption you have that option. It will also cause pain + scars for the rest of your life. Abortion doesn't solve the problem it only makes you the mother of a dead child.
- 8. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion should not be legal. It is medically unsafe for women. It physically damages women not to mention the emotional, psychological, and social pain and devastation it causes. Please reverse this decision that has destroyed women for 30 years now.

- 1) When and where did your abortion occur? 1977 in Madison Wis. #12 - 1979 Iowa City, IA (Emma Goldman Clinic) #3 1982 - Iowa City, IA
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? (Check One) Yes No If no, explain: I was never told of the risk of the procedure or of damage it could cause. I was only told it was just a blob of tissue. That it would be quick, easy, + safe. That it would be safer than carrying to term.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No - They never told me I could become infertile or have infection, bleeding, or any other complications. They never told me of any physical or emotional consequences.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Yes No Have you had breast cancer? Yes No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes No If yes, who? My boyfriend
- 6) How has abortion affected you? It devastated my life. It affected me physically, emotionally, + spiritually. After the abortions I abused alcohol and drugs. I became very promiscuous. I hated myself so I thought no man would love me unless I gave them something in return. I tried to commit suicide 3 times. When I finally got married I had extremely difficult and painful periods. After testing they found I was infertile because of the damage done to my tubes because of the suction from the abortion procedure. The only 3 children I carried + ever would carry I killed. I had to have a hysterectomy at the age of 41. Abortion changed and effected my entire life. It has changed my entire families life including my husband + parents
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? - My husband will never have his own biological children. My parents are missing 3 grandchildren. My family tree has been changed.
- 8) Based upon your experience, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? DONT DO IT. You will never forget your abortion and it will negatively affect you for the rest of your life. It is final and you can't take it back. Please make a different choice. Choose adoption.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? It should not be legal. Roe has been bad law for that last 34 yrs. It has negatively affected our society. Not only have we killed millions of our productive society but we have damaged millions of women. It bad law and it is bad health care. Abortion is damaging to women, children, men, and society.

The State of Iowa
County of Benton

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Mary Lee Summy (Print Name),
who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: April of 1966 in Dallas, Texas
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?
No. All that the abortionist explained was that the procedure would be like a doctor's exam and that it might cause minor cramps. She instructed me to follow the procedure with a lot of walking. She told me that in a few hours I would expel the "tissue" in a manner no different from menstruation.
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer?
No. No.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? Yes. My rapist step-uncle simply announced that he was taking me to someone who would take care of my problem.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? The procedure hurt. Expelling the "tissue" hurt. Immediately after the abortion I became physically ill, lost weight, and unknowingly remained pregnant with the twin until the horror of a surprise, solo, six-month miscarriage. Confidential medical treatment occurred. Throughout life, I endured problems with irregular periods and bleeding, but couldn't reveal my history. On an emotional level I was lied about to my father and subsequently rejected by my father. Sheltered by a low self-esteem, I then spent thirty-three years paralyzed by fear of anyone ever finding out my shame. I was told the rapings were my fault and to forget the abortion, to "forget your mistakes and go on with life." I experienced frequent insomnia, nightmares of "the embryo" swirling out of sight in the commode, rape nightmares, hiding nightmares which included the commode scene. I married a good man, and with marriage I experienced a strong desire to replace my twins. I loved my three boys, but I felt punished because I didn't have any girls to replace the twins. I was socially inept, unable to go past surface relationships, unable to effectively communicate with my husband - a lot of desperate lying in order to avoid making decisions that might conflict with what I thought my husband wanted. At church I was known as the quiet Mary with a unique sense of humor (the self-defense mask). I was apparently gifted to write, but unable because I couldn't write from my soul and survive the exposure. I over-reacted with lava hate toward abuse and abortion issues, and then I shuddered back into cloaked darkness in my mind, not aware of the whys of my behavior and reactions to life. All of this greatly hampered spiritual growth because I avoided allowing Jesus to reveal my unrighteous issues.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Although aware of my past, my husband was frustrated with my communicative skills and over-defensiveness. He was unhappy with our marriage for a number of years until we approached God for healing. Trust was devastated when I confessed lying about intimate enjoyment—due to false teaching and fear of rejection. Our marriage healed awesomely because of God's Grace, forgiveness, and healing. By God's Grace I couldn't tolerate abuse, so my three sons grew up with a mother who grew up with them. However, if they mistreated one another, an angry mother surfaced who screamed at them but seldom hit because of my hate for abuse.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?
I've been there. Even though I was raped, I actually took those steps into the room with the abortionist. Even though I was a terrified and shamed victim, I owned a certain responsibility to the act of allowing abortion. God's Holy Spirit touched me during a hopeless moment and saved me from suicide. Even though I was religiously ignorant, I now know that the Holy Spirit gave me a sense of wrong-doing, a sense to pull away from abortion, a sense that I could endure life with pregnancy. I chose to endure life but, I allowed abortion - thus a life ruled by terror. Abortion is like the worst kind of rape to a woman's soul, a soul darkened with ashes from the twin towers of emotional and spiritual collapse. Only Jesus could rescue me from that terrorist, but I had to seek God's intimacy to obtain forgiveness and healing. Alternatives Pregnancy Center in Waterloo, Iowa contributed to my healing process through a post-abortion Bible study. Before you decide, seek information from a local alternative pregnancy center to help you understand the technical aspects of abortion as well as potential physical, emotional, and spiritual effects of abortion. They will lovingly help you see through pressures to abort and help you understand your heart and what you want which may include a positive life through a pregnancy as an alternative to abortion. I fell to my knees when the ashes cleared and God revealed to me my twins as victims of my abuse (something I could not stand). You see, my aborted twins, Amber and Dawn, were created by God, the same as you and I.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? In addition to information above: Abortion hurts women's health contributing to and/or causing dysfunctional social and spiritual well being on physical, emotional, and psychological levels. Abortion is incompatible with our country's foundational concerns for value of human life, liberty for all, and the pursuit of happiness. Our country contains at least 34 million women misled into abortion since Roe vs Wade, not to mention unknown numbers who managed to find an illegal abortion prior to Roe vs Wade. Thirty-four million plus the silent unknowns add to our growing dysfunctional society. Informed women who wanted abortion before Roe vs Wade now affirm joy in not having abortion readily available—even rape cases who joyfully raised the resultant children or allowed adoption. Our country and this court were also founded on Trust in God. According to God's Bible, God knows each of us before we are even conceived. According to God's Bible, God formed our every detail in our mother's womb. According to God's Bible, God has plans for each of us. Therefore, our lives were known in God's time long before we existed, and a physical human life begins with conception. Is it any wonder that women and some men who experience the act of abortion unwittingly step into a life of spiritual confusion, a life of physical problems, and a life of some type of dysfunction? Does this court deny God? Is this court ruled by our founding father's God who is the only true God or by society's post-modern, spiritual dumbing-down? It's time to act now because every twenty-six seconds another woman adds more problems to her life through abortion. Every twenty-six seconds our country's social problems increase. It's time to seek God's healing for our country.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: June 10, 1981 in Santa Fe, NM

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?

No! I wasn't told of any consequences - just that an abortion was an opinion some

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer?

No to both questions

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? I think I pressured myself & also, thank my dad and step mother did too.

5) How has your abortion affected you?

I became depressed, suicidal, & became cold toward children. Also, because the abortion was incomplete, three days later I went to the ER (for excessive bleeding) and they basically repeated the abortion procedure (to save my life) and the anesthetic did not take.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I broke up with the father.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? That even though abortion looks like it will solve the problem of being pregnant, that it brings on a lot more problems that you can imagine. The emotional pain is greater than any good from a pregnancy.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

That because it is legal does not make it moral! That abortion causes a lot more problems for women.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Melody A. Athey (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred: November 10, 1971 at Memorial Hospital in McPherson, Ks.
2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No. I was told it was not a baby yet and it would be in my best interests for health reasons (my age, 17, and associated risks) to terminate the pregnancy.
3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No. I was not told of any consequences.
4. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No
Have you had breast cancer? No
5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes

If so, who? My mother and the physician

6. How has your abortion affected you? I repressed any memory of the experience for 25 years. My whole lifestyle changed after my abortion. I started drinking heavily and married an alcoholic shortly after. I tried suicide once and considered it several times. I had repeated periods of depression, especially around the anniversary date of my abortion. The guilt I felt was overwhelming. I finally got help 5 years ago at a crisis pregnancy center (where I now volunteer) and realized my abortion was the root cause of my self destructive behavior.
7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? My relationship with my parents, especially my mother, was terrible. A lot of anger and bitterness. My younger brother still cannot forgive them for forcing me into the abortion. My husband now tries but can't understand the pain and grief I still feel after all these years. It affected my self worth as a wife and mother and my husband and kids suffered at times for it.
8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would do everything I could to talk her out of it. I would make sure she is fully informed of fetal development - that it is a baby and not a blob of tissue. I would give her other alternatives and resources to either keep her baby or adopt it out. I would make sure she knew she isn't alone. I would share the risks of abortion and the emotional after affects.
9. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? It should not be legal. We are destroying human lives by the millions. We are also causing millions of women pain, grief, and guilt over something many were pressured into. Of the nine women I know who have had abortions, only one was because of her own choice. Abortion takes away a woman's natural instinct to love and nurture her baby. Roe v. Wade must be overturned to protect not only our unborn baby's lives, but the lives of millions of women.

Only until Jesus Christ came into my life & fully forgave me, taking my sin from me, washing me clean at the foot of His cross & have I experienced peace. AFFIDAVIT

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion.

The State of KANSAS

County of Leavenworth

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared CHRISTINA CZECHUSIAK (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: November 1991 Newport, CA
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No. Other than cost and post-op care there was nothing. I was scared and asked questions they said they weren't qualified to answer. They were cold and business like. It frightened me.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? My boyfriend, (the baby's father) and my parents. I feel its ironic to call it "choice" when, in fact, I felt like I had no choice in the matter at all. I wish it hadnt been an option.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? More than I can fit here. I had complications with both of my boys (born later marriage) that resulted in the removal of my uterus. The scar tissue damaged the inside of my uterus causing Indiscribable pain and heavy bleeding. Those are just physical. The spiritual regret one feels after destroying life is so overwhelming it is inhuman. We were not made to kill our children and every fiber of your being knows that and reacts to it. I've suffered depression, suicide attempts, guilt, and a longing for my child that is at the very core of my being. After having a baby and seeing the ultrasounds I professed to spend my life ending this crime against women.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My relationship with the baby's father ended almost immediately. My relationship with my mother is strained. How do I tell my kids that I aborted their half-sibling? My husband and I can no longer have children. He would have liked 5.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? We are trying to adopt, 2 million families are looking for newborns. Dont listen to Planned Parenthood (I did). Once a baby comes you would be amazed at what you are willing and able to do for your child. My baby took with her a piece of my soul. Its been twelve years and I regret it every single day of my life.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Why? Because having a child is so traumatic? Talk to my therapists or priest or my husband who holds me while I shudder with pain during crying spells. I would say if you truly love women and want to protect their rights, start by eliminating the pressure to abort their children. How many women would have had these children, given them to loving families or raised them themselves. I know of at least 5 other women who would have had their babies if they hadnt been pressured by "loved ones" and society. Have that for womens rights?

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Angel Dillard (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Middle of Sept. 1993, Wichita Family Planning
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? no
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? no. If so, who? _____
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I spent the next 2 years in a very profound depression, did not want to live, was very suicidal, suffered nightmares and still have tremendous guilt and regret. I have to live with the fact that I killed my own baby and I mourn for her daily. It has taken 10 years to be able to admit what I've done and accept God's forgiveness. I will forever be without my child, and feel a great loss at never knowing her.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? No one knew. I couldn't tell anyone and it has been a secret I have carried ever since, telling only my husband-to-be 4 years later.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I have counselled women that abortion creates problems, not solves them. The pain afterwards is much greater than the hardship of the pregnancy itself, and it is a lifelong open wound that will never quite heal.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion is a needless, hurtful, immoral procedure that was legalized through illicit means. It kills a living human being and puts a heavy burden of responsibility on women who are not, and should not, be able to make life and death decisions that will affect them the rest of their lives.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared E. Louise Harris (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: South of Stillwater, OK 1959
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No
I did not know that I could develop an infection that would cause me to be sterile. I years of mental pain and anguish over not having natural children. I slept for so many children.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No If so, who? Caused by having lost pregnancies at 6 mo, 3 mo, 1 month etc. I had a hysterectomy. In 1959 I was 20 years old.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I have had lots of regret, overthinking past 6 babies, plus the abortion. One I carried, healthily one was S.P. ectopic surgery & almost died. Most were very early losses within 3 months. Life is physically very difficult for me. I have had to have counseling for emotional, self-abuse, self-harm, feelings of unworthiness and shame & guilt. I have hindered my own growth and maturity emotionally. I have become a committed Christian. I know that I am forgiven after being told a right relationship to God. I am free from guilt clear before God.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband has never forgiven me for not being able to have children. Our relationship is strained. We have 2 adopted children. Both are young adults with families.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell my story and tell about my pain. I don't find out the truth, don't have a perspective, it's not worth it. There are many couples who want to adopt a child, and you'll know they are loved and wanted. I now have 6 grand children.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? There are a lot of worse that can happen than having a baby. Many women don't know their rights as a wife or mother. The haunting memories will be with me til death.

(My doctor told me at this time that this condition was fairly normal after an abortion and not to worry.) I could no longer concentrate at work and had to go to lower level job. There are also self-hate and suicidal thoughts.

- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I knew immediately afterward that I had done something terrible + irreversable. I've suffered guilt + shame. In the immediate years following I went thru eating disorders, destructive relationships, Anxiety problems. I feel it caused me to have problems bonding with my first baby + feeling natural maternal feelings - post partum depression. Coming to know Jesus as savior + the grace of God started me to heal.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I've kept it a secret from everyone which has caused me guilt + shame. I think it affected me having natural maternal feelings.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? She would regret it the minute it was done + there's no way to go back + undo it. It's a myth that it would eliminate the problems put in the past because it's something she will think about the rest of her life.

AFFIDAVIT

(Questions For WOMEN Who Have Undergone Abortion)

The State of Kansas
County of Sedgwick

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Michelle Stewart (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: in the spring of 1981 in Wichita, KS
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No, I did not understand what an abortion was, as I do now. Now I know it is an unbelievable act of hatred and murder against an unborn child, God's creation. I was 17 at the time and told it was nothing.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? Nobody at the facility explained how awful I would feel - the guilt, the horror, as I realized years later what I had done to my baby.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? I was not informed of any link and at this time, do not have breast cancer.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? My boyfriend, who I eventually married, manipulated me and told me if I had the abortion that we would get married.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? It has left me devastated. I will never feel whole again until I get to heaven, where I will see my baby for the first time.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? For 17 years I never told anyone, except the boyfriend. After telling family and going through extensive therapy, I know they forgive me, but it was devastating for them to find out.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion? I would beg her not to do it - not to kill her baby! I would tell her of the unimaginable guilt, sorrow and horror she will live with every day of her life if she does. It will be the one thing in her life that she will always regret doing.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? They are wrong. ABORTION IS MURDER and should NEVER be legal, under any circumstances. Even if I were raped, and pregnant I would not abort - no child is a mistake in God's plan. Abortion is a lie, a lie to the mother, a lie to society, it is time for the truth. The truth is that ABORTIONS ARE WRONG!!

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

 (Print Name),

who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion

occurred: 1986 - Mtn. View, CA Planned Parenthood

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I would not say adequately. I was shown some pictures and explained how the procedure was done.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? NO. NO

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? NO

5) How has your abortion affected you?

It did not seem to affect me until I got pregnant with my daughter. When I was pregnant and experienced all the wonders of a baby growing inside of you - it hit me! I was devastated at what I'd done, felt a tremendous amount of shame and felt ~~worried~~ unworthy. For years whenever someone said

6) How has your abortion affected others in your "abortion" life? I felt shame + guilt. My husband is sad for me and my loss and terribly angry at the ~~much~~ misinformation that is provided to women considering it.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

I would tell them to consider adoption. In the big picture it is the more courageous thing to do and later in life you will be proud of the decision to adopt vs abort

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

I would tell them that not only do they stop a beating heart + brain ~~becomes~~ activity but they also hurt the woman carry ~~the~~ child. Why is a "fetus" a baby when the child is planned and wanted?

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared K [redacted] B [redacted] (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: first abortion in 1975 at "Comprehensive Health" in O.P. Kansas. Second abortion in 1981 in Springfield, Missouri.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: Yes.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No. Yes, I had breast cancer in 1996.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? Yes. My parents, my boyfriend, his parents and my high school counselor.
2nd abortion, NO ONE pressured me.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? Mentally, I experienced depression, experimented with alcohol and drugs, developed an eating disorder, and later dealt with much anxiety related to my family. I went through 20-25 years of grief before learning the root cause of my problems.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I've been pessimistic, always expecting the worse to happen. And I was over protective of my children for quite some time.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion? What seems to be a quick and easy solution, is NOT. Abortion causes more grief than one can possibly imagine. Eventually, the woman will have to deal with the unresolved feelings ~ usually 15-20 yrs. later ~ and it is not quick & easy.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Is it legal to withhold documented consequences from a woman who is thinking of having an abortion? No. We're so very careful to inform buyers of medicinal side effects; if deemed ludicrous not to do the same for a

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct." Medical procedure. I would also tell the court that life truly does begin a conception. I learned this later, unfortunately.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Lisa K. Arnold (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 11-1-75 Toledo, Ohio
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? no
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? Parents
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? It forever altered my life physically, emotionally, and spiritually. I was never able to have children. I suffered from depression, anger, lowered self-esteem, anxiety, fear + startle reactions. It took me 20 years to come back into a relationship with God because I was afraid He hated me for what I had done. Part of me died with my child that day.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband, children, family + friends had a hard time putting up with my mercurial behavior and it only added to the guilt I carried ( children through adoption)
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? That she will never be the same. Women were created to nurture their children not kill them. No one kills with impunity and the ramifications are life long. If killing your child is considered a good decision, what would a bad decision be?

The State of Kentucky

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Monica L. Bland (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: 1985 @ a clinic off of Powers Ferry in Atlanta, Ga
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? No If not, explain: I wasn't told anything about the procedure used except that it was like a suction. I only recently found out the truth about all that really takes place when an abortion is performed and my heart broke w/ sorrow for my unborn.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? Not other than I would experience bleeding like a period for a little while following the procedure.
Truth: The bleeding was a great deal heavier than a period & lasted for a couple of weeks.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No Have you had breast cancer? No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? My mother
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? For years I experienced an enormous amount of guilt & shame until I received God's forgiveness and the true revelation of His love flooded my soul. Forgiving myself for taking away a human being right to live was a long process.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Because taking the life of another isn't something you flaunt (unless your heart is made of stone) the shame of abortion is a pain that festers on the inside.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? DON'T DO IT!!!
- 9) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion causes so much emotional and physical devastation that it is hard to believe that it is a legal procedure in the United States, a country who stands in defense (to the degree of war) of those in other countries who cannot defend themselves.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared _____ (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: (Louisville) KY @ 14 yrs old & (Dayton) OH @ 19 yrs old
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No - the only thing detailed as I recall was how to take birth control pills - both abortions
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? First abortion at 14 years old I knew very little about abortion. My boyfriend, 6 years my senior, served as the impetus. I was afraid to tell my parents.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? 2nd abortion - I wanted my baby but older boyfriend was my world & I went along with him - He wanted me to have an abortion & made the appt. for me.

Today, I am 36 years old, have been through 2 post abortion groups. Prior to my healing, I have been addicted to drugs, self-destructive in every aspect of my life. Self-hate. Anger. Guilt. Shame.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? They affected every relationship I've had with men. Have never had a healthy male-female relationship. Abortion affected the life of my 2 children. They are not with me & I mourn for them daily.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? You could never in a million years imagine the hell you'll inevitably experience - throughout your entire life. The pain, God can heal, but it really never goes away.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion was accessible & available. Had I had an ultrasound, been counseled on the emotional, physical, mental consequences, if I had realized I could say "No" to my boyfriend who pressured me; if I accepted myself - I would not have relied on the notion that my government would uphold a law that ultimately wasn't good for me. "I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct." I'm angry! Abortion is deception!

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion.

The State of Kentucky

County of Bullitt

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Paula S. Botos (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: April 1993
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? My abortion led to a life of depression and anxiety. I really thought that I could forget about what I had done. I knew deep down that it was wrong, but I turned to do things that I shouldn't have done. I hurt emotionally for 8 yrs. I felt worthless, I tried to cover my "lie" with drugs and turning to men. Once I found Jesus Christ I had to remember this and deal with it. I am so glad I dealt with it - I am now "FREE INDEED"
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It has affected my family because they have had to deal with all of the effects of my pain and grief. Some don't know but they all knew I was hurting.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would make sure that she heard my story. I would ask her to pray with me and ask God to show her the "light". I would do my best to get her to a pregnancy center. I know she would feel my emotion pouring out of her.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would ask them to consider what their lives would be like without "their own" children - or even without the people most important to them. We are all children of God. No one has the right to take that away from anyone - Born or "UNBORN"

AFFIDAVIT

(Questions For WOMEN Who Have Undergone Abortion)

The State of Kentucky

County of HARDIN

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Nicole W. Cooley (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: April 15/16, 1994 in Washington DC. I believe the name of the clinic was "Washington Surgi-Center" - it has since closed.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No! I remember signing forms but not comprehending any of it. There was no personal counseling at all at the center. (Well meaning) people I trusted - parents, friend, pastor had ^{rape} supported my decision to abort because I had been raped. My reasoning was irrational
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No. In particular, I should have been discouraged from abortion since still being in emotional upheaval the more significant negative outcomes were more likely. It was like being raped again.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No. No. (Unless this was in all the paperwork I couldn't understand through my tears and shaking in the clinic waiting room prior to the abortion.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? No one gave me any real advice - but left this huge decision to a distraught, highly emotional, hysterical woman in no way able to make such an objective decision. No one encouraged me to seriously consider alternatives so my abortion was justified in my ^{case}
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? Fun/ob exams are extremely stressful - and painful as well for years. Mental h/m was difficult. Difficult in childbirth. frequent insomnia. Abortion compounded the pain of my rape making healing much more difficult.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband is still wary for a "normal" sexual relationship after 6 years of marriage. It's a source of tension between me & family/friends who still hold pro-abortion views.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion? Abortion is so devastating that I would never do it again - even at the cost of my own life. The abortion procedure is inhumane - pets are treated far better. This is a decision you will live with the rest of your life - make a choice you won't regret.
"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1987- Abortion Clinic- on Broadway
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? Yes, but no - I remember them playing him in the waiting room, but I won't watch them, nor did anyone else for that matter
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? The father & social impact of "My father & mother will kill me if you blow, I'll be marked for life's pleasure. If she get pregnant & wasn't married"
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? How bad it affected me is the question. Physically - ~~that~~ was told my uterus had been clipped. But uterus was not harmed. There really just a good word to describe the left over residue that it leaves in you emotionally, physiologically & mentally - escaping with drugs, alcohol & always wanting to feel something to fill a black hole - leads to a very dysfunctional & hazardous lifestyle that no one ever tells you about (with substance abuse)
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Yes, they don't know that in the waiting room but it do.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Consider every option before this because once you cross this line - you enter into a totally different world that have all other aspects of "doom" which leads to physical illnesses & long term mental illness
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? ~~that~~ This is very similar to the Garden of Eden - ~~that~~ "tempting to present the apple (in this case Abortion) as good & wholesome, only to be deceived, ~~of~~ the fallacy of it leaves I doesn't help women - it disconnects women from all the earthly desires that God wants to give us.

1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred: Between 1973 + 1975, I don't remember exactly
I've tried to forget
 2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: NO I was never informed about fetal development or what the exact procedure entailed, or the pain
 3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? no
 4. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? NO
Have you had breast cancer? NO
 5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO
If so, who? _____
 6. How has your abortion affected you? I began to feel guilt & remorse, depression, I had dreams about having a baby or I forgot where I put them or forgot to feed them. Usually in the dream I could hold them in one hand.
 7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? It doesn't seem to have affected anyone. Although I have never told my 3 children. The only people who knew were my parents + my husband.
 8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I work a hotline for "opportunities for life" it is the only thing that has given me peace from my guilt. I try to get the calls to let us send them all the information. I believe that if most people see the facts, they would not choose abortion.
 9. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? In cases of rape, incest, and the impending death of mother, I would not want to make that decision for anyone, but abortion should never be used as a contraceptive! We chose whether we should have sexual relations, whether we want to have protected sex, we should not include murder of our babies.

- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NOT Really if so, who? Felt pressure from family and friends although no one said outright that I should have an abortion.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? It has left me feeling rotten about myself. Like I am unable to make good decisions and unworthy of friendships, love, other children. I struggle daily with low self esteem and depression, and while I am beginning to feel some healing I know that I will carry this emptiness with me always.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I have distanced myself from friends and family because I feel unworthy of their love.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? You cannot imagine the emptiness you will feel afterwards, and the regret. The horrible thing about abortion is that you can never undo what you did, never!
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I believe there is a whole generation of women who have been lied to and misinformed about abortion. Doctors and nurses are so willing to take your money and your child's life without presenting the facts. I never even saw an ultrasound of my baby. I believe that massage alone could have saved her life. But because the abortion doctors know the truth, they choose to

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Carolyn Knapschafer (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: July, 1976 - A Clinic in Louisville, KY and Dayton, Doctor's Office.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO - NO information was given to me or my parents who were with me, regarding any consequences to the Abortion. They just took the money.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? YES If so, who? my family physician told me I would die if I did not have an abortion. He was strongly Abortion minded, saying I was stupid for not being on the pill.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I nearly died after the Abortion. My parents took me to a nearby hospital - By God's grace I survived. Over time I became very depressed + suicidal. Several relationships were destroyed. Two years after the Abortion, I had a menstrual extraction - another name for an abortion. I rushed in to that decision out of fear of the severe sickness I had with my first pregnancy. I nearly had a 3rd abortion with my 13th daughter.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Yes, it has negatively affected all my close family + friendships. I have only been able to forgive myself with God's help. If I had it to do over, I never would do it.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Abortion is never an answer to a problem pregnancy. It will only lead to new and greater problems. Once you do it, it cannot be reversed. It will be very difficult to forgive yourself for taking the life of your own child.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion should be made illegal because it is the legalized murder of an innocent child. It is not natural for a mother to kill her own child. We have many laws protecting the rights of animals - should we not have laws protecting children in the womb? True justice is protection of all children - born and unborn.

- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I became more withdrawn and moody. I developed a passive/aggressive personality. I avoid conflict or confrontation, I retreat.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell them not to have an abortion. I have shared my abortion experience with a woman that planned to have an abortion, she has a beautiful baby boy now, praise God!
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would tell them that abortion kills one person and wounds another for life. Murder is wrong, support women in crisis by providing support before + after they have a baby, it will be cheaper to provide support as opposed to treating depression or chemical abuse at a later time.

- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: I was only told that I would be given a sedative, and when I awake the pregnancy would be over.

- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? they have to deal with my depression

AFFIDAVIT

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion.

The State of Kentucky

County of Taylor

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Patricia Kim McAfee (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1972, Louisville, KY
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I may have been but it was all very much of a blur and I've attempted to put much of it out of my mind. I have gone through a POST ABORTION Recovery Program.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes/no If so, who? At the time, I was 16 trusting my family to help make the decision. I just did what was decided for me, wishing for it to hurry up & be over.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I believe that it set in motion years of self-destructive behavior. I became very 'addicted' to sex in order to feel 'worth'. I buried my hurt & shame for years, but by the grace of God I've felt His love & forgiveness. I believe I've been able to help others overcome their guilt & shame by giving the hope in Jesus. It is still a haunting memory for me & not many days go by that I do not think of my 'child' who would be almost 34 years old now, probably having children of their own.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I have recently shared my 'story' with my son because I have begun to share my testimony. It has hurt him deeply but he has a forgiving, loving heart. Some in my family I've begun to share & they are still dealing w/it.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? There is no way to describe or relay the amount of pain & regret this decision can cause. Now that I am a Christian I understand the consequences & exactly what abortion is in God's eyes. I know that I'm forgiven but will NEVER, EVER be able to 'experience' & share in the life of the child I aborted. DON'T DO IT!!!
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? That we are giving permission to commit murder... that we'll charge people with murder if that baby is killed at birth but not in the womb. My baby was a "life" that I denied an opportunity to live. We enable our society to be numbed, in order to convenience sake. God help us!

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Jan 88 Louisville Ky, Jan 91 Nashville TN.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO, I WAS NEVER COUNSELED BEFORE OR AFTER.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? YES If so, who? EX-HUSBAND
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? After I had my first abortion, I moved to the Detroit area where I began seeking psychiatric help. I was diagnosed several different times by several different psychiatrists. I was put on many different anti-depressants, stimulants etc. I have suffered from severe depression and have attempted suicide several times.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My children most of all because I had to harden my heart to have the abortions so my children were kept at a distance emotionally and physically.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? There is no quick fix and the consequences of having an abortion will haunt you your whole life. It will affect every area of your life and every relationship.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Freedom is a right that every human being deserves. The choice that I had available to me was a choice to not only take someone's life but it caused my whole family severe pain and my living child ren might have lost their mother had it not been for a post-abortion bible study that helped me to get past the pain.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Kelli R. Perkins (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: May 30, 1997, Knoxville, Tennessee
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO If not, explain: The people at the clinic told me that the abortion wouldn't hurt any more than menstrual cramps. They also kept referring to the baby as the "contents of my uterus."
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? They gave me a pamphlet that I had to sign that told of the possible risks, but the clinic staff did not have me sign this until after I was medicated.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? My sister. She was the first person I told that I was pregnant and her exact words were, "You can't have this baby."
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? For a while I pretended that nothing happened. Soon after though I began to suffer from post-abortion syndrome. I have had problems with guilt, rage, and depression. Even though five years have passed and I have a 2-year-old son, the emotions resulting from my abortion are just as real + strong as they've ever been.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My sister feels guilty about her role in it. The people who know seem to feel a sadness for me, but mostly for the child who died as a result of my choices.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Don't do it! No matter what people may say, abortion is the murder of an innocent baby. Sometimes even with that knowledge you may think of abortion as an "easy way out," but trust me, it will be a decision you regret for the rest of your life.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Even though the most important fact is that abortion is murder, you should also consider that the woman involved is misled. By having abortion legal, you are essentially stating that it is okay to take advantage of someone who is already vulnerable. Please hear the cry of all the mothers who are mourning for their aborted children.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Lexington, KY
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? They described the process only, not the long term effects.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? _____ If so, who? I don't know how to answer this. I decided to do it, but I didn't arrange it or pay for it. Friends of my boyfriend took care of everything. At the clinic in the counseling session I told the woman I believe a doctor was murdered because of my Christian
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? beliefs. She pulled out a Bible and showed me some kind of scripture I don't remember where it was, that pertained to a mother (or woman) being more important than the baby she carries. I've yet to find that scripture since, I'm not sure what she showed me. The abortion has had a major affect on my life. I contemplated suicide often after doing it, and attempted it once. I think of my child daily and the pain is difficult to describe. I married the father of the baby I killed and we have 2 children now. I have to be careful about allowing myself to think for a long time about what I did because the pain is unbearable. I can't believe I took the
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband regrets it, but doesn't seem as emotionally disturbed about it as I. He is very supportive of me and tries to help me deal with it. My older sister regrets not telling me to keep the baby, she feels strongly that abortion is wrong.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Do not do it. You are taking the life of your beautiful child. If you do it you will live with the horror of what you've done the rest of your life. Consider adoption if you must, but please don't take the life of an innocent child for your own convenience.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Pre-abortion groups advocate the rights of the mother. They fail to discuss the after affects of abortion on the woman's emotional and physical health. They should consider this as well as the life of the child the woman carries. Abortion is big business and people are making a lot of money providing this "service". They will say anything to get a girl to go through with it. I'm also concerned about Fathers rights. Women should not have the right to kill a man's child without his consent. My brother's girl friend aborted twin boys without his consent. He wanted the children.

AFFIDAVIT

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion.

The State of Kentucky

County of Edmonson

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared P. R. (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Approx July 1988 (or Summer of 1988 - 22 yrs ago) in Muskegon, MI
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No. Not adequately anyway. I was not prepared to handle the emotional trauma I've endured for 22 years of killing my "only" chance of having a child that I would ever have. The physical pain was severe to unbearable.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No? If so, who? I was married at the time & had an affair with another man. I felt pressure from within for living a lie & knew I would not be able to continue that lie. I felt so guilty about it I thought an abortion would fix everything.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? It has given me the confirmation that it was the "WRONG" choice. It has tormented me for 22 yrs. every time I see someone pregnant; always wanting to be that woman & to feel life inside of me (who would be put there by God for this reason) It has made me realize that had I known the LORD at that time as I do now - I would not make that decision. I have been drowning in guilt & sorrow all these years. It has made me very sad - I would not want anyone to ever have to feel as my heart has & has. It has felt like demons would take over & pull it out of my subconscious & slap me in the face with it - over & over until I
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? They kept most at a safe distance. Cared it with Jesus! & driven others away. It has caused stress in every relationship I've ever had. My family does not know - I've never told them.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Please I beg of you! In the Name of Jesus of Nazareth, Don't do this! There's another way - HIS WAY! Would you like me to pray with you? God's hands will guide you. TRUST in HIM! His decisions are always the RIGHT Decisions! Let His child live. I would cry as I said these words to her.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? If abortion is legal then all convicted MURDERERS need to be released from prison & set free. When you kill someone it doesn't matter if they're big or small - when they're dead - they're dead! Abortion = death. Murder = Death. Abortion = Death. God has the only authority to take an unborn child.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1/14/84, Clinic, Louisville, Ky
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO. I was asked if I felt like I needed counseling & when I said "NO" they said "OK! NO OTHER FOLLOW-UP or waiting period!" "Sign here & wait in line!"
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? I didn't want to be "pressured" into anything - because I had heard stories of that. So I did not tell anyone but a close friend.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I was 18 & now 37 yrs old! It has affected every aspect of my life. My self-worth, confidence in making decisions, drawn towards abusive relationships, constantly searched for answers; guilt, shame, fear of someone finding out; I turned to drinking & living a life of promiscuity due to over compensating from my denial & living a life of coldness, bitterness, anger, hatred, resentment and basically FROZEN FEELINGS. I did not want to be the cold, NUMB person I had become, so I over-compensated. Isolation & irresponsibility also
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I withdrew in a marriage sexually & emotionally. I could not accept LOVE from others. I was so broken - I was later faced with date-rape - others took advantage of my weakened soul.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? It is NOT an option! THAT... is Human Life & it is not our "choice" to KILL another human. It is wrong. It is Not a "quick fix" it is something that is permanent & you can never ever take it back. This may be your only child. The pain, turmoil, depression & guilt you will carry is far
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? greater than learning to be a parent! That the court is in-sensitive and they have not heard the CRY and PLEAD for freedom & forgiveness of post-abortive women! This is always a tragic moment & a horrible trauma a woman faces after abortion. Give that child who IS a human being, the right for freedom and LIFE!!!!

Affidavit Concerning Mid-Term Abortion

The State of Kentucky County of Fayette

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day appeared Kathy G. Rutledge who being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1. When and where did your abortion occur? August 27-28, 1977 Meharry Medical College/Hubbard Hospital at age 18
2. How many weeks pregnant were you? 14-16 weeks Type of procedure? Prostaglandin F2 Alpha Surgical
3. Did you have an abortion for health reasons? No
4. Specifically, what were the health reasons? N/A

Were you told your pregnancy was life threatening? What was the reason N/A

5. Did the doctor tell you that there were any problems with the baby's health? No

How has the abortion affected you physically, emotionally, and psychologically? The physical effects I suffered included violent premature labor and massive hemorrhaging from numerous fragments of tissue retained in my uterus for over a month requiring a second surgical procedure to remove and from which the second doctor stated I could have died. Long-range physical effects included cervical incompetence causing two subsequent miscarriages in my mid 20's. Observation of the "product of conception" caused devastating emotional and psychological complications. Suicidal thoughts afterward caused me to seek professional and spiritual help to overcome the shame and horror that came from the realization that I had killed a real baby. I endured chronic depression and emotional dysfunction as a result of flashbacks and other post-abortive syndromes.

8. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes the abortion procedure should be legal?

The short-term relief of terminating my unwanted pregnancy was completely overshadowed by the physical and emotional trauma I suffered as a result of the abortion procedure and the overwhelming sense of loss. The agonizing grief associated with my loss did not resolve with either the passing of time or professional counseling, but was eased only through spiritual renewal. I remained silent about my experience for 28 years due to fear of shame, embarrassment and additional emotional pain. Though I can't bring my baby back, I hope to help others. Women need protection from life-long physical and emotional complications that are suffered from abortions, and women need the truth and support for the irreplaceable life they are carrying in their womb.

AFFIDAVIT

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion.

The State of Kentucky

County of Jefferson

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Rae S. Thompson (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Approx. 1980 in Baton Rouge, La.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? Yes, I was counseled in regards to the physical aspects of the procedure but not so much about the emotional affects.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? For my parents it was the only solution. I guess I didn't fight them on it, since I knew I wouldn't have any support if I went through w/ the pregnancy.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? The procedure itself is like a nightmare to me. The environment was one of coldness and "procedure-like" emptiness. I've experienced tremendous guilt, depression + loss. Many years have passed over 20 and I still become anxious or fearful about the safety of my own children and am also fearful about the day I will tell my children about this or anxious that they'll find out from another source.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It definitely affected the relationship I've had with my parents. I'm sure they feel guilt, as well, and it's an issue that is never brought up but very uncomfortable.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell her that I've been there and it is absolutely not worth all of the emotional scarring, possible physical risks + depression she will ultimately experience after the loss of this child.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I'd say I murdered my own child, it is wrong and women were made to murder the child inside. Of them, not to murder them. I'd say lets spend our tax dollars on support of women and adoption rather than thinking abortion will solve everything, it is enslavement rather than freedom!

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Age 23 ~ April '81 in Binghamton, NY

- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No Have you had breast cancer? No
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No If so, who? Fear of my dad's reaction prevented me from telling anyone in my family.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you?
I have suffered with chronic depression for most of the years following my abortion. I have been suicidal at times. I have hated myself & have had great difficulty in my marriage due to the repressed grief & remorse over taking the life of my baby. I've struggled with horrible nightmares & have had a hard time accepting God's forgiveness. I experienced infertility & have lost a baby to miscarriage. I have been a prisoner in emotional jail.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?
My relationship with my husband has been deeply affected - difficulty in receiving his love, lots of problems with my rage, lots of sorrow before, during & even
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? after I went thru post-abortion I would tell her that she will spend the rest of her life... grieving healing. over the baby she would never hold. I would urge her to not make the choice to put herself through the torture that follows this dreadful choice.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?
There is nothing that kills a woman's soul than the willful choice to destroy one's own baby. Abortion is murder of not just one life, but two. Women who have had abortions suffer in silent emotional & spiritual torture for the rest of their lives.

Based on the medical research to date, I think we all know life begins at conception - whether we admit that we know this to be true is another. We are talking innocent lives! My telephone number and e-mail address is [REDACTED] I am over the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

I was raped in my apartment on/about March 6, 1994. I was an officer in the US Army assigned to Fort Bliss located in El Paso, Texas. My boyfriend drugged me so I could not resist him, unable to wake up or move my arms or legs, I believed I was dreaming and didn't begin to realize the truth until the next morning when I went to the bathroom. Still mentally hazy, I remarked I needed to go to the emergency room but he talked me out of it - making me doubt what had happened. The night of the rape, I dreamed I was pregnant and felt sure of this truth until a home pregnancy test confirmed it two weeks later. This was how I lost my virginity - to a man 16 years older who told me he respected my decision to wait for marriage.

It took me two weeks to sever the relationship. As the truth became apparent, the emotional pain was unbearable. I ~~later~~ discovered I wasn't the first victim and he had preyed on similarly naive women in the past - who also became pregnant. As I pieced things together, I became fearful

Through my faith in Jesus Christ I eventually found healing. I have forgiven the rapist, abortionist and others who contributed to my decision to abort. My pain has been a source of compassion for others - and I reach out to women to promote similar healing.

I did not abort in Texas because the clinic I called said "we'll do whatever you want" when I asked about an unsafe 4 week abortion. I also did not seek help through the Army, fearing it would affect my career and security status. (I later realized this wasn't true when I received a top secret clearance despite my disclosed personal history.)

Questions For WOMEN Who Have Undergone Abortion
Nicole W. Cooley
May 1, 2002

1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred:

April 15/16 1994 in Washington D.C. I believe the name of the clinic was "Washington Surgi-Center" – it has since closed.

2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain:

No! I remember signing forms but not comprehending any of it. There was no personal counseling at all at the center. (Well meaning people I trusted – parents, friend, pastor, rape hot-line supported my decision to abort because I had been raped. My reasoning was irrational based on the tumultuous "feelings" in the aftermath of rape.

3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion?

No. In particular, I should have been discouraged from abortion since still being in emotional upheaval, the more significant outcomes were more likely. It was like being raped again.

4. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer?

No. No. (Unless this was in all the paperwork I couldn't understand through my tears and shaking in the clinic waiting room prior to the abortion.)

5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who?

No one gave me any real advice – but left this huge decision to a distraught, highly emotional, hysterical woman in no way able to make such an objective decision. No one encouraged me to seriously consider alternatives – saying abortion was justified in my case.

6. How has your abortion affected you?

Gyn/ob exams are extremely stressful – and painful as well for years. Marital intimacy difficult. Difficulty in childbirth. Frequent insomnia. Abortion compounded the pain of my rape making healing much more difficult.

7. How has your abortion affected others in your life?

My husband is still waiting for a "normal" sexual relationship after 6 years of marriage. It's a source of tension between me & family/friends who still hold pro-abortion views.

8. Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion?

Abortion is so devastating that I would never do it again – even at the cost of my own life. The abortion procedure is inhumane – pets are treated far better. This is a decision you will live with the rest of your life – make a choice you won't regret.

Abortion doesn't "protect" women – it destroys them by allowing them to go against their inherent nature (to protect children). By keeping abortion legal, women are duped into believing it is safe, morally permissible and inevitable. Abortion is none of these – it is emotionally/physically destructive, immoral, and in the long run, the harder "choice."

My name is Nicole Whitehead Cooley. My address is [REDACTED] My telephone number and email address is [REDACTED]. I am over the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

I was raped in my apartment on/about March 8, 1994. I was an officer in the US Army assigned to Fort Bliss located in El Paso, Texas. My boyfriend drugged me so I could not resist him, unable to wake up or move my arms or legs. I believed I was dreaming and didn't begin to realize the truth until the next morning when I went to the bathroom. Still mentally hazy, I remarked I needed to go to the emergency room but he talked me out of it – making me doubt what had happened. The night of the rape, I dreamed I was pregnant and felt sure of this truth until a home pregnancy test confirmed it two weeks later. This was how I lost my virginity – to a man 16 years older who told me he respected my decision to wait for marriage.

It took me two weeks to sever the relationship. As the truth became apparent, the emotional pain was unbearable. I discovered I wasn't the first victim and he had preyed on similar naive women in the past – who also became pregnant. As I pieced things together, I became fearful for my life. I recognized his stories about co-workers and his "brother" were most likely his own. I didn't report the rape because I believed doing so might very well cost my life. I had no faith in our legal system to convict him. Even if they did, 1-3 years in jail wouldn't stop him. Instead I fled to the relative safety of my parents' home in Springfield, VA for a week's emergency leave. I spent my days/nights crying incessantly and often uncontrollably. I fantasized about killing the man who raped me – even acting it out with a revolver one day in front of a mirror. I came close to taking a gun back to El Paso with me for protection but didn't trust my emotional state and decided against it.

It was under this emotional stress I decided to abort my baby. I believed the baby was evil and somehow gave the rapist continued control over me and my body. I thought separation from the baby would help me to regain control and begin the difficult healing process.

Before the abortion I could "feel." I cried whenever I was alone. In hindsight, I think largely in mourning over the abortion to come at 6-7 weeks gestation, the earliest "safe" abortion. Afterwards, I shut down emotionally and stayed numb for over four years. The added trauma of the day of the abortion haunted me. I came to view the abortionist as Satan himself and I hated him. The gut-wrenching sobs that have so frequently overtaken me were not the result of rape – but abortion. I have grieved tremendously for my lost child and how he died. I berate myself for not being stronger and placing the child up for adoption.

I believe women, such as myself, need professional counseling to resolve the issues of rape before they can reasonably decide whether or not to abort. I personally think abortion is contraindicated for women who are raped. I tell people 9 months really isn't that long in the course of one's entire life – maybe 1%. Those months are extremely difficult anyway. Abortion compounds the injury and makes healing much more difficult.

Through my faith in Jesus Christ, I eventually found healing. I have forgiven the rapist, abortionist and others who contributed to my decision to abort. My pain has been a source of compassion for others – and I reach out to women to promote similar healing.

I did not abort in Texas because the clinic I called said, "We'll do whatever you want" when I asked about an unsafe, 4 week abortion. OCT 28 2004

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared

who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion

occurred: August 1987 - Myrtle Beach, SC

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I was told nothing of the procedure, any complications I might experience, or what would happen after the procedure - all they wanted was my money. I didn't even get a follow-up call to see if I was doing okay.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No, I have not had cancer although I had a mammogram in August for a nodule that appeared on a CT scan. I am at higher risk because my grandmother died of breast cancer. (maternal grandmother)

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who?

No - I made the decision myself after agonizing over it for days before I followed through when I called the clinic, they came across as that I was doing the right thing.

5) How has your abortion affected you?

17 years later - I still suffer the consequences. I think about my child & what help she would be doing today. My husband & I are not close intimately and I live everyday with the regret. My self-esteem is very low - I tend to keep to myself alot.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?

It affects my husband because we're not close sexually, we've never really sat down & talked about it and grieved. I keep my feelings to myself and tend to alienate him. I did not tell my mother until 5 yrs later - it hurt her deeply. My dad, to this day still does not know he has another grandchild. My husband's parents were deeply hurt.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

I counsel at Care Net. I had an opportunity to share my story w/ a 15-yr. old girl who is 8 weeks pregnant. She's afraid of telling her parents. I told her not to do it for that reason because it's a decision she would live with the rest of her life. It's not something you do & it's over -- it's with you forever.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

Abortion is murder. We put people in jail who commit murder on the streets, but it's okay to murder millions of babies? They're not "globs of tissue" - they are human beings. Their hearts beat 21 days after conception - before a woman even knows she's pregnant! When you stop a heart beat - it's murder!

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

A F F I D A V I T

Twenty-six years ago I had an abortion. I was unmarried and had been seeing a man who was divorced and had three children. When I told him I was pregnant, he said he did not want me to have the baby and did not want to marry me. He offered to pay for an abortion. I remember crying and telling him that I wanted us to be a family. I had been through much grief and I wanted a family. I was so broken, and even though I was far from the Lord and was living an immoral lifestyle, I had been reared in a church-going family and I did not believe in abortion. However, at that time, in my brokenness, I remember telling myself that God could take better care of this child than I could and therefore I justified the abortion in my mind.

When I went to have the abortion, one of the staff talked with me briefly. They had tested me and determined that the fetus was approximately 8 weeks old. When the doctor came into the operating room he didn't act like I was there. I remember saying something to him, and he looked at me like I was not supposed to say anything and he ignored me. I don't remember the procedure because I was completely unconscious, but when I awoke I just had this feeling that something was terribly wrong. There were other women in the recovery room and we were all very quiet but I knew we were all feeling the same thing.

One woman was married and had other children and did not want another child. She said, "I have learned my lesson." Another girl had had three abortions. The feeling that I had was just a pervasive sadness--I can't even describe it.

Two and one-half years later I gave my life to the Lord and it was such a joy to me to realize for the first time in my life that Jesus knew my name and loved me, but more than that, that he still accepted me even after what I had done. I was like "those who dream when I was led out of captivity." (Psm 126).

Even though I have walked with the Lord for many years⁶ He has given me a child and grandchildren, there is a part of me that has not healed and I feel I will never be completely whole in this life.

The Lord led me through a healing service--a private one--just me and the Lord, and I was able to grieve the loss of my child. I have gone through grieving in stages. My husband and I just attended the funeral of a young man-17 years old. The young people there were grieving for him and I was reminded that no one grieved the loss of my child except me, because I didn't allow him to live.

I was in a service with Jerry Bernard, and he had a word of knowledge that someone there had had an abortion and not to grieve; that the Lord had my child and he was safe with Jesus and the Lord didn't want me to have guilt. I received that. I also heard Jesse Duplantes talk about his trip to heaven and he saw the little ones who had been lost through abortion and he said, "God doesn't lose any of those babies." That also ministered to me. This is still something that I struggle with psychologically, even though I don't think about it every minute of every day. I feel like I can get to a certain place in my spiritual life, and then there is a wall that I can't get past. Because of this, sometimes I do wonder if I am forgiven. Nothing but the horrible sacrifice that Jesus made on the cross could pay the price.

I told my husband about the abortion after 16 years of marriage--I felt that the Lord directed me to do that. He accepted me and that has helped me immensely. Isa. 43:18 and 43:25 have also helped in my healing process.

I would like to help end abortion. Anyone who finds herself in the position I was in, I would urge them to choose life. My daughter was 15 and became pregnant and she chose life, and has two healthy twin girls.

I always thought of my babies - when I saw other babies. I robbed my daughter of someone she had as a sibling - joy, laughter, love of each other. - 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Two abortions in 1978, Tucson, Arizona
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? There was no information at all. In the procedure room, the doctor explained what he was about to do. (Suction curettage)

- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? my boyfriend, he already had a daughter from a previous marriage he paid child support for. It also had a daughter whose father could not be found, to help me with her.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? For the first year, I was so emotionally devastated by the guilt, I used alcohol and drugs to dim this pain. I couldn't stand to be by babies. I left my boyfriend who I was engaged to. I got breast cancer at age 39, no one in my family ever had it. I lost my left breast, I would come to lose my upper left arm bone at age 51 which rendered it useless in my employment. I am disabled. I am still battling it and am in a wheelchair because it attacked my leg bone.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? When it first happened, my 3rd grader thought I was dying. After my surgery, so he has had this fear, this going for 16 years. I was unable to do things with my grandchildren now.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? As a current counselor at a crisis pregnancy center, I tell them my story, I encourage them to consider adoption or keep the baby. Time and circumstances change everything. - 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion is an unnatural thing, it goes against the physical, physiological, emotional makeup of a woman, her instincts, her natural bend, her inclination to protect and puts all of these at war within her against each other. There are too many loving, adoptive parent would be and too many program assistances out there to continue this horribly destructive social disease.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Denise G. Clarke (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: February 1982 at a clinic in Metairie, LA.
 - 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No. I was given reasons to perform the abortion and now it would help my situation.
 - 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No Have you had breast cancer? Thank God, No.
 - 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? The father of my baby. Don't get me wrong. I was responsible. I was intimidated by him and thought it would get him totally out of my life without risk to a child. Kinda right is always of the
 - 5) How has your abortion affected you? I felt as if I couldn't love anyone lower. Depression was becoming, away of life. I could not stop thinking of the baby I would never be able to hold, nature or love. I had awaken in the middle of the procedure and the sound of the vacuum still (21 years later) still rings in my ear. I was given another shot and the rest was history. I would have recurring dreams of a blonde hair little boy staring sadly at me from across the street. My heart would ache.
 - 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Although I asked for forgiveness until I had my oldest son I felt haunted. Whenever I was around children I felt they knew. God bless me inside or maybe because of this with a child's ministry. I'm not sure if they helped heal me.
 - 7) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Do not do it. You will regret it the rest of your life. And who can fill that void. Besides the abortion, I've had two miscarriages and lost a child at the age of two to a heart defect. I can't say if there is any correlation but one child doesn't replace another. Warden are capable of loving each one
 - 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Without scientific evidence we now have, Kim David inspired I can't remember uniquely. Over 2000 years ago, said in Psalm 139: 13-14, 16: For you created me in secret being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your hands were my unformed body. God's plan is divine, we humans are the ones who live to serve ourselves instead of Him. The depravity of the country is founded on this. God can not bless that which is so destructive. It makes no sense. Listen to those of us who thought it was your right now, our hearts burden.
- I want to tell my story. Of us who thought it was your right now, our hearts burden.
 I understand that someone will contact me.

- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No, nothing was told me, had to see the ultrasound screen, instead of the back of the machine.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Yes No Have you had breast cancer? Yes No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes No If yes, who? My ex-husband.
- 6) How has abortion affected you? It's a burden I carry daily, the worst mistake I could have ever made. It's not a choice, it was my son or daughter. It's very difficult to overcome the emotional trauma that is associated with abortion. I finally have children, who are my life, what a dis-service, we do to them. How can I take that back, the death of my child? I will always grieve.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Emotional instability, confusion, anger taken out of family who had nothing to do with.
- 8) Based upon your experience, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? There are so many families who have no children and would be willing to love and care for that baby. Abortion ruins lives.

- 5) How has your abortion affected you? It has been nineteen years and to this day I regret having an abortion. I have asked God for forgiveness and know He has given me forgiveness. I love my father and have forgiven him. We all sin and make wrong decisions. It has been a long road however. I have always wanted more children and couldn't. Now I am married to a wonderful man and my life is good. I do have my daughter who is now 25 and two stepchildren, however I know that that baby I lost will for now be a loss to me.

- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell her to seek other avenues, to pray, to find out all there is to know about it before she takes that step. She will have consequences to pay here on earth and eternally. And there are so many joys she would miss.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Never - even - consider it - To take a human life - is something - you can never forget - you will suffer the consequences - these babies do not belong to you - they belong to God. Some women die.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared _____ (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: February 16, 1985 Tuscaloosa, Alabama Dr. Wheeler's office
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No, not the consequences of abortion. However, I was shown a film and from what I remember it explained the procedure.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? The abortion took place in 1985, I was able to suppress my feelings for about 11 years, but battled on and off with depression and struggled with low self-esteem. By 1996, I was drinking heavily and taking prescription diet pills in excess and I had reached the point of despair. I almost lost my mind. It frightened me to look in the mirror. It was then that I realized that my sins had caught up with me. I went to Confession and from there it became a slow process of healing. Counseling without medication and daily Mass was the way I chose to go and it wasn't easy. Today, I can look in the mirror and smile. I can sleep well at night because I am doing everything possible to save babies from death and I have learned to speak up and speak out because "silence like a cancer grows."
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Before I had the abortion, I was afraid and didn't want to embarrass myself or my family. Over the years, after the abortion, I became an embarrassment to myself and my family by my actions plus my heavy drinking and the abuse of prescription diet pills didn't help. To make matters worse in the eyes of God, I was a disgrace. I've made amends with God, but I still haven't come to terms with the embarrassment that I caused my family. Everyday I'm getting better and better, and it's my hope to one day make my family proud of me.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Don't do it. If you can't afford the child, please give the baby up for adoption. Your life will never be the same, it will haunt you and it will never go away. It's like having an incurable wound. Abortion doesn't help a woman, what it does is wound a woman for life. Listen to me I know from experience and I wouldn't want my worst enemy to suffer what I have had to suffer.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? The Fifth Commandment states - Thou shalt not kill. The United States Constitution states that our first right is to life. Remember that if the blood of Abel cried out to God for vengeance, then how much more the blood of almost 42 million innocent aborted babies cry out to Him. By keeping abortion legal, are you saying like Cain, that you are not your brother's keeper? Two things abortion does 1) kills a child 2) wounds a woman. If abortion remains legal and you are a party to this destruction of life, then the blood is on your hands too. From my own experience I can tell you that God is Just and that I deserve my punishment. One day God will judge you and I hope and pray that you will have done everything possible to save innocent babies from death because Jesus said "Whatever you do to the least of my brothers, you do to me."

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared LISA MARIE MATAS, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

"My name is LISA MARIE MATAS. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I am over the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

"I lived in Millbrae, California, in an upper middle class family where I am the youngest of five. My father was an immigrant from Italy so we were staunch Catholic. When I was twelve years old, my mother developed breast cancer. At that time, I was a straight-A, pro-life, star student. I was pro-life because I would see pictures of babies and wonder who could kill a baby. When we found out about Mom's breast cancer, the family just started going different ways. I started partying and hanging out with the wrong crowds. I wanted to be accepted by my peers and not be considered a nerd. I wanted to talk to my mother about what was going on in my life but my father would not let me talk to her telling me she did not need to hear about my problems especially with the battle she was going through."

"By the time I turned 14, my mother was in wheelchair. My mother used to be a model and she was no where close to the way she used to look. She had lost her hair because of the chemotherapy and was taking steroids which caused her to have swelling. Of course, I was sleeping around and got pregnant. I did not tell my father partially because I was in denial. I kept wondering when I would be getting my period. I started experiencing aching and went to the family doctor, [REDACTED] hoping that I was not pregnant. I told the doctor my hip was hurting so he sent me to X-rays. The X-ray tech asked me if there was any chance of me being pregnant and I said I don't know. So they did a pregnancy test and it was positive. Dr. [REDACTED] was really a mean doctor and he started yelling at me that he was going to tell my dad. I plead with him not to do it but he said he had to because I was a child and he was legally responsible. I decided to run away for a couple of days and I finally talked to my father by telephone. Dad insisted that I have an abortion. I didn't want to and told him that he knew I was pro-life. ~~It kind of surprised me that he would tell me that I needed to have an abortion since I knew he was pro-life.~~ I later found out that Dr. [REDACTED] had coerced and convinced Dad that I should have the abortion. He told him that all his kids were bad. Of course, dad's life was falling apart. My father did not know how to deal with problems. He was from the old country and all he knew to do was work. The doctor told him he would ruin my life if he would let me have this child. I had the abortion at Peninsula Hospital, in Burlingame, California. It was scheduled as a DNC. I think I was maybe five months. It was about 1976 or 1977. I was lying on the guerne and my dad was standing over me and he started to cry. I asked him, "What is it?" My father was a very powerful and highly educated man. To see him crying was unheard of. He answered me by saying it is really different when its one of your own and it is really hard to know what to do. So I asked, "Dad are you pro-life?" He nodded yes. As they were wheeling me away, I asked him, "Then why are you doing this?" He responded by saying, "I don't know what else to do." The young man that wheeled me into the operating room was a student from the high school I attended and needless to say, the whole school found out about it. My father was victimized and I was victimized all because the doctor bullied us into it. I had the abortion."

"I was kid with a lot of emotional problems and started going out again almost immediately. I started having sex too soon and my body cavity got infected. I had severe pains in my stomach but I ignored it. I tried to drink it away and party it away but the pain just got worse and worse. Finally, I could not stand it any longer. The pain was like a knife. I finally realized something was extremely wrong. I had a raging fever. I told my father. I was taken to the hospital and the medical technicians freaked out. They gave me antibiotics. They gave me real tiny pills and they made me hallucinate. They would not admit me into the hospital. They sent me home. For the next two weeks, I sweated profusely. They kept me on morphine. Every time I would wake up, I would scream. I had chills, shakes, and my father called the doctor asking for stronger medication. But the doctor said there was nothing stronger. I could not eat or drink. Finally, I got better and slowly recovered. They told me that everything had been infected inside."

"After I recovered, I went back to my life but everybody knew I had dropped out of school. I kept sleeping around. Shortly after I started bleeding and had a strong ammonia odor. I went to the doctor and he said he was pretty sure I had had a miscarriage."

"By this time, my life was bad. My father did not want me in the house. I did not tell him I was pregnant again. I was given birth control but I would hit and miss the pills so I got pregnant. I told my father that I wanted to go live with my sister which he consented to. My sister put me on emergency Medi-Cal. When I went to the hospital, I told them I had already had an abortion and had had problems with a miscarriage. They didn't seem to think anything of it. They recommended that I have an abortion to which I responded I wanted to be shown what the child looked like at that stage in my pregnancy. I figured that if it looked like a blob, then it didn't matter. But if it looked like a baby (I was five months pregnant) then I would not. The nurse kept telling me that she did not have any pictures. She then told the nurse that she would go to the library. The nurse kept insisting that she had to have the abortion right away or it would be too late, that I would ruin my life. I can't remember but I believe they set it up for the next day or maybe that same day. I had another abortion and my father did not know it. This time, they did not inform my father. My sister told me I could not keep doing this and said I probably wouldn't be able to have more babies. So I decided to go get birth control. From then on, I did not get pregnant."

"My thoughts now was that abortion was not a big deal. How could it be if my father accepted it? So I became pro-choice and went on with my life. I was unsure if I could have babies. I had heard about scar tissue and knew that it would cause me to be sterile."

"At seventeen, I was living with my boyfriend. We had discussed the possibility of my getting pregnant and he said that then he would marry me. So I stopped using birth control. I got pregnant and we were very happy. We got married. I noticed that throughout the pregnancy I was bleeding and, of course, I had complications but I had my son in 1981 in the same hospital I had had the abortion, Peninsula Hospital. Everything was fine with the baby and myself. The doctor told me not to get pregnant within six months."

Please return to: Texas Justice Foundation, 8122 Datapoint, Suite 812, San Antonio, TX 78229

"But I did get pregnant again and my husband said no we can't handle this. He said I needed to have an abortion. She was against it but he was adamant. I then started thinking about what the doctor had advised me. So I went to Seton Hospital, in Dally City, California when I was probably in my first trimester. I had blocked this abortion out of my memory and did not remember until years later when my ex-husband (we got divorced) told me he regretted having told me to have an abortion."

"There was a lot of drugs, alcohol, confusion and sexual promiscuity. I then found the Lord and over time realized how much I had been lied to. I came to realize that what they did was wrong. I was a victim. Through the healing process I prayed and named my children. I remarried and had two more babies. Approximately nine months ago, I miscarried. All of the pregnancies I have had are accompanied by complications as far as bleeding is concerned."

"It is not a choice when you cover up the facts. It is not a choice when you are not informed of all the risks involved. I was in a crisis situation and I need to know the truth. Concealing facts, hiding major medical procedures that had already almost killed me, taxpayers paying for abortions against their wishes, this was not a choice! They gave my father and myself NO CHOICE but forced their decision on us."

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Tracy Margolis McCullough, (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is Tracy Margolis McCullough (Print Name). My address is [REDACTED] I am over the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

I had two abortions - one at age 19 in 1982 and the other at age 22 in 1985. The first one I never and still have never told my parents about due to the shame and disappointment I would have caused them. I also never told the men I had been with for either abortion.

I was put to sleep for both abortions; however, for the 2nd one when the doctor came in before the abortion ~ while the nurse was doing the ultrasound, he looked at the screen and then at me and said "oh look it's a boy!" and the nurse kicked him and he said "oh."

The long term effects of guilt, grief, anxiety, depression led to an attempted suicide in 1991. Three weeks later I became a Christian. I also suffered for many years feeling like I was being punished by not being able to have children.

I had a failed marriage and divorced in 1990 and when I remarried in 1995 it took 5 years to get pregnant. The emotional devastation after the first abortion led to 3 1/2 years of cocaine addiction and distribution. I quit using cocaine 2 months before the 2nd abortion.

For the 2nd abortion I had been with 2 different men in the same period of time so I didn't know who the father was. Having to bear that grief alone only promoted the emotional pain.

Please return to: Texas Justice Foundation, 8122 Datapoint, Suite 812, San Antonio, TX 78229

Even to this day I have struggled with anniversary syndrome ~ remembering when these precious babies were conceived and destroyed and how much I missed out on by having abortions.

Now having had my daughter, I see how devastating the abortions were in my life and truly how precious the life of an unborn child is.

I know so many facts to be true, I'm not sure where to begin. At barely 18 I found myself pregnant, although afraid I was happy thinking I would have someone to love me. The father was insistent I have an abortion. I was strong enough to say No, but he began playing on fears. Telling me he had been on so many drugs the baby would be deformed. I finally did. At that age and maturity level I don't think the impact of what I did sank in. Typical to women who experience abortion a year later I got pregnant wanting to replace the baby that was not there. As much as I loved my baby it did not change the fact that something was broken. A few years later and a bit wiser at 23 I was head over heels for the person I was dating, he was everything I thought I wanted, he had parents that were married and a family that was close, things I never knew. I wanted that for my then 3 year old daughter & myself

I could picture us as a family. When I became pregnant it was anything but picture perfect.
I had begun a new job was getting very sick & tired. But my heart loved the baby. Once again I said NO to abortion. He continued on me about not being in a position to have two children, how I was sick and just starting a new job, how I would have no maternity leave. Once again the situation outweighed my heart. He drove me to Ridgebrite in Metairie to have the procedure in the waiting room I was sobbing so hard he took my hand and said "Lets Go". We didnt talk on the way back to Baton Rouge but my heart was leaping. I was going to have my baby. As soon as we got back I went to lie down exhausted from the day. He walked up and looked at me and said "Jen we have to do it" I was speechless. At that point I was in auto pilot devastated.
To make the two most painful moments in my life summed up. I went into a "clinic" and let someone reach into my uterus and kill two children.
I am still trying to deal with the devastation 13 years after the 1st and 8 years after the second. Abortion is not even an option. The stages of grief, pain depression have been endless. I have three beautiful children that I love everyday.... but because "Society" made it acceptable I am missing two children.
I grieve over the loss. It is a horrible experience.
In NO way is it a solution.... it is murder. The baby is gone and a lot of people are forever changed.

machine. As the abortion was taking place, I felt extreme pain. I remember asking for some medicine, and only receiving a small dosage valium and some gas. This was definitely not sufficient for the amount of physical torture I had just consented to.

Today I am 26 yrs old, happily married with a baby boy. As I'm writing this, crying, remembering, I would do anything to go back and let my baby have a chance to live. After Tommy, my husband, and I were married, we wanted a baby of our own. Finally I became pregnant, yet after nine weeks I had a miscarriage and lost our baby in the toilet. I volunteer at a Crisis Pregnancy Center in New Orleans where I learned that 1 in 6 women lose their next baby after an abortion. Here's one of the six.

I shoved those horrible emotions and pain down for at least five years, four of which I had a major addiction to alcohol and cocaine, as well as several other drugs. Go figure! Too depressed to keep a job, I bounced around from boyfriend to boyfriend looking for love and acceptance. I found myself in drug rehabs, AA meetings, and eventually jail, all to no avail.

The issue that was being covered up with my colored lifestyle came up after I met Jesus in August of 1998. After being completely delivered from drugs, alcohol, and everything else I was doing, God began to show me, that really was a little baby I chose to kill. What a choice! To me, that's not freedom, it's murder. Why not have a law that states, 'It's ok. to murder anyone, it's your choice.'

Anyway, through lots of prayer and counseling, I am now being honest with myself, and working through the pain, instead of drugging it away. I know my baby, now 8 yrs old, is in heaven, yet no law can give him or her life; the life God intended him or her to have. It was my horrible mistake or 'choice', though if abortion were not legal, my 8 yr. old would probably be in little league or girls scouts today.

I now help women in similar situations, in hope that they won't make the same mistake I made. Some women actually change their minds and have beautiful, intelligent babies, and some don't. It's hard to see clearly when your young, and in unfamiliar territory.

May God have mercy on America for the millions of babies dead because of us.

Thank you for your time
God bless

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared MALARTHA BOSIER, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred:

1972 Kaiser Permanente Hospital/Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?

A woman in the hospital clinic told me that it would be like a D&C, a dilation and curettage procedure that was a "dusting and cleaning" of the uterus. She said many women had it when they had a positive pregnancy test in order to clean out any tissue lodged there.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer?

No. Have you had breast cancer? No

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who?

Yes. A male with whom I was having unprotected sex.

5) How has your abortion affected you?

The realization that my resolve to take the lives of three of my children and that I had asked "so called" doctors and nurses to help me destroy them, fueled many years of depression, self-destructive behaviors and distrust of doctors and medical professionals.

My selfishness, irresponsibility, and desire for comfort and convenience in having sexual intercourse, caused me to continue using abortion as a means of birth control.

My first pregnancy at fifteen was the result of repeated sexual assaults by my mother's husband. He continued using me to gratify his perverted lust for many years. I was told that what was happening to me was my fault. I felt overwhelming guilt and blamed myself. My condition was beyond my ability to control and outside my mother's will and capacity to intervene. When her husband unexpectedly impregnated me, to protect himself from discovery, he attempted murdering my son and me. The perpetrator used knitting needles, pressure from a corset, drugs, and finally a fist to my stomach, trying to abort my son.

Thankfully, all these attempts failed and my son was born at John Wesley County Hospital in Los Angeles on December 12, 1964. I was forced by the perpetrator, to put a fictitious name, as the father, on my son's birth certificate. This "parent" threatened the use of a weapon to force me into sexual relations with him, even after the birth of my son. For our safety, I escaped with my son, raising him alone for years and then later, with the help of my mother.

Miraculously, my son currently lives in California, is an accomplished writer and kind person.

At the time of my second pregnancy, I felt that I had no right to my body and consequently, did not value myself. I used sexuality as a means to attract men. My use of a defective contraceptive device called a "dalkon shield", inserted and later removed by staff at Kaiser Permanente Hospital, damaged my reproductive organs. As I continued in promiscuity, subsequent pregnancies were ended by abortion procedures. My fifth and last pregnancy resulted in a miscarriage.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?

My family witnessed my struggles in obtaining an education, maintaining stable employment and becoming a loving parent. My relationships with people in general were often strained and unhealthy, because of my anger and loss of self-respect.

My son was raised without a father because I did not trust men to protect and care for him or me.

After twenty-one years of marriage, my husband still suffers because of my occasional estrangement, not fully trusting him to care for me, and our not having children together.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

View an ultrasound, if possible, and witness the heartbeat. It will help you to understand the developing human being in your body. Even if you've had a prior abortion or given birth, viewing an ultrasound and perhaps a chart showing growth stages of an unborn child. This will surely soften your heart and convince you not to choose death for your child.

Become aware that abortion is taking the life of another human being. Whatever your ideas of morality, understand that you do not have the right to murder another human being, or to ask someone else to murder your child.

Keep asking for help in locating people, churches and community resources to provide a safe place for you to give birth to your child. Many institutions are established specifically to counsel you regarding alternatives to abortion and will help care for you and the child.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

Ladies and gentlemen, with all due respect, I believe that terminating the life of a developing human being is detrimental to the health of the mother and society. Asking a physician or medical personnel to terminate the life of a developing human being is destructive to a civil society.

If abortion is always terminating the life of another, then in no circumstance is it ever justified. I believe certain situations warrant killing in self-defense, but that no circumstance justifies murdering the helpless and innocent.

According to laws in 1964 on family rape, it would have been legal to abort my son, and most likely, I would have been encouraged to do so, had I told of the assaults.

Since there was no one acting on our behalf, the perpetrator escaped imprisonment, but thankfully my son did not lose his life.

In spite of my experience, I believe that the woman who is married, or unmarried, and pregnant, should not have the right to involve society and medical professionals in her murder for convenience, or other personal, non-medical, reasons.

If murder is defined as the crime of unlawfully killing a person, especially with malice aforethought and killing brutally, then legalized abortion allows men, women and the medical community to become a party to legalized murder.

When I asked abortionists to kill my babies I became a party to murder. This was and is a devastating reality for me to acknowledge.

Only by the help and kindness of healthy family members and friends was I able to survive and raise my son. The birth of my son elevated my life, whereas, the abortions degraded it beyond measure.

My overall health was diminished because of past sexual behaviors and abortions. Today I continue struggling to regain my health and become a loving wife to my husband.

Dear sirs and madames, legalizing actions which are claimed to be murder in one setting but considered benevolent in another is confusing and disturbs the peace and safety of all people.

The legalization of abortion did not relieve me of my personal responsibility for the deaths of my unborn children. Instead it freed me to continue engaging in an immoral, unhealthy and destructive lifestyle, producing more of what some call "atonement" pregnancies and more abortions.

In my opinion, when the courts legalized the murder of our unborn children, our society became more uncivilized, oppressive and inhumane. Each day we witness our debasement as we read of the growing abortion industry, along with attempts to recycle, or manufacture, human flesh.

I am grateful that you are reviewing this decision.

Thank you for allowing me to address you.

I was nervous at first, I was really confused, I did not know what I was doing, but I did, b/c I thought this was the right thing to do. After 3 months have passed I got pregnant again and had my son, my wonderful son. He made everything great, but I was still missing something, I just didn't know what. 4 yrs has passed and I got married and everything was going well as so I thought, Good became Evil. My husband was abusive to me and I was abusive to him. Neither of us were abusive my son, but we yelled a lot. One day he pushes me through a T.V. and I left the house crying, b/c he had blacked out. I later found out that I was yet pregnant again, and my husband and I had left each other, and I did not know where to turn I was depressed, angry, sad I had know one to turn to. So my mom and I talk and I say I got to get this baby out of me I don't want it. So that day happened. It took me from ~~July~~ August 04 to Dec. 12th 04 that I was owed. I have given my life to the Lord. I still to this day would love to see what my babies what would have looked @ and would tell anyone that was in this predicament I would hold them and embrace them

At 13 years of age in 1963 I had an abortion, at 14 years of age I had another abortion. I did not know then how this would affect me for the rest of my life. I would cry for days on end for the unborn child I chose to discard with the trash. I went through a deep depression for the first few years. I later had a child hoping to replace my lost. I now have three children and have been married for 17 year. My husband is the same man who ~~was~~ the father of the same children who are no longer here. We have had a long bumpy road and I often cry for my unborn children. I have had nightmares and hear babies crying saying mommy don't hurt me let me live and relive the experience in my mind. As much as I love my husband I often had a lot of hatred and resentment toward him because he could not possibly feel my pain. It has been 21 years now and I still carry the pain from both of my abortions with me. No one should ever endure the pain of losing a child either voluntary or involuntary.

I am post-abortive. In 1978 I entered a relationship as a friend to a drug addict. I became pregnant. In a state of confusion I went to a close relative who assisted me to the abortion clinic to keep this problem quiet and do away with it. Little did I know how much it would destroy my life.

I became cold, angry, mean, self centered, along with depressed and emotionally unstable. No one told me this would play havoc in my life. My story is too long to write out. The pain and suffering that comes from abortion is long lasting. Abortion is not right. It is murder of a human being and it gives death to the true person affecting all who surround her.

My experience has caused much grief to others as well as myself. My hope is that the truth be acknowledged and the abortions will stop. Just recently I've decided to answer the call to stand up and speak out. My child was not given a chance to fulfill the purpose of his life here on earth because I terminated his life early. I now give him a voice by claiming in public that my decision was wrong.

 NOTARY PUBLIC

I would just like to 'thank all of you' for the courage you have in confronting this very sad and traumatic issue. I also would like to apologize for taking a year to fill out the Affidavit. I was excited at first to help reveal the lie and to come forward in exposing the truth about abortion and it's realities. Until that is, I read the questions on the Affidavit. For almost 20 years I had struggled to forget the horrible details of my abortion and I wasn't prepared yet again to remember.

I didn't pray about it...the guilt still has a tremendous stronghold. Instead, I kept the envelope with all your paper neatly placed in the back of my letter box...knowing that someday, somehow, through the grace of God I would have the courage to face it.

Today was that day.

Last week I received my 'Focus on the Family' magazine - "Roe vs. Wade". I knew in my heart that the time had come. I am reminded by God that 'for such a time as this' I have been protected and saved. My desire is that this court ruling will be overturned and that young women will be rescued from the hell it has produced. That babies will be regarded as 'precious' in our eyes and that none will be taken by the hands of man!

It took decades for me to be able to hold a child in my arms. Yet only moments to hold them forever in my heart! I am richly blessed through the lives of other mothers, willing to share their precious little ones with me. A church who supports and encourages me and a husband who will forever stand by my side. A part of me has been once and forever shattered yet in God's grace He has forgiven me and blessed me beyond measure.

At 17 years old and completely uneducated to the ways of the world...how was I allowed to make such a life (and death) decision? Why were the parents of a high school girl friend allowed to make an appointment for me to have an abortion without my parents knowledge? Why couldn't I go to my parents? And why didn't the baby's father have the right to save his child's life? How could I have been so naive to think they were just going to tell me it was all a mistake....that I wasn't even pregnant?

Those are the questions I still live with.

My prayer today is:

Lord, use me to save the lives of the innocent; those born and unborn. Please take my testimony and use it to your glory. Let me being willing to open my heart and my home to those who feel 'there is no place to turn'. Let me hold nothing in secret but forever have the truth on my lips. For the Truth will set us FREE!

Sincerely,

Leslie Patten

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared DARIEL F. CORBIN (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 5/71 DC GENERAL HOSP. WASH., DC

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? YES

5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____

6) How has your abortion affected you? Prior to me rededicating my life to the Lord, and being born again (April 19, 1992), I condemned myself for this atrocity. When I would see a baby, I often cried because I took the life of my baby. Now I know the love of the Lord and I know that He has forgiven me for that sin against Him. Most importantly, I know that my child will see me again in heaven.

7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? NO.

8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell women that a child is a gift from God and there are no mistakes whether a baby is conceived by fornication or by marriage. God has a plan for that baby and the alternative to abortion is adoption.

- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? no If not, explain: I was NEVER told the guilt, depression & horror that I would suffer
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No. The so-called counseling was hard sell, about 5 minutes' worth
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes. If so, who? My husband, 2 Methodist ministers, a so-called pastoral counselor, Planned Parenthood woman
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? It destroyed my life, my baby's and my husband's. We are the walking wounded..forever. We will NEVER be able to recover. Ever.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband became suicidal, as I did. We will always blame each other and never be guilt-free.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Better a baby on your lap than on your conscience. Do ANYTHING but abort. NOTHING can compare to being distraught and without hope.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? They are CRAZY and will ROT in hell. It will not be hot enough. A baby's best ally is his or her MOTHER. Abortion pits the two apart.

1. Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1977, 1980, Planned Parenthood
2. Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No they did not tell me that it was a baby with a heartbeat. That I would be taking the life of my own child. That it might be something that I
4. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? no If so, who? _____
5. How has your abortion affected you? I was a drinker of alcohol and did some illegal drugs. After my abortions. This grew worse. In 1979 I gave my heart to the Lord but quickly back slid, after several months. Then I
6. How has your abortion affected others in your life? recomitted my life to JESUS in 1988.
① I'm no longer with the father of these 2 aborted babies.
② My daughter and I are not as close as we could be.
7. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Abortion is not an erasure. It doesn't make you unpregnant, it makes you the mother of a dead baby. You have to live with it the rest of your life. No matter how much time passes, it's always there in the back of your mind.
8. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? At the time of my abortions, nobody could have talked me out of my going thru with an abortion. But sadly now I wish they would not have been allowed by law. Sort of like a little kid that doesn't want to take his or her

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared H [redacted] M [redacted] (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: April 1995 Baltimore, MD
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? not by the clinic, but earlier by my church
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? boyfriend / friend
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I married the father of that child later. During the first 5 years of our marriage I was emotionally abused as he tried to "get over" the abortion. We had another child 1 1/2 years into the marriage but his presence did little to help my husband overcome the guilt. Even today as we share our life with other couples we skip over the abortion as an embarrassing part of our life - sometimes I feel we always have something to hide from the world, and we'll never be able to be completely open with anyone.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? We are keeping it a secret from most people, so they don't really know my life like they think they do; the few people who know are confused about our current beliefs because of this past action.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? It may seem the easy way out, but it will haunt you forever. Even the "procedure" is really a surgery with its toll on your body and its risks. Less damage would be done to you, the baby, and the father if you let the baby live - I personally advocate adoption for your baby.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? A government whose laws oppose God's laws won't last very long, and a people who reject God's laws will find themselves raising children who prefer evil over right. America was created to protect the people from their own emotional choices (a republic not a democracy) and to uphold the rights of every human being including children in the womb.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Washington DC (Preterm) Feb 1994
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? We were not informed. The media was not promoting abortion information and there was no pro-life focus. We were unaware of consequences
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? Fear of the unknown and fear of parental response put pressure on us.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I have gone through bouts of serious depression. When I had my other three children, I realized the unique value of each individual more fully than ever, and have been through periods of processing grief in the loss of our first child through the 30 year period after the abortion
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? The impact is hard to measure, my sons & daughter lost their sibling. The depression periods made them more prone to depression
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? There is ample support available to help the woman who is brave enough to face obstacles. The unique value of the individual child is irreplaceable. It is a brand of good decision to give birth
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? No one wins in the story of abortion. The woman is deeply affected. "The freedom" she thinks she gains brings a loss that lasts a life time. The child whose life is taken loses the opportunity to contribute their unique being to this life.

AFFIDAVIT OF JOYCE LAGANA

THE STATE OF MARYLAND

COUNTY OF CHARLES

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Joyce Lagana who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is Joyce Lagana. I am over the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

In November, 1982 I was a single mother living in Wheatridge, Colorado with a 46 year old divorced man. I was 29 years old with a 6 year old daughter, and I became pregnant. We agreed to marry, and on New Year's Eve, 1982, we were married in the home of his friend. We hadn't been married very long when he decided that my pregnancy was a threat to our marriage, and he told me that it was either the pregnancy or the marriage. Under some misguided interpretation of 'an obedient wife', I made an appointment with an abortion clinic located in Denver. They weren't hard to find - I just looked in the yellow pages under 'Abortion'.

My understanding of an abortion at the time was pretty limited. I knew that if I had one, I wouldn't have a baby. I didn't think of the fetus as being alive, or even a human being. And, at that point, I was operating in fear. My new husband wanted his way, and I was afraid of what would happen if I said no. Years later, I found out how he responded to 'no'.

My appointment was within a couple of days, and he went with me. It was all very efficient, professional and sterile. The clinic turned out to be a suite of offices in a Denver office building. I signed in, sat down in a room full of women, and waited my turn. When I was called, the nurse gave me a gown, told me to change into it and lie on the table. The doctor arrived shortly, positioned me correctly on the table and began the procedure. It was over in a matter of minutes. There was a sound of a small vacuum cleaner, then nothing. The nurse picked up a jar from the floor at the end of the table and covered it with a cloth and proceeded to leave the room. I remember wondering why she was covering it up - what's in there? I also remember she looked at me sort of quizzically, and I wondered what she was thinking.

The doctor washed up and turned back to me. At the time, I was staring at the ceiling. I suppose I might have been in shock, except that I remember it so vividly. It was then that the doctor slapped my face and told me to pull myself together. The nurse re-entered and the doctor left. The nurse took my blood pressure, told me to relax for a few minutes, and she'd be back. She returned about ten minutes later and took my blood pressure again. Then she told me to get dressed - I could go home.

At no time did I receive counseling about the decision I had made, the nature of the abortion, or the possible consequences. I didn't have the opportunity to talk with anyone who had had an abortion.

The abortion has colored my life for 17 years. I never acknowledged to anyone that it happened. I only mentioned it once to the child's father, and his reaction was so negative, I didn't reach out again until last year, when I told my 23 year old daughter. I have hidden the truth for so long, buried deep within me so far, that I never even grieved the loss until now. I had so much bitterness and suppressed anger because of what I let the child's father bully me into, it was devastating to even let myself think about the child. Now I can, and the pain is intense.

The secrecy, shame, anger and bitterness have affected all of my relationships. I have been unable to trust, unable to share any part of myself. I've been very careful not to become closely attached to anyone or anything, for fear I might lose them. I have been described as 'very reserved'. I'm not reserved - I'm terrified! It's a fear born in the abortion, and that is only now coming to resolution.

If I could talk with a woman thinking of having an abortion, I'd tell her to examine all of her options more closely. I'd tell her about the shame, the feeling of loss, the longing for and wondering about the child, the incredible sadness. Women (and young girls) who are considering abortion need to be warned - it is a life changing experience. While it releases them from the temporary pressures and trials of an unwanted pregnancy, it is permanently scarring. They will never be the same.

The courts of this land need to re-read the Declaration of Independence. We have an unalienable right to life - all of us. I know now, based upon scientific evidence, that a fetus is alive, a human being in miniature that is maturing in the mother's womb. The child has a right to live, to grow to maturity, and to be born, be it God's will. This is not a decision that men and women should be making - we are selfish and self-seeking. The decision of whether a child grows to maturity and is born alive is God's, and God's alone.

tb

I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

SIGNED this 9th day of August, 2000.

Before I give my story I must first say that without my Savior, Jesus Christ, I would not be able to share my story of what I have done. I have been redeemed by the precious blood of my Savior and that is the only thing enabling me to deal with my life.

I had a troubled teen life starting at the age of 13. The abuse that happened to me caused me to become completely out of control. I became pregnant 3 times in my teen years and all three times I aborted my precious babies. (I am sure that if I had the first baby there wouldn't have been a second and third pregnancy at that point in my life.) I had no support from any direction except being told I had to abort. Since I was a teenager living under my mother's roof- I felt I had no choice. I had no counseling before or after and I did not hear of any words of hope from anyone. Each experience with this brought me lower and lower in my life. I hated myself and I saw no reason for living. I had three suicide attempts and felt like a failure when it did not work. I began cutting myself just to watch myself heal. I dove into drugs, alcohol, and sex looking for comfort. Of course, I did not find it there. I felt horrible and eventually quit school because I did not feel that I deserved to have a life, let alone, enjoy it. I remember rubbing my tummy and thinking "wow, there's life in here" and then on the table at the abortion clinic I recall thinking of myself as a murderer. There was a poster on the ceiling as I was lying there about to have life ripped out of me that told me to "relax". How can you relax when you are about to end a life? How can you relax when a strange woman is holding your hand in assistance to the doctor who's killing your baby? How can you relax when everything in you is telling you this is wrong and everyone else around you is telling you "it's a choice and it's not a person yet"? How can you relax when you are nude from the waist down and a stranger is injecting a needle inside you to numb the "area"? How can you relax when you feel the cold steel of the murder weapon go up inside you and start jerking your insides around? How can you relax when you hear the sounds of life being ripped out of you? How are you supposed to relax when they put the life that was just inside of you in white see through container on the sink for you to see? How are you supposed to relax when the doctor and nurse say, "you did good" and your heart tells you the opposite? I did not relax the whole time. When they took me to the recovery room- it was like a waiting room and I could not bring myself to look at any of the other girls there. This is the room where they give you juice and graham crackers to "make you feel better". The memories are as if it just happened yesterday.

I am now a 32 year old woman who has not been able to have children with my husband of almost 13 years. The last abortion was a baby with my husband, who was then my boyfriend. I'm afraid I have destroyed my insides and my chances of becoming pregnant again. My childhood dream was to grow up, get married, and have a family. I used to pretend to be pregnant when I was a girl by stuffing sheets under my shirt. I just couldn't wait until I could get pregnant and experience the miracle of life. Funny though, people used to tell me that I should want a career and all the trimmings that go with a career. My dream never changed. I simply wanted to be called a mom and a wife. I was going to be the best mom in the whole world too. I guess I will never know that now unless I adopt one day. Even then, it won't be quite the same. I never saw my pregnancy experience as it turned out. There will always be emptiness inside of me. I look in the faces of children I see and think, "I wonder if my children would've looked similar to that face". My life will never be the same and Christmas is especially hard because I got pregnant the first time around then. I broke down two Christmas's ago because there was something missing and that "something" was actually a someone! My children. I will never see the eyes of my unborn. I will never know what they would've become. I will never here my child say "mommy". I will never see my children walk, talk, or speak a sentence for the first time. My dreams were ripped out of my body and with it went a piece of my mind, heart, and soul. I am a mother of dead children and I never even saw their faces. I am sure their burial was in a lab where they were studied like rats and I am the one responsible for that.

Abortion kills the child and mortally wounds the mother... FOR LIFE!!! There are many, many emotions that the mother carries with her that don't get aborted no matter how hard you try. This year for the first time, I am going to the "March for Life" in Washington, D.C. I have to try and fight for the rights of the unborn and the hearts of the mothers carrying these babies. I have to show support for these mothers in a world that tells you, "it's not a baby yet", "it's your choice", "don't ruin your life". Someone needs to tell them that they don't have to murder these babies and that there are other choices to make. Adoption is a choice. Abstinence is a choice. Using a birth control method is a choice. Respecting yourself is a choice. Abortion should've never been a choice. Once a life is made- the only choice should be to let the baby live!!! If it is not a baby, THEN YOU ARE NOT PREGNANT!

This is my story and I hope by sharing it that it may make a difference in the lives of those unborn babies and in the hearts of the mothers faced with a pregnancy in which they are scared and see no way to get help. You can use this ANY WAY YOU FEEL NECESSARY, with my full permission. I have nothing to hide and I have everything to gain if just one life is spared this horrific way of death.

My sincere hope and prayer is that abortion is stopped! These babies did nothing wrong and they deserve to live. Life is a gift that does not come with a receipt for return until the Lord decides to bring us home. WE ARE NOT GOD. We cannot work miracles. Once an abortion is done- NOTHING brings the baby back and nothing is there to erase the memories of the massacre in the mother's mind. I won't let the memories of those dark days go because that is all I have to remember my dreams by. I will never forget those dark days because if ONE PERSON, JUST ONE PERSON, would've shown me an ounce of support to make a different decision- maybe I wouldn't be so sad of a person today. I do have the hope of seeing my children in Heaven but I have to live this life first. And this life is so hard to live on an everyday basis knowing I murdered my own children and it was perfectly legal.

Why is it when the government says it's ok to murder- no one gets punished?

Sincerely,

Michelle Myrick

A T (Print Name),

who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: THE ABORTION TOOK PLACE ON SEPTEMBER 30, 1993, AT PLANNED PARENTHOOD IN ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND.

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO. I INITIALLY WENT INTO THE PLANNED PARENTHOODS OFFICE IN BALTIMORE, MARYLAND. I WAS ALONE AND AFRAID WHEN I WENT INTO THE BALTIMORE OFFICE, NONE OF THE STAFF AT PLANNED PARENTHOOD SHARED WITH ME OTHER OPTIONS. IT SEEMED LIKE A BUSINESS DEAL WAS TAKING PLACE, THERE WAS NO EMPATHY.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? NO. AFTER THE STAFF AT PLANNED PARENTHOOD DID A SONOGRAM, A PHYSICIAN CAME IN AND DISCUSSES THE RESULTS TELLING ME THE STAGE OF THE PREGNANCY I WAS IN, THEN ANOTHER STAFF MEMBER REFERRES ME TO THE ANNAPOLIS OFFICE FOR THE PROCEDURE.

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? NO, BUT MY DAD FOUND OUT AND AFTER THAT I WAS PREGNANT HE NEVER SAID ABORT THE PREGNANCY, BUT I FELT LIKE I DIDN'T WANT TO LET HIM DOWN. AFTER I HAD THE ABORTION AND UP UNTIL AND THROUGH THE PROCEDURE MY PARENTS WERE NEVER MADE AWARE OF THE PROCEDURE UNTIL I TOLD THEM.

5) How has your abortion affected you? I WAS DEPRESSED, I WAS TORMENTED FOR MANY YEARS AFTER THE ABORTION. I WAS TORMENTED WITH VISUAL THOUGHTS OF THE BABY THAT I WOULD OF HAD ALMOST DAILY. AFTER THE ABORTION PROCEDURE MY BODY WENT THROUGH MANY THINGS. PLANNED PARENTHOOD DID NOT TELL ME THAT MY BREAST WOULD STILL DEVELOP MEDICANS CONTINUE TO DEVELOP IN OTHER WAYS - THE SAME THAT IT DOES DURING ALL PREGNANCIES.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? MY MOTHER FOUND OUT AFTER I GOT HOME FROM HAVING THE ABORTION (THE DAY OF). SHE HAD SUSPECTED THAT I WAS PREGNANT. I TRIED TO ACT AS NORMAL AS POSSIBLE WHEN I GOT HOME EVEN THOUGH I WAS TURN TO PIECES INSIDE. MY MOTHER FOUND THE PAPER WHEN I WENT OUTSIDE (AFTER I GOT HOME) AND SHE CRIES AND CRIES FOR A LONG TIME. MY MOTHER DOESN'T BELIEVE IN ABORTIONS. THIS BABY WOULD HAVE BEEN HER FIRST GRAND CHILD.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? PLEASE DON'T DO IT! NO MATTER HOW "TOGETHER" YOU MAY THINK THAT YOU ARE, HAVING AN ABORTION WILL LITERALLY DRIVE YOU MENTALLY AND EMOTIONALLY TO THE POINT OF WANTING TO DIE. I FELT LIKE I WAS TORMENTED BY THE DEVIL HIMSELF WITH GUILT. I WOULD HAVE NIGHTMARES AND VISIONS OF A CHILD, AND I WOULD ALWAYS WONDER WHAT MY CHILD WOULD HAVE LOOKED LIKE.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I WOULD SHARE WITH THE COURT THAT WHEN A WOMAN CONCEIVES DURING INTERCOURSE, NO MATTER HOW IT IS REDEFINES, THE FACT STILL REMAINS THAT SHE IS NOW CARRYING A BABY NO MATTER WHAT NEW TERMINOLOGY IS CREATED TO SOOTH THEIR CONSCIOUS. A WOMAN DOES NOT BECOME A MOTHER WHEN A BABY IS ACTUALLY BORN, SHE BECOMES A MOTHER THE MOMENT SHE CONCEIVES. PLEASE GIVE THIS AND EVERY BABY THE OPPORTUNITY TO A LIFE OUTSIDE OF THEIR MOTHER'S WOMB THE SAME WAY THAT YOUR MOTHER GAVE YOU THE OPPORTUNITY TO SEE, SMELL, TASTE, TOUCH, AND BREATHE OUTSIDE OF HER WOMB.

"I have read the above and the person statements and the same is true and correct."

- 1) When and where did your abortion occur? December 18, 1991 Ayannis MA
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? (Check One) Yes No If no, explain: NO ONE told me about the consequences or what it entailed. No one tried to get me to understand how wrong it is or its devastating aftermath.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? NO
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Yes No Have you had breast cancer? Yes No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes No If yes, who? n/a
- 6) How has abortion affected you? Nearly over a decade and a half everything has fallen apart. What use to be a beautiful promising life turned into an inscaped "void" of what is wrong with having an abortion. I was too young to fully understand what I now understand as something never to do. I've felt a lot of animosity towards myself but mostly a sense that something is terribly wrong that adults don't save lives but were there to take. I mean those older and more responsible than myself. Not there to tell me how wrong it is (was) but there to do the wrong? It's a struggle to trust anyone. Failed relationships toward abuse can't put life back together as prior. Heart broken for what my life.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Some know others don't. Some accept it and accept it. Its more the effects of the experience that have repelled instead of propelled my relations.
- 8) Based upon your experience, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? NO! Choose life. (Go to heaven not hell.)
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? NO! It shouldn't be legal. The women who have experienced abortions have been misfaught. How can a law be passed by something that isn't true? Please STOP Abortion! Its wrong that "law" is old and wrong. SAVE LIVES make laws were a past time!!

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: Oct. 1976 at Pre-Term in Brookline, MA
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No, I was never told I could stand the chance of contracting an infection that would cause me to eventually have a ~~abortion~~ hysterectomy, or that I may never have children because of my choice. I was just told of various forms of birth control.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No I was not informed of any link between abortion & breast cancer. No, I have not.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? No, it had just been legalized at the time and seemed to be the popular thing to do.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? It robbed me of the right to ever be a mother. I had to have a hysterectomy at age 28. The biopsy showed an infection at the top of my uterus causing massive scar tissue etc. Not to mention the emotional pain of the worst decision of my life.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I've never been able to give my husband a child or my parents a grandchild.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion? I have told many young women not to do what I did because they could end up like me and many other women, childless. Also, they will live with the knowing they destroyed the life of their own child. It never leaves you.

The State of MASS

County of _____

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared [Redacted] LS [Redacted] (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1980, 1983, 1985
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No, As I recall, I was told that it was a blob of tissue and that it was an acceptable form of birth control.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No If so, who? _____
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? After I became a Christian in 1988 I immediately realized what I had done. Since then, I have felt intense feelings of shame and remorse and the desperate feeling of wanting to set the clock back and undo these horrible acts. I feel like a murderer that is in a prison but instead of it being a physical one it's emotional and spiritual. I feel it has affected every aspect of life. Relationships, sexuality, self-esteem, health. I did have two premature babies and have been told I have an increased risk of breast cancer. I have to remind myself daily that God has forgiven me and so must I forgive myself. I've had to suffer the shame of telling some selective loved ones and dread the day that I will have to tell my children. I feel as though I'm living a double-life. It's hard to feel whole.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My mom was devastated by still loves me. I'm sure if more people knew the list would be longer. I'm sure most people who know me would be shocked. Sometimes I'm even shocked myself.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? DONT DO IT! Every woman who ever has an abortion will regret it on this side of eternity or the other. She is trading a very bad problem (granted) for a much bigger one later. Let God who created the life decide when that life should end. IF IS NOT A BLOB! As a matter of fact - it has all its parts and are carefully counted by the doctor.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? That they are legalizing murder, plain and simple. That they can't let a woman declare the value of another human being, one woman wants a child and will know it is a child and down later it takes to protect it and another will not want the child and pretend that it not even really a child and cause its death. It doesn't make sense.

AFFIDAVIT

THE STATE OF MASS:

§

COUNTY OF Barnstable

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared _____, (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is Jane A. McNicol (Cournoyer) (Print Name). My address is _____

I'm sharing a little bit of my story with you. I had two abortions when I was eighteen and nineteen. I had my first abortion in Mass. in 1974 and my second was in Texas or La. in 1975. It was before ultrasound. I was told my baby was just a cell and that it wasn't a baby yet, not support from the father of my first baby only to pay for it, second, didn't know the father. After the first abortion, I cut off all of my hair even my eyebrow. I began suffering from post abortion syndrome but I didn't know what it was.

At twenty I became pregnant for the third time, deciding to have my baby with or without the help of any man this time. I married him but he did mostly because I was pregnant. Soon after I had two more girls. It was years later after a hysterectomy when after losing my ability to have children, and the loss of them I went into a deep depression. My hair cutting started to resurface. The guilt troubled me so much I began cutting my hair off uncontrollably again. I was bald for over three years as my family watched me suffer running in and out of the bathroom, my girls were teenagers, it was affecting them.

I kept looking in the mirror crying out to God over and over again. Mirror, mirror on the wall, who is the ugliest person in the world?" answering myself, I am. I was in a pro-life, pro-choice battle of decision and it was tearing me apart. I wanted to be tolly pro-life but I thought woman would go in back alleys and have them illegally but I also couldn't be pro-choice because I couldn't face my mortal sins.

I went to Confession but I was still torn in all the madness. I walked up to the altar during Mass in front of a full church had a nervous break down asking the priest if I could speak. I asked, "Can I speak? He told me to sit down. I shouted, your're not God! I wanted to tell the whole world how awful abortions are and they should be stopped. I was pulled out of the Church crying out, God is your Love! I had a nervous breakdown in front of 300 people stunned.

I was handcuffed and brought to a psychiatric hospital but there wasn't any special kind of treatment for a post abortive woman. I couldn't speak and only spoke with my hands, seeing and hearing things, diagnosed schizophrenic and psychotic but not post abortive syndrome. I was thrown in solitary and my rosaries were pulled off my neck as I screamed out, I'd rather die by the hands of Mary's Rosary then die by the hands of you.

I was hospitalized again a year later but this time it was by my husband for praying too much in this Pro-Life verses Pro-Choice battle. One of my daughters shook me and said, "Mom God is Pro-Life and it clicked like a bolt of lightning. I needed someone in my life just to shake the truth into my heart so I could stop cutting all of my hair off. If I could describe what it was like for me to have suffered from post abortion syndrome it would be sitting in a closet in the psych ward afraid aliens and the FBI were after me and that the doctors were going to preform another abortion on me.

I learned the hard way if we tell our children when they are small it's a baby in a mother's womb then women won't go into back alleys to have abortions and doctors won't do them. It affected my whole family.

One of my daughters started taking drugs, ran away from home but since has recovered by becoming a wonderful mother herself. It was motherhood that brought her around. She needed someone to love and to be loved unconditionally.

My husband didn't support me through my recovery very well. He couldn't handle me being sick and began drinking more heavily. He complained about my writing my story saying I spend too much time on the computer and that it won't ever amount to anything. He began staying out all night and ten divorced me after 27 faithful years.

I am proud to say that I'm totally pro-life now and continuously healing through Christ. I believe only life threatening abortions should be legal such as entopic pregnancy. I've come a long way and want to do something to help others get there. I'm supporting myself as a bank teller right now but I would like to find a job working full time in this kind of area, finish and publish my novel, song and poetry that I've written in my recovery. All together a total of four psychiatric stays concerning this, one 3-month stay of anorexia when I weighed only 70 lbs. earlier in my life not long after childbirth. The later visits I was given med's that harmed me instead of helping me.

I would proudly be a witness in any courtroom or speak publicly for this cause on behalf of the unborn. I would gladly play my guitar and sing one of my songs concerning this topic at a pro-life benefit if my work allows until I find a job full-time in this area. I would like to start a group I've named

- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? father of 1st

6) How has your abortion affected you? None as the Lord had healed me before the Lord healed my damaged emotions. I lived an extremely common lifestyle topped with a terrible, inexpensive drug + alcohol consumption, depression, anger, anxiety, etc, etc. The Lord has truly God healed after I was able to fully accept the grace and His forgiveness of His Word.

7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? yes- because of my emotions breakdown my son was affected

8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would explain to her the emotional trauma she will face after the abortion as well as the importance of her understanding that life begins at conception.

9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would talk about life beginning at conception etc. but also stress how abortion affected my life and how I recovered. I did so through emotional healing through Bible Study, support group, but less mainly because of my willingness to allow the Lord to heal within me + heal me.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared _____ (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1974, Muskegon, Mi.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No. It was shortly after Roe v. Wade and the pro-life movement hadn't formed yet. So there was no information available as there is today - No crisis pregnancy services.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? My husband. We had 3 beautiful children and so many of God's blessings but he was convinced that he no longer wanted to be a family man but chose financial success, pleasure, prestige, ...
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? It has dulled my natural, God-given maternal instincts. It was always painful watching other families add a new baby. I lived with guilty feelings and the horror of an irreversible decision that I would always regret. I am 65 years old now, the grandma of 8 precious grandchildren. I know I am forgiven because of Christ's death on the cross for my sins. Still, I will always be emotionally crippled by the loss of my 4th child by abortion (My husband eventually left us & I was a single parent.)
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My abortion denied my 2 sons and my 1 daughter untold numbers of blessings & happy experiences, lessons learned from being blessed by a 4th sibling.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell her of all the joy and fulfillment she will forfeit for the rest of her life; of all the ongoing guilt and regret that will never completely go away because she has acted against the natural purpose of her body and nature's God.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? That they are depriving tiny unborn US citizens of the pursuit of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness that would be their birthright. They are legalizing murder and failing to protect women from the consequences of being a participant in murdering the child in their womb. Two lives are irreparably damaged in this act, protected by law.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: August 1998 Milwaukee, Wisconsin
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO, only that at 4 wks it was only a "blob". The only consequences was to watch for excess bleeding and fever. And to take birth control pills so it doesn't happen again.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? not really so, who? The only people that knew were my husband (separated at time) and the counselor at the clinic - both of whom said it-abortion- was the only solution to the problem.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? years of depression/anxiety attacks; nightmares; feeling unworthy of anything; unable to get close to people - afraid if they knew they would hate me; physical ailments such as back pain, chest pain (all due to anxiety the doctors said)
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My children & husband only got 1/2 a mom-wife. I was there, but unable to fully love them (or let myself be loved by them)
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Tell her to reconsider - to think about it after giving her information about the growth stage of her baby; All consequences; and info on all help available for her and baby; there is no reason to take the life of her child; someone will care for both.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Life is precious, the woman's as well as the babies. She is connected to that baby from conception. Her body knows it before she does. Our country has been one to safeguard lives, countries. We need to set the example as a caring nation and safeguard our own future generations. Abortion has negative effects on a woman which spills over to her family, community and the nation.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Margarita Ayala (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: (2) Ventura County, California 1983, 85
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? Physically, yes but not mentally or emotionally. I was not informed of adoption as an alternative. I was under age 18 and a parent should have been there with me. I was not old enough to understand the full effects of what I was doing.
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? NO Have you had breast cancer? UNK
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? ONE child's father.
- 5) However, the way the attendants at the agency described it as a minor thing, insignificant, unimportant, easy, no problem, simple to fix - yet broke me!
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I have been through so much since 1984, I look back now + see, that my life spiraled downward not after I was raped but 2 years later when I had my first abortion, because the man I was with turned out to be married + sleeping with my sister. The second was because the man I loved told me I didn't deserve to be the mother of his child. from one abusive relationship to another. In 86 I wanted my baby back so bad (because I had asked God for the child) I went out + found a bum and got pregnant right away. I kept asking God to forgive me + give me a girl, 4 children, 9 yrs. later I finally had my girl but still couldn't forgive myself. 7 years later I finally am able to look back + a way understand the extent of damage I caused myself, and those around me. I ran away from home.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I was unable to continue the relationships I had with either of the babies fathers. I am now in need of constant support from my partner. I must keep in constant contact with God to get through my days.

Now am a proud of GRANDMOTHER A BEAUTIFUL A B. God.

Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? NO NO NO DONT DO IT. You'll regret it for the rest of your life. You'll hear childrens crying at a distance muffled into the sounds of everyday life. You'll think of those babies + wish you had them back. "God have mercy on me"

Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? There is no reason under heaven that would excuse any woman to murder, shed innocent blood. I have been raped and have a 20 year old son, that will make me a grandmother (God willing) in August this year. I have had 2 abortions that haunt me every day of my life. My mistakes I cannot change, I hope to help others not make the same mistakes. I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

5) How has your abortion affected you? It took me years to forgive myself I was completely distraught & depressed exhibiting self destructive behaviors such as drinking/partying, promiscuity, I pretty much hated myself for what I did.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It caused me to be very suspicious & lacking in trust toward others esp. men. Caused a great fear of making a commitment to get married.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? _____

DONT DO IT, IT'S NOT AN ANSWER. IT WILL ONLY MAKE THINGS WORSE!

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Margaret Conway (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Houston, Texas 1984
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? All I was told was the method that would be used, that is all.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? Shortly afterward I experienced months of the deepest, darkest depression you can imagine. Something I have never experienced before or since. Then I had horrible confusion and thoughts of suicide. It was the worst time of my life. I still feel unforgivable.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Besides being denied the right to know my unborn child, I'm sure I'm unable to love others the way I should.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Don't do it! You would always regret. It would psychologically damage you badly. That fetus is truly a real human being.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day appeared Elizabeth A. Corey, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) When and where did your abortion occur? Spokane, Washington between 1980 and 1982
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? (Check One) Yes No If no, explain: The clinic did not give me any information on my developing baby, what it looked like or what was physically happening to it.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Yes No Have you had breast cancer? Yes No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes No If yes, who? _____
- 6) How has abortion affected you? I chose to have four abortions between the years of 1980 + 1982. In 1983 I gave birth to my daughter. It was shortly after her birth that I came to the realization of what I had done to my four children. I lay in bed and wept, asking God to forgive me for murdering my children. God did forgive me and it was then that I began the slow journey back to a whole life, free of alcohol and drug use. Even after 26 years I experience emotional pain when I think of what I have done to my kids. I want to help women by telling my story and showing them all information so they can make an intelligent and informed decision in the event of ^{an} unplanned ^{preg.}
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It has kept me from being honest with them at first but now I have ingrained into my living children how wrong abortion is.
- 8) Based upon your experience, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? Not to go through with it, to have the baby and give the baby to someone who can't have one. The emotional anguish isn't worth the "so called" convenience.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? With the knowledge that we have now about the developing baby how can the court believe abortion is just? If it were just, why did I keep it a secret in shame for 20 plus years? Abortion is murder and I should be in prison for life.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared B. [redacted] A. [redacted] (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1986 Eastland Women's Clinic
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No. I was told that it was fast, easy, and that it would solve any problems.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? The father's mother and my mother indirectly because she told me that I would not be able to live there if I were to not have an abortion.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? When God chose to allow me to know the truth, I feel lies that people told me, they even showed me pictures telling that it wasn't a baby, it was a blob of tissue. This really was a baby! It didn't really affect me until years later, when I realized that it was a person, that I murdered and he or she was in Heaven with God. I thank God that Jesus Christ died for my sins and am forgiven! I live with regret, pain, sorrow, and wish I could undo this terrible tragedy everyday. It has been 17 years since the abortion, and it is not easier to deal with. It will always stay with me.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My mother never sought after the Lord. So I think she hides anything to do with the abortion deep inside. My husband (who was not involved) hurts for me and says that if it were us we would not have had abortion.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? That this life is a precious gift from God! Don't Kill that life, nurture that life like we were created to do. The pain I have caused God, the child, and myself is unimaginable, and unforgettable. It doesn't fix anything, it only adds many more problems.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? It is illegal to murder any person at any age, but it is legal and encouraged to murder a person who is unborn. We do not have the right to murder. If a woman chooses to have an abortion, she has the legal right to murder. Where is the logic? Why is there no value on that life, because you can't see him or her yet?

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: (I was 13 years old) Summer 1973 - Mount Sinai Hospital Detroit, Michigan
 - 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO
 - 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? YES If so, who? Parents, I never signed any papers with my own hand.
 - 5) How has your abortion affected you? I still cannot write about it. Physically I recovered up. I am always like the walking dead. I grieve the moment I got up, all through the day, at night, when I sleep, when I wake up in the middle of the night, when my stomach hurts for food, especially when I have my hands on my lap or laying with my hands on my stomach + it is flat. I am just now learning that I have a right to life, 43 years later and I am still not able to live in the present my mind always goes to the past.
 - 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Parents (father dead) said that is why they put plasters on pencils. Mother still living - never apologized or even knows how to say she is sorry. I have 3 sisters ignored me.
 - 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Not do because every pregnancy is real from the time of conception. It is a life and a gift from "GOD". No matter what the circumstances are, in any situation, that baby has a right to life. The gift of life is given to each of us from "God".
 - 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? It's wrong!! I was 25 weeks when I had my abortion. I can still feel the needle being injected into my belly (saline solution) and my baby wiggling + wiggling. It was a boy + he could have possibly survived, if he was born at this age. I got pregnant again, right after + had another abortion, like back to back. Then my mother got birth control pills for me.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Edrena B. Horne (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: Each of my nine abortions occurred between the ages of 16 and 23 yrs. of age, East Gyn Center, Eastland Women's Clinic
2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: Its possible they did, although I'm not quite sure because its something I've tried to forget. Although I have to say, "I could not forget the pain & the cruelty I felt and caused my unborn children."
3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? I was informed of some of the consequences, but not all or to what degree of how often or how long. However, I realized those abortion clinics didn't care about my health but they did care about the "duckies" (money)
4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? I don't recall being informed of the link between abortion & breast cancer. As far as I know, I don't have breast cancer.
5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? Yes, with each abortion I was pressured by the unborn father, who happens to be the father of my beautiful daughter, now 7 yrs. old.
6) How has your abortion affected you? Those abortions caused me to feel worthless, suicidal, helpless, guilty, lost, confused, and destroyed many relationships. I was in a state where I could not forgive myself.
7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? For the father who pressured me to have those abortions, he's very distant towards me and our daughter, we don't speak much, yet he admitted the wrong he did, asked for forgiveness and acknowledged the emotional & psychological damage to both of us.
8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I'd tell a woman considering an abortion she'll be hurting herself years down the road, Jesus Christ, and many other people w/ her decision to have an abortion. Just think about the torture you'd be putting that unborn baby through if had to do it over again, I wouldn't.

- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No If so, who? -
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I struggled with suicidal depression for over 12 yrs. Lost Self Esteem - lead to other poor choices - promiscuity, drinking - smoking 3 packs a day - I hated myself. I couldn't live with the knowledge that I was responsible for the death of my child. I was so ashamed I couldn't tell anyone that I had an abortion so I suffered in silence for years. For more details see CD - "The Choice" - Christine Jackman
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? The Father of my aborted child - I didn't give him a choice. My daughter couldn't forgive me.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Of all options available - it's the worst choice you can make. It is an assault to our womanhood & rob us - not only of our child - but our self esteem.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? That America is more noble, than this heinous practice. This does not protect women - but destroys their spirit & soul.

- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? no If so, who? _____

6) How has your abortion affected you? I have carried this 'secret sin' for 18 years. I take full responsibility for my poor decision regarding abortion. Had I known I would feel 'crap up' that I would be so psychologically damaged & suffered from so much pain & grief, I would have never gone through it. I grieve for my children still.

7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? nobody knows

8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? It is not pure about mothering her own child, look to adoption resources. Hellin said child is not the answer & one they would regret in the future.

9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Life is not to be thrown away because women don't want to take responsibility for their actions. The child loses & the mother does too. Society loses on what could have been with each unborn child. There is no politically correct term for taking another's life ~ it is murder.

- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? No If not, explain: I did not know how developed the child in my body was, I thought it was a blob of tissue - not a living being with a beating heart!
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No. I was not told or given literature about side effects - except for bleeding problems. I was not told about any possible long-term effects.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No Have you had breast cancer? No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? The fathers.
I also had the pressure of not knowing I had other options. I didn't have any support from anyone either.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I went through 4 years of severe clinical depression, was suicidal at one point; had a damaged uterus & had to have a hysterectomy at the age of 21.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It has hurt my relationships with my living children - ~~my~~ I have lost a few friends over the decision I made.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? Don't do it. The long-term emotional and physical effects are just as difficult as ~~the~~ having and raising a child. If you chose adoption you would know that there are thousands of barren couples out there who would provide a good home. Pride is not more important than a child's life.
- 9) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? important than a child's life. How can we legalize murder? - 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred October 1971 Wyoming Co. Hosp. Warsaw N.Y.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO If not, explain: The nurse only asked me if I was sure I wanted to do "It". I didn't realize at all what they would do. The only thing I knew is that I was pregnant but I wouldn't be having a baby. It would be taken care of.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? The doctor remembers being told any thing except that I would have to go home and wait until I was farther along. I think now that I was feeling life before they did "It"
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? my sister-in-law and the father of the baby told me that abortion was legal in New York and that since he didn't want to get married or have a baby I had no choice.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I was depressed for years and had thoughts of suicide. I felt I couldn't live with what I had done. I finally talked my husband after 2 years to have a baby with me. I thought somehow I could replace the baby I had killed. I was still depressed and I was abusive to our first son and tried to get help for years.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I cannot speak for my husband or our children. When I tell some people I did "it" they cannot believe me. I believe that my husband is sorry about it and would not do it again.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? I would tell her that she should consider all her options. I would tell her that I felt I had killed my baby when I aborted it, and that it is something I can never forget. The mental anguish was unbearable for me.
- 9) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? God creates life and from the moment of conception everything necessary for a life is present in the mother's womb. The womb is created to protect that life until it can survive outside of it. I have experienced abortion first hand and I would never recommend it to any one no matter what.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 10-73 / 11-74 Detroit
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No
I was just told all would be taken care of & the uterus would be cleaned out
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? Parents & boy friend
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I lived with guilt and shame until I sought forgiveness from God. I will always regret what I did. I do not tell people that I have aborted. This is a shame that I live with and if possible help others not make the same mistake

- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? It is not the answer to your situation. Abortion only brings more pain and confusion to your life. You will always remember that you aborted.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would tell them of the pain & guilt I have lived with. How I was told half truths by the abortionist. I would also tell of how I was treated by the clinic and taken advantage of.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

AFFIDAVIT

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Paula Maurer (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred: February 1991, Private M.D.'s office, Elizabeth Karlin, Madison, Wisconsin.
2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No, as to what abortion is, I was told that it was a simple and safe procedure. That was all I was told. As to what abortion does: I was given a sheet of statements written by doctors because I had asked the nurse what abortion does, that I had reservations about the procedure.
3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No, I was only told to follow up my abortion with a doctor where I lived in 2 weeks to reassure me (not exact words) "Pregnancy tissue is nothing more than a blob to be extracted" "There is no real evidence with a doctor where I lived in 2 weeks to reassure me (not exact words) "Pregnancy tissue is nothing more than a blob to be extracted" "There is no real evidence to suggest life at pregnancy, only products of conception."
4. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No, but I would have reconsidered aborting had I been told.
Have you had breast cancer? No
5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No, but Planned Parenthood of Wisconsin didn't discourage it even though I told them I was engaged and somewhat financially secure to a private M.D.
If so, who? Planned Parenthood of Wis. referred me
6. How has your abortion affected you? Emotionally, mentally, guilt, shame, isolation, depression, despair, regret, remorse, self-hatred, self-destructive, suicidal (hospitalized) inability to forget baby, baby's death date and baby's due date, inability to forgive myself, loss of sexual interest, outburst of rage and anger, helplessness and troubled relationships
7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? 12 years after abortion Stillbirth 4 years after abortion It robbed my parents and spouses parents of the relationship with their grandchild. My sister was deeply upset
8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? "Don't do it! It was the most stupid and selfish choice I've ever made! As a woman, you have strong maternal instincts made to protect your child and if you violate these instincts by paying someone to harm your child, you will bring great emotional damage to yourself."
9. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? "with all due respect you have no idea how abortion devastates the whole being of a woman, of how deeply she is broken when she faces the truth and reality of her (often ill-advised) actions to abort. If a woman facing a crisis pregnancy is like a panicked animal with its leg caught in a trap then abortion would be to cut off the leg and cripple her but the true act of mercy would be to open the trap and preserve all of her. Likewise the true act of love and concern for her would be to legalize abortion."

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Debra Ann Mays (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: October 1985 in a Women's clinic in Lansing, MI.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No, I wasn't told anything.
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No Have you had breast cancer? No, thank God.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? My mom. She was instructed by the minister of our church.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? Initially I was numb and remained in shock from October 1985 until 1989 and I did anything to feel again; I was fighting with my friends more and lost many of them, I became more sexually active - Anything to feel again. Then when the hurt surfaced I drank alcohol - anything now to cover the pain. Currently, I have gone through a grieving and healing process and there is still not a day that goes by that I don't regret my decision. It is the deepest loss a woman can ever know.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I am divorced and hurt my first husband deeply even though he wasn't involved, my mom and I don't talk, my brother is still very angry, my dad whom I just recently told feels guilty that he failed me somehow. And my daughter now is beginning to understand the loss of her older sister.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Abortion may seem like the right answer now but if it is truly the right answer it will always be right so don't hurry with this decision. Think about the physical consequences, the emotional pain of losing your child and the spiritual death you will go through. This is not the right answer for anyone who wants to experience less pain & more freedom.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? If abortion had not been legal I would not have been advised the way I was - My child I killed is named "Amber" and I wish the courts and governments would give as much consideration to saving my child as they do issuing "Amber Alerts" across the country to save children currently living. I would have my child today, in my arms or an adoptive mother who wants children so badly, if abortion wasn't legal.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared RITA MOORE, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

I had my first abortion in my early 20s. I don't know what they did to my body. I had this abortion downtown Detroit, Michigan, which is a bad area of town. When I came home, I was bleeding from my nose. I was depressed from the abortion. Then I had another abortion about 17 years ago. The guy I was with was abusive, but he still wanted me to have the baby. He asked me not to do it and even cried asking me not to have the abortion. I went ahead anyway. I have had so much regret. He and his family would have taken the baby, but since I couldn't take care of the baby, I chose abortion.

I wish I would have kept both of my kids. I have had so much guilt over the years. I want to call it a lingering depression from having those abortions. I got some counseling from church. They said your baby is heaven, but the guilt was still there. Then I was in church in Detroit and the pastor said some of you women who are carrying guilt from abortion, come to the altar. I went forward and was healed.

Now I want to tell women that abortion is just not worth it. I would strongly encourage women that even if they got pregnant, and they don't feel they are ready, still have that baby, place it up for adoption or maybe their family could raise the child until they were ready. They are going to have a lot of guilt to deal with. It is just not worth it. They need to consider too, the things they do to a baby during an abortion procedure. It is a life, it is a living, breathing life. This is what I want to get across to women, is if they think it is not a baby, it is still a living, breathing life. That baby has a right to live. The baby is helpless. It is not fair."

It took a job interview with the M.D. who referred me to have the abortion for me to have a break-down + it all surfaced!!

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: August 1976 / Sept 1978 / April 1979 New Clinic for Women - Grand Rapids, MICH on Fulton St.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO the 1st time I was told more than the 2nd or 3rd time which was no information the 1st time was told they would dilate the cervix - clean me out and I
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? NO Have you had breast cancer? NO would have a period.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? YES If so, who? The Counselor at the abortion clinic - If there had been a crisis pregnancy center there instead - I said I wouldn't have aborted.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? After the 1st I sobbed down the emptiness I felt I suffered from post-abortive syndrome - I remarried the event 2 yrs later at the same time of year by getting pregnant and aborting again - only to get pregnant and abort a third time 8 months later on the approx birth date my 1st aborted child should have been born. I drank heavily, went into a state of denial for periods of time - when I came out I was suicidal, emotionally disturbed & depressed - I had numerous tubal infections, then the constant use of antibiotics caused an imbalance in my body which caused chronic candida & thrush by me.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband had a constant alcohol problem until he dealt with the 3rd abortion he was involved in - It hurt my children to know that their father had a problem.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? It will hurt you much more to abort than to carry to term, no matter the circumstances (my 2nd abortion came after becoming pregnant by rape) It was even harder to get over that loss. It scars emotionally as well as physically. It's not worth the risk.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? It is nothing but bad medicine. It emotionally and physically scars women and men involved. It causes more drug and alcohol abuse. It physically scars women. It causes conflict in marriage and future relationships. It not only destroys a life in the womb, but destroys the lives of the parents left to deal with the loss. Even if it takes 5, 10, 15 or even 20 years to take full impact.

The State of Michigan

County of Kent

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared P. J. [redacted] who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: Spring of 1977 in Muskegon, Michigan
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No. I was only aware that it would solve my immediate problem. I don't remember going through any pre-counseling until I got on the table - that's when they told me what they were going to do and how they were going to do it. I never met the doctor until I was in the procedure room.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? Yes, my parents and the father of the baby.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? Abortion affected my relationship with my parents. I was very rebellious and had a bad relationship with them. Physically, I have a tipped uterus. Emotionally and spiritually I feel that abortion took away my good and feminine nature. It took away my zest and joy for life. I have lots of guilt and remorse. I miss the child that I aborted and grieve for him. Once I started understanding what abortion was, as an adult, I became very angry. I started valuing the life of a child when I started having my other children and I also got angrier because I realized that nobody told me it was a life.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It has made my family struggle with my emotions and my healing. They have been unduly burdened. I have had to tell my ten year old things that I normally would not have told him had I not gone through the abortion. I just could not lie to him. I had to tell him why I was depressed. Depressed and overwrought with guilt and grief so he would not think it was his fault.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion? Don't do it. There are other options. Now that I look back, if somebody had been honest with me and told me about adoption, I would have chosen to give up my child for adoption. If somebody had only told me how much couples that adopt children love their children, I would not have gone through it. I probably would have grieved, but it would be a different kind of grief, not like the one I feel today. I would tell them that the baby is a person and the mothers need to realize that.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would vent my anger to them. I was sixteen and in my sixteen year old mind, because abortion was legal, I thought it was right. Abortion is not in line with natural life. I would tell them I feel betrayed by the government - a government that should have protected me as a young person who was vulnerable and afraid and was in need of protection.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Jan. 15, 1977 at Summit Medical Center, Det. MI
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No, my father arranged everything, I was told very little.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? My parents. I was 17 yrs old when this happened. The psychologist I saw years later told me what my parents had done was called emotional blackmail.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? It has affected me very deeply, I was left a very insecure and broken person! I felt guilty and hated myself for being weak and not screaming for them to stop. I started seeing a psychiatrist when I was 24 yrs. old. I was married by then and we had a child 9 1/2 yrs old. He told me I was suffering from post-traumatic stress syndrome caused by the trauma of the abortion. I had developed migraines, psychosomatic ulcers and T.M.I. I have had years of counseling and have only now managed to put it all behind me.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It has affected my relationships with just about everyone. It is something that changes who you are and therefore, effects everything.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell her it is not the way to solve her crisis pregnancy, abortion changes who you are in a negative way. The other choices, like raising a child or adoption, are hard and painful, sometimes, but they do not compare to the pain left by abortion.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would tell them that I believe from my own experience that it causes nothing but pain and suffering. They told me at the clinic that nobody would ever have to know. No doctor will ever be able to tell you ever had one. It can be just like it never happened. But, know matters how hard I try I can never ever forget it!

I am over the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

I was 23 years old on June 4, 1998 when I had an abortion. My boyfriend and I had been engaged for 3 years when I found out I was pregnant. I was very excited about my pregnancy and the thought of abortion was not even in my mind. But that was not the case for my boyfriend. He had gone through a painful divorce and was not able to cope with the loss of his daughter due to the divorce. He did not want me to have the baby. I was given an ultimatum of having the abortion and keeping him in my life or keeping the baby and losing him forever.

I only knew him. I did not know my unborn child. I hadn't had the opportunity to develop a relationship with this child I was carrying. But I did have a relationship with my boyfriend. One I was not willing to lose or give up on. So I went reluctantly for an abortion at approximately 14 weeks into my pregnancy. We had to travel out of Michigan to the Women's Health Center in Duluth, Minnesota.

During the many hours that I was in the waiting room at the clinic I observed, I cried, I pleaded and I was very confused. I saw women in there that seemed way too comfortable with the routine of it all. As if they had been there a time or 2 before. I saw women who looked emotionless and suspended in time. I saw a young girl of about 15 years of age who didn't have a clue. Then there was me. I was in great distress over the situation. I did not want to be there. I felt so much pressure to be there. I passed a note to my boyfriend pleading with him to let me leave without regrets. He wouldn't budge.

I was given a consent form to sign if I wanted to see the remains of the fetus after the procedure. When I first read it over I was certain I would not want to accept that offer. But something in me told me to do it. I believe it was God. I believe God had a purpose for me to see what I was responsible for.

So here I sit now writing this affidavit. I am writing this because I saw the most horrific thing in my entire life that day. I saw a bloody and lifeless fetus that was extracted from my body. The physician pointed out to me that there were body parts still in tact. I will never forget that moment. That was the moment when I realized I did not know enough about abortion to have made an informed decision. I will forever be haunted by that graphic image.

If I had known the reality of the life inside me I would have never gone through with it. If abortion was not legal I would never had to deal with the pressure and coercion of my boyfriend. I would not have had to been in the position of deciding between my future husband and my unborn child. My husband would not have coerced me into this decision if he saw what I saw.

Since that day I have had women in my life that have been in the position of considering abortion. I have never promoted abortion and I never will. I will always tell the truth of abortion. I will tell the truth about unborn children. I will tell the truth about the emotional scars that this leaves. I will tell the truth about the guilt and depression that follows you forever. I will tell how I have feared God. But most of all I will tell the truth about the life that deserves live until God decides otherwise.

If I could wish anything in the world it would be for all judges, politicians and pro-choice individuals to be touched by the hand of God, to live without selfishness and allow life to live. The job of deciding when a life should end is not yours, it's not mine and it is not anyone else's other than God's.

I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared JACQUELINE A. PARKER, (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is JACQUELINE ANN PARKER (Print Name). My address is _____

In 1986, I was 21-years-old in college and unmarried when I suspected I was pregnant. A friend suggested I go to a clinic in Southfield, MI for a free pregnancy test. After telling me my test was positive, the woman at the clinic told me I could have an abortion to take care of it.

I distinctly remember her telling me that right now "it" is just a piece of tissue. It was those words that helped me rationalize that it was ok to go forward with the abortion. I received no further counsel as she scheduled me for the abortion. I was not counseled on the nature of abortion or any consequences I would face. My life would go back to the way it was before. I was young with very little life experience and very scared. I was in crisis. I take full responsibility for my choice but because of the secrecy I maintained, my only guidance was from the woman at the clinic.

For the most part, I denied my feelings of shame & guilt and spoke to no one about the abortion for more than a decade. The immediate stress of an unplanned pregnancy may have abated but in no way was I unaffected by the abortion. An abortion is not a simple procedure whereby tissue such as a tumor is removed. It is not a harmless or a casual event. A child's life is lost.

I became pregnant again in 2001. This time I knew what alternatives I had and fully understood what each meant. With this understanding, I could no longer deny the enormity of what I had done fifteen years prior. The right to have an abortion so that I did not have to be burdened with an unplanned pregnancy later proved to overwhelm me with grief, anger, guilt and shame. I had snuffed a small life. I feared for my soul. I seriously questioned who I was. My guilt and shame were immense. I sought forgiveness from God and from my child that would have been a teenager today. I received counseling through Project Rachael, a post-abortion support group through my church. The abortion most definitely had significant consequences for me. A decision I deeply regret. I know in my heart that giving birth to that child instead of killing him or her would certainly have been the better alternative for all - whether it meant adoption or being a single parent.

All alternatives are life-changing experiences, but the trauma of unexpectedly becoming a single parent or losing a child in an adoption would have been easier to heal from than living with the enormous realization that I was responsible for ending the life of my own child.

I say this knowingly because with my second pregnancy, I chose not to abort the precious life within me. Today, he is living a very healthy and happy life with his adoptive parents, and I am very much at peace with this.

Abortionists are terrorists, too

President Clinton's statement to the children of America, in regard to the bombing of the federal building in Oklahoma City which appears in the April 23 Kalamazoo Gazette was: "I have promised every child, every parent, every person in America that when we catch the people who did this, we will make sure that they can never hurt another child again. Ever."

Yet he is an advocate of another form of terrorism, abortion.

In my opinion, whatever punishment the president and our government has in store for the Oklahoma City bombers should go for the abortionists, too. For they are terrorists to the unborn children of America.

Nation drowning in debauchery

As a nation we are drowning in the sea of debauchery, and our blood guiltiness has lead us into blindness. We have become cold and indifferent to the excruciating pain inflicted on our unborn and now partially born (partial-birth abortion) children.

Unless this nation turns back to God, and God's people do what he has commanded them to do in II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves and pray and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land," we are as walking dead men.

Abortion is pocketbook issue

In response to the July 14 front page story entitled, "Abortion dominates GOP Senate race," candidate Jim Nicholson (with a campaign strategy to submerge abortion as an issue) in a statement said, "I think what we need to do is get off this topic and get on to the real issues of this campaign, which are pocketbook issues."

If abortion had not been a big "pocketbook" issue, it would have been submerged 23 years ago. The real issue here is pro-God or anti-God.

Stand up to combat evil

This letter is in response to two April 1 articles that relate to each other.

The first is about a youth charged with conspiracy in the March 11 car break-in and stabbing death of 25-year-old Michael Cockfields. Kalamazoo Court Referee Anne Harrison has ordered the youth to watch "Schindler's List" to teach him he should have tried to stop his friends.

The second article entitled, "Month of the young child - activities give children a voice" reported that April has been proclaimed "Month of the young child." Nancy Justin of Plainwell said, "It's important to have people focus on children because children don't have much say in what happens to them." How true this is for the very youngest, the unborn child.

How do these two articles relate? I fail to see any differences whether it's a screwdriver in someone's 25-year-old son's brain or an abortion, someone's child is dead. In the first article Referee Harrison said: "In order for evil to not happen, people need to step forward and say: Don't do this."

Our country claims to believe in free markets. We also claim to want Third World countries to prosper. Our policies, however, do not match our rhetoric. In the case of sugar, we maintain import restrictions to protect the jobs, growers and refiners of our sugar industry. This results in sugar prices which are higher than the world market. These restrictions on sugar imports mean that Third World Latin American countries cannot freely sell us their sugar production. Instead of open markets, the U.S. offers these poor nations foreign aid handouts.

Now we are seeing one of the unintended consequences in our own area, when a significant sugar-using industry moves out of the country. We would be better off listening to our own free market advice. Drop the restrictions on sugar imports. Let the Third World economies sell us their products. In the long run such policies would save plants such as Life Saver, let Third World eco-for foreign aid.

By the way, how much does the cereal? Why has Kellogg moved some production to Mexico? Will more cereal plants follow?

WMU faculty parking

The Gazette reported on Jan. 20 that the faculty at Western Michigan University receive as a benefit, free parking at the university.

 While faculty do not pay directly out of pocket for parking stickers, it has long been the practice of Western to charge all faculty a fee of some $571 (this is a 1994 figure which may have been raised since then; the student parking fee then was $100) which is then costed to our fringe benefits package. When Western reports the compensation levels of faculty at Western to the state or other agencies, our total compensation package (which includes this fringe element) appears to be enhanced by such a practice. If Western's faculty really had free parking, more money could be devoted to improving faculty salaries to help bring them to levels appropriate for the current status of the university. What the article did not mention in enough detail is the fact that the increase in parking fees at Western has much to do with the deficit the university incurred after building the parking ramp at Miller Auditorium since that facility did not generate the revenue the administration had expected, especially in the first few years.

Most Americans, including myself, think John Walker Lindh should be punished for helping the terrorists attack America.

Before and after Roe vs. Wade (1973), the abortionists have attacked the most helpless of Americans, the unborn. Some carry show the truth. Some carry the yourself are caught up in a web of corruption?"

Just recently Granholm announced that she has changed her decision and will now investigate the problems that engulf the Wayne County Metro Airport.
 Why the sudden flip-flop? Perhaps, her change of heart can be attributed to the bad press she has received as a result of her failure to examine the situation. Another possibility could be the recent discovery of five no-bid contracts from Wayne County given to Granholm's husband, where Granholm previously worked.

Whatever the reason for Granholm's decision to finally investigate the escalating problems of the airport, her intentions were politically motivated and insincere. Perhaps Granholm is not the best person to speak of ethics, or to be the next governor of Michigan.

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared M. Denise Lake, (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1. My name is Marabeth Denise Lake, (Print Name). My address is [REDACTED] am over the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

1986 through September was a blur, most of it due to months of 20-hour days, an excruciating workload, and a growing feeling of weakness and fatigue I could not overcome. So in late September I saw a new physician for a complete physical. Upon returning for the results, I was advised that all the tests were negative, and that I should have a Swine Flu vaccination. I consented to the vaccine not aware that, although the chest x-ray was negative, I indeed had a brooding case of pneumonia, which the vaccine quickly exacerbated. Within ten days I was unconscious and rushed to the emergency room where my lung collapsed, my heart stopped, my blood sugar (I'm an insulin dependent diabetic) rose to 2300 (and I have hospital records to prove it!), and for a brief moment I died. Three and a half October weeks later I was discharged, a mere shadow of my former self. My normal 5'-1" frame usually weighed about 110 pounds and now I was down to 80 pounds.

Immediately upon arriving home, the man I was living with demanded physical intimacy. After this encounter I seemed to almost instantly, intuitively know, that a life had been conceived within me. "Don't be ridiculous. You couldn't know that—at least not in this first week, this first month," I argued with myself. By the beginning of December my body was sending signals, but I was only a few days past due, and my cycles had been pretty irregular through most of my life. It was too early for a pregnancy test. In late December I went with my "partner" to visit the doctor who said that being pregnant so soon after that October experience would be too much trauma for my frail and still underweight body, and would pose too much distress with the diabetes. I cried. The test confirmed the pregnancy. I cried. I asked what could be done. I asked to be sent to a high-risk pregnancy hospital. And I cried some more. "Nothing" could be done. And I let them convince me of that I thought those weeks between when the test confirmed the pregnancy and when an abortion could be performed were some of the worst in my life. I didn't know that the worst lay yet ahead.

The doctor had referred us to the Northland Family Planning Clinic in Southfield, Michigan, just a half hours drive away. Ironic, yes, that it took a half an hour to get there to wait for some five-six hours before what they call "the procedure" began. The waiting was like nothing I had ever experienced, precisely because it was all "nothing." The waiting was a void filled with chaos. I still remember the faces of the women in the waiting room- numb, lifeless, afraid, and some were openly weeping. Based on what I now know, those women could still look like that today, their eyes vacant, their ability to feel anything deeply, anesthetized. And all these years later I still vividly remember how I was treated- like the baby I was carrying, I was something to be removed and done away with. Not one person, from the receptionist, to the counselor, the nurse's assistant, to the doctor himself, had my (or any other patient's) best interest at heart. More, not one of them even made an attempt to appear to care. Thinking back on the experience it occurred to me strange that that waiting room should be so full on a weekday. There might have been from 75-125 women with "others" at that Family Planning Clinic. And strange, too, to call a place that doesn't let families become families a Family Planning Clinic! I've since thought about the hypocrisy of a medical system that fights to birth some babies despite all odds, while all the time killing so many others.

The "procedure" didn't take long, once I was in the room and the valium had taken effect, but it seemed like a week. The smell was different than a doctor's office. And there were noises more like vacuum cleaners than medical equipment. The nurse replied to my inquiry about the sound, "Don't worry, honey, that's just how we extract the tissue. It will be over before you know it." That weekend when he and I were having dinner at a favorite Mexican restaurant I began to weep, not because of anything we were talking about, but because I knew, I KNEW, what I had done. He looked at me like I was stupid, and tried to comfort me with something like, "It was the only choice. It was the best thing. Your health couldn't take it. You'll feel better soon," which only made me cry more.

I started driving 35 miles one way on Sundays to the Church I'd been brought up in. There was a female priest who spoke with me about the near death experience, the abortion, things spiritual, and my cohabitation with my lover. I will never forget her pointed questions, her ability to set a direction to seek that my hunger might be fulfilled. I'll never forget that Mary knew what I needed and sought, and helped me (eventually) reach Him. It was the beginning of a long "seeking" that would end exactly four years later.

In 1989 I left that live-in lover after a very promiscuous, alcohol and drug indulgent six-month period while working over spring and summer in another state. I had a history of drug and alcohol abuse that had seemed to increase following that 1987 abortion, and the people with whom I'd become friendly out-of-state seemed to proliferate that.. In September of 1989 I missed a cycle. This time I recognized the signals my body was sending. It seems I had conceived in July. Compounded by the fact I didn't know which of four men was the father was the awareness of the harm alcohol and drugs would have on that baby. I didn't have to think a great deal about what I would do. This time the "termination of pregnancy" took place in October at a small doctor's office 5 minutes from my apartment. A startling thing occurred, and it may have happened in 1987 as well, I do not know. When then physician said the procedure was complete, he and the nurse, in quiet tones, began speaking about a report, and I heard, "Fingers?" "Ten," was the reply. "Toes?" Again, "Ten." I instantly felt the need to leave the room to vacate my stomach of its contents as I thoroughly understood that the baby girl I would come to call Sarah was, to them, only a matter of counting and reporting all the body parts correctly to preclude any potential lawsuit. Try to imagine a job where you count the severed and washed remains of an infant human!!! Sarah would have been born around 30 April and would have been 14 this year of 2004.

In two years I had two abortions. In two years I was so numb from both the pain and the drugs I saw no point in living. In October 1990, as a broken woman, alone on my knees I accepted Jesus Christ at His Word, and asked forgiveness. In October of 1990 my seeking, soul-seared heart finally found the peace that had so eluded it: Only a GOD who knows the end from the beginning could have orchestrated the fact that this was on the exact anniversary, the very same day, of that October 1986 day when conception of the child I've come to know as David took place. He would be 17 this July 26 (or so), which is also my birthday. October is a strange month, now; a month where life began in David, and where the life of Sarah was snuffed out and a month where I received new life and died to the old life. I love October, now.

It was only after I became involved (in an almost militant way) in crisis pregnancy counseling I discovered other women had suffered silently in horror as I had. A post-abortion Bible study called "Women in Ramah" brought me to a realization that if GOD could forgive and had forgiven me, I needed to forgive myself in order to do whatever He called me to. It came in waves over the years that full and complete healing.

In the seventeen years post abortion, I've listened to tens of women, perhaps hundreds, with whom I share part or all of one of the most painful, secret, damaging, and disabling of human traumas, and one we actually choose, believing "they" wouldn't want to harm us.

Does anyone else think it is ludicrous that humans seem to be the only order of species that rip their unborn out of the womb for slaughter? And the only beings who think it is right to do that?

In all of Israel, four days before the Passover, each family brought a lamb into the home for four days of inspection prior to it being offered as a sacrifice. In her ancient days, before the Temple was destroyed, millions of families lived in the Land. If each family in Israel brought one lamb for sacrifice, the amount of blood that would spill over the Temple Altar... How much innocent blood has abortion shed in both the blood of the unborn and the blood of the mothers who could not continue in the pain and took their lives at their own hands? How much innocent blood has been shed by the women who have died on the table of the abortionist, or of "complications" following that "procedure" that, by law, cannot be attributed to the abortion?

Abortion is not good for the unborn. Abortion is not good for women. Abortion is not good for this nation.

For each one of the 44 million unborn who has been brutally ripped apart in the wombs of their mothers we weep. For each of the aborted mothers who know something is wrong, who cries silently in the night, who looks for comfort, whose arms long for a child they will not hold, we weep. For those women who will be faced with the decision of abortion in the days until Roe v. Wade is overturned, we weep. For Norma McCorvey and Sandra Cano, who lived for years in silent pain and now are free in Christ, we wept and no longer weep. For Norma and Sandra who in their courage have come forward to ask the courts to change a "right" which has never been either right or a [Constitutional] Law, we rejoice. For the justices who will decide justice in this matter, we pray, for they have an opportunity to right an injustice of 31 years, a chance to. May they seek the women in their lives, the women at crisis pregnancy centers, the women who have served in abortion mills and seen the destruction, for wise counsel. And may they seek the Creator to restore that unalienable right to life, for both women and their unborn.

I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared S. L. K. (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 26 OR 27 YEARS AGO IN AKRON, OHIO
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? TO THIS DAY, I FEEL GUILT, SOMETIMES THE GUILTY FEELINGS ARE OVER WHELMING. I FEEL CORRESPONDING DEPRESSION + VERY OFTEN SHAME. AT VERY INFREQUENT TIMES, I CAN STILL HEAR THE SUCTIONING TYPE SOUND OF THE EQUIPMENT - I'M NOT SURE WHAT EQUIPMENT WAS USED - AND I REMAIN VERY MUCH BECOMING NAUSEOUS AND VOMITING DURING THE PROCEDURE (ALTHOUGH I MAY HAVE VOMITED AFTER). I'VE BEEN ASHAMED HIDING THIS FROM ALL BUT 4 PEOPLE, ESPECIALLY MY GROWN SONS + EXTENDED FAMILY.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I CAN ONLY SPECULATE BECAUSE IT WAS NEVER DISCUSSED.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? IT IS AN EMOTIONALLY DEVASTATING, ALMOST EMOTIONALLY CRIPPLING EFFECT. I WAS "LIBERATED" FROM HAVING A BABY THAT AT THE TIME I BELIEVED I DIDN'T WANT, BUT I WILL NEVER BE FREE FROM MY GUILTY CONSCIENCE.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? TO LOOK AGAIN AT THE OVERWHELMING, IRREFUTABLE, SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE THAT IS PRESENTED BY MOVING FILM, STILL PHOTOGRAPHS AND WRITTEN DOCUMENTATION, IF AFTER REVIEWING THIS PROOF, THEY CAN STILL CONDONE LEGALIZED ABORTION, I WOULD TELL THEM THEY HAVE LOST THEIR SOULS.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Deborah A. Ives (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: APRIL 12 1975 + February 1983 + 12-12-1984 - Clinic
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No not at the first or second abortion. The third one - yes, the procedure was explained, but not the consequences.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? YES If so, who? Doctor + parents for the first one, grand and 3rd one. I just wanted to get it over with, because I was leaving a promiscuous life style.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I lived in a confused emotional state - sad - for years, due to appearing to live a normal life on the outside but I kept this secret until 1999, I told the whole truth to a friend and then to my husband in 1999 - Drove hard 12 hours to meet with a friend who took me thru a post-abortion work book - my life began to change. Thus my eyes the world had changed - as healing began to take place - people even noticed a change in me - I have much to say about this.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? yes - too much to list.

- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Don't do it. There are other options, and you don't have to go thru the nightmare of being alone and financially poor. The consequences of abortion far outweigh full term delivery.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Mentally + Emotionally I believe the numbers are in and you can't see. Physically, many women have had abortions, courts do on what they see, not on post-abortion women and how every decision we made after the abortion, had inadvertently something to do with the abortion. Many wrong decisions are made due to broken hearts.

- 5) How has your abortion affected you? Up until 2001 I always felt that God was punishing me because it seemed I couldn't have a girl. I had given birth to four boys & desperately wanted a girl. All I could think about was the abortion I that I killed the only chance God had given me for my little girl. I cried endlessly at times. Not that I ever regretted ANY of my boys - I love them all.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It was one child that I couldn't give to someone else that couldn't conceive -
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell her my story & about the sadness that sets in & never ever really leaves. I would tell her how happy she could make another person by considering adoption.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would tell them that if a person is considering abortion that there is obviously some hidden reason or problem in her life at that time that she feels this is her only way out & it isn't until it's too late that she realizes - it wasn't her only way out. That there is help out there. Women are under major hormone changes during pregnancy.

See attached. sh

First I need to say that this letter is an amendment to a question form affidavit that I mailed in about one week ago. After sending that out – I realized that I really didn't tell you the whole story and I felt that I needed to. I have been through too much to not share it with someone that it may help someday.

In November of 1986, I was sixteen years old and I had an abortion. When I found out that I was pregnant part of me was excited and happy and the other part of me was unsure. I had no family in the state that I was living in. The only person that I had to turn to was the father of our unborn child. He confided with his mother, a psychologist, who persuaded him that having a child was not in our best interest at that time in our lives. I do not recall the exact day, making the phone call to the abortion clinic or driving there. All I remember is sitting in the dreadful waiting room listening to women talk of their past experiences with abortions like it was a form of birth control and that it was just before Thanksgiving Day. I felt depressed and scared. I felt trapped and I recall wanting to leave and go home, but my boyfriend had just left me there. After the abortion there was a "recovery" room. It was a room with no walls, just one big room with rows of beds. Beds with women recovering from killing an innocent child. I felt so empty and alone. There was no one there to hold my hand and tell me it was ok, because it wasn't. It was wrong.

In 1988 I became pregnant with my oldest son who is now 14 years old. The pregnancy was smooth and a great joy. When my little miracle was born I was beside myself with happiness.

In just a few months after my first son's birth – I was once again pregnant. Today, February 21 it is his 13th birthday. Again, I was in a situation where I didn't know what to do. My boyfriend and I were not happy together and we were splitting up over the pregnancy because he wanted me to get another abortion. I did not. I called my mother who lived in Michigan. She and my sister drove to Virginia to pick me up. With my son, I moved home. Pregnant, not married, no boyfriend or job – I felt lonely and helpless again. I talked with a social worker about adoption. She informed me that in Michigan open adoption was not allowed. I then made some phone calls to Virginia and found a couple that wanted to adopt my child through open adoption. I packed up my son and myself and moved to that state.

When my biological son was born, things didn't go as planned. I decided not to give him to the people I had originally made arrangements with because of legal issues that had not been done yet and I was very nervous about them as parents. I think in reality – I wanted a few days with my son. I knew I did not have the means to provide for him but so wished that I had.

During the next couple of days I had the opportunity to meet with six different couples and interview them about their views on raising a child and what they could provide for my son that I could not. I ended up picking the first couple that I interviewed. They had just turned 40 and were removed from the adoption waiting list because they were deemed "too old". This couple could not have been more perfect for my son. I get pictures once a year and they resemble one another so much!

I guess the reason I had to include this in my story is because, ladies, you do have a choice. I think of all the people out there that want to adopt a child – a precious gift from God and then I think of the one that I killed that could have made someone forever grateful. If it weren't for me – there would be one less couple without a child to love. Because I have gone through an abortion and an adoption I don't think I need a degree to tell you the effects that these situations have on a woman. I know. I know how good I feel when I think about my biological son in a loving home with parents that are truly grateful for what I have done. I also know how ungrateful and selfish I was for not standing up for myself the first time. Had I, there would be another miracle still on this God given earth.

I did eventually move on and in 1994 had another son and was married to a wonderful person. In 1999 I again had another son and finally in 2001, I was blessed with a daughter. So that this all makes sense to you, I have to tell you that I have always wanted a daughter. For years I thought that God was punishing me by not giving me one because of the abortion. I would pray and pray and was only conceiving boys. I truly believed that I had aborted the only daughter that God ever intended on giving me. (I did not know the sex of the baby that was aborted). I was depressed many times after giving birth to my last two sons. Not that I didn't love them, because I do endlessly, but that thought of God punishing me never went away. When I was pregnant with my daughter I prayed every single night that God would please give me a daughter, as this was to be my last pregnancy. I would sit on my deck and look at the stars while praying. I always saw the big dipper. Well towards the very end of my pregnancy, I was outside praying as usual and the big dipper was gone. In its place was a great big shimmering star. I knew that my child would be born that night. I was right and it was a girl. God is so good. He forgives if you ask. He hears prayer.

I just hope that abortion is made illegal. I don't believe that any woman in her right mind really wants an abortion. I think what she really wants is someone that she cares about to say – I love you, I will help you, or there are other options. Abortion is baggage that you will carry with you for the rest of your life; an unwanted pregnancy can only be for 9 months. Adoption is the answer. Don't blame the babies.

I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

I immediately remarried and got pregnant, trying to fill the void of losing the aborted baby. It added to the burden of sin I was carrying. I got into a life of staying alone, on top. Even after confessing in repentance to Jesus Christ, it is always something I will regret, and have the scar from.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? all my sisters realized what damage it caused me, we all learned a terrible lesson from it. My Mom felt very guilty for not encouraging me to have the baby.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? that it is a very selfish solution to an unwanted pregnancy, that it is murder, killing your own baby to solve your problems, that there are terrible consequences as far as being able to live with yourself afterwards

Looking back is very painful. It was October 1976. I was 24 years old, a single mom, with a 5 year old son. I was the sole financial support, and we were very poor. I had followed my dad, a Baptist pastor to his new church in Goldsboro, North Carolina. He had previously pastored in Indiana in the same place for close to 20 years. The new church had just fired their old pastor for marital misconduct, they would later fire my dad, accusing him of being a Calvinist, but in actuality, from the beginning, they did not find him befitting of their upper crust society. (I am number 2 of 7 daughters, and have one brother, who is the youngest child.) One day I wasn't feeling well, and I went to the doctor, who put me in the hospital to run some tests, and I couldn't have been more shocked when I was told I was pregnant! I had been told previously that I could not get pregnant because of scarring in my tubes. So I was totally unprepared for this possibility. I had been living in sin, and when I told the man I had been seeing, a North Carolina state trooper, that I was pregnant, he said, "Are you trying to tell me I'm the father?" He told me to have an abortion. A relative told me she had heard that if you took really hot baths, it would cause you to miscarry, or jumping up and down, but nothing happened when I did these things, and after that, I felt like I had probably harmed my baby anyway. From experience when I was younger I knew it would cause my Dad untold grief if I was pregnant, because there had been things brought up in our former church about our skirts being too short, etc and this church was really already looking down their noses at us. Out of desperation, I called social services, and told them I needed an abortion, but had no money to pay for it. They agreed to pay for it, and scheduled me an early morning appointment at the Christ's womens clinic in Jacksonville, N.C., which was a 1 1/2 hour drive from Goldsboro, approximately. I got off work late that night, and drove alone over to Jacksonville, hoping no one would know and try to stop me. I got there sometime after midnight, and tried to sleep in my car, but I was freezing to bad to sleep, so I entered a hospital across from the clinic, and walked around, trying to stay warm and awake so I wouldn't miss my appointment. Around 8 am, I went back to my car, and sat in it watching for signs of life at the clinic. Finally, I saw Dr. Crist drive up in his little fancy red sports car. Shortly, other staff arrived, and I was able to enter the clinic. Without trying to make excuse for myself, I was totally ignorant about abortion. I had no idea that the baby already had fingers and toes, and a beating heart. I wasn't thinking of the baby, only my own predicament. I didn't realize I was ending a life, and that the baby would suffer pain. I was asked a few questions like, was I sure this was what I wanted to do, and I was

...of course. I had no idea what I was doing. I called social services, and they told me they would pay for it. I had no money to pay for it. I had no idea that the baby already had fingers and toes, and a beating heart. I wasn't thinking of the baby, only my own predicament. I didn't realize I was ending a life, and that the baby would suffer pain. I was asked a few questions like, was I sure this was what I wanted to do, and I was advised that I would experience a "little" cramping. It was all a lie. When they started clamping my cervix open, I began to scream, "Stop! Stop!" but they would not. The pain I felt was horrible, and the ringing in my ears, as my baby was ripped from my body, and the baby was also ripped and tortured. I often wonder what they did with my baby. They finished their ungodly task, and told me to stand, and when I did, blood started gushing everywhere. He, Dr. Crist, said, "Put her back up there and pack her." They had me lie there a few minutes, and then told me to get up, gave me a coke, and sent me in a room to sit on a bean bag chair on the floor. (so hip!) I couldn't stop crying, and a girl and her boyfriend who were there tried to comfort me, but I couldn't stop crying. This was her second abortion, and her heart must have been hardened, because she wasn't crying. They did seem to be worried about me, and walked me to my car, I wept uncontrollably all the way back to Goldsboro, I don't know how I made the drive. I went to my sister's apartment, and when I saw her holding her new baby, I just lost it. In the next few weeks, I nearly bled to death. A co-worker took me to the emergency room where they gave me pills to get the bleeding to stop. I went down hill from there, I married a serviceman who was involved heavily in the marijuana life, and I became easily addicted to being stoned. I got pregnant almost immediately, I believe I thought it would ease the pain of losing the other baby. Things went from bad to worse, and my husband was abusive and violent, until one day I turned to the Lord Jesus Christ. I got on my knees and told Him that I had messed up my life completely, and confessed my sins, and asked for forgiveness and cleansing. He heard my cry for help, and I began a new life. I know that I am forgiven for the abortion, but I will always regret it, and wish it had never happened. I am writing this to share my experience, in hope that it might help in the fight against abortion, America's mass murder. I hope someone can benefit from my story, perhaps someone as ignorant and uneducated as I was about abortion and the horror of it all, and that it would help them not to go through with this terrible crime against God, and against their own child.

- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? My father, my mother, my boyfriend/husband, a Professional Counselor, & our Doctor (DO)
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? It devastated me emotionally, mentally, physically and spiritually. I cannot go back and reverse my "choices" - I cannot get my children back. They are dead because abortion was legal and easy to access.

See attached testimony (5 pages) & photos (2)

Attn: Operation Outcry

My name is Lori Crossman and my 3 unborn children, along with my husband and I and 2 living children have been deeply hurt by abortion. By the grace of God, and because of the deep, deep, love of my friend and savior, Jesus Christ I have been forgiven, healed, and set free from the sin and bondage of my "choices". However, I daily bear the consequences of those three very selfish "choices" in that I cannot go back and change what happened. I chose to end the lives of my children and therefore the world will never know them nor will they have the opportunity to live their lives here on earth to glorify God and fulfill their destinies in Him.

In order for you to understand the picture that I've attached to my affidavit, it is necessary for me to go back 20 years and give you the "Reader's Digest" version of my story. My mother and father divorced when I was 14 and I was forced to choose between them. I chose to stay in Michigan because my mother had moved to Colorado and didn't want to leave the state. When it sunk in that my mother was not coming home, I started having sex with my boyfriend in search of love and comfort. I had only one other "steady" 2-year relationship during High School. A year after graduation from High School, soon after breaking up with my High School sweetheart, I became pregnant with my first child in 1983. The father of the baby knew that I was pregnant, but made no offer of marriage. My father's "birds and the bees" discussion had consisted of "If you ever get pregnant, you'll have to have an abortion...because I'm not raising any more kids in this house!" I knew that I couldn't go home for support and our Grand Rapids CPC, the Pregnancy Resource Center, would not be opened until 1985. So even though I was approx. 16 weeks pregnant and was starting to "show" I called the New Clinic For Women in Grand Rapids and scheduled an abortion.

I can't remember if it was this time, or during the initial exam for my subsequent suction abortion when they offered to show me the ultrasound picture. At any rate, I declined looking at my baby in fear that I would see a child and be forced out of denial and into the reality of what I was doing (ending the life of my first child). I remember the noise of the suction of machine and the abortionists discussing what a difficult time they were having because I was so far along. After the procedure, my sister came into the tiny space they used for a "recovery" area to take me home to her house. I remember hugging my knees and sobbing "my baby" "my baby"...I quickly locked up the memories and the feelings into a box, and medicated (with alcohol) the grief that I could not "box up". This baby's name is Sam. And knowing what I know now about fetal development, I acknowledge that Sam's death was a brutally painful and barbaric way to die.

Lots of things happened after I aborted Sam. I abused alcohol and I crashed one car after another. I met the man that is now my precious husband. But, we had pre-marital sex and I conceived again. This time the pressure to abort was even greater. I was living with my future husband in his mother's basement. He was adamant that he was not ready to parent a child, and I since I could not go back to live with my father and step-mother, I believed that I would again have no support (not to mention no where to live). I think back and wonder at how I could have agreed to a second abortion after what I had felt in the recovery room with Sam. But, believing that I would lose the love of my life if I didn't comply with his wishes, I allowed him to drive me to the appointment to have a second abortion (hoping all the way there that he would change his mind). Before the procedure I was "informed" by the "counselor" that the baby was just a "mass" of tissue. I grasped at the (false) hope that my children were not developed enough to feel pain. I was on the table still hoping that "Jesse's" father would come charging into the room and tell me not to go through with it. Shortly after the abortion, my future husband broke up with me and I was left alone with my grief, guilt, shame, anger, and denial. I got out my "Sam" box and stuffed all the "Jesse" feelings in there too. I continued to abuse alcohol and deny the reality of what I had become. A mother who had agreed to, and cooperated with, the murder of her children.

Well my husband and I reconciled and got married (in 1986). Two years into our marriage, I realized that I needed to get help for my drinking and the anger that was starting to ruin our relationship. I had nightmares, I had anxiety attacks, and we were fighting almost constantly. In 1988 I was diagnosed with "depression". Some of this was a result of growing up in a alcoholic, and then broken home. But there was a great reservoir of post-abortion issues in "the box" that were never properly addressed. Secular therapy did one good thing, though, and that was to give me a place to open up and starting talking about my past and all the hurts in my life. But I was not experiencing healing and I grew weary of going over and over the past and crying about it. The medication was helping to relieve some of my symptoms. However, real and lasting healing did not begin until I began to respond to the Lord Jesus drawing me to Himself and to a wonderful church.

At that time, I was working at a large manufacturing company and was involved in coordinating a charitable outreach between my department and a local ministry. The man that was my contact invited my husband and I to visit his church. Because of this man's contagious joy, I talked my husband into trying it. (My husband was, at that time, a "card-carrying" agnostic, but he went to please me.) We went sporadically at first (me more often than my husband). As time went by, my heart and spirit started to awake to the hope that God really was "our father". And not only that, but He was my real "Dad". I also discovered that He was kind and loving, and that He loved me (even after everything I had done in my past!). The Lord was laying the foundation for my healing. As He continue to reveal His love for me through His Word and His body (the church), He blessed me with another pregnancy. This time I could get excited and enjoy the hopeful expectation of holding my child in my arms.

Our daughter was born in 1991 and I was blissfully happy! Holding her and playing with her was all I wanted to do. I cut back to part-time at work, and then when she turned two, I couldn't bear to be away from her any more so I left my job and started a business in my home so I could enjoy her. My life was getting better.

We decided to wait 4 years to try to have another baby and then on February 26, 1995 I had another positive pregnancy test. A few months into the pregnancy, I had a routine ultrasound. The ultrasound tech made cheerful small talk until she started to move the wand around on my stomach. Then she got very quiet and said that she would send the results to my doctor by messenger and that I would be getting a call from him the next day. My husband and I knew that something was amiss, I immediately thought "Downs Syndrome". But nothing could have prepared me for the news the next morning. Our precious baby daughter had a neural tube defect called Anencephaly. Our daughter's brain was "not there" and her skull was only partially formed. Our doctor explained that we could "induce labor" and then start trying to get pregnant again within a few months. He (the doctor) told us that in some cases the unformed skull passing through the birth canal could be harmful to future pregnancies. That night I started to feel our daughter move around in my womb.

At that time, both my husband and I were seeing the same therapist that I started out with in 1988. She related horror stories of her internship working in a psych-ward and how sad it was to see people in "permanent vegetative states". She strongly lobbied for us to "induce" our daughter on the basis that she didn't believe that I could emotionally handle carrying the baby to term only to have her be stillborn or die shortly after birth. She also voiced an opinion that it would be the kindest thing for the baby (should she survive with only a brainstem intact). The therapist offered me a "mild tranquilizer" to help me "cope" should I decide to go through with the induction. She scheduled us for another appointment. We went home and cried.

We prayed for a miracle and then had a second ultrasound at the hospital to see if God had moved on our baby's behalf. The diagnosis was the same. I was really mad at God. I should mention that my husband was devastated as well. He voiced his beliefs to be in agreement with our therapist, but he gave me the final "choice" this time. I talked with our pastor, church friends, and my mother. She was also of the opinion that it would be easier on all of us to go through with the induction (abortion). I could not deal with the reality of what was happening and still keep the lid on my "abortion box" closed. Tsunami waves of grief washed over me. They threatened to drown me in sorrow. I had been completely off of alcohol and drugs for 7 years. But the promise of relief from the surfacing abortion feelings and the shock and grief of what was happening was too tempting. I accepted the tranquilizer prescription knowing that if I did so I was also be agreeing to the induction (because the doctor would not prescribe the meds if we were going to continue with the pregnancy). After taking just one tranquilizer all the feelings settled down, the baby stopped moving around in my womb, and I resigned myself to again do what everyone else believed was best. I agreed to have someone end the life of my baby.

While, at the time, this was "morally" a bit more "gray" to almost everyone else involved; when I think back on this, I deeply regret the decision to induce. Not only was it sinful, but had I carried my daughter full term, I might have given birth to a live baby. A baby girl that I would have had a few minutes, or hours, or days to hold, kiss, and bond with. As it was, our daughter "Mary" did not survive the "induction". She was 8 inches long and 5.8 oz. We said hello and good-bye to her on June 15, 1995 at 9 p.m. The picture attached to this affidavit is of me holding Mary. I still have the little hat that she wore in the picture. I still have the receiving blanket. Look closely, (except for her skull) every part of her little body is perfectly formed. Abortion kills innocent children. Abortion hurts women.

I went home to, again, battle the raging feelings of grief, anger, sorrow, guilt, and shame. I could not medicate them because the doctor would not prescribe any more tranquilizers and I believe that the grace of God and the prayers of our church family were protecting me from drowning my sorrows in alcohol. My sweet pastor even held a memorial service for Mary. That was so precious to me. My church family did not judge us, they loved on us with the unconditional love of God. This helped me to turn back towards Him for comfort and healing. So my heart was in a place of receptivity when Jesus (richly dwelling inside a woman that I was previously unacquainted with) walked in my kitchen door, carrying a pot of soup. The woman was a member of my church and as she hugged me, she whispered in my ear that she had had an abortion too. I couldn't believe it! She stood there holding me as I wept. She went on to tell me that she had gone through a Bible study that had been written just for women who were dealing with the aftereffects of abortion, and that Jesus had revealed his unconditional love and forgiveness for her in the truth of his word. And that she was now free from the same feelings that were threatening to take over my life. I thankfully accepted her offer to send me some preliminary information.

Well, at the beginning of this letter, I promised you the "Reader's Digest Version" of my story. Can you believe that I've been true to my word? Finally, I just want to give My Father God, my Lord Jesus, and The Holy Spirit all of the glory for my ongoing healing, deliverance, and salvation! God not only met me in the pages of His Word (the Bible), He has revealed Himself to me as "The Living God", My "Everlasting Father", and the "Wonderful Counselor". By His grace, He has led me to repent of my sins, receive the forgiveness that he bought for me at the cross, and then He empowered me to extend forgiveness to all those who were involved in my abortion decisions as well as the abortionists and their "nurses". Jesus came to bind up the broken hearted and to set the captives free. And who the Lord sets free, is free indeed! Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom! Praise God I'm free! Spiritually, emotionally, and mentally...free.

After completing the abortion recovery Bible study, I signed up for training as a volunteer telephone counselor at The Pregnancy Resource Center. That was 7 years ago. I'm now on staff as the 24 hour Help-line Coordinator. I have the absolute blessing of working side-by-side with 11 awesome volunteer phone counselors who radiate the LOVE of Jesus to the abortion-minded clients that call us every night. Our goal is to love these precious children of God (our clients) with His unconditional love and to really listen to them as they relate their situation. Most women don't have an abortion because they want one. They believe that it's the only answer to their problems. When I was making the decisions regarding my own children and abortion, I may have had the courage to carry my babies to term had someone come along side me and offered me hope, a way to connect to financial aid and housing, the truth about fetal development, and the truth (in love) about abortion ending the life of a person...a person who should be protected by the same rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness that I enjoy.

We also offer prayer to everyone who calls because we believe that God reaches out to His children and meets with them in prayer. We don't do the guilt-trip lecture prayer "thing". We simply pray blessings on them and ask the Lord to work in their lives. God is so good! I still have to pinch myself that the Lord is turning my ashes into beauty and that I actually get paid to watch Him do miracles in the lives of men and women. The Lord has quietly been working at the PRC since 1985 to save the lives of over 1300 American citizens (babies!).

If I could go back and reverse my abortion decisions I would. I now strongly believe that abortion should be illegal just like all other forms of murder. As I said in the opening paragraph of this letter, my 3 children (along with 41 million others) did not have the opportunity to live their lives. How could our government ever have allowed this to be made legal? May the Lord richly bless everyone at the Texas Justice Foundation, Ms. McCorvey, and Ms. Cano. Please keep up the good fight! Be very strong and courageous! If God be for us, who can stand against us?

In Christ,

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Meadow Brook Hospital Minneapolis 1985
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No. I did speak with a 'counselor' at the clinic but she asked me questions and was not specific about the consequences.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? no If so, who? _____
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I suffered for twelve years with severe shame, unconfessed guilt, voices of condemnation in my mind every day for much of the day. The abortion affected negatively almost every relationship I had - husband (who did not understand the pain/danger) my children who I could not freely love due to the pain of abortion, my parents who I was not truthful with (the secret of abortion was between us) and most of all the abortion affected my relationship with God. I was separated from Him by my sin and shame.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Until I received healing, the abortion negatively affected almost every relationship in my life.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Do not have an abortion. The pain of the procedure is nothing compared to the years of pain afterward. If you can not keep your child, give it up for adoption.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I used to believe that if something was legal it would be all to do. Even though abortion is now legal it causes great damage to the mother, siblings, husband, families and our whole society.

- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO If not, explain: I was not told that...that tissue and those cells belonged to my aborted daughter Erin Marie Hartigan.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No. They did not tell me that I would put myself in an emotional prison. They did not tell me that I would suffer from any post traumatic disorders like uncontrollable crying, destruction, emptiness, breast cancer, shame & guilt.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? NO Have you had breast cancer? YES God supernaturally healed me of breast cancer after I went through P.A.T.H. (Post Abortion Trauma Healing).
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? I made my own decision.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? As explained in #3, I am suffering with life-long consequences
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My only child is in heaven. It took her life and voice away.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would give her my testimony and hope she sees the baby as a child and a gift from God and not a curse. Then, I would call all the prayer chains and people that I know to pray that the baby not be aborted.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I thought abortion was the right thing to do because it was legal; the court has misled me and others. Now that we are speaking out of these harmful effects they should listen. The law was originally in put in place because women complained about the harmful effects of illegal abortions now we are telling them about the harmful effects of legal abortions.

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: April 2, 1982 at Midwest Women's Health Center in Minneapolis, MN.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: I knew it ended pregnancy but I wasn't informed of exactly how it was done and I don't think I was old enough to understand the impact of such a decision.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No. I was told it was safer, medically, to have an abortion than to carry a baby full term. But to me the biggest consequence is living the rest of your life with enormous guilt, no one informed me of that.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? My father encouraged me to abort because he thought it would be best for my future to finish college, and thought it would be too hard on me to give my baby for adoption; he was wrong. I also felt pressured because I thought my baby was unhealthy & it was ok for that circumstance.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? Very negative. I was sad & depressed for years, and I'm still very saddened that I made such a terrible decision. The worst part is the guilt & anger within. It's never the right choice.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Very few people know & none speaks of it.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion? Don't do it! You will regret it the rest of your life. No matter what the reason, don't have an abortion because you would be killing your own child. I believe it is not a person's decision who lives & dies - only God's. You will regret it.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? It's WRONG! Murder should be illegal no matter what age, size, or development of an individual life. If it's illegal to kill a baby after birth, then it should be illegal before birth. It's still the same life. Humans should not have legal access to abortion. Look at your own child or someone else's & imagine killing them before they had a chance at life. "I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I went into a black tunnel for years, started using drugs drinking, more promiscuity, very insecure, hated myself - the list goes on...
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband feels my suffering. My parents were devastated.

Our constitution should protect the rights of all people - born, old and unborn. Harry Blackmun himself stated that they would have a hard time getting the law for abortion if it were proven that the fetus is actually a baby - well in this day and age - that's a "no brainer!"

- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes No If yes, who? _____
- 6) How has abortion affected you? I had guilt and I was sad the first time, I told one person and that was the only death. It is an awful feeling to cave to the pressure of pregnancy as contention with my family and today to think of no burial sight. I sometimes count how old my children would have been if not aborted. I wrote and picked a name years later. I don't agree with research on fetuses either and feel abortion devalues human life. The father's even when I was married were not in the abortion decisions.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I avoid talking about it, but listening to the radio tells abortion is taking a life.
- 8) Based upon your experience, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? It is your own self and your own family you would be allowing the Doctor to destroy. If you are like me, it will haunt you even decades later.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? We as a society, in court, make people get medical treatment and it should start at conception to be consistent. Babies are loved. The people I know who got abortions were single.

Feelings of guilt, shame, regret that led to overeating, promiscuity, bad relationships and drug use (smoking, marijuana, speed, Alcohol). I felt that if I treated my body bad enough or was treated badly enough by others, that I could in some way make up for the wrong thing I had done in killing my baby.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I told no one else - Only my boyfriend at the time knew it and I told my husband before we got married. My husband has tried to empathise with me.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would share my heart with her. Tell her my story. Tell her to get help with the pregnancy and find a group of people going through the same situation. I would tell her what the Bible says and how selfish it is to kill an unborn child as in my case.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? First of all, I would tell them that the blood of all the innocent children affected by their decision, is on their hands. Tell them the facts. Share my story. Share the Word of God about it. - 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No, I was not told anything about fetal development or the devastating emotional fallout that was possible afterward.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? the counselors at the teen clinic told me it would solve my problem and they offered no alternatives.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? My abortion has given me 22 years of sorrow and regret. When I realized the development of my child and the fact that abortion stopped my child's beating heart I was filled with anger and sorrow. At the age of 16 I was not mature enough to make such a decision. My other children also know they have a missing sibling.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It caused my boyfriend and me to fight bitterly for years and it nearly destroyed our marriage until we got post-abortion counseling.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Abortion kills - solves nothing. I would tell her she is already a mother, her choice is to kill, to parent or to give the child for adoption. Abortion is permanent, can never be changed or replaced - the grief never stops.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Bonnie Jean Polinder (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: In a clinic in Robbinsdale, mn.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? Not at all. All I was asked is "are you sure you want to do this?" And "are you ready?"
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? My husband at the time told me to choose between him and the baby. And if I loved him, I better choose him, or he would leave me.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? It has effected every area in my life. For over 10 yrs, I had been in abusive relationships, my self worth was - - - 0. I was a total mess, for over 10 yrs. Then I became a volunteer at a "like choices center". There I went to "PAC" counseling. And there I learned why I had done things. I faced a lot of issues I never knew I had. I put them in the back of my head, til then. I had a lot of health problems as well. Now, I try to witness about Abortion to whoever I can. I could look in the mirror at self.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It has hurt many of my family. But, they have forgiven me & helped me when I told them about it.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? That abortion IS murder and that there are many, many side effects & complications of abortion. That there is another way, adoption, (I have done this too!) And that there is a lot of emotional problems, maybe not right away but, sooner or later it catches up with you.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Murder in any other aspect is murder and there are over consequences. Abortion is the murder of a human life and murder of God's special gift to you. And to consider all the effects, including emotional effects of abortion. If they make it legal, they are also murderers & going against God's word.

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Ann Marie Cosgrove (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is Ann Marie Cosgrove (Print Name). My address is [REDACTED]

In the late summer of 1983 I, Ann Marie Cosgrove, became pregnant. I was 26 years old and not married at the time. I went to a county clinic in downtown Minneapolis to get a free pregnancy test done. It came back positive. When the doctor told me I was pregnant I immediately started to cry. The doctor asked me "this is not good news"? I said, "no, I am not married". She proceeded to tell me only about the abortion clinic down the street. I left very upset and with no other information other than the information about the abortion clinic.

I went over to my boyfriend's house and told him I was pregnant. At the time both of us were doing drugs and working part-time at a bar. We talked about it and decided together to go through with the abortion. I made the decision to go through with it out of fear he would leave and having to raise a child by myself. He made the decision out of fear of not being ready.

We went to the abortion clinic early November 1983. When the nurse called me to talk (give me counseling) about why I was having the abortion I told her because I was on drugs. She then said something to the effect of "do you plan on getting off of drugs, what if you get pregnant again" I told her I was getting off drugs and left it at that". That was the only thing that was talked about in my counseling session before the abortion.

While I lay on the table to have the abortion I said out loud "forgive me God for what I am about to do" and started to cry. I told the doctor I was going to faint. He started to yell and scream at me "No, no you cannot do this. If you faint we cannot go on with the procedure" "Nurse, keep her awake, keep her awake" He's tone was very angry. The abortion hurt while I was having it done.

Immediately afterwards I felt empty and very sad. The darkness never left me for twelve years. I always felt a feeling of a heavy burden weighting on my soul. My life became filled with feelings of regrets, mistrust and depression. Instead of getting off drugs I got more into them. I started smoking coke and accepting abusive behavior from my boyfriend. I felt like I deserved to be treated as badly as he treated me. I had no self-respect or self esteem. I could not "Snap out of it" or "Get over it", as my boyfriend would tell me over and over again.

I would take showers just so I could cry away the pain, trying silently to scream the shame away. I could not tell if it was the water or tears running down my face. I would lie awake at night thinking about the baby wondering was it a boy or girl. What would the child look like? Deep seeded sadness was my constant companion. Feelings of worthlessness raised and fell throughout my soul making my life a sea saw of emotions. Not feeling connected to any real joy for so many years made me untrusting of my own sanity.

From the outside everything looked fine. I would share the secret with others whom I knew had abortions. Everytime I told someone I could feel myself damning myself more. The guilt and shame plied deeply onto my soul crushing its true existence, leaving me with feelings of being less and choking on my own choice. A choice that I made without all of the information I should have had. A choice that haunted for me for what seems like a lifetime. A choice that if I had access to other information I might not of made. A choice, had it not been a choice, I would have no need to be writing this today.

The depth of my drug use became very clear to me as I had clung to my boyfriend's leg begging him to give me the crack pipe. I scoured every nook and cranny to find a pipe with residue or a chunk of crack that might have fallen down the sofa or on the floor. I knew I had to leave, leave the memories, leave the feelings, and leave the emptiness of my life behind. I had to leave the only one who shared these memories and feelings. The only one who was my accomplice in the crime we had committed. I moved to the Virgin Islands to escape the torment and the shadows that haunted me from every corner of my being.

The move was very good for me. I did get clean and have been off drugs ever since Dec 4th, 1984. My child did not die in vain. I moved back to Minnesota and married the man who drove me and sat with me at the abortion clinic. I wanted to right a wrong. We would have an another child to make up for what we did. I did get pregnant again and lost the baby by God's choice. I can honestly say my feelings about losing this baby is so different than choosing to abort my other child.

My soul knows the difference between what I choose to do and what God chooses to do. There is no guilt, shame or worthlessness associated with my child God chooses to take. Yes, there is pain because of the loss, but it has not paralyzed me.

My marriage did not make it. The man whom I feared would leave me without the abortion left because of it. My husband told me I loved him too much. Imagine that, I killed our child for him. I guess he was right. I became in his words "A green eyed jealous monster" What he saw was a crazy woman who did not want to trust, love or live. He did not realize I was drowning in a cesspool of shame, guilt and worthlessness. I had no where to run, no where to hide, I was done and I wanted to die.

After he left I told myself I was sick and tired of being sick and tired. I went into therapy for three years for most of the three years I saw the therapist once a week. Throughout the sessions I pounded pillows, screamed and cried my heart and eyes out. My therapist was very good, but did not know how to help me with the deep seeded pain and emotions from the abortion. One day she threw her hands up and said, "You are just going to have to learn to live with this". I said, "How does someone learn to live with murdering their own child"?

It was not until I came back into the Catholic Church and had a miraculous healing take place through the Divine Mercy Chaplet, which I had never heard of before. I had picked up a little leaflet about it on a Sunday after church. That same day at 10:30pm I was reading and looking through the Divine Mercy leaflet. It said on the bottom "even the most hardened sinner, if they say this chaplet just once, would have my Most Divine Mercy set upon them.

I took down a rosary dusted it off, got on my knees and began to pray. As I prayed I could feel something come up from a place that I had no idea existed. It was as if I was feeling this place for the very first time. As I prayed I cried like I had never shed a tear before and this "thing" was leaving my body. I could feel it come up through my heart, my throat and out my mouth. It felt like the size of a softball and the moment it came out my mouth, the place where it had been all those years was filled with joy and peace. The shame and guilt was lifted out of me.

Healing is a process. Yes, I had a miraculous healing, but I still needed to work through the anger and be able to grieve the death of my child and have him recognized as a human being. Everyday I think about him and who he would be. I work with children and many times find myself looking at those beautiful awesome little people and think that about my son.

Being childless, single, 43, and not anywhere near a relationship, it still can be very hard. I still cry my eyes out. I still ask him to forgive me. I still want to take it all back, but I can't.

When you go to a dentist to have a tooth pulled you get more information about complications and side effects than you would when you go to an abortion mill for an abortion. If a woman gets breast implants and she does not like them anymore or something goes wrong, she can take them out. Abortion is terminal, a child dies and a woman is wounded forever.

In this day and age when everyone and her brother are coming out of one closet or another, the woman who has had an abortion has to stay in. Society says, you made your bed, you had your choice (a choice with no real information) now you must lie in it. Well, I am done lying down and I am done hiding. Let our children be recognized as the human beings they are. Let our voices be heard. Damn it, let us out!!!!

December 11, 2001

My name is T [REDACTED] D [REDACTED] and I am a prime candidate for the devastation that an abortion can cause. I really don't know where to start. I was the young age of 19, and had already been a mom for two years, when I found myself pregnant again with a child that I had no idea how to care for. What I mean by this is I was uneducated, unemployed and very depressed about being pregnant again. I depended on the welfare system to help me support my first child. I can't give too much detail about how the subject came up about abortion because I don't remember. There are still several areas of that part of my life that are unclear. It wasn't until I read another mother's story that I realized her and I had our abortions at the same clinic. I had totally blocked the clinic name from my memory. But as soon as I saw Meadowbrook Clinic I knew that was the same place that I had walked into 24 years prior. Although I am still not able to picture any details about the actual procedure I do remember the darkness I felt for 16 years because of that freedom to choose to murder my baby. I feel a need to share a bit of my upbringing for the reason of embracing the whole picture of guilt that comes behind a decision that seems to be the only way out at the time. I was raised in a Catholic home. My parents adopted four children because they could not have their own. Upon going to my parents in desperation with the crisis of another illegitimate child was not the brightest thing I could do. When I was 16 and pregnant with my first child they tried to ship me away to an unwed mothers home. The unwed mothers home said they wanted to help me by taking my baby from me and put him in foster care until I learned to be a mother. This was very distasteful to me because of my own adoption. I don't mean to get off track but I do feel this pertinent to my story. This is only a very small part of my growing up years of being an adoptive child. But the point being is it was in my head when I decided to go through with the abortion that I could not adopt my baby out because of all the sadness I felt as an adopted child.

What I was not aware of and of course not counseled about is the years of agony and bondage an abortion has on a woman's life. It is only when you really come to terms with the fact that you murdered your child and forgive yourself and feel forgiven by God can a person start to gain a life that is deserved.

As I mentioned before I was 19 when I choose to murder. From that age until I was 34 I never talked about my abortion on any kind of healing manner. In fact I can only remember one person I talked to about the abortion at all. I steadily drank and did drugs until I was 32. The abortion was one of the main reasons for my continual use of alcohol and drugs. At the time you are abusing your body, mind, and spirit with drugs you are unaware of the reason you abuse yourself and why you allow others to do the same. The reason why you are unaware is because the pain of murdering your own child is an unbearable thing to deal with. You somehow along the way learn a very dangerous survival skill of stuffing this event to the very pit of your soul. Not ever wanting it to surface for the fear of it showing all over your whole being. SHAME, SHAME, SHAME. I had endless dead end relationships always looking to be loved. But never even knowing what love was. Another feeling that stems from an abortion but you don't realize it at the time is most of the time you think that I do not deserve to be loved. My main point that I would like to come across as strong as possible in making abortion illegal is, how many women do you think are out there that have had abortions and are still suffering from not ever being told that this decision will haunt them the rest of their life????? "You will allow people to abuse you for your decision." "You will abuse others because of a decision you made years ago." You have a great chance of becoming a drug addict, alcoholic, mentally ill, or quite possible loss your mind in trying to find out what the hell is going on with your life.

I do not remember anybody at the clinic or my mom or dad explaining to me what the long- term consequences would be. I'm sure they had no idea. There are millions of women who now know that murdering your child and never going to jail was a fairytale. I was in prison for 16 years. Thank God for His grace and mercy on us sinners. I am forgiven and out of the prison of my mind and free to say yes I had an abortion and it was the biggest mistake I have ever made in my entire life.

Queta Aguilar
Legal Assistant

Dear Queta Aguilar,

I have enclosed my story to be used for the purpose of Operation Outcry. I feel the need to share with you my intense desire to be a part of this outreach. Throughout the last several months, I have had the distinct privilege to be involved with a handful of opportunities that have had the purpose of shedding light on this horrific topic. Recently I thought to myself that if everyone everywhere who was willing to share their disrupted lives in regard to abortion could come together and really detail the angst that it's caused, there could be absolutely no reason that a court could overlook the evidence that I know is as compelling as my story to overturn this demised state that our society has deemed to be a choice. Not long after that thought, a girlfriend told me about Operation Outcry. My prayer had been heard and answered!!!! I have to admit that I did procrastinate some as this is not an easy box to open. There is much pain in the exposure of one's deepest darkest secrets. However, I know that the hidden shame is a by product and even the fuel of the continuance of this atrocity that is happening time and time again. I thought of the children that are never going to see life. I thought of the women that will find themselves haunted by a shroud of something that they may never be able to put their finger on. I thought of our society that feels the ripple of dysfunction that comes from the aftermath of the trauma of taking ones' own life that had yet to be born although did live internally within them. I thought of God and how He must feel to be insulted by the very rejection of His greatest gift, Life. I knew that I could not live with myself and not do something to let others know just how incredibly important it is that we stop this insane, selfish, murdering of our children. I've never protested an abortion clinic. I've never judged those that have walked out of them. I have however wept and grieved deeply for our losses and the ill guided actions that have promised a relief of a difficult situation. I want to be involved in the change that needs to take place immediately in order to save those that are on the brink of making a decision that will alter their lives permanently to a point of maybe not even being able to live anymore. In my opinion, if the research were to be done, we would find great undeniable connections to severe physical and mental illnesses that are directly related and caused from the eliminating of our children. It goes against our natural beings to terminate life within us, however society says it's okay so we just assume that they are right because it is legal. It is so incredibly twisted however and that is the reason that it continues, because we have not spoke up to the point of being heard loud enough so that our cries of pain are so deafening to others that it can no longer be ignored. I want to be a part of the volume that rings so loudly in others ears that they can

My name is T [REDACTED] D [REDACTED] and I am 31 years old. My story begins over half of my life ago and has yet to find a completed end. In October of 1986, I was sixteen years old and pregnant. Being in an obviously undesirable situation, I was afraid and confused. A friend influenced me to have an abortion, deeming it to be the only way out of a horrible predicament. Being underage and not wanting to share with my parents my situation, I was led through the process of emancipation into being able to make an adult decision. I went before a judge to request my being able to have an abortion without telling my parents. My advocate at the time coached me as to what to say in order to build compelling evidence that the involvement of my parents would cause them to throw me out of the house. That was not true at all, they would not have done that. The judge sided with me though and agreed it was indeed in my best interest to have the abortion and not tell them anything about it. I went to the clinic, Meadowbrook in St. Louis Park, MN and the procedure took place. I was completely emotionally numbed during the entire process. Matter of fact, it appeared that I was so in control and unaffected that when they (the administrative staff) insisted that I stay for a couple of hours and drink juice in order to insure that my blood lost didn't cause a fainting spell, I balked at the idea and resisted their suggestion. They didn't let me leave without first monitoring my blood pressure and heart beat in order to make sure I was "healthy" enough to go. I went home and pretended as if life was normal and I hadn't just terminated a life. That evening though, the cries of a baby, my baby would not let me sleep. The tormented screams that rang through my head over the next couple of weeks were too much to bear and I started drowning them in alcohol and drugs. Anything I could get my hands on in order to quiet the pain that echoed in my heart, my mind and my soul. A reckless endangerment of my own life ensued and I found myself in one promiscuous situation after another. I quit going to school and worked and partied full time instead. I couldn't bear the thought that everyone at my high school must know of what I had done. After numerous sexual encounters some that were not only unwelcome, but also violating, left their marks on my being to a point that my worth had nose-dived below zero. I met someone that paid enough attention to me most of the time and I was just 17, almost exactly but not quite a year after the abortion. We spent all of our time together and as a result I was pregnant again. Happy this time and excited about the future of a family we started planning the rest of our life together. This relationship though, was incredibly dysfunctional at best. The core elements of needs being met were enough to keep us together despite the persistent chemical abuse that never seemed to go far enough away. In my sixth month of pregnancy, I was so depressed that the only thoughts that kept me from taking my own life were those of the new life growing inside of me. I had made a commitment and I was responsible for this baby growing inside of me, I felt obligated to stay alive for that reason alone. At the time, I didn't put it together, I didn't realize that my nagging feelings of little value and no worth were due to the fact that I had taken the precious life of my own child and I didn't know that my not feeling "good enough" to be alive was directly due to my abruptly stopping the life of my first child. My baby boy was born healthy and without complications even though I feared the worst due to my intermittent using throughout the pregnancy. This is difficult to admit, although important to reveal because I believe that even though I loved this life inside of me, I still hated the shell in which he was growing to the point of still trying to block out the pain from the loss of my first child which I was directly to blame for. I went in the other direction of extremes after he was born and stopped eating and started working out obsessively to the point of passing out in the shower one day. I was not healthy internally, even though I had been clean and sober for months out of the fear of causing harm to my child. Things grew worse again at home and my boyfriend, my baby's father, ended up in jail just six short months after he was born. I was pregnant again and alone with an infant that was 100% my responsibility. I couldn't bear the thought of bringing another child into what seemed to be a fatherless world. I didn't seek counsel of friends or family. I was heavily into healthy alternatives and I searched high and low for a "natural out" to my horrifying situation. Nothing worked. I was still pregnant and alone and 18 years old with a baby and no sense of a secure future. I made the decision to have an abortion against the request of the father who wanted to have our baby. It was simple and easy enough to make the appointment. As long as I had the cash, I could be rid of my problem and no questions asked this time by a judge or anyone else. It was my business and that is exactly what it turned into when the exchange of money for service took place. Little did I know that this experience would damage my soul and spirit as severely if not more than the first time. I still don't recall the procedure. I do recall though afterwards the emotional pain that came from making that decision. Once again I found myself overwhelmed by the realization that I was a murderer. I never really let it sink in, as soon as I felt even the closest sliver of pain, I was off and running to any kind of medication I could get my hands on in order to not feel anything at all. I succeeded in the pushing down of my emotional pain to the point of it becoming seemingly non existent. On the outside, I was a knock out. In shape, beautifully put together and quite the personality. On the inside, I was a disaster waiting to happen. I didn't realize then that the effort it was taking to keep all of this at bay was actually demolishing my physical and spiritual being. I went on with life as I knew it and started going to school for court reporting, all went well for the most part, I was excelling amongst and over my peers with little effort on my part. The nagging incompleteness was easily rendered as a by product of my unhealthy relationship. We bought a house and shortly afterwards I was pregnant again. I so did not want to have a baby right then. I wanted to finish school and begin a career that I was really not suited for, but I wanted to finish anyway. I secretly hoped and prayed for a natural termination, even though I had not made a conscious connection to the previous pain of my earlier decisions, I just knew that I could not have another abortion. I was blessed with a baby girl. After her birth, it was obvious that I would have to begin working full time in order to support our family due to the children's father not taking on his family obligations. I couldn't connect with this child. I was unable to get close to her in the sense of welcoming a new life into my world. It could easily be said that I resented having to care for a new life when my own was on it's way to becoming something of worth and validation. We struggled and I started to have complications physically with my reproductive system afterwards. I went in for ultrasounds, and the physicians found tumors on my ovaries, cysts. They didn't think that surgery was necessary, the pain though was excruciating and it would wake me up in the middle of the night. It felt as though a metal baseball bat had found it's way to shatter my pelvic region with such an impact that left me debilitated. I couldn't stand the obsessive preoccupation with another pregnancy anymore. I knew that I was obviously fertile and even though our relationship was incredibly rocky, the threat of another pregnancy was more than I could bear. I knew I didn't want to have any more children with this man and I also knew that if I ended up pregnant again I would be faced with yet another horrifying decision to be made and I couldn't even fathom the thought of another abortion even though I was not connecting any pain to the previous ones at that time. I decided to shut down my reproductive system at the ripe old age of 21 years old. I realize now that in a desperate attempt to protect myself, I was also punishing myself for the past that still had its grip on me. I was not in my eyes worthy to be a parent and even though to others, I was the model of a mother, I didn't feel that way inside. I felt that I had children on a loan and even though I loved them dearly, I still had this nagging feeling that they didn't belong to me because I didn't deserve them and therefore I couldn't allow myself to get too attached out of the fear that they would be taken from me at anytime because I really shouldn't have them to begin with. There are numerous chapters that could be written in between the time that it took in order for me to realize that my horribly dysfunctional way of living was not what the rest of the world had encountered. After many years of abuse and tormented living with my children's father, I went from one relationship to another sheerly to validate my being worthy of another's affections. When I finally found my way into the real world of people that existed on their talents and education I realized that I had been gifted with several talents that can make a difference in our world. Those gifts though, as real as they are were not enough for me to believe in myself because I still suffered from an incredibly low self esteem and self image. The one that is offered up after numerous conversations with oneself speaking negatively about who they are and why they don't deserve to be the recipient of a life gone good. Self sabotage continued to wreak havoc on my being and I couldn't get a grip on the fact that I was driving the vehicle of my life. I still told myself that I didn't deserve to be happy and I didn't deserve to have and receive love and because I had murdered two of my children I certainly didn't deserve to live. Presented with opportunities to excel I would start out at a pace far above or at the very least right in with others that had seemingly far better upbringings and education. Again though the inward knowing gnawed at me on a level that was undetectable to bring into focus as to what was really wrong. I went from one achievement and failure brought on by my own doings after another. I packed up my children and left this state that I thought for sure was my downfall. We moved and started over five times before leaving Minnesota for what I hoped was for good. We moved to the state of Washington and even though I was very ill upon arrival, nothing would stop me from moving forward to a life that I could create upon my own clean blank canvass. The children's father was in Washington as well with his new girlfriend and I leaned on them for support and they did the same except tenfold it seemed. Then it happened. I had returned home after five months to visit my only real love and after coming back from that weekend, I unraveled at a rate faster than a ball of twine being chased by a playful kitten. It was as if the three legged table that I set everything on so intricately balanced started to feel the weight of the world that it was no longer able to carry alone. I was alone and I was far away from any support that could have kept me teetering. I nosedived and went into what I now know was the beginning of post traumatic stress disorder. I was not in my mind anymore. It was as if I was suspended into the nothingness of the world that surrounded me and I fell apart. Bit by bit. Piece by piece. Even though I knew that I couldn't be pregnant, I went to the Dr. for a pregnancy test because I felt life moving within me. What was happening though, was the surfacing of the life that I had at once felt 12 years prior. It was absolutely amazing the physical manifestation that was going on inside of me. I went on line to find out how to get my tubal ligation reversed, and what the chances were of my actually being pregnant even though I was unable to physically carry it out. I had three very close friends within a two week period of time tell me they were pregnant and only one chose to continue with the pregnancy. The other two I begged and pleaded with, telling them that i would do anything at all in order to help them and I would even pack up and come home and take care of their babies in order to save them from death. They declined. I was heartbroken and then, as soon as it was decided, I could feel the literal deaths of these babies as I lay on my couch groaning and crying in pain, even though I was thousands of miles away, the connection was so strong. I found myself in the shower bawling and grieving for these babies that were not allowed to live. It was a part of the journey that I needed to go through in order to reconcile my losses. It took a long time to get to the point of actualization. More trips home, and more of my mind lost, I couldn't make a decision to stay or come home. Finally all of it came to an abrupt end and I found myself after returning from a weekend in Minnesota, at home in my apartment in Washington and trying to get focused on the neglected tasks that came from overwork and too much travel. There was a knock on my door and it was a neighbor that I didn't know but had seen and he took advantage of my ill state of mind, I was vulnerable and it showed. The sense of powerlessness that had been so natural to me by then was on it's way to becoming another violation at the hands of a predator. I was drugged and sexually assaulted by this man. It was the earthshattering pinnacle of what sent me into a hospital for sanity and recovery. I was definitely going home. Obviously there are some details that could be included, however I think if you look at this from a higher level of comprehension, it would be safe to say that I allowed myself out of a state of desperation to be at the hands of one or many that could and did wreak havoc on my life. A pattern that seemed to be congruent with the rest of my life due to my inability to stand up and strong in situations that seemed to be out of my control. I relate all of this directly to my abortions. Sure there are other dysfunctional symptoms that surmounted from my life experiences, however I know without a doubt that there is a deep connection to my lack of stability due to my twisted state of mind even though to many I came across as having it all together. I came home to a place that reminded me of everything that I had ever done wrong in my life and decided that I needed to do something with those emotions that I had the natural gift of expressing. I wanted to act. Once again I was implanted with yet another seed of the hope of healing. I didn't know it at the time of course, however when I auditioned for a play that depicted a woman's remorse after the decision to have an abortion, once again I was at the mercy of my emotions that had controlled my life without them ever being exposed for what they truly were. I was blessed with the excruciating task of extracting each and every devastating effect that my decisions had caused and the task was extremely painful however I have been healed and I am so grateful for and to God and His neverending quest of reaching out to me and allowing me to come to terms of this life that involved 15 years of harboring self hate and destruction. There is so much more to my story and I would love to share it all with you for the distinct purpose of halting this disgusting alternative to life.

no longer say that it is a choice. It is debilitating and our world is suffering as a result. Is it not our Country's desire to be free? Is that not what our entire existence is based upon? It is indeed!!! Our freedom has been turned into a paradox due to our perceptions being twisted and it is causing millions to walk around in chains of bondage while they are being told that they are free.

If you think that I can be of service other than what I've already provided, I am willing to be more than an affidavit. I want it to stop. I hope that I have not been too wordy, and please forgive me if I have, this is important to me though and I didn't want to leave any stone uncovered.

You can contact me anytime, at home, at work, wherever...it does not matter when or where.

Thank you for your time in reviewing my information and thank you for your efforts in this incredibly important mission. I will be praying for your endeavors.

AFFIDAVIT

THE STATE OF MINNESOTA

COUNTY OF HENNEPIN

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Deborah A. Schleif, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is Deborah A. Schleif. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I am over the age on eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

My abortion was performed on June 20, 1972, three days before my 16th birthday at Laurel Grove Hospital in Castro Valley, CA, by Dr. F. R. Van de Carr, Jr. My name at the time was Deborah A. Seger. Attached are copies of 3 surgeries, 2 pathology reports and 2 history and physicals which I obtained from Dr. Van de Carr's office a long time ago. Until now, I didn't know why I felt they were so important for me to keep. It was always a tormenting reminder of what I did to my baby. I can put these records away where I can't see them, but I can't put away the pain that is in my heart.

When I first found out I was pregnant I was really scared. I was only 15 years old. It was a while before I told anyone. I told my mother first. She was upset, but I thought she would be there for me. Next I told my father. He slammed his fist on the table looked at me with such anger and disgust that I thought he could have killed me at that moment. Then he walked out. Later that day my mother told me "your father said that you either have to get an abortion, or leave this house". Then I told Michael, the father of the baby. He wasn't happy about the baby. He wanted me to have an abortion too. I wanted to have and keep the baby. I went to social services and they gave me forms to complete to get child support from Michael and other help from the State. His mother was helping me fill out the papers (she was excited about the baby). When he found out what we were doing, he became very angry and told me if I pursued this, he would get 3 of his friends to testify in court that they also had sex with me and there for I could not prove who the father was. I don't remember a lot of the details after that, but I do remember that Planned Parenthood was the one who initially gave me the pregnancy test and when I didn't know what to do, when I felt everyone was against me and I was backed into a corner, I saw a counselor there. Shortly after that I had the abortion. I know that I did not want to do this and just before I went into the operating room the doctor asked me if I was sure I wanted "to do this". I said "no, but I have to". I cried.

It was many years later before I was able to tell my sisters or talk about the abortion with anyone else. I still have a hard time. I was never able to conceive after that. I tried for several years with my 1st husband, taking fertility pills and such, but nothing happened. The next step was artificial insemination, but he left me before this was to be done. He left me a note that said, "Debi, I just can't take this anymore. I'm leaving. Good-by." From there, I spiraled downward. It really started before that, but it consumed more of me after he left. I didn't really care about much. I was hurt and I wanted to hurt back. It didn't matter who it was. I hated everyone, especially men. I was drinking more and more and doing a lot of drugs. I couldn't get enough. It helped make the pain go away, if only for a while. Then in 1988, or thereabout, I tried to make the pain go away for good. I attempted suicide. I woke up the next day, in the hospital and in restraints. After I got out 2 days later I was ok for a while, but I went back to the same thing. Trying to get away from it all I moved out of state, but darn if it didn't follow me here. There is no place to hide from your heart.

I am now re-married. My husband has 2 grown daughters from his first marriage and they in turn have 5 children between them. I try hard not to be envious. They are very good to me, but the reality is they are not my children or grandchildren. It is hard for my husband to really understand my pain, but I think he tries. I feel so empty most of the time. When I see a pregnant woman, a newborn or anyone with little children, I think, "It could have been me". I hold every baby I can. Sometimes I have dreams that I am pregnant or giving birth. I can never see the baby in my dreams but I pray that one day, in heaven, I will see my child.

Children, ALL children, are a special treasure from God. If I were to encounter a woman who was considering an abortion, I would tell her what I am telling you now. No matter how strong you think you are, the pain and regret will be stronger and it will not go away. In fact, it will probably change your life in ways you do not want. God is giving you this child, who is growing inside you, because He loves you. If you still aren't sure, I want you to know that you don't have to do this alone. Help is just a word away. Listen to your heart and the one that is beating inside you. You will not be sorry.

As far as the courts go, I don't have much faith in our country's legal system. Judges have favorites, even though they would probably never admit it. It is sad that God is not their favorite. If He were, life would be as precious to them as they are to Him. I honestly hope they come to know God before their time here on earth is over. Even though they make us so angry we want to just shake them and say "wake up and hear the cries of the children who need your help", God still loves them.

I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

POSTOPERATIVE DIAGNOSIS: Right ovarian cyst, plus multiple right ovary.

OPERATION PERFORMED: Laparoscopy and lysis of adhesions.

SURGEON: F. R. Van de Carr, Jr., M.D.

PROCEDURE: With good anesthesia the patient was placed in the four-leg position and scrubbed, prepped and draped in the usual fashion. A weighted speculum was inserted in the vagina. The cervix was grasped with a single tooth tenaculum. A curvilinear incision was made below the umbilicus and a pneumoperitoneum to 30 centimeters of water was created. The laparoscope was inserted and laparoscopic trocar was also inserted with the probe sleeve. The uterus was elevated and the left ovary was visualized. Adhesions about the left ovary were noted and these were lysed so that the ovary could be elevated into the field; no evidence of endometriosis was noted. The cul-de-sac was free and the uterus was estimated at 50 grams. The right ovary was enlarged with impression of a simple cyst. The tube stretched over the end of the ovary but showed no evidence of dilatation or salpingitis. There was an adhesion of the omentum to the right ovary and this was cut and the omentum allowed to fall away. Hemostasis was excellent. The area of the rectum was examined and no adhesions were noted; the appendix was not visualized. The pneumoperitoneum was released and the incisions were closed with interrupted sutures of #4-0 Dermalon. Two band-aids were applied. The patient tolerated the procedure well and left the Operating Room in apparently good condition.

POSTOPERATIVE DIAGNOSIS: Bilateral hydrosalpinx. Secondary chronic inflammatory pelvic disease. Generally good condition.

T. 9-23-72

SURGEON: F. R. VAN DE CARR, M. D.

ASSISTANT: MARION R. KRAMER, M. D.

ANESTHESIOLOGIST: MARTIN CHESTER, M. D.

PROCEDURE: With good anesthesia, the patient was placed in the supine position and scrubbed, prepared and draped in the usual fashion. A curvilinear incision was made in the lower abdomen and carried down through the fat to the fascia. The fascia was identified and split in a curvilinear fashion. The muscles were identified and split. The peritoneum was grasped and opened. On opening the peritoneum, a huge hydrosalpinx involving the right tube and ovary, with apparent sterile type abscess involving the right ovary, was noted. The appendix was externally adherent to this mass. The appendix and cecum were dissected free and the bowel was packed away. The infundibulopelvic ligament was clamped on the right side, cut and ligated with #1 chromic suture material. Additional clamps were passed beneath the large hydrosalpinx and each of the pedicles were tied with #1 chromic suture material. The proximal end of the tube was clamped, cut and ligated with #1 chromic suture material on the uterine side. The tube and ovary were removed and submitted to Pathology for examination. The left tube was examined and noted to be blunted and closed and dilated. However, it was not more than 2 to 2 1/2 cm. dilated and it was elected to perform a fimbrioplasty on this tube, after extensive discussion with the patient's mother. The discussion involved a strong possibility that a recurrent tubal inflammation, possible bowel obstruction and/or hemorrhage and/or tubo-ovarian abscess could result in this side. However, the patient's mother felt that the tubal function and any possible chance of reproductive ability should be preserved and therefore her wishes were followed and a fimbrioplasty was performed on the left tube in stellate fashion. Triangle portions of the fimbrial end were excised and each star point of the tube was fixed against the wall of the tube, using #3-0 chromic suture material with a good ostia resultant. Old multiple adhesions were noted along the length of the tube and the tube appeared to be somewhat swollen and kinked. The abdomen was suctioned free of foreign material and the appendix was examined. The mesoappendix was clamped, cut and ligated with #1 chromic suture material and a purse-string suture was placed about the base of the appendix. The appendix was clamped and removed and the stump tied with #1 plain suture material, which was then imbricated and buried beneath the purse string suture. Good hemostasis resulted. All instruments, tapes and other foreign bodies, as well as blood were suctioned and removed from the abdominal cavity. The peritoneum was closed with continuous locked suture of #1 plain suture material. The muscles were approximated with a single suture of #1 plain suture material and the fascia was closed with interrupted sutures of Prolene, four knots each. The subcutaneous fat was closed with interrupted sutures of #2-0 chromic suture material and the skin was closed with #4-0 Darnalca. A spray dressing and Telfa

MICROSCOPIC:

In the sections from the oviduct the wall is markedly thickened and the mucosal folds are thickened and edematous. Sheets of PMN neutrophils are present within the lumen and both the mucosal folds and the wall of the oviduct contain an exceedingly severe infiltrate of acute and chronic inflammatory cells. The surface of the oviduct is covered by blood clot and fibrovascular tags and the ovary is intimately adherent to the oviduct. The ovary contains several small cysts lined by a narrow zone of granulosa type cells. The section from the appendix shows no unusual histologic features.

DISCHARGE SUMMARY

September 24, 2003

Operation Outcry
Texas Justice Foundation

Greetings,

I am enclosing for you my notarized Affidavit telling the story of my abortion. I hope it is not too late to be included. It wasn't easy to relive and therefore took a while.

This has been somewhat of a healing experience for me. I still must live with what I did to my baby, but knowing someone cares and that I am not alone in how I feel, it makes it somehow a little easier. I know that Christ has forgiven me, but I am having a real hard time forgiving myself. That will come.

Having said that, I want you to know that it is ok to use my full name or what ever you might need from me in the course of saving innocent lives.

Thank you all for what you are doing.

From my heart,

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Wendy Chesnut (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 2/84, Santa Cruz, California
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? The only information I received was that this would terminate the pregnancy
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No Have you had breast cancer? No
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? Baby's father, + others
I discussed pregnancy with. Abortion was the only "choice" offered to me.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I realized several years later what a huge mistake it was. At the time I was very sad, but had none to discuss it with, so I didn't face it at all. I remained very disconnected ~~from~~ the event in my life. Once I took responsibility for killing my baby - and actually began to think of the "pregnancy" as a baby I was able to move on. Now I have great compassion for women in an unplanned pregnancy + want to be sure they truly have all the facts in order to have a true choice.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?
I don't think so.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell her actual information about her baby + its development. I would tell her she most likely will regret an abortion decision either right away or in the future. I would give her all of her options
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would tell them that regardless of what the law is - women do not receive full information in order to make a "choice". I would tell them that the $$$ made in the abortion clinics is what the "choice" people are really after. I would tell them that statistics show + prove that abortion hurts women. I would tell them the choice ~~that~~ should be not to become pregnant in the first place. I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? Not really - I do remember being told it was safe!
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No Have you had breast cancer? No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No If so, who? However - my boyfriend would not marry me and I had a 14 yr old son from my previous marriage and I was embarrassed to be pregnant.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? emotionally and spiritually. My self esteem was affected, thoughts of my child, quiet pain, shame. That it a big secret! I felt like I had world blues for me for killing my baby, and I wouldn't forgive myself!
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? None not yet! I confessed to my son who is 26 yr old now - then he was 14. Might have an effect later on in his life.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? She would be aborting a child - who is alive & forming. The child has a spirit and is a human being and a blessing. The word of God tells us of these things.

AFFIDAVIT

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion.

The State of Mississippi

County of James

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Melinda S. James (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: September 25, 1990 Jackson, MS
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? No. If not, explain: Words can not adequately inform anyone of the abomination that abortion truly is. Marketed as a medical procedure, abortion is an abominable lie told to desperate women who are incapable of discerning what is best for themselves or their unborn.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No! How could one be prepared for the horror and anguish of knowing that she, by her own Godless desperation, invited murderers to enter her womb and torturously kill the life God had given.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Unsure. Have you had breast cancer? No. But I can't recall being informed about any link. I was too traumatized to care.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No. If so, who? Abortion was legal, so I rationalized that I should, in my situation, consider it as an acceptable solution. I believe I may have made a better choice if abortion had been illegal. But, when good men do nothing....
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I have been afflicted by calamity, grief, and sorrow. My nerves were wracked, my heart broken. My baby cannot grieve or feel sorrow. It is dead. The first time I felt it move was the last time I felt it move. Anti-abortion demonstrators chanted outside the clinic, screaming "don't kill your baby" throughout the whole hellish time. I felt I was trapped in a nightmare. It recurs. Please don't let this happen to any more humans. It is so wrong; it is so painful.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I know that the grace of Jesus Christ is sufficient for me. But this has hurt me and those who love me. There are consequences for abortion that can't be measured or described. I'll be silent no more.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? First of all, repent. Receive Jesus Christ as your Savior! Then fall on your face in worship and praise and call the Holy Spirit to protect you both from the ravaging wolves that do seek to devour and destroy you both. Study the Bible daily. Don't even allow the "A" word to run through your mind as an option.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I stand as a living example that abortion is destructive to all people involved—especially the child, the mother, and the rest of each family. Abortion should not be allowed or condoned in any free society. Abortion is an abomination to our Creator and to all creation. Abortion should be illegal at the very least! Just say no. It's on you now.

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? The pressure came from wanting to one to know, I was a single ideal graduated Newborn school, no one knew but me - and the doctor.

5) How has your abortion affected you? I never had another pregnancy, it affected my relationship with my parents and friends, I married the father later - it was a physical abuse relationship which ended in a divorce 7 years later.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? yes, my dad died having no grand children my mother has no grand children.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Don't do it. It will negatively affect you, mentally, physical, and spiritually. You'll never notice the wrong again - even with counseling you will never be the same.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? A woman should not have the right to take the life of her child. All the women (young girls) don't want to know she does not need "permission" to abort a child, all of them are complications such as bleeding. - She must have a parent's permission to abort the complications or die. - ER this has to stop!

1. Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: March 1983 in Jackson, MS
2. Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? Only from what I learned on my own. I wasn't informed of anything about the nature or consequences from a doctor.
4. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? boyfriend & his parents
5. How has your abortion affected you? I faced depression, anxiety, workaholicism, anger & Supermom syndrome for many(6) years following my abortion.
6. How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband and living children had to learn to live with me and my problems resulting from my abortion. It was quite stressful
7. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I'd tell her about how my abortion affected me. I'd tell her that the "quick fix" is a lie. Abortion and the loss of a child will remain a part of your life forever and it can be devastating.
8. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Legalized abortion leads women to believe that abortion is safe and easy with little or no consequences. This is untrue. Millions of women are dealing with the devastating effects of this untruth. Reversing Roe v Wade would lead the way to protecting future women and their children from the lie called abortion.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Charlotte McDonald, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: June 1963 in the State of Mississippi.
2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?
No

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No.

Have you had breast cancer? Yes, I have been diagnosed with breast cancer

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who yes, my fiancé

5) How has your abortion affected you?

It has given me a deep sorrow, I think about the child, I live with the knowledge (even though I feel God has forgiven me) that I have killed a child. It makes me depressed, and if I think about it much, makes me very depressed. I have spent a lot of my life trying to bury this past. I still have to live with this memory. Even though I have been through post-abortion counseling, this has not completely resolved the feeling and I don't think these will ever go away. I have tried to counsel other women regarding abortion.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?

I have talked about this with my children- even though it was very hard to do so. I wanted them to know my mistake. Knowing my grief has helped them understand the sacredness of life.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

Don't make the same mistake I did. You don't want to live with the consequences of having killed your own child. Abortion leaves a deep emotional, psychological and spiritual scar you carry until you die. It will give such a deep sense of shame and depression that it affects all your relationships in life.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

That there is feeling or relationship between the child in the womb and the mother;
I feel that my breast cancer is a result of having an abortion; that women considering abortion are in a time of crisis and great stress; that strong laws and clear enforcement of such laws would protect women; my abortion was performed by a total stranger, a doctor, who provided no follow up medical care; and abortion harms mothers.

6) How has your abortion affected you? I tried to commit suicide, I hated myself. I was told by the media on TV & my friends that it was just a seed & some told me it was just a blob of blood & there was no way it could actually be a baby till I was @ least three or four months into the pre stage. My mother & my aunt took me to the clinic in Dallas, I got there & got back home (first I must say my mother was all for it before we left for Dallas) my mother told me she knew that I shouldn't of never done it, but that put more guilt on me. Just before we left she told me that was the best thing to do.

7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I kept it a secret for more than ten to fifteen years, I've never told my children & my daughter told me 2 years ago if she ever found out that I had had an abortion

8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Don't do it, I was in complete denial for many years of what it actually did to me, I can look back now & see how it messed up my life, I think about my baby often wondering what it was boy or girl.

They did not explain that the tissue is a baby and that being a woman the natural instincts of being a mother would never let you forget about your baby.

I was thought it would not be fair to have a child when I had taken the life of my other child. I later did get pregnant accidentally and had a beautiful little girl. Five years later I had another girl. I love my daughters so much. The guilt over what I did is even greater because now I know what I lost.

- 5) How has your abortion affected you? Had a sadness for years I did not understand, I saw the remains of the baby in the jar, knew it was not a blob of tissue as I had been told, I was very afraid of ever having children and when I did, I stayed in constant fear of losing one of them. I lost all sense of self worth following the abortion. It was a total nightmare until last year when I was able to acknowledge my baby as a life taken.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My parents have a grandchild they never knew, my children have a sibling they have lost, yet they never knew and my children lived with me + my pain.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell her exactly what happens and it is not a blob of tissue and you don't get over it in a couple of days like getting over menstrual cramps like they tell you you will. a part of you dies too.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would have to say that anyone who believes abortion should be legal and who have any part of it being legal should be held accountable to being an accessory to murder. A child does not have the right to die.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Janet A. Thomas, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1978 in the State of Wisconsin
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No
There were no sidewalk counselors the abortion providers gave no pictures, literature or information.
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No.

Have you had breast cancer? Yes, I have been diagnosed with breast cancer. Interestingly there is no history of breast cancer in my family which includes 5 sisters and 1 brother.

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No
If so, who.

5) How has your abortion affected you?

I suffered about 3 years of severe depression right afterwards. I have lived with shame and regret which do not go away. There has been a sense of lost love and fulfillment from the child lost, which cannot be recaptured. If I think about it too much, it makes me very sad and depressed. For a long time I denied the bad effects, I pretended it did not happen, but confronting this issue has been a source of healing. I have received post-abortion counseling. The healing process is ongoing, never ending.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?

My other children feel the loss of a brother or sister. My ex-husband has suffered chronic fatigue syndrome likely stemming from burden the abortion. I wonder if the rocky relationship with my now 30-year old daughter, is from some deep seated resentment toward me that I might have had another daughter, which would have been her only sister.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

That abortion is final, pregnancy is only 9 months. She would be killing her baby and taking another life. I would tell her of the harms and risks during and after abortion. That a child is a gift from God. She would be refusing that gift.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

There is a relationship between the unborn child and the mother during the entire pregnancy; abortion imposes health risks to women; women contemplating abortion are facing a profound decision and are often under great stress; and legalized abortion says to a woman that abortion is OK that it is not wrong. I had no normal doctor patient relationship with the doctor that performed my abortion, and received no follow up care. Abortion leads women to an easy escape in a crisis pregnancy. I would say abortion definitely hurts women physically, emotionally, and spiritually. The consequences of having an abortion are forever.

- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? the father's of my babies - I did not feel like I was given a chance to change my mind once I was there. breast cancer
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? my self esteem declined, I started to drink heavily and became very self-destructive. Not caring what happened to me or anyone else. I have thought about suicide often as an easy way out of the black hole that a woman living with an abortion feels. I could not sleep, I cried, I was headachy and I didn't know why I should have a baby done in 1997 and a double breast biopsy in 1999. I was full of anger towards me & others.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Besides me being in an emotional turmoil for the last 16 years. I have had missed out on an opportunity to have other babies and to help out of their lives.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Please get all of the facts and you'll know that it is not a blob of tissue until it is born but it is your baby and you would be killing it - give it a life sentence with a death sentence.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Do look at all of the facts don't just go on what you hear. When I hear what women in pain who have had an abortion say - what we went through. Our choice came to life.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Oct. 10, 1994 New Woman Medical Center Jackson, MS
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO, They were very vague, describing it as a DNC. They also stated there was little pain. I felt like someone was ripping my insides out. They also failed to mention psychological
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? The baby's father. He was the only one that new of the pregnancy and he did not want the child.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? For about 4 yrs after the abortion I practiced self-destructive behavior, not realizing it until I hit rock bottom. I drank everyday because I wanted to be numb. I did not want to feel guilty and empty. It wasn't until after the abortion that I realized that I had been carrying another human being inside me. And I was responsible for the death of that child. After I found out that God could forgive me, only then could I forgive myself.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My parents lost a grandchild, my brother and sister lost a niece or nephew. And my family had to sit by and watch me in my downward spiral because they did not know how to help or why I did the things I did. Abortion is something you don't talk about.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would beg her to carry this child to term and then decide if she wants to keep it or not. Abortion doesn't just kill a child, it destroys the mother also. People who tell you it's not a baby are lying. Some people may tell you that you can have more children later, but you can never replace a child.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Obviously these people have not had an abortion, and none of them have been close to someone that has. If so they would know it is not right. Abortion is not only the mutilation of a child, it is also the desecration of a woman. Unless you have been in my shoes I don't believe you have the right to say that abortion is legal or illegal. If abortion had not been a legal option I would have been spared a lot of emotional pain.

who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion

occurred: June 1989

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?

No - I received no information at all. No one had a conversation with me about what I was doing. If they spoke to anyone, it was my boyfriend who took me.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer?

No

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who?

yes - my boyfriend

5) How has your abortion affected you?

I struggle with anxiety, panic-attacks, depression, night-mares, intimacy problems with my husband

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Most people in my life do not know about my abortion. My two children and my husband are probably the most affected, however, because my fear of losing another child has caused me to be a panicky, over-protective parent.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

Don't do it. The emotional consequences are devastating and last a lifetime. Unlike other wounds that heal and get better with time, ~~the~~ abortion creates a wound in a woman's soul that gets worse as time passes.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

Abortion is not the harmless quick-fix that pro-choice supporters would have people believe that it is. It is a violent sexual trauma that scars women for the rest of their lives.

My Abortion

When I was 19 years old I found myself pregnant and made the fateful choice to have an abortion. It was the worst decision that I have ever made in my life. It solved one problem but little did I know that the abortion would haunt me for 23 years.

Guilt and shame have been a part of me for so long that they felt like family. They became an integral part of my life as did: low self-esteem, loneliness, bitterness, anger, denial that the abortion was a loss of life not a loss of tissue, depression, fear of rejection, hopelessness, grief, regret and feelings of remorse from having the abortion, despair, unwarranted fears, difficulty developing close relationships with men and women, crying spells, heavy drinking, being extremely defensive and sensitive, flashbacks of the abortion, feelings of unworthiness, always feeling that something was missing from my life. All of this has been instrumental in the person that I have become because it has affected the way that I am as a mother, a wife and a friend. This has not only affected me but also my husband, my children and my friends. How naïve I was. If I had known that my life would be so dramatically changed by that one decision I would never have made the choice to have an abortion. I have been dying a slow death for 23 years. The weight of carrying this baggage became extremely heavy over the years. So heavy I finally realized that I could no longer carry it. I was living in Hell.

It has only been through the grace and mercy of Jesus Christ that the weight has been lifted. He made me face the harsh reality of what I had done. We can tell ourselves all day long that we terminated a pregnancy or it was just a blob of tissue or a bunch of cells but the reality is that we murdered our children. Some think that the word murder is too harsh of a word to use but when the life of another is taken murder is the only word we can use. I will never ever be able to change the decision I made to have an abortion. It is something I will have to live with for the rest of my life. Christ did not die on the cross in vain. He died because He loves us. He died because He does not want us to live in misery but to live life to the fullest. To live life full of joy. I am so thankful that Christ has given me my life back. I can live life knowing that I am forgiven of this horrific sin. I can be the mother, wife and friend that Christ wants me to be. Happy, healthy, full of joy and forgiven. The Son has set me free and I am free indeed.

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion

occurred: MEMPHIS TN 05/1999

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? NO - YES I WAS DIAGNOSED WITH BREAST CANCER IN DECEMBER 2001. I HAD A MODIFIED RADICAL MASTECTOMY AND CHEMOTHERAPY. I TRULY BELIEVE MY ABORTION AND "DNC" CONTRIBUTED HIGHLY TO MY RISK FOR BREAST CANCER.

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? YES - MY PARTNER AND FAMILY - WE ALL BOUGHT INTO THE MYTHS OF - IS THIS A GOOD TIME FOR A BABY? YOU'RE SO YOUNG - YOU ARE NOT MARRIED -

5) How has your abortion affected you?

I STILL STRUGGLE WITH GUILT AND SADNESS OVER ABORTING MY CHILD - THE SADNESS IS OVERWHELMING AT TIMES - I DON'T THINK I WILL EVER BE ABLE TO COMPLETELY FORGIVE MYSELF - THE ENTIRE INCIDENT STILL BRINGS ME TO TEARS

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? WE DO NOT DISCUSS ABORTION - IT IS TOO DIFFICULT I BELIEVE WE ALL FEEL GUILT AND WE ALL BELIEVE MY CANCER IS RELATED TO HAVING AN ABORTION AND LOSING A CHILD

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? DO NOT DO IT! THE RISK ARE TOO GREAT. YOU WILL NEVER BE ABLE TO LOOK AT ANY CHILD THE SAME WAY AGAIN. YOU WILL NEVER BE ABLE TO LOOK AT YOURSELF THE SAME WAY AGAIN. FORTUNATELY - GOD FORGIVES - WE SHOULD FORGIVE OURSELVES THE SAME WAY

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? IT SHOULD NOT BE LEGAL - IT IS AN EASY OUT BUT THE

FALLOUT CAN NEVER BE OVERCOME. WE CAN ONLY LEARN TO LIVE WITH OUR CHOICE AND HOPEFULLY FORGIVE OURSELVES ONE DAY.

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred:

1991 - San Antonio, TX

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?

NO - the clinic was quick to get you if get you out. It was a very cold place. They said I would receive counseling they just told me that they would give me a shot instead something in me, that was it. I would have some cramping. Nothing about how I would feel emotionally, spiritually, or even physically.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer?

NO - I haven't had breast cancer

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who?

NO - It was truly my own decision. I wish I had more information about an abortion.

5) How has your abortion affected you?

I felt ashamed, not worthy, empty inside. I tried to fill the emptiness with negative things. I made poor decisions I've suffered the consequences of those decisions. I felt angry. I had a lot of different emotions. ~~embarrassed~~ For a long time I didn't understand why I felt like I did.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?

My family by not knowing my child, watching me make wrong decisions. Not understanding what I'm going through, because I'm carrying around with me this deep dark secret. Not wanting anyone to know.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

Not to have an abortion share my own personal experience with her. Live the different emotions. That every decision you make there are consequences. That is a baby inside of you he or she has the right to live. There are other options.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

I believe a woman has a right to choose either she is raising the baby herself or putting the baby up for adoption. If a woman chooses abortion that is something she will have to live with for the rest of her life. Knowing that she murdered her child. Gift from God. We need to teach our youth about abstinence. A woman who has an abortion it can truly affect them in a negative way. Just carrying the guilt, shame.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Christina Long, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: April 1989 in Pensacola, FL
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?
NO
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer?
NO
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____

5) How has your abortion affected you? I have suffered emotional trauma, feelings of depression, anxiety and low self-worth. It has harmed me spiritually. Caused me to perpetuate unhealthy behaviors.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? _____
I could not face the fact that I had had an abortion, and denied it for many years. In fact, when I finally did tell my best friend, I discovered that she had also had an abortion performed just a few weeks earlier, and now we both share the burden of wishing that I had shared earlier and she had decided differently.

I know one day, I must tell my children (I have 4) that I have had an abortion and I dread do that. Abortion has so damaged my feelings of self-worth that it has affected all my relationships.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? _____
That she is not alone, there are people who would love and support her and her unborn child. There are millions of infertile couples looking for children to adopt. Having an abortion does not solve a problem pregnancy and the scars last forever. Scientifically the unborn embryo is a baby from the moment of conception. When God gives you the gift of a child, he is asking you to accept the blessings that he will send to go along with the pregnancy and the future life of that child.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Most women who have had an abortion regret it. Don't listen to people who have agendas or theories, don't listen to the doctors or abortion clinics. You should listen to the women who have had abortions. I believe there is a bond between the unborn baby and the mother during pregnancy; that abortion imposes risks to the mother; that pregnant women considering abortion are often under pressure, and nearly always under stress; and that abortion is a poor method of resolving a problem pregnancy.

I wish there were more space to write in because there is so much more to say. When I went to have the abortion, I didn't have enough to pay extra for General Anesthesia. I became hysterical on the procedure table and stated that I didn't want to go through with it. They put the mask on my face and when I woke up, my baby was dead and I couldn't do anything about it!

- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? Emotionally - Spiritually. For 25 years I was emotionally numbed to various events that have occurred in my lifetime. Emotional numbness affected many relationships - broken relationships - never wanted anyone to get too close to me for fear they may discover my secret and see how remorseful I was of my love. I would not keep friendships - or marriages (I have had 3 broken marriages). Spiritually - my hidden sin - my wages kept me from receiving God's mercy, love and grace.

Abortion – the legalized murder of an unborn child. If you are a person of any sense of right and wrong at all – this has to have an impact on you – but only a person who has had an abortion can fully understand the emotional and psychological damage of having a child ripped from their womb. Being a person who had an abortion, I can only testify how it affected my life – from the moment of feeling violated immediately after leaving the clinic - to the intense grief of not being able to properly mourn the death of my child; this threw me into a relentless cycle of guilt, shame, destructive behavior, unworthiness, depression, denial and thoughts of suicide, which lasted for over 20 years. What a waste two lives!

29 years ago - I typically fit the profile of the "kind of person" an abortion was supposed to help – A DIVORCED MOTHER OF ONE WITH A LOW INCOME – well, it did not help me. It nearly destroyed me as it has millions of women. Norma McCorvey, the Jane Roe of Roe vs Wade said - " THAT IT WAS A DREADFUL DAY IN AMERICA WHEN THE COURTS ALLOWED WOMEN TO KILL THEIR OWN CHILDREN."

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? ashamed, embarrassed + nasty that abortion will not be the end of your nightmare and troubles, ^{at times} it will be the beginning of a life time of guilt and sorrow - an emptiness in her life and a longing for that baby will follow her and haunt her for the rest of her life. Consider ADOPTION!

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? God himself is the creator of life and only He has the right to give it and to take it - not us. When we decide to take ^{the} matter into our own hands, and sin in such a fashion, devastation is sure to follow. God instructs us to love and put others before ourselves, are we doing that when we choose to end a life that never asked to be here in the first place? As a nation, we have gotten so selfish and prideful that we have forgotten that life is a gift and that "I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct." ^{life and others are so precious!}

My baby is now with God and I will meet her someday.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I told no one.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Sept 1979 U of Iowa Clinic, Iowa City IA
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? Only that they would be removing the pregnancy by using a suction machine. Never once did they refer to it as a baby.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I am absolutely pro-life now. I will forever regret making the decision to kill my own child.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I think it made it easier for my sister to make the same decision a few years later. She is now battling breast cancer.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I can understand you not wanting to have a baby. Why don't you consider letting your child's life be a blessing to someone who can't have a child - consider adoption.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? The decision to kill your baby is forever - and may haunt you the rest of your life. Abortion is not a loving option to our mistake. The child is innocent in my sister's case - she may now be taken from her children's lives because of a "choice" she made - a choice for which she didn't know all the facts.

The State of Missouri

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Kimberly D. Herrell (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Dec. 14, 1995 Aid For Women Clinic Kansas City, KS
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? For over 8 years, I kept my abortion a secret from everyone except for the father of the unborn baby. I thought if I'd ignore it long enough, it would just go away and I would not have to deal with any ramifications. However, I was very wrong. My abortion has played the primary role in my dealing with emotional issues like depression, guilt, shame, anger, and flashbacks of the abortion experience. I have had to seek out professional counseling, anti-depressants, and therapy.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Now that I have begun sharing about my abortion that happened over 8 years ago, people are loving yet hope I will tell how this terrible act has effected me so that other women don't make the same choice.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? First, I would tell her to truly seek out all consequences of it and not rely on the "counseling" received at an abortion clinic. I would tell her that although having an abortion might feel like a quick fix, it has long-term emotional ramifications that may not surface for several years later.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would tell the court that abortion should not be made legal because it is complete murder of an unborn child and that child cannot defend him/herself on his/her own. Life is a precious gift that should not be made legal for someone to choose to take from another.

1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: April 1970, Dallas, Tx
2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? No If not, explain:

3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No

4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No Have you had breast cancer? _____

5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No If so, who? _____

6) How has your abortion affected you? From the time of my abortion (I was 19), I became very promiscuous, "looking for love in all the wrong places," began to drink a lot and often, and a few years down the road (about 2) began to take drugs - trying marijuana, hash, cocaine, hash, methadone, quaalids - etc. until I was saved in April 1974.

7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? The father of the child & his parents did not want me to have the abortion, but through my mother, did not know about it at the time, she became pro-abortion from then, until she died.

8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Don't do it. It will destroy your life & make you the mother of a dead baby forever. Though I now have 3 wonderful, beautiful girls, I have miscarried three others.

9) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? That it is a lie to believe it "solves problems" because it causes many more than it solves. I am now going through divorce after almost 20 years of marriage, and I think the roots stem back to the abortion.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared KATHRYN L. OSTEY (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: 1981, 82, 83, Planned Parenthood Kansas City MO
2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No, I was not informed that it would cause depression, thoughts of suicide and future problems with having children. I was told to and I believed the lie. They said it was not a child, but I now know different.
3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No, they did not tell me all of the consequences. I would have to suffer and cry with me for years, both mental and physical.
4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No I only learned of this in the last year.
5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? Yes, My then husband and the staff at Planned Parenthood.
6) How has your abortion affected you? I have to live with what I have done everyday of my life. It is my biggest regret. It has caused depression, and thoughts of suicide. Also complications in becoming pregnant and carrying a child.
7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It has caused a great deal of pain to myself and family members. My parents have lost three grand children.
8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Don't do it! The mother had a choice and she made the choice to create. What about that baby's choice, would he choose to die? We are the voice for the least of our society who has no voice. There are millions of infertile couples out there who would love to be that child's parents. Give that baby life, don't take it. We have no right.
9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? They are blessed that their mothers didn't have the choice to murder their children. Because of them had they themselves may not be sitting in the seats deciding the fate of our future leaders. The blood of these dead babies will be on their hands and someday the regret will be shared by all involved.

- 5) How has your abortion affected you? four cervical surgeries for dysplasia due to a casual sex lifestyle. My cervix is too thin now to have a child. In addition I have extremely painful periods. In the fall of every year I think about the baby and wonder what might have been. God if I had had the courage to stand up for what I knew was right.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: August 1987 at Feminine Health Center, Flint MI
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No, no one at the clinic told me that my baby was an actual baby - they just told me it was a piece of tissue & the whole procedure would be painless & quick - which was a lie. It was long & painful & didn't let me know about complications or emotional effects
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No If so, who? I had no one in my life to tell me any different - I didn't feel supported - especially by the abortion clinic - if all the facts would have been shown to me - I would not have gone through with it
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I was so ashamed - it was my deepest secret Yes - in the year 2000 I was experiencing a lot of depression - the depression I was having I had for 13 years - since the abortion - was actually caused by the abortion - I was experiencing - uncontrollable crying - anger - felt disconnected from other people - in forgiveness toward myself. Now I realize that the child that I aborted (that they called a piece of tissue) will never have a chance at life - I will never be able to hold her or experience this life with her. My daughter (now) will never know the experience of having an older sibling.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? For the fact that others are missing out in life because this child wasn't born - it also prevented me from getting close to anyone - it harmed all people
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell her about abortion clinics - what they tell women about abortion (so they feel there is no other choice - but to have one) - I would show her pictures of her baby & tell her about the development of her child - I also would tell her all the traumas & difficulties after abortion
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? That abortion should not be legal - because it's killing a baby - that baby deserves & is entitled to live & should be given a chance - A abortionist's lie to woman - that it is harmful to woman physically & mentally. The whole truth is not discussed in the whole abortion issue.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Feb 25, 1994 - Upland, CA Planned Parenthood
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No - they told me the next day I would feel relieved - the next day + everyday since my heart has been broken. they never told me about options.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? YES If so, who? a doctor at a clinic for women in Huntington Beach, CA. SAID I had gestational diabetes, could cause complications at my age. I was 45 yrs old, also said I could have Down's syndrome baby + suggested terminating pregnancy.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I have never recovered + never will. I know God has forgiven me, but I can't forgive myself. I feel dirty + unworthy. Not a day goes by that I see a child + wonder what our's would have been like. If planned parenthood would have told me there was other help or alternatives but never said anything. I still remember the sound of the vacuum at the abortion. Got through it all I want to turn something so terrible into something positive. I want to help others not to make the same mistake + overturn Roe vs Wade
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband has stood by me, but bears my grief + my pain. I know it has been painful for him. If only we had gave it to God + trusted Him God would have saw us through + we would have our child.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Don't listen to abortionists see a sonogram, get facts on when a baby's heart first beats. You can never go back. Abortion is not something you correct + make right again. It's final I have so much I could draw in over these past years to help someone.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Every human being has rights that includes unborn babies - Having an abortion does not free you - it makes you a prisoner to the horrible act you committed. There is no need for abortion - thousands would love to adopt + birth control is plentiful. Abortion is a money maker for abortionists who have no respect for human life.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Nov. 1987. Reproductive Health Services, STL MO.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? To an extent. They told me what would happen to me before & after the procedure. They explained that removing the baby would be like just vacuuming it out. They were kind but no other options were stated.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? The father of the child, the staff at the abortion clinic, co-workers.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I was emotionally distraught for a very long period after the abortion. I was extremely depressed. I had severe pain & bleeding for 1 week afterward. When I called the emergency #, they told me not to call back. I have had several surgeries in the past 15 years for endometriosis. I have had to hide my secret from loved ones. For a long time, I could not be in the presence of children or women who were pregnant.

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: Health Abortion 1 Hope Clinic Granite City Illinois ~ November, 1976 Abortion 2 Women's Reproductive Services St. Louis, Missouri ~ 1979
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No - I do not recall being adequately informed at the Hope Clinic - I just remember being given a pill that relaxed me and led off. I remember at Women's Reproductive Health Services on Euclid in St. Louis - they took me into a room and told me things but I was not given options. My boyfriend urged me to have the abortion.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No - no one told me of the guilt, the emotional pain, the potential damage to my tubes, etc. they tried to make murder seem pleasant.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No I have not had breast cancer.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? My parents the first time, my boyfriend the second time.

- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I have 3 children; I dread the day they find out what their mother did; it was not what I wanted to tell my husband prior to our marriage.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Abortion is murder and when you realize that you've murdered your own children and you will - the pain is beyond words. Shook life and if you are not able to care for your child - there are so many couples who would love to have your child. If God chooses you to be a mother, to bear a child then do so - murder is not an option.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion is MURDER. You are wrong. I can never undo what was done to me; I have to live with the thought that I chose to murder 2 of my children. I now have 3 children who I love so dearly, I have received forgiveness but the crime has still been committed - I cannot wish those 2 innocent babies back to life - I cannot change the horror that was done in those offices - "I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct." - 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: October, 1988 in Greenbelt, Maryland
2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: I had no real counseling - adoption wasn't even mentioned but I was told it would "terminate" the pregnancy
3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? NO - the emotional consequences for me were devastating!
4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? NO, NO
5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? Not really, it was very mechanical - the whole process - had just no warmth - concern or emotions ... "Here's what's going to happen..."
6) How has your abortion affected you? 13 years later I still cry about it! I know I'm forgiven but it's been a huge emotional rollercoaster. See attached sheet for details.
7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My parents were grieved and I believe the people performing abortions are bearing their own consciences.
8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Consider adoption - or raising the baby. I counseled a friend who later found herself pregnant & was considering abortion. My testimony made her choose life. Now her little Emily is 2 years old!
9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? A woman should not become pregnant unless she is married to her husband. Abortion is not an option at all. Adoption is the answer if one becomes pregnant - or have the baby with a support system to help. Even for rape or incest I believe God allowed those children to be conceived and He has a beautiful plan for them. I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct. Abortions should not be legal - to save the life of the mother there are C-sections! I know. I've had one!

Question 6 - Details:

I was 26 years old when I got an abortion. I'd had a one-night stand at a party in San Jose, California and one month later I had accepted a job across the country in Washington, DC. I was in a brand new area - brand new job and then I find out I'm pregnant. It started affecting my job performance and my boss called me in to discuss things. Imagine my shame telling him how I couldn't concentrate because of my pregnancy from that one night stand 3,000 miles away! I did call the father but there was no support from him.

I planned the abortion and went to my appointment. I asked a woman inside the room to hold my hand but she seemed almost lifeless - void of compassion. She did hold my hand though. I felt utterly alone and had tears rolling down my cheeks. I asked God to forgive me while the abortion was happening. Afterwards when I went home, I closed the curtains and lay on the bed in a fetal position and cried and cried and cried.

Going back to work, I'd paint

Tamela J Beckman

on the smile, but come home and cry each evening. I was dying inside.

Then I started going to Palm readers and those associated with the occult - they'd read tarot cards and speak of death and I'd unload my shame, guilt and grief to them. I must have gone to 15 different women sharing the same painful story over and over. My work was suffering as was my emotional health.

After a while I met a man and began living with him (another bad choice) then we became pregnant and I had a miscarriage. I felt sure it was because of my earlier abortion so guilt consumed me constantly. I felt that because I'd taken a life - I was getting what I deserved.

Then finally, 6 years later I found God's forgiveness. His love & cleansing forgiveness has set me free but there's still pain from my losses.

now I'm married to a wonderful godly husband (6 1/2 years already), and we have twin boys! Yes twins, who could have ever imagined that I'd have twins after my shameful past?!! They are 4 1/2 years old and the joy of my life. Please overturn Roe-v-Wade. It hurts everyone involved!

Sincerely, Mrs. Pamela J. Beckman

who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1972 in ~~Greene~~ Hicksville, New York

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No, I was told that it was a "blob of tissue" that could be easily taken care of. I did realize, if they took the blob of tissue, I would resume my normal cycle and my problem would be taken care of.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No, I was not informed. No, I have not had breast cancer.

of. I was not informed of any consequences.

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? No

5) How has your abortion affected you?
I am now convinced that the "blob of tissue" was already a life. That was not said when I had an abortion. I realize now that I allowed another human being to be killed through abortion.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?
For some family members it is too hard to talk about. For my immediate family, it has caused us all to realize that life begins at conception. We now highly value the life of unborn children.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?
You think it is an easy "out" to your crisis. But it is something that will "never go away." If you are able to conceive again and the pregnancy is desired, you will be reminded. This happens when you fill out a form and it asks if this is your first pregnancy. As you hold your baby, you realize your loss.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?
It is not a "right" of a woman to take the life of another man or woman. The womb is not a safe place for a life if grown men + women feel they don't want the child. It becomes death row to an innocent person.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

I had an abortion at the age of 21 on Dec. 14, 1995 at the Aid For Women Clinic in Kansas City, KS. I was approximately 8 weeks along. Although being against this act, I chose to abort my child out of fear of rejection and humiliation from family and friends. I hurriedly called the father of our unborn child to tell him I was pregnant after taking a home pregnancy test. He told me to do whatever I thought would be best. I immediately and abruptly chose to abort my child.

I chose the above mentioned clinic simply because it was first on the list in the phone book and was near where I was attending college at the time. The first thing I remember is getting a sonogram, I assume to be certain I was pregnant. I remember the nurse telling me I was about 8 weeks along, but she never showed me the sonogram picture. Next, I remember a male "counselor" asking me about contraceptives. He also very briefly said that I had a choice of aborting or not, but he did not go into details regarding abortion alternatives nor did he explain the abortion procedure in detail. I was told I would be numbed from the waist down and would be given medication to make me be in a sleepy, out-of-it mode. Nothing was mentioned about dilation, suction, or curettage nor was anything ever mentioned about the emotional side effects of having an abortion. I vaguely remember being told about possible physical side effects but that is it.

Thankfully I recovered well physically with no complications. Little did I know that I would suffer emotionally and spiritually. I asked the Lord to forgive me for taking an unborn child's life, but I did not forgive myself. I stuffed all emotions and kept secret what I had done for 8 years. During this 8 year period, I harbored guilt, shame, anger, bitterness, and a low self-concept. Finally through God, fellow Christian friends, therapy, and counseling, I have experienced true forgiveness and freedom in Christ. He has broken me free of all the bondage I was in.

My heart's desire is to reach out to women who are contemplating an abortion and help them to understand that not only is abortion the killing of innocent life, but it has many, many physical, emotional, and spiritual implications that they will have to continually deal with. Abortion is not just a quick fix that goes away and can be forgotten and ignored. I strongly desire for Roe vs. Wade to be overturned and as one of my 11-year-old students said, "Abortion needs to be cancelled!"

Accept the greatest Christmas gift ever given!

December 2000

Dear Norma, Here's last year's family letter!

Well, another year has streaked by leaving in its wake a treasure of memories not soon to be forgotten! It seems impossible that we've been married 19 months. A special thanks to all of you who made our wedding such a special event and shared your love in so many ways with us! Your cards, gifts, words and presence are timeless memories!!

Janice rapidly approaches her long-awaited early retirement in April 2001 after 25 years with TWA. She is actively involved at PRC (Pregnancy Resource Center)-as an unplanned pregnancy counselor trainee. When she retires, she really hopes to spend much more time with them or a similar Christian agency. Her heart's desire is to help others that are at critical crossroads in their lives. Please pray for God's will and direction in that area.

We both stay very, very active at Grace Church St. Louis with the Singles ministry, a community group and other ministries. Larry speaks often at various meetings at church. We both helped organize and spoke at a 4 session "Candid Look at Sex" series at our church last month. It was very successful and reached an average of 80 people each session. Many people have requested video and audiotapes of the series and want to know when the next one will happen.

Larry remains extremely busy, involved and dedicated to his teaching 7th grade science at Jennings Jr. High. This year is better than last year when he had given notice that he was going to quit due to the tremendous workload. He grades papers and prepares lessons until 1 or even 3 AM most nights. You've gotta love teaching to do that!

Thomas continues to do well in his advanced Galactio program at school. His construction of innovative "space invader ships" and unusual objects continues to amaze us! He's earning more and more badges and awards at Boy Scouts and has had many auditions through John Roberts Powers modeling and acting agency. He's growing up so fast, and is full of creative ideas and inventions!

Shawn is a senior at Central Missouri State and is doing well in his Commercial Art major. You should see some of the outstanding projects he has created! He was one of the few chosen from thousands of hopefuls to represent John Robert Powers at the IMTA (International Modeling, Talent and Acting Association) convention in L.A. - January 2001. Come to find out this is something he has wanted to do since he was a child... parents are the last to know! We certainly appreciate your prayers in this endeavor! His girlfriend Jenny is finishing a Graphic Arts major at CMSM. They are such a joy to watch together and to be around!

Brad and Mikel have been married over a year now. Brad graduated from Missouri Highway Patrol Academy this past September and is now a highway patrolman in South St. Louis county. He missed top academic honors at the academy by 5 hundredths of one point. Mikel is in a full scholarship grad program in Spanish at St. Louis University and also teaches there part-time. Beau, a new addition to their family, is an adopted feisty cocker/petter mix.

Thank God our parents are all in good health, especially for their ages, and we look forward so much to what little time we get to see them every year. Larry's dad enjoys the garage sales he has most weekends, and both Ruth and Sam help Larry's brother Greg with many projects around their homes in Utika Ridge, MO. Jan's parents, Alex and Diane stay active and involved with their large family in the Boston area. We are so glad they were able to spend a month here with us in September! We were spoiled royally on fantastic Armenian meals and much needed housekeeping help!!

With our hectic lifestyle, we anxiously look forward to our weekend get-a-ways to our small "cabins" at Lakes of the Ozarks. We are there usually 2-3 weekends a month all year long. We enjoy getting away and working on our numerous projects there. We've totally renovated inside and out our two mobile homes at the lake. So far we've accomplished the following: we've put in a natural stone seawall and retainer wall, a massive cedar bridge at our "Holloway Hollow", 2 stone patios, and many flower gardens. We've also torn down a rotten deck, cleared brush from 3 lots, repeatedly cleaned our "beach area" in our tiny cove and have done too many other projects to remember or name. We're constantly having friends spend the weekend or longer, so come join us whenever you can at Larry and Jan's "Camp Sanity 2". Our driftwood entry sign reads:

"Come stay a while, Peace is your goal! Camp Sanity 2 will soothe your soul!"

So come!!

We look forward so very, very much to this time of the year, because this is the special time we get to "talk" briefly with each of you, our special friends!! May this coming year bring you unequalled blessings from our precious Heavenly Father as you look to Him for His perfect will and guidance in your life! He loves you so very much!

We love you too!

Plea

I stand before you a criminal... convict me of this malicious crime mark me a murderer of my own flesh sentence me to pay for a life so divine.

At seventeen years, I was merely a child the government gave me a license to kill-- a permit to abort my unborn child.

My child, my choice was an easy answer to an accidental arrival;
I left the father no voice.

We drove to a surrounding state my parents unaware of my fate the doctor performed a procedure I have come to hate.

I knew abortion was wrong but fear, shame, & selfishness kept me from standing strong.

4.4 2.6 3.15
the birth-weight of my three children premature deliveries; side affects unforeseen.

I was immobile and tilted on my head to delay my daughter's arrival-- 40 days, I lay in a hospital bed.

Ten years have past the buried memory risen of my baby that vainly died so fast.

There is no justification for this legalization our hands are blood-stained from millions of babies being killed in this great nation.

A child, a choice makes me livid
there are no pros in choice.

I stand before you a victim... my heart has one plea children are not property protect them from this tragedy.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Melanie L. Mills (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: On March 26, 1998, in Granite City, IL, at Hope Clinic for Women.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: They informed me of the medical procedure but as far as after effects mentally, No.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? NO.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? I WAS NOT PRESSED BUT I HAD PRE-ABORTION COUNSELING AND I KEPT VOICING TO THE COUNSELOR THAT I WOULD REGRET IT BUT I WAS NOT STOPPED BY THE COUNSELOR. I WAS ALSO ATTENDING SCHOOL AND $15,000 IN DEBT SO THIS ADDED TO THE REASONING OF HAVING AN ABORTION.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? FOR ABOUT 6 MONTHS I WAS IN DENIAL AND THEN I STARTED HAVING EMOTIONAL PROBLEMS. I HAD TO ATTEND SEVERAL COUNSELING SESSIONS, RECEIVE POST TRAUMATIC STRESS TREATMENT AND EXTENSIVE PSYCHIATRIC CARE AND HAVE BEEN HOSPITALIZED TWICE THIS YEAR FOR ALL THE EMOTIONAL DISTRESS. I ATTEMPTED SUICIDE THIS YEAR AND IN JUNE 2001, I FOUND OUT THAT I HAVE SCAR TISSUE, ADHESIONS & ENDOMETRIOSIS.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? IT CAUSED A LOT OF PROBLEMS IN MY MARRIAGE. MY HUSBAND WAS WITH ME WHEN I HAD THE ABORTION. IT HAS AFFECTED ME AS A MOTHER, I HAD 2 CHILDREN BEFORE IT AND IT AFFECTED THE WAY I TREAT THEM. I COULD NOT GET CLOSE TO THEM BECAUSE OF THE GUILT & REMORSE OF WHAT I DID WITH THE CHILD I ABORTED. I FELT I DID NOT DESERVE TO ENJOY THEM.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? NEVER TO HAVE ONE. IT IS THE WORST MISTAKE BECAUSE YOU WILL HAVE TO LIVE WITH IT EVERY DAY THE REST OF YOUR LIFE.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I WOULD TELL THEM THAT IT IS 1970'S THINKING. ROE VS. WADE NEEDS TO BE OVERTURNED. IT IS BARBARIC. IT IS INHUMANE. THE BABY IS KILLED AND THIS SHOULD NOT GO ON IN A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY. IT EXPLOITS WOMEN.

The State of Missouri

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared MELANIE L. MILLS, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: On March 26th, 1998, in Granite City, Illinois at Hope Clinic for Women
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: They informed me of the medical procedure but as far as after effects mentally, no.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion?: No.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No, I was not informed but I have not had breast cancer. I have developed other medical problems.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? I was not pressured but I had pre-abortion counseling and I kept voicing to the counselor that I would regret it but I was not stopped by the counselor. I was also attending school and $15,000.00 in debt, so this added to the reasoning of having the abortion.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? For about six months I was in denial and then I started having emotional problems. I had to attend several counseling sessions, receive post traumatic treatment and extensive psychiatric care and have been hospitalized twice this year for all the emotional distress. I have attempted suicide this year and in June I found out that I have scar tissue and endometriosis.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It caused a lot of problems in my marriage. My husband was with me when I had the abortion. It has affected me as a mother. I had two children before and it has affected the way I treat them. I could not get close to them because of the guilt and remorse of what I did with the child I aborted I did not deserve to enjoy them.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion? Never to have one. It is the worst mistake because you will have to live with it every single day.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would tell them that it is 1970's thinking. Roe v. Wade needs to be overturned. It is barbaric. It is inhumane. The baby is killed and this should not go on in a democratic society. It exploits women.

- 2) I was told I would be having a suction abortion, and that it would be a little like getting a pap, but I would feel more pressure. I was told it was not a baby at this point, it was more like a blob of flesh and that I would feel little or no pain. I would like to have been told the truth, that it was a child, it looks like this at this stage, etc. I would like to have been told that a suction abortion would pull the child into pieces from the womb. I would like to have been warned of the emotional trauma it would cause.
- 3) No one discussed with me any moral issues whatsoever. I was told there was nothing to be embarrassed or ashamed about.
- 6) Twenty-five years later, I still cannot talk about it without tears and pain in my heart. I will always bare the scares of my aborted children on my heart.
- 7) My husband still bares emotional scares. My brother also (he loaned me the money).
- 8) All the hardship and embarrassment this pregnancy causes will pass. You will have family that are angry and disappointed in you and that will cause you pain, but it will also pass. But that few weeks of heartache does not compare to the lifelong emptiness and pain you will feel if you have your child aborted. That heartache does not go away.
- 9) I lived it. I know it is wrong. I know what it is like to live each day with the mental torture of knowing that I killed my own children. It all looks simple on paper and seems like an easy way out of a bad spot, but know one tells you that the easy way out will cost you later in emotional damage and physical problems.

5) How has your abortion affected you?
It has caused me a great sense of loss and it took me a long time to be able to forgive myself. It still makes me very sad when I think about what I did.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?
That a lot of people know either friends or family. So it's really only affected my husband & I. And he is also very sorry we made that decision. So many years ago.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?
Please DON'T DO IT!! Even if she did not want to keep the baby, there are other positive options.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?
If the only reason they want to keep it legal is to keep abortions safe that's not always the case. It still can be dangerous to the women's physical health. Life starts at conception even before you know you're pregnant. That should be reason enough to keep that precious life inside of you going strong.

COUNTY OF St. Louis

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Joyce Zepp, (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is Joyce Zepp (Print Name) My address is [REDACTED]

Having graduated from high school in 1971, my “coming of age” occurred at the tail end of the sexual revolution, and I was very much a product of the times. I believed the axioms of the ‘70s: God is dead, self is king, and abortion is not morally wrong.

So when I found myself pregnant at age 28, I really didn’t seriously consider any other choice. As a young professional, I didn’t want the inconvenience or the embarrassment of an unplanned pregnancy. I was still elevating “self” above all else.

My abortion experience itself was remarkable only in that the “counselor” assigned to me was an Asian woman who did not speak English clearly enough for me to understand her, and she was obviously confused as to why I was sitting there sobbing. We could not make ourselves understood to one another in any way.

I had told only the father and my best girlfriend about the pregnancy, and I resolved to move on. But a funny thing began to happen. I could no longer look at pregnant women. I wanted nothing to do with babies. I had no interest in holding my sister’s son until he was about two years old—past the “baby” stage. My next relationship was with a man who was abusive. I think I felt subconsciously that I deserved to be punished, and he was certainly willing and able to fill that role. I became severely depressed.

I believe that all women who have had an abortion know on some level that they have murdered their own child, and that knowledge, even though subconscious, works to destroy them. I felt as though my soul was a black hole, and the rest of me was being slowly sucked inside to nothingness. It is only through the saving grace of Jesus Christ that I survived that time. He called me out of the darkness of my black hole into His marvelous light.

I have been waiting for years now for a way to share my story in a constructive and meaningful way with our hurting world, so as to save perhaps one young woman from making the same wrong “choice” I made. It is an evil choice. It is a choice that hurts women and kills babies, babies that are precious in God’s sight and must become precious again in our sight, for when we fail to protect the least of God’s creation, we are all in jeopardy.

Thank you for giving me a voice.

I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Susan N Gliko (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred: My abortion occurred October 21, 1989 at the Blue Mountain Clinic in Missoula Montana.
2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: I did know it would terminate my pregnancy but I was not aware of my child's development or the procedure that would be used to suck my child piece by piece from me.
3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? yes, I had to read and sign a surgical consent form that listed pretty much all the physical damages including possible death. No emotional or spiritual counseling.
4. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? NO
Have you had breast cancer? NO
5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? I was a poor divorced mother of two working very hard to prove my value. I was afraid to face all the negatives, like, she had another baby to lower her rent.
If so, who? Society and fear of causing my mother's health to further decline.
6. How has your abortion affected you? I am empty. I try to numb my pain with alcohol and food. I have panic attacks in crowds. I don't trust myself with important decisions. I suffer tremendous grief on the anniversary of my abortion.
7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? I over compensate with my kids so they don't make my mistake. My husband has a broken woman who won't let herself be fully loved. To others especially men, I am very distant. I am very hard to get to know.
8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Slow down and be calm. Don't rush! This fear and panic will pass and lead to the joy of a child. To act on the panic doesn't make the child not real. A mother never forgets the fruit of her womb. Her child will forever haunt her.
9. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Women in desperate situations need to be protected from making acts of desperation. Acts that don't improve their lives; Acts that hurt them irreversibly. It is not natural for a mother to kill her child.

- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? YES If so, who? The father of the child.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I regretted allowing myself to be coerced. I am ashamed and asked the Lord to forgive me. I think of that child, imagine a girl named Amanda and wonder what she would be like. I think in my mind I decided to try never to get pregnant again (which I have not) because of what I did. My desire was to adopt children who needed a home, which God has allowed (2 children).
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I'm sure it has affected my husband and my friends who knew what I did.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Check out fetal development, go to a crisis pregnancy center, ask the Lord for help, check out adoption, etc.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? We do have a choice. A choice to be sexually active, a choice to use birth control, a choice in our behavior. should be given to the courts from experts. It seems to me, as I understand, there is evidence showing not only physical development from fertilization, but also psychological development of the fetus. The State of Montana

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared, Sheila Konkol, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred:

Unfortunately and tragically, I have had not 1, but 2, abortions. These were many years ago, but approximately in 1973 and again in 1978. Both occurred in Great Falls, Montana.

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?

No, with both abortions, the physicians shared absolutely nothing with me regarding the nature and consequence of abortion, except that I was terminating a fetus. I did not see the end result of either abortion.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer?

No, I was not informed. No, I have not had breast cancer.

Yes and no. With my first abortion, I was a young 18 year old girl, and my boyfriend was 17 years old and still in high school. He was terribly afraid of his father finding out, and the consequences thereof. I told my mother, and she physically fainted on me, and clamed up. All she said is "how could you do this to me?". I felt very alone. I was naive and caulky, and took matters into my own hands. I choose the abortion route, because I had no guidance, and I also wanted to protect my boyfriend from his father. I never really stopped and thought about what I was doing, I just did it. And only after it was done, did my mother talk to me, no she did not approve of the abortion, but she was not there for me either, before I made the decision to terminate my pregnancy. I later married this young man, and we had one son, who is now 28 years old. However this marriage lasted only a year and a half.

With my 2nd abortion, I was a few years older, a single mother by then, and held a good position with the federal government. I did not date for quite awhile, and then I met a man, who accepted both me and my son. We spent a lot of time doing things together that could include my son, and I came to care deeply for this man. However, I still belonged to the world, and fell into pre-marital sex, though I was on birth control, I conceived. Prior to knowing I was pregaant, the symptoms of the pregnancy were not normal. I was having severe back pains, and no one tested me for pregnancy because I was on birth control pills. I ended up being put on a medication that ultimately could cause bone deformities if taken in the earlier weeks of pregnancy, which is exactly what I had done, again not knowing I had conceived. Ultimately it was determined I was pregnant, and the physician recommended highly, that I terminate the pregnancy, because of the possible consequences to the baby. I wanted this baby very much, but was afraid of having a deformed child, not for my sake, but for the child's. I also quite frankly, did not want to be found out by my co-workers and others, find out that I was pregnant and not married. So I hid behind the advice the physician had given me, and took the easy way out again, and terminated the pregnancy, thinking I could tell God I was sorry and go on with life. What a terrible mistake and lie to myself. Here again, I married this man approximately 6 months after the termination, but I did not go on to have another child for twelve years after the marriage.

I am still married to this man today, and have two sons, one is 28 years old, and the other is 10 years old. I am also the grandmother of a 6 year old and 6 month old. I am 49 years old and a strong and committed Christian today. I love Jesus so much, and it pains me so, that I committed these grievous acts in my youth. It has been with great remorse and many tears to Jesus that forgiveness has come to me. Forgiven, yes, forgotten, no! Every now and then, I look at one of my dearly loved sons, and think silently to myself, "I killed your brother or sister, I don't even know if they were a girl or boy, and I think, I'll bet they looked just like you, and definitely just as precious as you are to me". It is then I have to stop and tell Jesus again, how very sorry I am, and to please tell my little ones, that I am so sorry, and love them so, and will see them in heaven one day. And then you go on about your daily life, because you must, but silently wish you were not one of the millions of women guilty of taking the life of their unborn children. Wishing you had never heard of legalized abortion. Wishing you would have gone forward with the pregnancy, and had four precious children today, instead of two.

Today I have the backbone to stand against the world, back then, I was young, and caught up in the lies of the world and youth. Every time I hear of abortion, or see a picture of an aborted baby, my heart aches so, because no matter what, no matter that I am forgiven, the fact is, I had 2 abortions, killed 2 of my children, and then just as easily, gave life to 2 children. A mother is suppose to protect her children, not kill them. Motherhood is such a beautiful gift God has given us, women. We as women, as human beings created by God, should not have the power to decide life and death, and had legalized abortion not been around, I know without a shadow of a doubt, that I would not have sought an illegal abortion no matter the circumstances, and today would not be a woman and mom, that is post-abortion, and suffered the agony thereof.

Today, I promised Jesus, I would be one voice, among many voices, to stand against abortion, by sharing with you, that I fell prey to this awful lie and have suffered the consequences thereof. I choose to be part of "the salt and light" that Jesus can use, to save life and help other women and young girls avoid the haunting memory of knowing what one did, and believe me, that haunting will come sooner or later! So by filling out this affidavit, and having it notarized this day, the 30th anniversary of legalized murder, is my way of being a voice for the voiceless, as unto Jesus.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?

I divorced from my first husband and don't know how it has affected him. My present husband, with whom I had my 2nd abortion, is against abortion. When the time is right, I will share with my two sons, my story, and the stance I have taken today, for Jesus and life.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

I would share with her the tragic memories she will endure, once she comes to realize what she has done. I would share with her the beautiful gift of a child, the blessing of being a mother, or if one opted to put a child up for adoption, knowing that you did the right thing, that you chose life, not death, for your unborn child. And yes, that "being" inside of you is a baby, God created, and don't fall prey to the deception of the world and pro-abortionists, that it is not life. Live with knowing you gave life, did not destroy it. Don't live knowing you actually legally murdered your child. Know that Jesus loves you and the baby, and there are positive and good options available to you and the baby, if you give life to the child. I would share my story with her in hopes she would choose life. I would love her and share Jesus and his love for her, with her.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

That abortion should not be legal for several reasons. First and foremost, abortion is wrong, because God, our creator and judge says it is wrong. Conception is new life, created by God our Father. Second, because so many women have abortions when they are young, scared, naïve, and belong to the world at that time, they have not had the chance to experience the beauty of birthing and raising children, of being a "mother". Or, should they be a mother, as I was, and still take the life of another unborn child, they cannot possibly know the haunting memory of knowing that you took the life of a child. The condemnation ones feels when seeing pictures of aborted children or hearing stories of abortion and knowing that you yourself partook in one.

There is no turning back once the procedure is performed, it is a done deal, though you may not experience the tragic aftermath for years, and they will experience and know it. No, the world's courts do not convict you, your conscience convicts you, and from that you cannot flee. Don't give them a chance to legally abort and experience self-condemnation for such a grievous act of taking the life of their unborn child. Instead educate young people, in morals, respect for themselves, respect for life, respect for God's law, and the positive consequences thereof, not the agony of the past actions, that cannot be undone.

Again, I say, that had legal abortion not been available to me, in either circumstance of my unwanted pregnancies, I would have never sought out an illegal abortion. I would have gone forward with my pregnancy. I would never have suffered the consequential and psychological aftereffects of abortion. The courts don't experience these aftereffects, the "mom" does. Don't give her the chance to destroy herself emotionally or physically, instead give her the dignity and the only choice, right to life.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

And You Think You Have A Lot Of Time:

I had just turned 21 when I went on a date with a guy I had just met. He took me out to dinner, we partied a little bit and then he date-raped me. This was way back in the '80s when date-rape wasn't talked about, much. That should have been the end of the story but because of "who knows why?" I continued to date the guy. I hadn't been a virgin when this date-rape occurred as I had also been date-raped when I was 16, so he hadn't stolen my virginity. We continued to date and have sex repeatedly. Why we weren't thinking about protection - once again - who knows? I continued to have a life outside of this relationship and began planning for a 7 day cruise to the Caribbean with a good friend. Lo and behold, a few weeks before departure I find out I am about 6 weeks pregnant. My boyfriend would like to get married but I feel we are too young, besides I don't want to be pg on my dream vacation. There will be plenty of time in the future to have the children I always dreamed of having.

So a doctor in my home town refers me to a larger city and an abortionist who will get rid of my "problem". I'm apprehensive but I don't really see this as a baby, it's only tissue, they say. I will begin having children a little later, I think to myself. But this relationship sours, he gets another girl pregnant and they marry.

I meet and fall in love with the "love of my life". He treats me with so much respect and honor. We move in together and I begin working for his touring theatre company. Life is going the way I always hoped it would. Then as we packed to take the show to a different town, I fall from the second floor loading dock as I handed down a screw or nail or something. I land in a heap at the company's feet on the cement parking lot. Ok, so I'm not hurt really bad, just bruised up a bit. Off to the show we go. But something isn't right any more. I get headaches so bad I can't lay my head on a pillow. The accident happened during work so I see doctor through workman's comp. After a couple ct scans, he's not really sure what is causing the headaches. He prescribes naproxen, which doesn't even begin to touch the pain. It is now around Christmas time and I am getting the pesky feeling of my butt being asleep again. I had experienced the symptom before and my doctor dismissed it as gheon bara or it could be ms, he casually said.

Then to a neurologist I went. There I underwent another ct scan, spinal tap, evoked something or other, and a arterialgram. He thinks it is a stroke because "ms doesn't cause headaches" This was in 1984 and after those test were done - I lost "normal" feeling in my feet. Later, the doc would relent and say that it is ms and the only thing he has to help is a diet, unless of course it gets to a life or death situation and then he would try one of the new courses of therapy that may or may not help. It quickly got to that situation when during the summer I lost all feeling below my waist. I was totally paralyzed and dependent on my parents. My dad packed me everywhere I went, I wasn't about to sit in a wheelchair, I had too much living to do. Because of an encounter with Jesus the disease began giving up the territory it had taken. But would anyone ever want to marry a somewhat handicapped girl? My boyfriend had been always there for me, but he didn't think he would ever ask me to marry him - so what would become of me - an old handicapped maid? I had asked him if I wasn't married by the time I was 32, if he would have a child with me through artificial insemination - because it would be an offense against God if we conceived the natural way. I so desperately wanted a child to love and raise.

When I was 31, God allowed me to marry while I was in ministry training. Praise God, my new husband even wanted more children than the 3 he already had. So my dream of being a mother was still alive. Then a few weeks before the wedding, I find out that he had been "fixed". So what happened to all the time I had to have children? Suddenly there wasn't any more time and I had missed my only opportunity of making my parents grandparents and having the 2-3 children I had always dreamed of having. My new step kids were pre-teens and teenagers who lived with their mother. We saw them occasionally but they weren't thrilled their dad had remarried. I love them, but I am not their mother. I was confident that I would become pregnant on my honeymoon. God could do a miracle for me like He did when I went into remission with the disease. But that was not His plan. Now I fight bitterness and anger over the fact that I've bled every month since I was 12 years old and will never have the precious gift that comes from that.

Now I want to burst into tears every time I see a mother and child. My doctor saw the depression the abortion caused me and put me on anti-depressants. They help somewhat, they keep suicide at bay but they don't numb my longing to be a mother, to experience pregnancy in its fullness. I grieve daily as I realize my heart's desire will never be possible, especially now that I am in perimenopause which I didn't expect to happen for 10 years or so. I blew it! I often think that my child could have been the one to discover the cure for multiple sclerosis and freed me from the scars that still have not been remyelinated. My child could have found the cure to cancer, rheumatoid arthritis, heart disease or the countless other diseases that are waiting for their secrets to be unlocked. I expected myself to have the type of family I had grown up with. Sports games to go to, report cards to celebrate, family vacations to go on, dinner tables to be sat around eating and playing games. Yes, I thought I had so much time to become a mother, why didn't somebody point out that the tissue I had growing in me really was a child? They sugar-coated the truth so I could go on my merry way and have the vacation of my life. Was it worth it? NEVER!!! Please don't let them do that to any other young, confused woman. Nothing could ever be worth killing a baby over.

Thank you for listening and trying to stop these terrible slaughters - S.T.

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion.

The State of Nebraska

County of Washington

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared J. H. (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Sioux Falls, SD 5/2/1984
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? The clinic showed me a video tape but I have no recollection of its contents. I don't think I was told of any possible bad side effects.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? A part of my soul was ripped from me that day. The clinic deliberately turned the sonogram screen away from me, so I wouldn't see the baby + change my mind. I remember the clinic demanding that payment be made. Like protestors + they specifically told me to ignore the protestors + go directly to my car without speaking to them. I had post-traumatic stress syndrome a year later.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My sisters grieved when I told them. My husband knew + understands. An ex-girlfriend aborted his baby without his knowledge. He still grieves that loss.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? You may think it is a quick fix + it will solve your problem. What they don't tell you is the guilt you'll have the rest of your life. The suicidal thoughts, the agony of "what if", knowing you are a murderer.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? This is murder of the most innocent of creatures, the most helpless Americans who need our protection. Doctors can go to extreme lengths to save a premature baby, while others kill them through abortion. One way would be murder if someone killed a wanted baby, but it's a choice if the baby isn't wanted.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: New York state June 22nd 1989
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?
no, I was only told of how the procedure would happen.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? no Have you had breast cancer? no
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? my boyfriend at the time
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? depression, anger, lack of trust in others. It took me 12 years to understand that I had killed my own child. I was confused about how my choice would matter. I didn't want to believe that I killed a real baby, but that it was only a blob of tissue. No one around me tried to tell me otherwise. It was ok to have an abortion because it is legal. How screwed up is that! Murder is not legal! So how could I have been allowed to make such a deadly choice.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? People don't know the real me. I come off as cold, so others won't care about me. My family has been deprived of a child to love and know.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? listen for a heart beat, get an ultrasound, do something to find out how real this child is. Think past the pain of right now and think about life without this child in the future.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? that my child is gone, never to have a chance to live, love, care, hurt grow, or even hold my hand. The courts made my choice to destroy another living being too easy, too convenient, too deadly!

2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: no. The 'counsellor' said, 'you seem sad' I said yes and started crying. She then gave me a little white pill and said, 'Here, this will relax you!'

9. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? not only is a human life taken, but women are suffering severe emotional and physical after effects from abortion. - 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Fall of 1992
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO. I was not informed of any health consequences other than a little cramping. I was told I might be a little sad, but nothing of the depression, guilt, ect.
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? NO Have you had breast cancer? _____
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I have suffered both physical affects as well as emotional affects due to my abortion. For years I was unable to really love my children. I would go through the motions but how could I love them after I murdered that sibling? I have suffered with depression and crippling guilt. My abortion has affected every relationship I have. Nobody told me this abortion would change my life for the worse. Nobody told me more than ~~my~~ life would end. Physically I have suffered terrible pelvic pain due to heavy scarring caused by the abortion.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? The abortion has affected the way I related to my husband and my children. For a very long time I was unable to love and show affection to my children and husband, I was unable to be to mother and wife they needed.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Abortion is brutal procedure, both physically and emotionally, with long lasting consequences. You will never be the same physically or emotionally after a abortion. Nothing good can come from you taking the life of your child, it may not seem like a child now, but in the future this baby will be very real.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion is a brutal act that ~~has~~ has many victims. We justify this act by telling ourselves this baby isn't alive but dead things don't grow. Just because a ~~being~~ ~~is~~ ~~in~~ ~~the~~ ~~process~~ ~~of~~ ~~life~~ ~~is~~ ~~unwanted~~ ~~does~~ ~~not~~ ~~mean~~ ~~we~~ ~~give~~ ~~anyone~~ ~~the~~ ~~right~~ ~~to~~ ~~end~~ ~~it~~. Heidi L. Swanson

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Heidi L. Swanson (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: June 1983 in Boulder, Colorado
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I was not given any information about the procedure. My counseling time consisted of a request to sign a petition to allow an abortion clinic to be put in western Nebraska. The doctor never even told me his name nor introduced himself. He just entered the room, performed the abortion and left.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? The abortion clinic by way of not helping me, forced me to go through the abortion. After the laminar sticks were inserted, I left for the day and was told to return the next day for the abortion. That evening I called the hotline and told the attendant that I had changed my mind and wanted to keep my baby. They told me that I couldn't change my mind and that my baby was already dead. I believed they lied. They should have helped me save my baby.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? Physically it injured my cervix. It would not dilate even after pitocin and prostaglandin was used. I've had 3 c-sections. Emotionally, it sucked the life from me. All of my future plans were lost, not because of a pregnancy anymore but because of the lack of zeal for life. One of the reasons why I got an abortion was to save my basketball scholarship but after finishing one season I quit the sport. The next fall I dropped out of college completely. I fought nightmares of having my children die while I stood helplessly by trying to save them but couldn't. I desperately tried to get married to anyone so I could have a baby and try to undo the horrible thing I had done.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My parents were deeply grieved by my choice. It put a great strain our relationship. They mourn for their lost grandchild and were tormented with anger. My husband had to pay higher medical costs for the C-sections of our children. He must also pay for the additional breast exams due to my increased risk of breast cancer.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Abortion will not make her crisis pregnancy go away. The physical and emotional side effects of abortion last a lifetime. If you do not want to parent your child please consider adoption. Although giving your child away may seem very painful it is never as painful as killing your child. A pregnancy will change your life no matter what option you chose to deal with it: parenting, abortion or adoption. All three choices will remain with you but only abortion leaves you with sadness, regret, and painful side effects. It kills your baby and leaves you injured for life.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion is not a simple solution. It is fatal to our children and very harmful to our women. We have other options that are viable that do not leave life long scarring.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared D. [redacted] S. B. [redacted] (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Spring of 1977 Greeley CO
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? IT KNEW abortion would end my pregnancy. I do not recall being informed of any details nor consequences
- 3) Were you informed of my link between abortion and breast cancer? No Have you had breast cancer? No
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? _____ If so, who? Not really pressure. The father of the baby encouraged me to have the abortion and he paid for it.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? It has caused me immense pain, guilt, shame and self loathing. Those emotions I tried to deny and hide for 24 years. I turned to drugs and alcohol (heavily) for relief. I became even more promiscuous and depressed. I married the father of my baby out of guilt, not love - that marriage ended after 4 years. I understand now how I exchanged the truth (there was a life growing inside me) for a lie (it's a blob of tissue). This was excruciatingly painful during the abortion when the abortion assistant said "It is a boy." I am still grieving the death of my baby boy. continued ->
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I know it hurt the baby's father. ~~He~~ I have yet to tell my parents and siblings. My husband of 11 years has been very supportive and loving - a man sent by God. We are praying about when and how to tell our boy (10 yrs) and girl (9 yrs).
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Abortion is not an easy way out of your unplanned or unwanted pregnancy. I would tell her what is written above and how my decision to abort my baby has haunted me for 26 years. I would encourage her to choose life for her baby and possibly suggest adoption - not ending her baby's life.

5) Only in coming to accept Jesus as my savior have I been able to face these facts and begin to heal.

8) I would also challenge the courts to consider how legalized abortion, which has been promoted as a "freedom" for women has really served to imprison us in walls of fear, silence, guilt and shame.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Pamela Ruth Brook (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1973 - Lakeport Hosp - 1976 - Stamford Hosp.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No -
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No Have you had breast cancer? No
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? The father of each abortion. & my mother
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? Before I received Christian Counseling - it led me down a path & journey of self hatred & destruction.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It has hurt many and I'm sure for my two children, they wonder who these two children could have grown to be in their life.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? It is totally impossible to estimate the severe emotional, spiritual & sometimes physical damage abortion leaves. I liken abortion to the Jewish Holocaust - your alive physically, but trapped in a concentration camp of your own choosing for life - what is worse is that you've sentenced your child to the gas chamber. Can you live with this? There is always a better solution. Choose life.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? This is a deeply spiritual issue for me, but before (long) I was a Christian, or emotionally able to understand motherhood and or grieving I had 2 abortions. I believe women suffer two ways after abortion. One - since we are spiritual beings we create a separation between us and God, thus living a condemned life; like thinking "I can never be forgiven so why try"? Two - as women we naturally begin a grieving process due to the fact that a natural process of child bearing was interrupted and we live in that process rather than heal from it.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared HEATHER M. BUFF (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

I felt absolutely alone.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Aug. 8, 1989
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? Not fully, they told me about scraping & bleeding, but they also said it was only a lump of tissue, not a baby. They didn't tell me how I might feel emotionally.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Sort of. If so, who? I told myself my boyfriend would resent me for having the baby so young & his parents would break us up. I read Cosmopolitan & it said to be independent, go to college, have a baby later.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I was a bitter & angry person afterwards for over 10 years. I blamed my husband to be for not talking me out of it. I was mad at the clinic for not helping me talk to my parents who might have given me an alternative. I thought about the abortion everyday, it haunted me, I kept calculating how old my child would be as the years went on. Through a Christian recovery Bible study I've stopped hating myself & now I'm counseling other women to give them the facts or help them have someone to talk to if they are post-abortion.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I married the father of the baby. It strained our relationship for over 10 years until I got counseling. My parents have missed out on a grandchild. I still haven't been able to tell my in-laws, keeping a secret keeps us from being close.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? It's not just tissue, it's a life God created because he wants to bless you. If you're more concerned about yourself right now think about the risks of breast cancer or permanent uterine damage. If your boyfriend really loves you he would love the baby too.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? As a first step I would recommend demand that every woman be given the facts all the medical & emotional facts so she can actually make an informed decision. Ultimately, abortion should not be legal because it is a life that is being taken. If that isn't sacred then what is?

- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Indirectly If so, who? My parents told me if I ever got pregnant they would kick me out of the house and my boyfriend expected me to have it done. My boyfriend wasn't there; his friend took me.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I grieved the loss, murder of my child so much that I would have preferred death. I wanted my baby back so desperately that I purposefully got myself pregnant and had twins (March 19, 1995). One boy + one girl. It was psychologically more devastating than being molested and sexually abused by my biological father. The abortion will be with me for the rest of my life. I have already begun ingraining in my children that sex is for marriage and marriage alone. I always fear that I won't be able to have more children.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband - not my twin's biological father - wonders the same. The father of my dead baby is haunted by her (the babies) death. He said he wishes I would have walked out. He said it was his biggest regret.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? even if it's rape - give the baby up for adoption. If it's incest pray about it
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Explain to me why I was legally able to murder my child but if I had killed my father who had molested me at seven yrs of age and then sexually abused me when I was 12 to about 16 - almost 17, I would have been sentenced. Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Christian Marie Onaley, (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is Christian Marie Onaley (Print Name). My address is

[Redacted Address]
My telephone number and e-mail address is [Redacted]. I am over the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

I grew up in a dysfunctional family. My dad sexually abused me for a fairly long time. Not until I realized he was hurting my sister in the same way did I decide to tell on him. However, it had stopped by the time I was 17; probably because I had a boyfriend with whom my parents found out I was having sex. Both my parents told me if I got pregnant they would kick me out. Like most young kids I didn't think I would get pregnant so I didn't think I had a reason to worry about being kicked out. One evening I forced my boyfriend to talk to me about it. The issue had to be pressed; he didn't want to talk about the possibility that it could happen. In a matter of seconds, we both agreed that an abortion was the course of action we would take. Little did I know...

One morning I woke up and felt nauseous as I rolled myself out of bed. I'm not sure how long it took me after this but my boyfriend bought me a pregnancy test, which left me unsure because the color was purple instead of pink as the directions said it would be. So I went back and purchased another one. This time I knew it positive. It's "funny" how everything changed for me emotionally. Suddenly, I didn't want an abortion; it didn't seem as flip and unimportant as it was made out to be. But I had to get one. What else could I do? I didn't want to get kicked out; and I didn't think my boyfriend would have anything to do with me if I had to go through it.

We had the day of the abortion planned out - to keep it a secret from everyone. The Saturday of the abortion my boyfriend had baseball tryouts and thought he had the chance to be a starter. So I told my parents that me and his friend were going to follow him in the bus to try outs. So the day of the abortion, his friend drove me to the clinic. It was pretty early in the morning. I don't even remember getting ready. The abortion experience was worse than being abused. I sat there in the waiting room which was smaller than I expected desiring to leave - so desperately! But I felt trapped and alone. After sitting for about 45 mins, at least, I was taken into the office connected to the little lobby where I handed the man the cash for the "procedure". Then, I was ushered to the same room again to wait even longer. Eventually, I was taken to another room where the lady explained that I would get changed into a hospital gown. I don't remember much else said. It was a short meeting. I was told about any risks involved or the specifics of what the "doctor" would do. From that room I was led down the short hall to an open waiting room - much smaller - on the left side where I changed into the gown behind a cloth dressing room. In what seemed like hours later, I was finally taken into a room with a doctor/hospital examining table. I think I remember being injected with something inside of me to cause numbness; but I'm not sure. Then, I hear a very loud vacuum noise & the most immense, intense pain I have ever felt. The "procedure" lasted about 5 mins, probably, I was given some pink stuff to drink - antibiotic I think. Then about 1 hr later I was discharged and still in a lot of pain. From the time I walked in the door to the time I walked out, I probably spent at least 5 hrs there. I suffered the most emotionally.

Please return to: Texas Justice Foundation, 8122 Datapoint, Suite 812, San Antonio, TX 78229

I hated myself, hated what I did & wanted my baby back! I know and still believe I'd of had a girl. It was the most bitter and depressing time of my life. No anguish can compare. I'll carry the scar with me for the rest of my life; even though I now I've been forgiven by God. There are days when I have to forgive myself all over again. Now I have twins - boy & girl. I was so anguished I purposefully got pregnant when I was 19. They were born in '95 & will be 8 on March 19. I worry that when my husband & I want to try for our own that I won't be able to. Des + Eric (twins) are not his biological children. We pray that we will be blessed with 3 healthy children. After all God is gracious, merciful & forgiving as shown to me by my twins.

I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

- 6) How has your abortion affected you? It has shown me what the value of life is and what a big mistake I've made. I regret that I ^{really} took a life and can't get it back. I don't know why, but God has blessed me with 2 boys after having an abortion.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I mostly kept the abortion a secret from most people. I know I am very sure they're sad for the child that was taken - they really haven't shared too much with me on their views.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Please don't have an abortion, you'll regret having one for the rest of your life. The child deserves a chance even if you not ready for a baby. You can always give it up for adoption.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Lyn Curtin (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- I have had 2 abortions. The first in March of 1988 at Preterm Clinic in Brookline, MA. The other in August of 1991 at Repro ML Brookline, MA.
- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: at Preterm Clinic in Brookline, MA. The other in August of 1991 at Repro ML Brookline, MA.
 - 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I was not adequately informed of the nature or consequences of my abortions. No health issues were addressed other than prevention of infection & absolutely no mental consequences.
 - 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? The father of my child made it clear to me that there would be "no baby" & thought he might change his mind so I waited. He did not change his mind. I was 12 wks pregnant when I had my abortion... I was afraid I'd lose him.
 - 5) How has your abortion affected you? When I had my 1st abortion, it was not what I had wanted to do. I really wanted that baby, but he didn't. I was afraid that I would lose him & hurt my parents. When I went for the abortion, they send you to a "counselor". I cried & cried in the office. The only counseling I received there was the admonition that if I did not stop crying they "wouldn't be able to give me an abortion". Pro-choice people give a fearful woman the impression that they can make her problem go away. So he grab it. The problem is you later realize, it was a quick fix. Your pregnancy never goes away just the baby does - you are left alone to deal with that guilt forever. You can never bring that baby back when you realize late - I realized that although those babies were never born, they still existed there was a life snuffed out, by my own act my own children will never be. That is an excruciating thing to search buried within yourself.
 - 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? that what you did was done out of fear, it's too late - I realized that although those babies were never born, they still existed there was a life snuffed out, by my own act my own children will never be. That is an excruciating thing to search buried within yourself.
 - 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? First, I would tell her how sorry I am and that she is loved & that she is under a tool & that she's not a bad person for considering abortion. Fear drives people to dark places. Abortion is a very dark place. Every woman who has ever had an abortion knows that when you get up off that table and walk out of that room, you leave a piece of yourself behind that you can never get back.
 - 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would tell the court that abortion's biggest lie is that it helps women maintain control of their own destiny & body. Women who get abortions do so out of fear, a need to escape a reality that they don't feel that they can deal with - they are ensnared by people who, by saying that they are helping, offer them an easy way out. There are no easy ways out. There are consequences for every action. If abortion is truly not just the baby who pays those consequences... we are still mothers to the children & we have to live with them.

I was told there was "some talk of a connection" but that there was no evidence & that it was probably a scare tactic of the anti-abortion protesters.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Sept. 1979 a clinic in Brookline, Mass.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No. I was not told about the amount of physical pain I would endure. Alternatives were not presented. I was not informed of the long-term emotional pain.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? AD If so, who? _____
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? Over the past 2 decades I kept my abortion a secret. I felt so guilty & ashamed I kept it hidden. Making open honest relationships with people difficult. The pain grew so overwhelming that I sought help. I finally told my husband and our Pastor, and one woman who was becoming a close friend. She had been a PRC Director. I went to the local PRC for the forgiven & set free Bible Study. It was a wonderful help.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband was very understanding. However, I don't have any other children. That was my only child. Who knew!
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? The pain of abortion will only grow as the years go by. Emotionally, mentally, spiritually it will become a heavier, darker burden than having your child & parenting or releasing for adoption. (with overbo)
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? They are wrong. Having the right to choose does not mean that I'm making the right choice either at that moment or for the rest of my life. Women need support & services. Adoption should be encouraged by the courts, government & society. People need to stop lying to themselves & others that it's only a bunch of cells - how can a dynamic act (that)

They called me later in PM with a positive test + booked me for an abortion Monday AM. I had no time to think about. Before the abortion they briefly mentioned what I might experience that I would feel a lot better after.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? Absolutely not!!! I began hemorrhaging ^{this} a few days later. They told me to get right in (1 hour away). They left piece of baby inside. I had to be on antibiotics also for infection. None of post-abortion
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Sometimes If so, who? When the pregnancy test or mentioned proved positive, I was convinced by woman working at clinic to have abortion. No other option was discussed or mentioned.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? From the day I walked out of the clinic after the abortion, I was never the same. It felt like part of me had died. I became gradually depressed - later becoming severe - I became anorexic, bulimic, severely depressed + suicidal. I hated being around children after this. I felt much guilt + shame. 9 yrs. later I went for inner healing - I was walked through process of grief.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It affected my marriage greatly. After 1 year I almost left my husband; but was able to get inner healing at this time. I was advised to stay in marriage. It was the abortion - (9 yrs. later) that was the problem.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? That before she make this decision, she should get counsel from someone who would tell her the whole truth. The abortion industry doesn't give the truth. The volunteers at the crisis pregnancy centers do. You need all the facts before you can make a

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion.

The State of NH

County of Hillsborough

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared [redacted] V [redacted] (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1982; Concord, NH
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? As far as I can remember - yes with regards to the procedure - no as to how my baby was already developed
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No If so, who? _____

5) How has your abortion affected you? I had immediate regret after my abortion. I had always longed to have been strong enough to choose adoption - but abortion seemed so easy, secret, + available. I lived with the remorse in silence. I have believed and still do believe that abortion is murder. I didn't know at the time that my baby's heart was already beating and she had arms + legs. I will always live with the fact that I am a murderer - that's hard.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I have not told anyone close to me except my husband. He is sympathetic to my feelings. He was not the father.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Don't do it! It is easier to live with giving up a live baby than to have a part in killing one. It will not make everything better. You can still have the life you dream of. You will love your child even though he is unplanned.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion is murder. A woman murders her baby for the same reasons an adult might murder another - to hide something, selfish desires, panic, to keep a live relationship from ending etc. It is the same and the unborn need to be represented.

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: It happened in the late spring, early summer of 1979.

It occurred around Boston Mass. Brookline I believe.

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?

Absolutely not! I had no idea of the physical, psychological or spiritual ramifications that I would have to endure.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? Yes, my boyfriend. I wanted an older woman to take me out of state to have my baby but there was no one there. Why did I do the abortion. Clinic gave me other options and help? They told me it was just tissue. They lied. I was 12 weeks pregnant. I know now what a weeks fetus looks like. It's not tissue. They lied.

5) How has your abortion affected you?

In every aspect of my life. After the abortion I became very depressed and contemplated suicide. I began to drink heavily and use drugs to numb my feelings. I hated everyone and mistrusted everyone. It has taken me decades and lots of hard work to start the healing process.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?

After I was married I became pregnant. My husband and I were very excited. Unfortunately my son John was born premature. He lived 24 hours. After that I saw a specialist to see if I could ever have a child. Also to find out what happened. I was told I had an incompetent cervix as a result of the abortion I had had. It would be "if" if I could ever carry a

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Child, to full term.

It's a night mare that seems to never end! It will affect how you relate with other people and relationships in a negative way. The pain of murdering your child (not tissue, like you are told at the laboratory clinic) will kill you too. Your life after an abortion is like slow suicide.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

If abortion wasn't legal I wouldn't have had one. By making it legal you made it OK for a girl to be pressured into having one. I know many women (I know have told me) if it wasn't legal they would have carried their child full term. In secret just laborer women have to carry around their mourning and grief for their child forever. The tears never stop. The pain is almost unbearable.

My name is Kelly Roy. This is my testimony of what abortion did to me.

Six years ago I was pregnant with my second child. Out of fear and under pressure I made an appointment for an abortion. I didn't really want to have an abortion. The day of my appointment I went to the abortion facility very scared. I filled out paperwork and had a blood test to make sure I was pregnant. A woman verified that I was at least 8 weeks pregnant because they didn't do abortions before that. I sat in a waiting room until a "counselor" came to get me. This woman told me things about my body I already knew and referred to the baby as a blob of tissue. My "counseling" consisted only of facts and telling me I was doing the right thing- no other options were even mentioned.

I was told the procedure would include mild cramping. I didn't meet with the abortionist and only saw her when she came into the room to do the abortion. The procedure was excruciatingly painful despite what they told me. I wept aloud on the table. After the procedure was over I was brought into a recovery room and given ginger ale and cookies. I was given a prescription for birth control and sent home.

Two days after the abortion I was at home by myself and was cramping severely. I went into the bathroom and felt as though I had passed something. I looked down and to my horror was a fully formed baby in my hand. I saw my baby's hands, fingers, feet and small translucent body. It was not a blob of tissue like the people at the abortion facility said. They lied to me. I was mortified and didn't know what to do. I called the abortion facility that I had gone to and the only thing the woman said was, "oh that's too bad," and she hung up on me. They didn't care at all if I was bleeding and didn't tell me to seek medical attention.

I was so traumatized by the whole experience that I shut down emotionally. I stopped eating, stopped going to college and just stopped caring in general. I lost weight and became depressed and eventually developed stomach problems that would cause such pain that I would pass out from it. I lived life almost like a zombie, just getting by each day- until I got the help I needed to recover from my abortion.

When women are suffering from post abortion stress syndrome and have to recover from abortions, then it cannot possibly be good for women. I tell my story to let people know the truth- abortion hurts women and in the hopes that someone will put a stop to this and not only protect children but the women as well.

Marion Thornton's Testimony

In December of 1996, I had an abortion, from that day on my life was never the same. I was not married to the father of the baby I aborted at that time; we married a couple years later. He was divorced, so was I. I had one child from a previous marriage he had 4 from previous marriages, he did not want any more children, because he had his hands full paying child support for his other kids. I never thought after my first daughter that I would get pregnant again as it was hard for me to conceive the first time. But it happened; I was pregnant, which really surprised me. When we finally to the first early pregnancy test and it came out positive, we then went to Planned Parenthood, where they confirmed it I was pregnant, I look back now and wished Planned Parenthood had offered more information in on how to get information on help for crisis pregnancy, not just send you on your way. My husband (boyfriend) at that time said that he could not figure out a way that we could possibly keep the child, so we talked and talked, but it was the same result every time. So an appointment was made at the women's feminist health Center/Concord NH for the abortion, I will never forget what it was like that day. There was a room full of women there, I was in my early 30's but there were all ages there, some women were telling other's how they were there for there second or third abortion. I was sitting there thinking what I am doing there. We were all herded like animals from room to room until I heard my name. I will never forget the room, the sound of the suction machine, the joking the doctor was doing with a nurse, it was terrible. After that day, I started to change into something I did not recognize, I felt numb, replayed in my head the abortion, guilt, anger, insomnia, remember anniversary every year of the abortion, did not want to be around babies, and the list goes on, that was just a few things that were happening. I felt like I was out of my mind. My husband could not understand what was wrong with me, he wanted me to snap out of it, but I did not know how. I became a shell with nothing inside.

Years went by but it just got worse. In 2004 my husband died, that is when I finally forgave my husband for his part in the abortion, but I could not forgive myself, I believe the Lord was watching over me as I believe the Lord helped me to take the first steps back into a church. I up until the point where I walked into the church, I did not think I could be forgiven by God for what I had done, but after talking with the pastor, and confessing my sins my life changed. I finally was making steps toward healing, but I still had a problem with forgiving myself. So one day I was down at Grace Ministries, and a woman named Kelly Roy gave a testimony about her abortion, it broke the floodgates inside me. She was saying what I could not. I talked to her afterwards and she helped get me into a Post-abortion bible study and it has changed my life, through the forgiven and set free bible study I have learned to let my child go and know she is with Jesus, I believe it was a girl, and when my husband was alive he gave her a name and so did I, her name is Siobhan Kelley Thornton. I was not allowed to talk about my abortion when my husband was alive to anybody. There were only a few people that knew. However, on his deathbed we did talk about the abortion, the child. He was about to tell his family but a hospice lady interrupted him and he never got to, as he went down hill after that and died. I believe he is ok with me telling this testimony. I told him he could leave us here on earth because he had a daughter who was waiting for him up therewith God in heaven. Therefore, I do no longer have to be silent anymore when it comes to abortion. I want every woman to know there are options and help out there and abortion is not the answer. There is nothing good about abortion, it destroys, and I can attest to the destruction it has done in my life, my marriage, mentally, family, and this list goes on.

I want to help in any way I can to let women know that abortion is taking away a life, and it did affect me. Moreover, I cannot stay silent anymore.

Thank you for taking the time to read this

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: Hackensack Medical Cntr August 4, 1988
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? No If not, explain: I told them I did not want an abortion and was treated like a pariah by the doctor hospital and f.o.baby. They wouldn't talk to me - only the baby's father (he was paying) The doctor told me "it was no big deal - you'll get over it"
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No I was told there was none of course by my boyfriend + society, but also by a well-respected doctor and hospital.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? Stephen G. Donegan, the father of my baby and Dr. Perianne Petras, my ob-gyn
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? It replays in my mind 24 hrs a day. Seeing children, pregnant women hurts. I've lost my best friend because of my child. I don't trust doctors (being a diabetic, that's rough) I don't trust hospitals. I cry every day. I have no forgiveness for myself - I feel that I should have been able to stop them - since telling them to stop didn't matter
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I don't let other people into my life. Only dogs + cats. I don't trust easily. I don't forgive myself for not fighting harder - it shouldn't be that way.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? That it's a child that's being terminated, not a pregnancy. That there are alternatives to having an abortion, and that a man's rights should never outweigh a woman's rights. Pro-abortionists usually have never had to suffer one themselves.
- 9) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I was always a firm believer in a woman's rights - until I found out the hard way that pro-choice only means pro-abortion. It should be pro-abortion and anti-abortion, not pro-choice vs. pro-life. No one cared about my choice, no one cared about my rights.

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion

The State of New Jersey
County of Camden

JUN 23 2003

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Brenda Hallahan (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: August, 1977 Philadelphia Pa.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO If not, explain: I went to Planned Parenthood and requested an abortion. I was not given any information except where to go and when to be there. No one even asked if I was sure I wanted to do this.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No Basically I was told it would be a quick and easy procedure.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? It wasn't until I had children that I realized I had taken a life. I had bought into the lie that this would end a pregnancy, but no life was involved. There's a lot of guilt and sorrow knowing you ended the life of your own child just for your own convenience.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Not that I know of.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? Don't do it. You will regret it for the rest of your life. Just because you can't see your child, it is alive, it is living and growing. Put your child first and choose life.
- 9) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Anyone who thinks someone has the right to take someone else's life just because they have control over the situation is grossly wrong. This is as much a holocaust as what Hitler did to those he determined were unwanted. Women have been lied to for too long. Life is beautiful and our babies are alive and we must stop being selfish and give them life.

- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? It's not an easy quick procedure. It will stay with you forever

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared M [redacted] P. K [redacted] (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Atlantic City NJ Jan '76, June '79 - Paoli, PA.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I knew the procedures being done - what they were. I was not informed of the consequences of abortion either times.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? no If so, who? _____

5) How has your abortion affected you? I still have feelings of shame + guilt. It wasn't until recently that I confided in a woman at our church who volunteers at a crisis pregnancy center + told her story at National Right to Life Day during a church service. None of my family members know of my abortions, except my husband who was the father of both babies. I know God has forgiven me, but I don't think I've forgiven myself.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband + I rarely speak of them. I feel he too carries guilt, but he was not as affected by them as I was. He has read through a father's healing Bible study book, maybe that helped him also.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Not to have it. There are other options that are life giving - not life taking. To have to live with the fact that I have murdered 2 babies weighs heavy on my soul, especially to teenagers, I say. It's NOT the answer! It's not the solution! It's death!

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Ask the mother who has had a miscarriage what she lost - A baby or just tissue? Ask the woman who is infertile what she longs for; to feel the life growing within her or an empty womb? Ask the woman who has had an abortion what she feels like after her baby's life has been torn from her womb, and you will clearly see that abortion is not the answer - it's just a cover-up - a quick fix - a lie straight from hell that destroys lives - Those of the baby, the mother, the father + the family.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: GRAND AVE. ENGLEWOOD N.J. APRIL 1976
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I had to overcome feelings of Guilt, shame, FEAR. When I walked out of the abortion clinic a piece of me was missing. I was very angry. Afraid of being rejected so I wouldn't let people get close to me. Trouble with intimacy with my husband who was the father of the baby. I kept people at arms length even my 3 children. I became pregnant again August of 1976 and had a daughter MAY 31, 1977. It took me 15 years to begin to deal with the fact that I murdered my child.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I have kept back a part of me from my family. Just this year Jan. 21, 2003 I sold my 3 children. My daughter cried for 1 hour. We haven't talked much about it.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? It's not going to erase your pregnancy. The choice has consequences for life. Everything God created you for as far as nurturing and protecting life is damaged. You will have times of extreme depression, anger suicidal thoughts.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Legalizing a procedure that says murder is lawful is wrong. This procedure affects the mother of the unborn child the father and both their families. People of our nation are so broken and hurting because of abortion. Families are missing or more members because of abortion. There is so much anger bitterness and strife in people because of abortion. Stop the killing of the innocent.

AFFIDAVIT

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Deborah Ann Ocasio (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred: _____
2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: NO
3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? NO
4. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? NO
Have you had breast cancer? NO
5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? not really, the fact that the father didn't seem to care one way or the other and neither did I care about much more than myself.
If so, who? the father and me and the "rights" of the feminist movement I embraced.
6. How has your abortion affected you? I will never forget it. I was bitter and angry for many years and my self and family suffered for it. I was unable to forgive and held a grudge against the father (my husband), unable to be intimate with him and developed addictive behaviors.
7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? I am not able to be a loving mother to my born children at a time when bonding should have been happening. My gram and now is unable to trust and form commitments. Relationships were not sincere on my part.
8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? That aborting their child is not the answer to their problems (including using it as birth control), it is the beginning of problem after problem. Choosing abortion goes against our very "womanhood" and some measure of closing our hearts and suppressing our thoughts will occur to help ourselves deal with killing our own children.
9. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? That abortion is not and never has been about caring about me, but really about making money off of my crisis and natural inclination to self-loathing. Also, so much information is withheld from women and even covered up, making it seem conspiratorial. No information about risks, no information about any affects, and my fears were discounted as most women's are.

I forced myself to work with teens but was suicidal on the anniversary of the baby's death for 10 years my pastor pulled me off the walls with focus on the Lord. I DID NOT SEE A DOCTOR FOR 10 YEARS. - 8) Based upon your experience, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? YOU ARE BETTER OFF FALLING OFF A CLIFF AND DYING THAN HAVING AN ABORTION AND LIVING WITHOUT THE JOYS AND SORROWS YOUR CHILD WOULD HAVE BEEN.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? ABORTION IS A KIDNAP + RAPE THAT KILLS A CHILD. THAT YOU PAY FOR. A MAN ENTERING A WOMAN'S WOMB WITH ILL INTENT HAS JUST RAPED HER. A DOCTOR DOING TO A PATIENT WITHOUT KNOWLEDGE + CONSENT IS KIDNAP. HIPPOCRATIC OATH EXPRESSLY FORBIDS ABORTION. ONLY MISFIT DOCTOR WOULD DO AN ABORTION ON ANYONE.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1980 in a private office in Scotch Plains
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? YES If so, who? MY MOTHER AND DOCTOR
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? It has affected me in so many ways. The ironic thing is after accepting the Lord I have a peace that I am forgiven but I know that there is still some open wounds that I feel will not be mended until my story has been told. I WAS AWAKE DURING ONE OF MY ABORTIONS.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? YES MY CHILDREN I FELT THAT THEY WERE READY TO HEAR THE TRUTH AND IT HURTS THEM TO KNOW THEY WOULD HAVE HAD A BROTHER OR SISTER.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I VOLUNTEERED IN A PREG. CENTER FOR 5 YEARS, I HAVE SHARED MANY THINGS, BUT THE MOST IMPORTANT THING I WOULD SAY TO A WOMEN CONSIDERING ABORTION IS TO GET THE FACTS, SEE A FILM & ALSO TO TELL HER THAT BEFORE YOU WERE CONCEIVED (I CAN KNOW YOU & HE LOVES YOU).

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day appeared Thelma A. Barreto, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) When and where did your abortion occur? 1989 - Englewood, N.J.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? (Check One) Yes No If no, explain: Just explained that a "mass" (of tissue) would be removed.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? Absolutely Not.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Yes No Have you had breast cancer? Yes No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes No If yes, who?
- 6) How has abortion affected you? Emotionally abortion was very very difficult to handle. The waves of guilt would follow me for weeks and years of which I could turn back time and not had one. It is made to sound like nothing more than a medical procedure to remove tissue. Truthfully, however abortion is the abrupt killing of a life before the baby knows to pull from and delivery. Once the egg and sperm meet life is formed - not a mass of tissue! That baby is formed and alive at the earliest of days.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Caused deep grief to my ex-husband and others that knew.
- 8) Based upon your experience, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? To consider adoption before abortion. Abortion interferes with the natural order of procreation. It is not intended to help - it hurts and goes on "killing" (emotional + physical at times) long after.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would tell the court that abortion is the equivalent of murder, therefore, why consider it to be legal! There are innocent lives that cannot defend themselves. Someone has to cry out on their behalf!

This is what came to me when I was praying about whether I should accept the opportunity to do this testimonial...

- Pride will be one of my hardest struggles. As I learn more about the meaning of "pride" I'm realizing that it's not self pity or saying you're not worthy. It's anytime I am more concerned with myself than with God. Remind myself to be humble and not to seek the praise, approval, pity or any emotion from my fellow man. This testimonial is not about me, it's about showing the glory of God with my life.

I started to list out my life before Christ, and I realized that a detailed list of the past won't adequately describe anything. So I've decided to show a glimpse of the person I was with some excerpts from my old journal. Bear with me....I know some of you have heard some of these already. This is Thelma BC...

- There's this overwhelming deadness in me sometimes which I can only describe as human pain. All of my organs are twisted and drop to the pit of my stomach. My heart is hollow. I see no beauty in myself.
- I actually thought of killing myself. I know it's wrong, I know what's right, yet I can't achieve it. Everyone says that no one can really love you until you love yourself. Well someone convince that girl inside of me of that fact because she's still sitting inside waiting to be saved by someone. She can't feel herself unless she's loved by another. She doesn't know her worth unless someone tells her. She should know, but she doesn't and she can't grasp that concept. Why am I so useless?
- What do I want? I want to be enveloped in the soft folds of my guardian angel's wings. The melodic words "Everything will be okay" whispered in the breeze. The warmth of my angel's love penetrates every particle of my being and at last I feel healed. I feel peace. I feel secure in my own skin. Protected forever and always from the darkness of human nature.
- I'm getting that feeling again...that feeling I've tried over and over again to explain and express but am never successful. All of my internal organs collapse and fall to the pit of my stomach as the rest of my body cringes in nervous pain. Tension is everywhere and I feel like someone has instantaneously tied me up into a million knots. I can't breathe. It felt like this when he was on top. I thought he'd never finish, it would never end. ~~I began to pray and beg for it to kill me, instead I had to smile and pretend I was enjoying it. But I had to be careful because if I acted like I enjoyed it to much an accusation would immediately follow.~~ Why did it bring him so much satisfaction to hurt me? Constant need of approval and always looking for ways to prove my love for him. Begging for affection like a worthless animal. No other form of humiliation could be worse. Why do such atrocities exist in human nature? How could the creator of endless remarkable wondrous things also create monsters of the dark? I guess if there were no hell then there would be no heaven. Even so, please show me the way out of this hell and into my heaven. I want to just fall into a cloud and never surface again.
- Each time since has been a self masochistic way of reliving it, reliving the pain, degradation, and torture. I'm torturing myself by turning any relationship I have into an abusive one towards myself. Hoping that the next person who hurts me will hurt me enough to push me over the edge and finally give me enough hate to end it all. Help me...all I want is to drink myself into oblivion and pass out so that my brain and body would cease to function. How many pills would it take to leave this world in the least amount of pain?

- Here is my own personal definition of the term "love": the gift of unconditional caring and giving, unselfish, true, honest, never-ending trust embodied in one unspeakable emotion which (when real) is felt in every given moment much more than it is ever said. This is my humble opinion. By this definition I don't think I've had the privilege to experience such an emotion at this point in my life. Though I loved the child I killed. My baby will forever be with me, living inside of me, sharing my heart. I don't care if it was only a month, it lived in me. Sometimes I imagine what my life would be like today if my choice were different: I wouldn't finish school, I would have left him for the sake of my child, I would endure shame from others but that would not compare with the shame I feel at this very moment. I would be working and trying to support my child. My freedom will be gone, but I live in my own prison today of guilt and emotional turmoil. There was no reason good enough for me to kill my baby. I murdered for the worst reasons...selfish, pride, and I was weak, too weak to stand up for my child's life. I killed my love and I don't deserve anyone else's.

This is the kind of entry I write nowadays...

- Psalm (50-51) The Lord has no need for any physical sacrifices or offerings for He is the creator of all and everything of this world belongs to Him. By offering to the Lord we are strengthening our faith and trust in Him. Each time we sacrifice an earthly desire we are removing a shackle that keeps us attached to this material world and we come one step closer to Him. How can I sacrifice to God today? This is my sacrifice; I offer to Him my broken spirit, my broken heart, my sins. I hand over to Him...myself. Trusting that He will rebuild and heal me and all I need from this day forth is to draw from Him and His love, to see myself through His eyes.
- Matthew (15) What goes into our mouths, what we eat, see, touch, these do not matter, do not make us unclean. Including what has been done to us, our past, and our experiences. It's what comes out of us, what we choose to learn to keep from these experiences that will determine whether we are unclean or clean. Make sure that everything we teach, speak, and absorb from our walks throughout life be clean.
- John (3:10-15) Why is it so hard for people to believe in God, His miracles, His teachings? We believe so easily in other things we cannot see, hear, touch, or see. We believe in science and our teachers. Is it because men are born of a sinful nature and it's always easier for us to fall into sin than to climb the mountain of righteousness? But to fall is to fall into nothing but darkness and the reward of climbing the highest mountain is unparalleled beauty.

I am undeserving and I am unworthy of His love, but it has been given to me. That's how great He is, and I will not forsake Him and His love. I will be grateful and cherish it, for He has cherished me and saved me not just once but three times. Once when He protected me in my mother's womb and moved her to give birth to me, once when He would not let me take my own life, and once when He touched me with His spirit so that I may follow Him the rest of eternity and never be lost again. Thank You Jesus. Thank You God. I Love You.

The first time I was brought to TCC, I remember the person who brought me asked me "so who's Thelma? I never got to know you, tell me about yourself" or something along those lines. Of course I went into the whole explanation of myself, the whole list of facts and events that I spared all of you from hearing today. I don't know if he remembers this part but he rudely interrupted me and said rather loudly "Thelma! You don't know everything. You have no idea." A part of me for the most part was really insulted and irritated although I didn't show it, and another part of me was stirred because I knew it was absolutely true. I was full of BS and I had formulated this perception and idea of who I was with the lies that surrounded me, what had been done to me, the mistakes that I've made, and the people around me. Thank you for showing me otherwise. I am eternally grateful for that and for everything I learned and will continue to learn from everyone around me, most importantly God.

I am so grateful, humbled, appreciative of everything now...every moment that I have in this life. Included the past because God was with me the whole time and He knew that all that happened to me would help me today with my understanding. Within this last month alone I have been blessed and graced with a lifetime, to have felt Him and be at complete peace for even one brief moment is enough for me to seek Him for the rest of eternity no matter what hardships, grief, or pain I will be dealt in this life. Some people have asked me what its like or why and my answer is that it was like living in house where the only light available was artificial light...light bulbs that could burn out at any moment and you are left in fear and darkness again. God is sunlight, real light that will never fail and is constant, warm, joy, life. Day after day it will be there...some days it may be hard to see or feel...but you know that its there. The amazing thing is that all anybody needs to do is to open the door and walk out of your house. I was at the camp for a day in Ojai and I asked, "What is it? Is it a conscious leap of faith or is it an undeniable rude awakening?" Honestly I still don't have a complete answer and no one can ever have a complete answer because we are human and full of folly and whatever my interpretation of what knowledge I receive from God, its still only my interpretation. Seek Him, seek life and you will find an answer. From my minimal understanding and my experience, for me it was a perfect combination of both. And it's a never-ending process. Each time I freely and willingly take a step further to seek Him, I receive immeasurable amounts of "undeniable rude-awakenings". He awes me and fuels me to seek Him further. In God I have found my floor, light, air, life.

KeeGee: I found my floor.

Mommie: You don't have to worry about me anymore. I finally know how to love myself and everyone else. I'm so thankful to you and daddy. I'm so thankful to the Lord for blessing me with being born to you.

SCH RULES! JESUS #1!

I've had two abortions in the 1980's. The children were conceived with love but destroyed on the basis, of not knowing more what shall be done for them and me. I've always thought getting pregnant was impossible. Until the year 2000 in which I conceived my first child. During the five years my emotions was so confusing, thinking I have post-partum Depression

I can "get rid of the memories, one can see what about, the ones in your head"

The mental break down occurred 1980-1982. In which I conceived two children with love. But aborted the two with the input of the babies father and my mother. Then 1983-1988 endured three years of College at Rutgers-21 University.

Meet the father of the kids in 1979-1980. Built a relationship from then until 6-1983. Then departed because I did not want to have sex. Just finish having my second abortion, which then had two abortions in the year of 1979-1983.

Felt as though we both was not financially ready. I was not working neither was he. Both still living with parents. Also wanted to further my education. He just came from down south, Georgia to Newk NJ. Not sure what his goals were. He just ed hated his mother. That was a no no in my world. Believe sister ~~she~~ introduced him to his wife.

His Brother ~~she~~ informed me the summer or fall of 1983, that He ~~and his wife~~ was pregnant. Then my sister ~~she~~ same year informed me that he was getting married.

Meet ^{his} brother ~~she~~ across town one day, these brothers are the aborted father family members.

Then meet again at my sister's house ~~where~~ the aborted father and his brother at the time I had my two year old daughter with me.

This has been the first time I've ~~met~~ meet the aborted father, from 1983 until 2000 then again in 2002.

I would like to know can I contest a marriage on the grounds of not knowing the individual longer than a year or 4 years.

The parties knew one another for only 3 to 4 months which inspired a seed.

Before the parties meet only one was involved in a four year relationship.

Also one party had just agreed to a woman having two abortions.

Can it also be that the ~~B~~ older party entrapped the younger party because of the seed, child.

I would like to pursue charges of filling a law suit against the aborted children's father.

Since ~~to~~ he was able to ~~conceive~~ conceive another child after my second abortion. He was able to get married, keep a job and enjoy his life with his new family.

Myself was going through torment every year, I would like to sue him for the pain and suffering I've endured for ~~20~~ twenty years and more.

He was not there for me during or after the abortions. Still today he wants to have sex. Please explain this logic, of this type of actions from a man.

The opinions of www.makingabortionrare.com is the right type of knowledge that needs to be taught to our future mothers and fathers of the future. Please lets live ~~and~~ ^{and} grow

1970 Roe vs. Wade
Abortion is legal

In the 1980-1982 years I became pregnant. With the consent of my mother and the children's father, I've aborted the kids. The two never asked me to carry the children full term.

This episode in my life have been tearing me up inside. Every day I try to live for my aborted children. I do miss my kids. Never stop longing or loving them.

To this day, I do not know what happened to my children. Once the procedure was over, the hospital Nur Beth Israel, just let me go. No conversation about the procedure or what I should do next. They did not offer birth control help or psychological or physical help.

Went home like nothing happened to me. came to the hospital with child left with no child or counseling.

Here in 2005, I still want and miss my children, ~~when~~ within the years of me dealing with not having sex with the father. He engaged with sex to another, conceived with the other and married. This occur one to two years after my abortions.

He or my mother ~~re~~ never talked to me about what I went through. My mother bore five children her self. She since has deceased.

From 1982 until 2000, the idea of getting pregnant was something I thought was impossible because of the abortions.

would like to see them both if possible.

NO, I WAS NOT. I WAS JUST TOLD THE COST!

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who?

"Faar" pressured me into my decision.

5) How has your abortion affected you?

I HAVE MUCH REGRET, & I ALSO HAVE IRREGULAR MENSTRUAL CYCLES. I HAVE GUILT & NOW REALIZE, IT IS MURDER. I KNOW IT WAS THE WORST DECISION I HAVE EVER MADE IN MY LIFE.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? THERE ARE POSITIVE OPTIONS INSTEAD OF MURDER. EVERY CHILD IS A GIFT & THE CHILD IS INNOCENT & WAS KNIT TOGETHER IN THE WOMB BY THE CREATOR HIMSELF. THERE ARE PEOPLE WHO CAN HELP & COUNSEL YOU. NO ONE HAS A RIGHT TO TAKE A LIFE.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? THEY SHALL NOT MURDER! EVERY LIFE CREATED SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO LIVE & NOT BE TAKEN AWAY BY A PERSON'S DECISION. IN MY SITUATION, I WAS NEVER INFORMED WHAT A UNBORN GOES THROUGH, MY EMOTIONS LED TO ABORTION, FEAR & PAIN. MANY MILLIONS OF MURDERS ARE COMMITTED BY MY SAME EXPERIENCE. IT IS WRONG! AFFIDAVIT

(Questions For WOMEN Who Have Undergone Abortion)

The State of NM

County of Doña Ana

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Jackie Clark (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: Planned Parenthood - El Paso, TX (1985)
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No, long term effects were most definitely not addressed - nor the fact that it was more than the removal of tissue.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No, information received was more on procedure and the importance of BCs.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No; no
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? No

6) How has your abortion affected you? Emotionally/psychologically. It really affected my self-esteem; level of trust; relationship with spouse (father of baby) that later ended in divorce. Relationships w/ others especially mates.

7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Marriage ended in divorce; therefore, spouse, daughters, and self are having to deal with emotional issues of the family, breaking up ex-husband is having to deal with lots of deep-seated anger.

8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion? If she cannot support the child to give it up for adoption (1) that "tissue" is truly a baby from the moment of conception, (2) the affects of abortion are emotional, physical; spiritual, (3) affects on family - every member, (4) importance of counseling, (5) now this one decision will affect her life (6) importance of prayer, (7) empathy.

9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Absolutely not, young, immature girls/boys tend to base their decisions on pride, fear, or other irrational factors. They need good counseling and support services. This is human life we are dealing with. The effects of abortion are long-term and those involved are looking for a quick fix. Abortion is not the answer. I would elaborate on the long-term effects and the importance of educating sex, ed in schools needs to be carefully scrutinized, modified.

*most are not mature enough to make such a grave decision.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared S [redacted] D [redacted] (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1976 Santa Fe, NM
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No. I was not informed of stages of a babies development. My baby was treated as a growth to be removed. I was not aware of potential dangers.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____

5) How has your abortion affected you? Once I was married, I became pregnant and had overwhelming guilt. I was sure I'd loose my baby as a punishment for aborting my first baby. Even now I am ashamed and angry that I was not fully informed. I don't believe my parents were fully informed either. I often wonder if it was a boy or girl.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? No one else knows. I deprived my children of another brother or sister.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? To research what she's doing. It is a dangerous surgical procedure for her that can lead to an increased risk in breast cancer. She needs to look at ultrasounds of developing babies. They are humans with human baby attributes. At some point you will feel guilty of murder.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? That it's murder. It's the destruction of a human life. In ancient Roman history the unwanted babies in jars to die + leave them outside. It's a horrid time in our history. How are we any different? We leave our unwanted babies in buckets + dumpsters. It's still infanticide. I'm a nurse and I have to have informed consent for procedures. I know young girls are not giving informed consent.

- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? YES If so, who? THE FIRST TWO ONLY APPLY AND IT WAS MY BOYFRIEND AT THE TIME.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? BEFORE BEING HEALED, I WAS A SHATTERED PERSON INSIDE, WITH LIPS OF DIRECTION AND ON THE WAY TO COMMITTING MORAL + SPIRITUAL SUICIDE. I NEVER REALLY CONNECTED MY NEW BEHAVIOR TO MY ABORTIONS UNTIL I HEARD A WOMAN AT CHURCH GIVE HER TESTIMONY OF ABORTION AND HOW IT AFFECTED HER. IT WAS THROUGH HER LOVE AND COMPASSION AND GOD'S FORGIVENESS THAT I WAS HEALED FROM MY SHAME, GUILT, PAIN + SUFFERING OF ABORTION.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? AT FIRST, MY CURRENT HUSBAND DIDN'T UNDERSTAND WHY I NEEDED TO BE VIOCAL ABOUT MY EXPERIENCE.

- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? ABORTION IS A LIE THAT DESTROYS AND HURTS WOMEN AND ANY OF THOSE AROUND HER. IF IT'S A GOOD THING FOR A WOMAN TO HAVE THIS CHOICE AND EXERCISE THAT CHOICE, THEN WHY, AFTER I PRACTICED MY RIGHT AS A WOMAN, 3 TIMES, WAS I LEFT FEELING SHAMEFUL, GUILTY + REGRETFUL? WHY IS IT I CANNOT FREELY ADMIT MY CHOICE OF ABORTION? BECAUSE IT'S A LIE THAT HURTS! IT DOESN'T HELP!

G. C. (Print Name),
who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1979 ABQ NM / 1982 Durango CO / 1984 Houston TX / 1985 Houston TX / 1986 Houston TX / 1989 ABQ NM

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No & No

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? No

5) How has your abortion affected you?
A long 25+ years of depression and immoral lifestyle. I've had migraine headaches, sleeplessness, too much sleep, rage, shame, anger and low self esteem to name a few affects. I have herpes from the lifestyle I chose.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?
Inability to have a long term love relationship because I believed I wasn't worth loving. Anger & fits of rage directed at my son for no apparent reasons. Years later I'm somewhat better with medication & God in my life.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?
Your making a huge, monumental mistake. Consider the emotional physical & spiritual consequences. God loves you & your baby and he wants you to make the right choices based on eternity not the right now.

Part of the downfall of morals in our country I believe is directly related to women choosing to have abortions during their crisis and continuing to spiral downwards morally as a result of the emotional, physical & spiritual consequences. Women are not usually in their right frame of mind when faced with a decision such as this. I wasn't and then I was so low and hated myself that I didn't think I was deserving of being a parent.

My name is Jenna Hill, and about ~~seventeen~~ years ago I had an abortion. I was not born in a wheelchair, I had a accident when I was 16 years old. im 32 now. I totally regret it now. The abortion changed my life. I am a different person now. a total different person now. A better person. I dont want my abortion to be in vion. I know I could of given my baby a good life. The guy involved couldnt of helped me but his mom could of. My mom couldnt help me My dad and stepmom wouldnt help. At least I could of put him up for adoption but no I had to be a baby killer. I regret it so much, I guess I had a late term abortion. I just didnt want to deal with it. I thought I would have morning sickness and I wasnt so I thought no way could I be pregnant, but I was. I was angry at myself, I was confused,, what am I going to do. I felt desperate, I felt worthless very worthless. But through it all I found the Lord. Its too bad God had to put me through such hard times too make me to rest in his word but I was very stubborn. Thank you

- 6) How has your abortion affected you? Two weeks after the abortion my emotions went crazy. I started having dreams about the baby calling me mom. I felt like a loser because I took my baby's life. I wanted to die because I felt like why should I be alive, if I took an innocent life that didn't ask to be born or killed. My uterus has never been the same after the abortion. I Thank God! That I can still have children. The abortion clinic never said it can lead to breast cancer or my uterus could be effected. At the abortion clinic's there a bunch of liars.
 - 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It has effected my family by seeing me in emotionally in pain, thinking if I ever would be able to have children
 - 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? You're killing a baby, that didn't ask to be born. How it might not hit you for a while but when it dose your in for a life time change. when you realize what you really done.
 - 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? There's no diffent's in killing a six-year-old and an unborn baby! You're still taking a life. No matter how old they are. The baby grows up to be that six-year-old child one day.

- 6) How has your abortion affected you? FOR 23 YRS, I NEVER FORGAVE MYSELF. I HAVE DWELT IN GUILT FOR 23 YRS. THE EVENTS LEADING TO MY ABORTION ARE BURIED IN MY MEMORY, BUT THE ABORTION ITSELF IS NOT ONLY BURIED IN MY MEMORY, BUT IN MY HEART. I BELIEVE THAT MY ABORTION CONTRIBUTED TO THE BREAKUP OF MY MESSY MARRIAGE
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? NOBODY IN MY FAMILY KNOWS ABOUT IT
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I WOULD SHARE WITH HER MY GUILT AND TELL HER SHE'S NOT WORTH IT. THE GUILT NEVER DISAPPEARS FOR IT REMAINS IMBEDDED IN THE WOMAN. IT DOES DAMAGE HER LIFE & RELATIONSHIPS BY KEEPING IT SECRET, LEADING A DOUBLE LIFE

who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion

occurred: June 1985, Albuquerque NM

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?

Only that there would be some pain during the procedure.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer?

I was not informed. I have been fighting breast cancer on and off for the last 7 years and most recently finished chemo and radiation in Aug '02 for my third recurrence.

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who?

No, it was my own choice, although the doctors, two different ones, encouraged it because I was single.

5) How has your abortion affected you?

18 years of guilt and regret. One miscarriage and the breast cancer. I would give anything to go back and undo the abortion and make things right for the child and for me.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?

I cannot say about "the father". I would say it has affected my relationship with my husband who was not known to me at the time of the abortion.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

Do NOT have an abortion. The risks and consequences are too great. The blessings of a child are too numerous to count even if it is not you but an adopted family that enjoys those blessings.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

Abortion is a mistake, a great deception that has been perpetrated against women and innocent children for 30 years. There are great risks and emotional damage that lasts for years.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

- 1) When and where did your abortion occur? June of 1978 ; Colorado Springs, CO
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? (Check One) Yes No If no, explain: _____
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? I believe some potential risks were mentioned - punctured uterus, bowels, infection - but not the emotional consequences
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Yes No Have you had breast cancer? Yes No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes No If yes, who? _____
- 6) How has abortion affected you? I lived the 2 1/2 years following the abortion under a cloak of sadness and shame. After I gave birth to my two living children, things went really bad, and that's when I sought help. My life has been impacted in a way that cannot be erased. Now, my desire is to help other women find healing after a abortion, and to tell the truth whenever I can, that yes, abortion hurts women, and that God wants to restore each one to wholeness. Moreover, if we can help others avoid the same tragic error, our children will not have the same + hurt I carried, and make it difficult for me to be a good mom.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It has caused pressure in my marriage, due to the shame + hurt I carried, and made it difficult for me to be a good mom.
- 8) Based upon your experience, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? I would tell her that she would probably spend the rest of her life regretting the abortion, that it's just not worth it, and that there is so much help available to her!
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would tell them that they'd better do some research and learn about the long-term consequences, AND that if they're going to allow abortion, that, by law, women must be COMPLETELY INFORMED ahead of time of what will probably happen to them. You cannot take the life of your own "I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct." child + walk away free.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: November 1989 at a Clinic in Buffalo, NY
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? Believing that I was not able to raise a child nor was the party involved, I felt I had no other choice. I was filled with guilt later on in my life when I came to know the procedure of an abortion is how it actually takes a child apart. And that in fact the fetus is a human being. It is only by my faith in Christ that I am ok emotionally after dealing with the guilt.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Very few people know. It was done quietly & I have kept it to myself. I was just 17 yrs old at the time.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Just that she needs to know all the facts & the details of an abortion, what the procedures are, that there are other alternatives, that in fact she does hold another life in her hand, that she needs to consider the emotional consequences.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would tell the court that they need to look at the scientific facts not those that they are put in a position to protect. The purpose of law is to protect life and to protect the innocent.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: March 1, 2000 at Planned Parenthood
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I was informed w/ pamphlets, but I was only informed about what it does (which I know that's why I was here) and you can still become pregnant even if procedure done.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? NO Have you had breast cancer? _____
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? Once I realized what I had done months and even years later it has had a huge impact on my life, both negative and positive. It has given me a greater respect for life. It has made me realize that we should not be able to end life because of our irresponsibility. It was very depressing in the first months, but I put it behind all of the other things on my mind and neglected any feelings toward the abortion.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It really hasn't affected any because it's not an open topic. They don't know. But if any, this person feels that he may never be able to have children because of these abortions.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Everyone has fears when having a child. Even people who plan have fears. Abortion may seem to be fact, but as fast as you may think it solves the problem, it is an open wound.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Stephanie Zentgraf (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1. Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: New York Hospital, NYC, Nov. 1986
2. Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I was not aware of the emotional consequences. I was not told of any physical consequences.
4. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? my ex husband
5. How has your abortion affected you? Initially, it caused a deep depression, which eventually became chronic. It has caused me to develop an eating disorder. Whenever I thought about the abortion, which was often, I would become depressed, suicidal and self-destructive. The guilt and shame and self-hatred is at times unbearable. I need counseling for this issue. ~~no~~ yes later it still causes tremendous pain. I still haven't forgiven myself.
6. How has your abortion affected others in your life? I am over-protective and overly mothering with my children, ages 16 and 11. I do things for them that they should do. I believe it is out of guilt.
7. Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would share my story with her and I believe that would be more information than she would receive at a clinic or by a doctor. No one tells you how you will feel, how you have to live with what you did every day.
8. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Legal or not, the woman knows its murder. If it against the law to murder, abortion should be illegal. If it were not a murderous act, women would not suffer as they do after an abortion.

I knew what was at the root of my sadness - truly realizing what I had done, altho I knew the moment I aborted that it was wrong, I went to confession in 1975. It was until the late 1980s that I found out what a saline abortion truly was and this set me back again. I also found out that my baby was a girl, from doctors records I had acquired. I will never forget reading those words, "...slightly macerated female fetus with superficial necrosis"

The abortion has affected me in so many ways - too numerous for this affidavit. But what I can say is you never know how or when ~~the~~ the abortion may arise again in your mind. The traditional dates of conception, abortion, projected birthdate. It is even to the point of sweet 16s and thinking she may have been married by now, and I could have been a grandma.

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes. If so, who? The first time it was my boyfriend. I was very much in love with him. He got me pregnant, and told me he did not want, and was not ready for a baby. He was very helpful. He came up with the money, and took me to have the abortion. When he took me home, back to my mother's house, he dropped me off on the doorstep and told me he did not love me anymore, and did not want to see me again. That was the last time I had seen him. I was totally devastated. This was my first experience with love & abortion and I was so badly let down hurt.

I met my husband on my 20th Birthday. We dated for 2 1/2 years before we got married. The night I met him I said I was going to marry him. A few months before we were to be married I was faced with that painful situation once again. I was pregnant. I went to my husband to be, and told him of the situation. He told me he was not ready for the responsibility of being a father. He was very adamant about that. Although "he already was" after all I was "pregnant" It really broke my heart. I don't know when I was unable to say no, that I would not have an abortion. I think maybe I was afraid I would lose him, because of what happened after my first abortion, which he knew about. So I gave in and had the abortion.

Up to this point Glenn & I were inseparable. It was a fairy tale relationship. He would stop by where I worked and drop me off love notes or food. ^{ENTIMATE THINGS.} You would never see us together when we were not holding hands or just touching each other. A match made in heaven.

After that day, of which I really remember nothing, I couldn't even tell you where he took me. I have totally blocked it out of my mind. It devastated me. A part of me died with that child. I've had feelings of suicide. My life has become a total mess.

Right after that day, I don't know exactly how long, but I had no self worth and I became promiscuous. I tried to tell my mom before I got married what I was going through, but was not able to.

As the years passed I tried to forget about things but was not able to. Little things that he would do, that most people would laugh off, would make me angry. I guess after the 23 years, my feelings had finally surfaced. Through Project Kadel and Project Grace I realized I was not alone. My ~~buried~~ buried feelings were alive and real.

I have never been a vindictive person. Through all that has happened I have always told everyone not to be judgemental on my husband. I have told my girls to respect their father. I understand his hurt and anger. I too have been hurt and angry. But I have still treated him with respect.

Now comes the painful part. He has been hurt, because I was promiscuous. He has been to. It is ok for him, "so he says" because there were no feelings involved. He has my children thinking that I am a liar. He has stopped paying bills that have my name on them.

We are getting a divorce and, he is trying to win my girls over. He buys them anything they want, and lets them do anything they want.

I dislike him more & more every day. He is not the person I met 26 years ago.

I wish I had the power to go back 23 years and, change the decision that has crippled my happiness and his. I would give anything for him to understand I and just be friends.

I will go on and carry the cross that has become my life. I want my girls to know I love them more than life itself.

Twenty years ago, after reading a Redbook article about the abortion issue, and in an effort to sort through my feelings and warn other women, I wrote and submitted an article about my experience. After being rejected for publication by Redbook and a half dozen other mainstream women's magazines, nearly five years later, it was published under a pseudonym in the May 1990 issue of "All About Issues", a Washington D.C. based pro-life publication.

Recently, I watched a television program that invited women to submit testimony about their abortion experiences, and I pulled out my old manuscript. Upon the following pages I am including a photocopy of the document I wrote in August of 1985. Nothing was changed except for the insertion of page numbers, and the addition of an "Epilogue" on page 7.

The controversy over abortion laws has been raging for years, yet I had paid little attention to it -- until Halloween morning in 1984.

My period was 10 days overdue; unusual, but in my heart I didn't really believe I could be pregnant. Just to "rule it out" I had brought home one of those do-it-yourself drugstore kits. The "ring" I saw - indicating "positive" - stunned me. At the age of 41 I was pregnant. My breathing was rapid, nearing hyperventilation. I braced myself on the dresser to keep from dropping to the floor, then slowly moved to the bed, where I slumped in total disbelief. After a while I got in the car and began driving around, in a hazy daze, thinking what it would be like to have a baby around again, to turn the clock back 17 years and start all over with diapers, Halloween costumes, Sesame Street and wiping runny noses. Our son and daughter were both in high school, one just a year away from college. Both were dearly wanted and "planned" pregnancies. All the years of birth control afterward had brought no surprises - until that Wednesday morning.

My husband took the news calmly and said merely: "Will your doctor do it," certain in his mind that we should look upon this "egg" as no different from all the others we had chosen not to fertilize in our 18 years of marriage. His male mind saw "termination" as no worse than contraception. I have no religious affiliation, and had favored laws giving women the freedom to choose, yet his suggestion hit me with a tremendous jolt. While the idea of starting over after 17 years was not what I would have chosen, "terminating" the tiny life begun (however inadvertently) inside me just didn't seem right.

The other alternative, of course, meant carrying a baby to term. Thinking about this brought vivid memories of my son's birth 17 years earlier. The 28 hours of labor, in a room by myself, with a nurse occasionally stopping by, had been a source of many years of nightmares. My doctor at the time was near retirement age. Suffice it to say that he came to my room the morning after delivery and apologized for his handling of my "case," which he told me had been discussed at a hospital committee meeting, where the recommendation had been made that he drop "obstetrics" and confine his practice in the future to "gynecology."

It took several years for me to summon enough courage to attempt another pregnancy, but I didn't want my son to be an only child, and was hopeful that a different doctor would mean a better delivery experience. While the second labor was an improvement, the feeling of joy that we had both the son and daughter we had hoped for, was joined by enormous relief at the thought I would never have to "do this" again. Contemplating it at age 41 brought sheer terror.

My mind reeled and I thought day and sleepless night about the "options" given by my doctor: immediate "termination" - with or without tubal ligation, was his recommendation. I asked him if he had no moral reservations about such a suggestion, and he laughed and waved his arm, saying a woman my age shouldn't be having babies anyway. The alternatives raced through my mind constantly, one minute thinking we should "terminate" immediately and get on with our lives, and the next minute wondering how I could bring myself to let them destroy it. I can see with hindsight that I was enveloped in a state of shock and should, at that point, have sought some outside counsel. I spoke to no one but the nurse at my doctor's office, who said "If you do it now, there 's nothing there!" She said to do "what's right" for the family I already have. I knew the more time I agonized over it, the more difficult it would be to bring myself to "terminate", so I signed the paper and she booked me into the hospital for the next morning. It is strange how no one uses the word "abortion" - just "termination of pregnancy", and "product of conception" or "cluster of cells", as though use of the words "abortion" and baby might make a woman stop and contemplate her action more thoroughly. I was not offered counseling, and on Friday November 9 at 6 AM, just a week after that home pregnancy test, I was hospitalized for the "termination/tubal ligation." For all I had been told, that was supposed to end my "problem."

In the hospital I felt absolutely nothing, as though my mind was drifting in a vacuum. It was as though I wasn't in my own body, but on the outside seeing this person sign these papers and be subjected to a "medical procedure"; mentally I was totally numb. They sent me down for a pre-op X-ray, and the sign said: "Be sure to tell technician if you are pregnant." I stared straight at the sign, but said nothing, for I hadn't fully acknowledged to myself that I really was pregnant, much less that I was there to allow an abortion to be performed. A staff doctor stopped by the bed and asked: "Is this your third pregnancy?" I nodded yes, but thought, what an odd question, I'm not really pregnant. I felt totally "blank" - as though all emotion had been erased from me. There was no physical pain or awareness that anything was happening. A slight pinch of the anesthesiologist's needle in my hand registered at the start, but there was no pain, or even a cramp afterward, and virtually no bleeding either.

It wasn't until a few days after coming home, as my mind began to emerge from the vacuum which had paralyzed it, that I began screaming, crying and reacting to what I had endured. My nights were filled with dreams (and nightmares) about babies, and people bringing me babies in my sleep. It penetrated my emotional core, and I began to realize that this was something I was going to have to "live with" for the rest of my life. My thoughts were constantly on the child who would have known life, had I not interfered with nature. I watched a news segment on the famine in Ethiopia and felt myself reacting strangely unsympathetically to the plight of the starving: do those children have more of a right to live than my baby? There were pregnant women and babies everywhere I went, and seeing them only increased the level of my agony and feelings of intense envy. I wanted to tell someone, but didn't know where to turn. Days drifted one into the other, and I tried to keep the usual family activities going, but there was no change in the distressing preoccupation of my mind. At family dinner, I ate something out of habit, but had no appetite, and ate nothing the rest of the day. What I did eat had no taste; in fact everything tasted like straw. Quickly I lost 5 pounds, then 5 more. My co-worker marveled that I could be so "strong" and "diet" at Christmas time. She noticed I was thinner, but how could I tell her the loss of appetite had nothing to do with diet! If only she knew how the constant lump in my throat made eating impossible. For months on end, all my private moments were spent crying. I'm surprised no one at work noticed my swollen and red eyes. They were often so full that it was impossible to read what I was typing. I felt an increasing need to discuss all the feelings engulfing me and did try to call the nurse at my doctor's office. She tried to be sympathetic, but the conversation didn't last long as I couldn't keep from breaking down and complete a coherent sentence.

On the 31st day after surgery I awoke to a heavy flow of blood - proof positive that there really was no more baby. Until that moment, in my overwhelming anguish, I had fooled myself into thinking: maybe I really haven't done this -- after all, there were no memories of any physical pain. The realization that tubal ligation meant "permanent" was more than I could bear. My husband and I talked throughout the night, as I began to finally share with him all the emotions I had been struggling with. I don't think he realized the depth of my feelings until that conversation. The same day brought a bill from the hospital pathologist. My mind focused on what he was being paid to study: the remains of my never-born child -- and my rage and anguish totally overtook me.

I knew then I would have to seek some counseling, and began to search the "pregnancy counseling" ads - something I should have done before it was too late. My teenaged daughter happily played Christmas music on the piano, and I had to run from the room so she wouldn't see the rush of tears, for all I could think of was the child who would never play that piano, or hear it played, or know Christmas, or feel life. I thought back and wondered how we could have rationally discussed "reasons" for "not having" another child. Couldn't we - and shouldn't we - have made room in our home and our lives for this mid-life miracle? Yes, our lives would have changed quite drastically, but living with those changes would have been much less difficult than coping with the emotional turmoil and grief that have engulfed me since. Would the physical childbearing pain I was dreading really have been as intense as the very real pain I have had to suffer instead?

In the following year I spent weekly sessions with a compassionate counselor. She helped me sort out my feelings of grief, anger, pain and loss. For several months I continued to feel "phantom" signals emanating from my womb; as long as I didn't have my period at the moment, I believed I was still pregnant. Each monthly flow renewed my regret and anger, and made me feel my baby was dying all over again. Just as soon as it was over, I went right back into denial for another 28 days, until the cycle repeated itself again. Seeing pregnant women in the stores filled me with so much jealousy that I bought another pregnancy test kit 3 months after the abortion, for I desperately wanted to see some proof that my baby couldn't be dead.

I visited several libraries and read every book I could get my hands on that touched on abortion, miscarriage, bereavement and loss. I attended meetings of "Reach-Out to the parents of an unknown child" - a caring group of people, all of whom have lost a child through miscarriage, stillbirth, or early infant death. On the first anniversary of the abortion, I placed a memorial ad in the local paper: "Mid-life surprise - precious gift - taken from me so abruptly the outside world does not recognize you ever existed - missed and cherished forever in my broken heart." I was surprised that most of the people attending the Reach-Out meeting had seen my ad. They were supportive and understanding, for they too had experienced that grief. I have also become active in a support group called "Women Exploited By Abortion." Some people have said to me: "exploited" is such a strong word! And I answer: yes, but it's not the wrong word. In a society that makes abortion so easily available, we equate what's legal with what is right. I have met many women who made an abortion decision, as I did, because it was offered to them in a moment of crisis as an "easy way out of a problem." They were not counseled about the devastating emotional after-effects. We, the aborted mothers, are the second victims of abortion. Society must provide some safeguards for women. An unplanned pregnancy shocks the body and psyche. Counseling must be made mandatory. Such counseling must include information on prenatal life. How many women are aware that at the moment they discover a pregnancy, their miniature unborn child already has a beating heart and measurable brain waves? There should also be a waiting period of at least 24 hours (and preferably longer) between the signing of any papers and an actual abortion procedure.

I very much want something good to come out of all my pain. While I surrendered my baby physically, there will always be a special place in my heart for my missing child. From the beginning, I have felt that it was a girl, and I have named her Barbara Louise. I think of her every single day, and my arms ache from wanting to hold and nurture her. I get angry at people who tell me she was just a "blob" who might have grown into a person - but only given a great deal more time, and regret that in my state of shock I didn't see how wrong they were, and allowed someone so precious to be taken away from me.

If sharing my story will help another pregnant woman reject abortion, then the brief life of my Barbara Louise will not have been totally in vain.

EPILOGUE

My husband had been unwilling to read my manuscript until it was published, nearly five years after it was written. When he finally read it, he said "now I understand".

He suffered a fatal stroke seven months later. I grieve for him, and for my child, for I believe they are both victims who have unnecessarily left this world too soon.

Now approaching the twenty-first anniversary of my abortion, I continue to mourn for my missing child, and if I could be given a chance to do just one thing over in life, I would never have permitted my unborn child to be taken from me.

I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

AFFIDAVIT

THE STATE OF NEW YORK

COUNTY OF WESTCHESTER

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared D [REDACTED] S [REDACTED], (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is D [REDACTED] S [REDACTED] (Print Name).

I became pregnant for the first time when I was 19. A friend made the appointment for my abortion with a physician she'd used. The appointment was made under a false name and since I was paying in cash, I wasn't asked for identification or insurance information. I wasn't counseled but was told what to expect after the procedure.

At one point during the abortion, the doctor pulled out the vacuum and began wiping it onto something out of my view. I saw the nurse glance at it and ask quietly, "Is that it?" The doctor nodded, reinserted the vacuum and continued with the procedure. I suddenly realized they were referring to my baby! I was very confused and remember thinking, "how can they tell, isn't it still just a blood clot?" Nevertheless, when it was done, I was relieved and put the whole experience behind me.

As luck would have it, less than a year later I found that I was once again pregnant. Having gone through it before, I now felt confident enough to make my own appointment in a clinic that I'd driven a friend to years earlier. The day of the abortion, I was prepped and waiting when the doctor entered the room and quickly examined me for the procedure. He asked how far along I was. I repeated what I'd told the receptionist - that I was 3 months pregnant. The doctor looked puzzled and, after further examining concluded that I was, in reality, 5 months pregnant.

I began to cry uncontrollably. I was assured that I needn't panic - I could still have an abortion. It was simply a different procedure at that stage. But I refused. For some reason, which I realize is ridiculous now but somehow made sense to me then, I believed that the fetus was just a blood clot up until 4 or 5 months, and then somehow transformed into a baby. After all, I'd always heard it referred to as "the product of conception." That doesn't sound like a baby. Since I'd read of women giving birth at 5 and 6 months, I concluded that it had to become a baby at some point near then.

I kept insisting that I couldn't go through with the abortion because it was now a baby. They told me to get dressed and brought me in to see what I believe was a counselor. This was the first and only time that I was counseled. She asked what I wanted to do and reassured me that I could still have an abortion. I continued crying and repeating that it was a baby, but she didn't seem to understand my resistance. I then asked her, "Is it a baby?" Reluctantly, she agreed. So, I walked out.

That baby I was carrying is now a handsome and intelligent 14-year-old. But if I hadn't refused the abortion that day, he wouldn't be alive today.

Years later, I returned to school to study ultrasound and became a technician. I slowly learned the unforgiving reality that a baby is a human life from the moment of conception and is, in essence, a tiny, fully formed person by the time millions of women have abortions. I performed countless sonograms on women at all stages of pregnancy. I measured the heart rates of embryos barely larger than my thumbnail. I watched, in utter amazement, the tiny limbs of 9-week-old fetuses wriggling around in a sea of amniotic fluid. I witnessed hundreds of unborn babies stretch, suck, blink and smile - and even respond with a kick as I pressed down with the transducer. I also handed delighted mothers crystal clear ultrasound images of their unborn babies' perfect little faces.

With every heartbeat, kick and stretch, I knew that each one was a beautiful child. Each one was complete and perfect. Each one filled with life! It also brought me closer and closer to the truth I'd been trying to deny for so long. That terrible day, years earlier, I hadn't aborted a blood clot. I aborted a baby - my baby!

I now have 3 boys that I adore. I have so much to be thankful for today but an irreparable mistake I made 15 years ago has robbed me of peace. Regrettably, every wonderful milestone my children reach, every goal they achieve, every marvelous dream they confide to me, I cannot fully enjoy. Because each time I look at their faces, there's always a painful reminder of how I cheated my first child of all hopes and pleasures, small and large.

My beautiful boys fill me with love and pride every waking day. However, that joy is always fleeting. A familiar, aching void always reemerges. One child is forever missing. I believe it's probably the same anguish that women who have lost children later on must feel. The inescapable difference is that I'm responsible for my child's death and suffering. A mother is expected to protect and comfort her children. Instead, I voluntarily chose a brutal end to my baby's life. Abortion granted me initial relief, but a lifetime of grief as the reality of what I did slowly crept in years after.

I keep this unrelenting heartache to myself each day. Abortion is such an acceptable evil today that no one understands my shame and remorse. It's difficult for others to comprehend mourning a child I never held in my arms. I gain some comfort in knowing that God has forgiven me; I pray that my baby has too. But, I will never, in my lifetime, forgive myself.

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Lehigh Valley, Pennsylvania (Allentown or Bethlehem, PA)
approx year 1981

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? Best to my recollection, NO I was not adequately informed at all to any consequences physically or emotionally. I was never ever given other options + the process was rushed along w/o any proper counseling. After abortion there was

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? NO followup. No information was given to me and I thank God I do not have breast cancer & pray I won't either

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? yes, friends, boyfriend & parents did not try to stop me. I had absolutely no support to keep the baby or chose to give him up for abortion. I was told I would embarrass myself or shd me family if

5) How has your abortion affected you? I ~~lost~~ the baby. My abortion in short just ~~ruined~~ about ruined my life and if I hadn't sought help & from a Christian counselor I would be continuing to suffer. I faced suicide thoughts, insecurity, promiscuity to the point of being embarrassed for actions I felt I couldn't control

6) How has your abortion affected others in your most importantly I ~~wrote~~ it ashamed to ask life? Yes, my husband, my children who at some point I will have to tell them that they have a ~~step~~ brother in Heaven. My biological family who aren't Christian believers & refuse one because of my emotional struggles + especially my mother who doesn't

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? She needs to know that no matter what month she is in in her pregnancy that she is carrying a child of God + aborting the baby will only leave her feeling void, depressed & a hole that hurts for

8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Aren't they glad their mother didn't abort them! I would share w/ them my emotional + physical affects from PAS + the 20 year journey of healing that I struggled with so that I can now feel good again about being me. I would strongly stress how Planned Parenthood didn't give me other options + I was just another 'procedure' to them. I would also mention that I think the medical studies are 'incorrect' + have no validity to how women are truly struggling.

There is some more...

- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: NO, when my pregnancy test came back positive, the receptionist asked if I would like an abortion. No one explained the consequences. I don't remember if anyone ever said that it was a termination of pregnancy.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? NO. I was told it was a safe procedure. I never heard that it would affect me emotionally or physically.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? NO
NO I have never had breast cancer
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? The babies father offered to pay for the abortion. I asked him only once if we could get married and have the baby, but he refused. I did not insist - I was young and selfish.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? Not a day goes by that I do not think about that baby and regret the abortion. If it were not for my faith in God and His Divine mercy I think I would despair.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? People in my family get upset with me because I am adamantly pro-life. They do not understand my strong convictions that abortion is murder and should never be a choice.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion? That legalized murder should not be a choice. It is a selfish choice that causes grief and despair. That I wish with all my heart it had never been legalized. That life without her baby would be much harder than if she gives it life. I would tell her it takes years of prayer before you can ever forgive your self.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I wish I had never had a choice to kill my baby. That with every child you bring into the world you are reminded of the horrible crime you committed against your own flesh and blood. That legalized murder should not be a choice, and it is only a way for people to make money. They do not care how you will feel afterwards.

- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No to both questions.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? No, made decision myself with father of baby.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? Horrible dreams, lived with a horrible knowledge that I murdered my child. Left scar tissue that hindered my having another child for 3 years. Finally learned of Jesus' salvation + forgiveness.

7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? From my perspective it caused me to put walls up emotionally so closeness wasn't obtained & anger arose in some personal family relationships.
8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Please don't have an abortion. Abortion is the exact opposite of what women were & are created to do. Motherhood is not a curse but living in untorgiderness & pain from aborting your own baby IS.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Jinny C. Franklin (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Charlotte, NC February, 1975
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No. I did not know what abortion was
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? no Have you had breast cancer? no
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? my husband (at that time)
We were having serious marital problems
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? If I thought the abortion could save our marriage (and I believe I did), I was wrong. We were divorced shortly after the abortion and I did not remarry. I have no children. I have struggled with guilt loss and depression. Through Christian counseling and Bible study, the guilt and depression have diminished, but I still deeply regret having an abortion.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I may have influenced my sister to have an abortion a few years later. Ironically, she had tried to persuade me not to have an abortion - earlier.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would advise her not to have an abortion, would tell her my experience, and would tell her to go to a Crisis Pregnancy Center.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? When I had my abortion in 1975, there was no pro-life movement or Crisis Pregnancy Center (that I know of) But I believed that the laws of our land were good. I thought, "If it's legal, it must be moral." When Roe v. Wade is overturned, morality will return in this arena.

AFFIDAVIT

To be completed by women who have had abortions

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day appeared Katherine Hearn, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) When and where did your abortion occur? Raleigh, NC
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? (Check One) Yes No If no, explain: I was told basically nothing about the truth of what was being done. They told me that I was very early in the pregnancy and the blob of tissue had not attached to my body. I remember being told more about the method of payment that would be acceptable than about any aspect of the procedure. I was not told of any alternatives nor was I told what to expect after the abortion.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? I was not informed of any consequences of my abortion. I never even went back for my follow up visit. I was devastated. I could not understand why I felt the way I did. My life really changed at that moment. It took almost 30 years before I ever realized that many, many post abortive women and men have been left feeling much the same way.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Yes No Have you had breast cancer? Yes No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes No If yes, who? _____
- 6) How has abortion affected you? A better question would be, how has the abortion NOT affected you. Truthfully, my life changed at the moment I had the abortion. I began to live a lie. Since I had told only the father and the girl that let me use her car to go to the clinic, I tried to just act like the loss of my baby never happened. My relationships became much more superficial since I was basically hiding the truth of what I had done and the truth of who I was from everyone around me. Looking back, I now see the many ways I changed and the poor decisions that I continued to make following the abortion. After many years, through the restoration and healing of Jesus Christ I have finally been set free from this horrible decision. To think that something this devastating is legal, is appalling. No person should ever be lead to think that abortion is a viable solution to a pregnancy. They should be told the truth: that abortion will harden their heart, kill their child, and leave them with guilt. After my abortion, while trying to have a baby, I had a miscarriage. It was also a devastating experience. However, it did not compare with the anguish I faced over the abortion. As mothers, we are not supposed to kill our children. Every mother knows this; the moral law written on our hearts attests to it.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? The abortion has effected my daughter, now 19. When she learned that I had aborted her brother, she wrote a poem. Although it was painful for me to read, I realized how devastating it was to her to realize that she had an older brother that only wanted a chance to live. Today, I realize that it has also affected the relationship with my parents. Anytime there are secrets in relationships, they are affected. It has also affected my husband of 29 years, the father of our aborted son. The affects have been devastating to every generation within our family.
- 8) Based upon your experience, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? Do Not Do It. There are people who will love you, help you, care for you and your child. Every child is a wanted child, created by God for His purpose. Each child has a name. The decision to have an abortion is the decision to murder your child. The consequences are devastating.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? No. It should be repealed.

- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No, never. I felt no more concerned than if I were having a tooth extracted. I was informed that it was nothing - insignificant tissue.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? God is merciful! I was born again before I saw the poster on a hospital wall of fetal development and realize I had killed my children! I had dreams for many years that I had either forgotten where I put my baby or had forgotten to feed it for long periods of time. I was so overly protective of my children that I had that these dreams were very painful until I started thanking Satan for reminding me of the loving, forgiving and merciful God I served.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Again, I am one of the fortunate ones; my family is okay. They are also born again. We are very close. I have 4 children - 3 boys - 1 girl.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? That it is a choice with irreversible consequences that she will live with for a lifetime; that abortion is not an answer to a problem; it is what it is - taking the life of an innocent human being.

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion.

The State of NORTH CAROLINA

County of MECKLENBURG

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared JET D. JONES (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: APRIL 21, 2001 IN CHARLOTTE, NC
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO. THE ONLY "SO CALLED" COUNSELING I WAS OFFERED WAS A QUESTION, "ARE YOU SURE YOU WANT TO DO THIS?" NEVER EXPLAINING EXACTLY WHAT IT WAS I WAS DOING OR ABOUT TO DO.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? YES If so, who? THE DEVIL DECEIVED ME AND I BOUGHT INTO HIS LIES. NO ONE THAT I KNOW PERSONALLY.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? IT HAS DEFINITELY TAKEN A TOLL ON MY LIFE AND CURRENT RELATIONSHIP. IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE PROCEDURE I FELT LIKE MY WHOLE LIFE WAS TURNED UPSIDE DOWN. I STOPPED GOING TO CHURCH, ASHAMED OF WHAT I HAD DONE AND SAW MYSELF DRIFTING FROM GOD. I WAS DEPRESSED A LOT. I TRIED TO ISOLATE MYSELF AND WAS NOT CONCERNED WITH MY APPEARANCE. I FELT LIKE I DID NOT DESERVE TO LIVE AND REGRETING MY DECISION MADE ME WANT TO JOIN MY CHILD. I WAS BITTER!
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I REALIZE NOW THAT I WAS NOT ALONE IN MY HURT. MY BOYFRIEND AND MY PARENTS AND MY NEW BOYFRIEND GRIEVED FOR THE LOSS AS WELL. CHILD'S FATHER
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I WOULD REFER HER TO THE TRUTH - THE WORD. ALLOWING GOD TO REVEAL TO HER HIS VIEW OF WHERE LIFE BEGINS. ISAIAH 46:3, JEREMIAH 1:4-6, PSALM 139:13-16 & LUKE 1:41-44. I WOULD TRY TO EDUCATE THEM ON THE ROLE OF A WOMAN AS THE NURTURER. ALLOWING THEM TO PROCESS THE ROLE OF THEIR MOM OR GRANDMOM.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I WOULD INFORM THEM THAT MURDER IS WRONG! REGARDLESS OF WHERE SOMEONE IS IN THE DEVELOPMENTAL PROCESS (i.e. FETUS, CHILD, ADOLESCENT, ADULT) THEY HAVE RIGHTS AS A HUMAN BEING. LIFE BEGINS IN THE WOMAN! ONCE AN EGG HAS BEEN FERTILIZED FORMATION BEGINS AND TO TERMINATE THAT CHILD/ HUMAN LIFE IS WRONG. SHEDDING INNOCENT BLOOD IS AGAINST GOD'S PLAN.

I got pregnant at age 17 & 19 - 2 abortions. I developed an eating disorder & started to drink wine. I've been in 1 abusive marriage, a few other unhealthy relationships. "I am over the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: 1987 and 1988 - Hallmark Clinic, Charlotte, N.C.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: absolutely not. I was told verbatim "I need $750 cash. If you change your mind we don't give refunds. When you leave here forget about it. Never think of this day again. You're too early for yours to be anything but a cluster of cells anyway." (What a lie)
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? Never once
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? NO
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? boyfriend, abortion clinic
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? it's robbed me of peace, joy in the blessings of my life, my self-esteem has been shot to pieces.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? by my days of depression when they don't understand why because of the shame and guilt I have felt.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion? it's a permanent solution for a temporary problem - too permanent. The pain of giving a child for ~~adoption~~ adoption doesn't come close to the pain of realizing what you've done.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? All they would need to see is the pain, sorrow and grief that I carry with me for the rest of my life! We save whales, trees and so many other things in this country, yet we slaughter innocent, precious children

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared D [redacted] M [redacted] (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1985- Raleigh, NC
2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? → If so, who? I was pressured by my family's standards, rules, etc. My mom and dad didn't even know about the pregnancy. I was only 17.

5) How has your abortion affected you? I struggle emotionally with having the abortion - especially since having children of my own. Having to live with the knowledge of killing my innocent baby is really hard. I know God has forgiven me, but it is very difficult for me to forgive myself.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband ~~was~~ was the father of the aborted baby (pre-marriage) and he, too, struggles with our decision.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? It looks like the "easy way out" but it isn't. You deal with it every day of your life. That baby inside of you is a life - you are committing murder if you have an abortion. That baby would be a blessing to you or some other family. Please don't make the same decision I did - it's wrong and makes a right.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would say that if a woman delivered a baby & killed it, she would be charged for a felony. If she has a late term abortion when the baby could live outside of the womb, there's no consequence. I'd also say that pro-choice is really pro-abortion because no one sits down and truly explains your choices.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1976
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? The emotional consequences were not addressed.
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? NO Have you had breast cancer? NO
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? my 1st husband told me he would leave my son and myself if I had another child, I would deprive our son of his father.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you?
Abortion made me mad. Anger grew inside of me - in fact my son suffered the most from my rage. He became a distant person who was guilt-ridden - full of shame. I'm not out for anyone, I feel I have other things to focus on. I thought about suicides, after all it was decided. I wouldn't hurt - or would I - I wouldn't have you here, quite get over it.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My son lives with a mother filled with anger - My mom slapped me with hopes of bringing me to my senses. I was a friend, mother, daughter or wife.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Abortion is not a right, it is a sin - your baby needs a right to live.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?
Abortion is murder. The intentional killing of one human being by another. An abortion was not legal, my baby would be alive today. Laws are to protect the weak. I was very weak and my baby was helpless.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Yvette Wilson (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Charlotte NC clinic, 1991
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? Not really, they basically told me that I'll just be a little cramped after the procedure.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No If so, who? _____

5) How has your abortion affected you? After the procedure I pretty much just blocked it out of my mind. Even today it is quite cloudy about things. I remember going through a time when every time I saw a baby I would get depressed & feel guilty. I also went through a time of uncontrollable crying about what I did. Even today I think about it and what if I had kept the child and what will he or she be like.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I told my children about it and they were very disappointed in me. He became very distant for years and they are so against abortion.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Don't do it. It's physically and emotionally nerve wrecking. Not only do you affect your body but it kills your mind. The thought of what you go through is not 1/2 as much as what that child goes through.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? If they are willing to make abortion legal then they should be willing to make child abuse and murder legal. That's all it is! Not only is the woman's life effected but also that unborn child. I don't care how far along a woman is in her pregnancy. As soon as you find out that you're pregnant that is a living human being.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Nov. 1986 Doctor's home Hayesville, NC.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO! No one professional sat me down to tell me anything about how this abortion would affect me physically or psychologically.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? Baby's father
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? It put me on a path of self-destruction. I was 24 yrs old when I had the abortion. For a while after I was OK but slowly, but surely, I started a downward spiral into self-hate, self-rejection, and self-judgment. Depression (clinical) quickly ensued. I have panic attack disorders, Chronic Fatigue Syndrome, Fibromyalgia. I am 40 yrs old now. The past two yrs I have walked through emotional hell trying to deal with my past. I have hurt emotional in an under statement. It has affected me for 16 yrs. I was a mother, a God given privilege, and I gave that up for convenience.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? No one knew until recently. But no one could understand why I was so sick, so depressed and so angry. I know they felt helpless, even giving up on me.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Don't do it! It is not a "right" it is murder in the first degree! Sooner or later, deep down in your soul, you will have to face the fact you are a murderer - of your own child. And if you don't you'll end up like me, physical and emotional wreck!
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would tell them yes, a woman has a right to her own body to do what she pleases, healthy or degenerative, but she has no right to take another "body's" life. No human life, no matter how it is conceived, is a mistake or inconvenience.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Teresa Renee Zell (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: Dec 15, 1990; Winston-Salem, N.C.; clinic - 3000 Maplewood Ave -
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? No If not, explain: It was explained like having a period - heavy bleeding, blood clots, some tissue. I would arrive, pay $300. Go back, put on a gown, take pill. Wait my turn. It would take a few minutes. I would relax for 15-30 minutes afterwards & go home. (like having a tooth pulled) they also said the doctor would talk to me before he started to be sure of my decision - just in case.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? My friend - he said that if I did not abort he would have my other children taken from me and he would take my baby after it was born and I would never see my baby. His preacher said it was better that the baby never be born.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? depression; nightmares; hospitalizations; suicidal thoughts & actions; guilty; anger at myself and those who forced the abortion; fear; eating disorder; alcoholism; low self-esteem; anxiety; stress. I used to have thoughts of finding the father and killing him slowly and painfully and making him hurt like I hurt. If I thought I could win I would sue him for the pain & mental suffering he has caused me!!! Abortion made my bi-polar disorder worse!
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I have not been the productive mom, person I could have been. My children have been affected the most.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Please, do not have an abortion. Talk to 20 women who have done this. It is not a quick fix. Get the facts. When you are 3 weeks pregnant your baby has a heartbeat. The abortion will haunt you the rest of your life and it will affect your judgement in all areas of your life forever.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion is murder. Like suicide, it is a permanent solution to a temporary problem or situation. The damage cannot be reversed for the mother or the baby that dies. Because abortion is legal parents are forcing teens to have abortions and society has to eventually deal with the effects the abortion has on where teens later in their lives. Teens run away to keep from having abortions and end up on the streets because people like me cannot take them in legally. "I sincerely don't know where to begin. I'm not a writer or public speaker. Not a salesperson or figurehead in the community. I'm just a middle-aged mother who prefers to serve the Lord Jesus Christ from behind the scenes where it's safe. It's becoming apparent to me lately, however, that God doesn't always leave us in places where we are the most secure and comfortable. It's taken Him several weeks of gentle, but consistent urging to convince me to leave my comfort zone and deliver a message for Him, reminding me that I am His hands and feet until my journey home. So, out of obedience to my Savior, armed with His strength, secure in His promise, and with a heart full of love for my children, I go.

I'm a volunteer at a local Crisis Pregnancy Center. My service in that ministry began a couple of years ago when the Lord lead me there to find comfort and healing. You see, twenty years ago I was in a crisis pregnancy. I was divorced and financially struggling raising two very small children. Terrified, sick, and confused, I found myself a few weeks later sitting in an abortion clinic, emotionally numb and being prepped for surgery. I wasn't given any information; the environment was clinical and impersonal. It was just a piece of tissue, I thought. I never dreamed that I was about to kill a baby. I thought I was just preventing the continuance of something that would later become a baby. I can't escape the vivid memories of the hour that followed. I was awake during the procedure and remember the physical pain of having my cervix forcefully dilated and uterus suctioned, the distinct sounds as the vacuum made contact with my baby (later learning that it had ripped her apart as she felt pain), and the consuming emptiness that engulfed me after it was all over. I remember lying there, alone, crying, looking around the room after the doctor and nurse had left. It was obvious by the blood that something terrible had just happened in there. Something terrible had. My sweet, innocent baby had died.

I managed to push every memory of my abortion down into the deepest, darkest depths of my mind and heart, locked away forever, never to talk about it or tell anyone, especially not my other two children, ever. The denial was so intense that I believe I had convinced myself that it had never happened. I later remarried and my husband and I tried to have more children. All of our pregnancies ended in miscarriages. Finally the time came when we were no longer able to conceive. Ten years of infertility passed and we sadly accepted the fact that we were not going to share the blessing of having children together. We walked through some pretty dark valleys for two years after that. But God, in his wonderful patience and faithfulness, blanketed us in His wonderful Grace, and the deep, painful wounds in our marriage and lives began to heal. A year later, in God's own perfect time, my husband and I celebrated an unexpected pregnancy! Classified as "high risk," the doctors prepared me for a closely supervised nine months. My first ultrasound was at 7 weeks following conception. That was the first time I had seen a baby at that stage of development...so small and delicate, his little heart beating so strongly. My husband and I giggled and cheered in awe at every tiny movement we saw him make while we watched the screen. I felt some associations and realizations stirring even then, but I refused to dwell on them. We made it through an uneventful, full-term pregnancy, and our beautiful son, Addam, was born on April 22, the day after my 40th birthday. I remember holding Addam in my arms just moments after his birth and marveling at God's precious miracle.

Addam was nearly a year old when the Lord decided that the time had come for me to unlock the door and walk with Him as we faced the horror and sorrow of my abortion together. I could no longer hold down the memories. The grief, by then, was coming up in waves, despite my desperate attempts to suppress it. I didn't know about post abortion syndrome or about Christian ministries who helped women work through abortion trauma. I was led by God to the Center through a Shepherd's Guide directory that just happened to flip open to a Charlotte Pregnancy Care Center ad as I picked it up while leaving a Christian book store. I called the Center, spoke with several loving Christian women, and was enrolled in a soon-to-start PATH (post abortion) bible study group. Chris, a staff person who led the group and who had, herself, experienced abortion many years prior, was a wonderful, loving lay counselor. For weeks the four of us in the group studied God's word, God's will, and shared our abortion experiences and feelings. A lot of tears fell as the emotions were finally allowed to surface. It was a time of tremendous depression, sorrow, and later, release, as I mourned for the first time the baby that I had swept away. In my need to know more, God revealed to me that my baby was a girl, whom I named Mary Grace. My sweet, unborn baby finally had an identity. It seemed at the time that the only possible remedy to the tears would be if God, in his mercy, would put my baby back into my womb so that I could hold and cuddle her someday. I prayed that He would somehow undo my mistake and take away my grief and guilt. I was crying for a child I had never known, but loved with all of my heart.

With the Lord's help and the love and support of my Christian sisters in the group, I was finally able, by the end of the bible study, to face the realities that my precious baby was gone, that she had died by my hand, and that I was forgiven. God created woman to be a nurturer and protector of her children. One baby never replaces another in her heart. Even if I had been blessed with ten children, I would have loved each one totally and completely, and still would have loved and longed for the ones I had lost. I knew the Lord had forgiven me, but self-forgiveness was the hardest part of healing. I didn't feel deserving. I didn't want to feel deserving. It took time to finally accept complete forgiveness. I know that Mary Grace is safe with Jesus in Heaven now and that I will be reunited with her again someday, but I still miss her and cry when I think about her. Abortion shatters lives.

These signs and pins, which I am making myself at home, represent everything I feel in my heart for Mary Grace, for all of the babies who will be lost to abortion, and for their mothers who will later feel the grief and regret that I feel. The abortion clinics won't warn those women of post abortion syndrom, and they certainly won't leave pictures like these laying around on waiting room tables in an attempt to change minds. If I had only seen these pictures when I was pregnant and confused, I know, without a doubt, that my unborn child would not have died."

I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

I'm here today to tell you a story, but first I read somewhere (and I know this to be true)

That faith is deaf to doubt, dumb to discouragement, and blind to impossibilities.

Faith also allows Christ to do for us and with us what we could never do alone.

I could not be up here without that faith, trusting that God is with me and is my strength.

This is a true story and it's titled "Unbound"

What I hope you will take from this story is the redemptive power of God ...
how great His love is...and how He can bring good out of something evil.
The GOOD is that through God's love and forgiveness I found a Savior and a Friend and He has gathered another lost lamb into His fold..

Unfortunately, it took me 9 years to really understand God's forgiveness.

The unworthiness I felt affected every aspect of my life and I was in bondage. Satan loves it when we constantly replay our sins and feel guilty.

We spiritually incarcerate ourselves despite the fact that no place in the Bible does God say He has forgiven us of all our sins "EXCEPT". ... Jesus paid it all. ..God's gift of grace is unmerited, undeserved, and comes to us pre-paid ... but this is a difficult concept for some of us to grasp because so much of our lives is based on performance.

When I was finally able to receive that gift from God ,it was like walking out of a prison into freedom...into a new life.

. Still, I did not speak about the abortion for 35 years. This is only the second time I've spoken of what happened . I've believed for many years that God will somehow use my experience to help others (and I believe He wants to do this with all of us) The trials we go through are meant to strengthen us and empower us to do His will and not bring us down.

There is a great hindrance called post abortion syndrome that keeps those who have had an abortion from becoming the people God wants us to be and until this is dealt with we are of very little use to Him or anyone else. First of all sin must be recognized, and repented of . God never denies a sincere heart. His greatest desire is to live in our hearts, but when our hearts are filled with guilt and anger , resentment and despair there is little room for Him.

You won't hear this from pro choice advocates but post abortion syndrome occurs with most abortions and when the realization of what the woman has done becomes real to her, it is, believe me, something you don't want to experience. And, normally this doesn't happen until several years later. Many times it ends in suicide or it can last a lifetime. These women are the ones who do not know God's love and power and they suffer in silence because they are too ashamed to discuss their past. Chances are they don't want to embarrass friends or shame families ...or they don't have a caring pastor or an Open Arms to go to for help. One more thing ... the fact is most women have an abortion because they feel they have no choice, because of work , school, other responsibilities, cannot afford a child,or are having problems with a husband or partner. They panic and react without thinking of the child or the consequences of an abortion. At Open Arms there are trained counselors to deal with all these problems... but most importantly they need to know they have a loving heavenly Father who loves them, regardless of their sin, and they do have worth in His eyes,and He is ready and willing to take them in His arms to comfort them and give them peace.

Psalm 29:6&7

Praise be to the Lord, for He has heard my cry for mercy. The Lord is my strength and my shield: my heart trusts in Him and I am helped. My heart leaps for joy and I will give thanks to Him in song.

UNBOUND

This is the story about a young girl
Whose parents were loving and kind,
And they brought up their children in a Godly way
With values well defined.

Though she loved her home and family
She always had a dream :
To explore the world from end to end
And, at seventeen she was ready, it seemed.

She was excited and eager to be on her own
To discover what life was about.
Confident her dancing would pave the way
She allowed no room for doubt.

Along the gilded road she traveled,
Intrigued by the glamour and lights-
Blinded by the attention of wealth and fame
She could no longer see what was right.

Bedazzled by glitter and temptation
She yielded to the savor of sin
And unbeknownst to her at this time
The devil chalked up a win.

Pregnant, and seeing no other way,
She chose what she felt to be right...
Abortion was her answer
To escape this horrible plight.

But her life would never be the same
For the consequences of sin never fall.
Lonely, despondent, tormented with guilt,
She felt she was living in hell.

How could she have made this decision,
She thought, as her mind began to clear-
But she ~~knew~~ it was selfish ambition
And she shuddered with shame and fear.

"How can this child, or God, forgive me?
How can I forgive myself?
How can I ever forget what I've done?
Is it possible to just sit it on a shelf?"

Years of suffering took their toll
Until one day she found
That God still loved her after-all
And chains of guilt were, at last, unbound.

Only the power of a sovereign God
Could set her spirit free
And I know this Truth with my heart and soul,
For the girl in this story is me.

AFFIDAVIT

(Questions for WOMEN Who Have Undergone Abortion)

The State of North Carolina

County of CASWELL

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Leslie Holmes Gvdos, who, being duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts.

1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred:

My abortion occurred in the early spring of 1996 (I cannot remember the specific date) It was at a clinic called Women's Pavilion on Elm St. in Greensboro, North Carolina.

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain:

No, I was not adequately informed. I was shown the instrument that they would use to suck the baby out and a brief explanation of the mechanics of the procedure. I was not informed of the excruciating pain that would occur, during the procedure as I was given no painkiller or anesthetic of any sort. I do recall that they gave me some type of pill that would help my blood coagulate so I would not bleed excessively.

3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion?

No, I was not informed of any negative consequences of abortion. No one ever told me about the years of physical and psychological and emotional pain that I would suffer. And no one told me about the years of infertility I would suffer. No one told me that it would effect my personal relationships.

4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you ever had breast cancer?

No, I was not informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer. No, thankfully I have not and will not have breast cancer.

Yes, the father, my boyfriend's immediate reaction to my pregnancy was to get an abortion. He did not want the responsibility of having a baby and he did not want to marry me. I also believe the clinic workers subtly coerced me into it also, even though I told them I was extremely conflicted and unsure that I wanted to go through with it. In my mind I thought I was going there for a consultation or to learn more, but once inside the clinic, my boyfriend really made me feel that abortion was my only reasonable choice. I know the clinic workers were just as interested in me going through with it because I asked one clinic worker if I could see the sonogram and they said no.

6) How has your abortion affected you?

It is hard to enumerate all the ways it has affected me in a short space. As a result of it, I have endured much guilt, remorse, shame, and physical and emotional pain. For weeks after the abortion, I felt suicidal. I have had continuous abdominal pain for six years since the abortion. Since the abortion, I have had bleeding between periods and irregular menstruation. I have also tried to get pregnant without success. It has affected my relationships with my husband, mother, and other family members. I have missed having a child who would be six years old by now. It was a totally devastating experience, like being in a war, where the battleground was my own body. It was a horrible experience that I would never wish on any woman. It did however bring me to a point where I cried out to God and now I have forgiveness, salvation, and a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

7) How has your abortion affected others in your life?

It definitely has not brought the joy that a child would have brought. Others in my life have had no concept of the horror I went through in the abortion clinic. I grew up believing that "pro-choice" was the right belief. Some of my family members still believe that is true. Others in my life cannot really relate to me like they did before. My mother has been affected by the loss of a grandchild and my grandmother missed out on her great-grandchild. It seems the loss was not as devastating to others as it was to me. It has also been hard to find others to share and talk with about this, because of the shame involved. I believe many women never talk about the abortion(s) they went through and therefore are walking wounded. They never get a chance to heal and their lives are affected in ways they themselves don't understand.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion?

In a moment of crisis abortion may seem like a viable option but it is truly a short-term gain, with a long-term loss. It was the most horrible experience I have ever gone through. I now know that it is murder. You are killing a baby not a mass of cells. God began knitting that child together in your womb from the moment of conception. That baby is depending on you to do care for it and give it the life it was meant to have. You are its only ally, don't kill your baby. Your baby will love you and you will be happy you kept your baby, despite any hardships you may experience. You may have gotten pregnant out of wedlock or other bad circumstances but two wrongs do not make a right. Adoption is always a possibility and there is help for you if you decide to keep your baby.

9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

Abortion is murder and murder is sin. Sin always has bad consequences. Our judicial system should not allow us as citizens of the United States to murder people (including unborn people) for convenience; it should be against the law. The court cannot condone mass-murder under the euphemism "abortion". The unborn baby deserves it's right to the life it was intended by its Creator to have. If the court goes against God's law and condones murdering unborn babies, the innocent blood of those babies will be on the court's hands. I have endured the horror of abortion and now I know the truth about it. It is murder of a fully unique human person made by God. Abortion snuffs out the life of a person who cannot speak for itself about whether on not it wishes to live or die. The court has a responsibility to speak for those who cannot speak for themselves. Abortion devalues human life of all types and it kills human life in utero. Abortion is a serious moral depravity in our society and if not stopped, legalized abortion will ultimately lead to judgment on us all by the Creator of us all.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared [redacted] [redacted] [redacted] (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred:

1979, 1980 - Great Clinic, Jacksonville, NC, 1983? Wilmington, NC

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?

I do not wish to put the blame of my decision on anyone else. However, abortion was presented as a "quick fix" to the situation I found myself in. There were no crisis pregnancy centers in my area then. On the emotional, physical, or spiritual implications were never disclosed. Abortion was mentioned slightly.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer?

No.

No.

There was no discussion about the baby of the actual abortion process it self.

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who?

off I felt that neither my parents or my church would understand. I know I was strongly encouraged by the "father" and they said for the abortion. At the Government said, all I had to do was fill out some forms. The fact that it was legal, made the decision to have an abortion much easier. It seemed less wrong somehow.

5) How has your abortion affected you?

Much easier. It seemed less wrong somehow.

For a while, I managed to blot it out. I too can still not remember all the details. I could find a long time to have a very low self-esteem. However, I kept in good physical shape. I believe my physical health is stable. One day I found at least 1000 of my subconscious guilt. Emotions will return. I still haven't revealed everything to my husband, family, or my church. I feel as if I am the largest of revealed everything.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?

It took me a long time to tell my husband. He was very understanding and he said to my father that I told I could if I trust him enough to tell him sooner. I told him I had more than one. He said he'd rather not hear anymore. My parents only know one. They have expressed their sorrow for possible contributing which I no more forgive each other. I know I will probably have to tell my children one day (they are 11 + 12 yrs old) I don't know if they'll be able to handle it or not. I'm afraid they'll hate me. I'm praying always that they will not make the same mistakes I have made. But I'm trying to raise them so that if anything like this ever happens to them, they will feel that they can come to me for help & understanding and love. (Also, I have had two miscarriages and I'm afraid my abortions may have contributed somehow to this.) Dad will forgive you. It is forgiving yourself that is so hard to do.

Your decision to have an abortion will haunt you for the rest of your life. You will regret having the abortion. You will not regret having the baby.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

Think & pray for as long as possible before making your decision. Explore all the options available. Visit at least 3 agencies in Texas where they will tell you all the facts & listen to you without judging you. There is no one to be considered that just the present time. Think about how you will feel about yourself and your baby in the future. You know as a baby you just need someone to help you.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

Please, take into account, just a fact that this unborn baby could easily be a disabled child. Your child or your grandchild. It is wrong to kill our human beings. I think about how many lives could be saved if the consequences of legality was removed. Many lives would take needed pregnancy & pay until we are expelled. The possibility of God, 3rd, 4th, etc. abortions would probably be reduced drastically. Look around at the depression, low respect, quiet, slow & country productivity. Boston has produced in those who have taken part in it. Also, think of the increase in the number of temporary, productive citizens, had abortion not been legalized. Lastly, but most important, think of what you will say when you stand face to face with Almighty God & have to give an answer for why you would let keep abortion legal.

I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1985, Orlando, FL

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? Absolutely not. No, I do not have breast cancer

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? Yes. My boyfriend. Several months later he became my husband. I became pregnant again & refused to have another abortion. We then got divorced.

5) How has your abortion affected you?

I am so sad that I murdered my child. I know that God has forgiven me, but sometimes I wonder if I'll ever forgive myself. I remember the sounds & the pain of the death of my child. It's horrid. I remember the voices of the people outside the clinic calling me a baby killer. As a Christian now, I hope to never be that judge of anyone.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I have kept this to myself for 20 years, ashamed of what I've done. My ex-husband has never felt any remorse. My daughter (15) does not know.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

I would tell her that it's easy to go into the clinic - but the "procedure" is painful - spiritually + emotionally. It's wrong, it's death + that child cries out - don't mommy. I tried to back out but was semi-conscious & couldn't - the procedure had already begun.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

NO way should this be legal! That is a living human being! It's murder. Just as much as murdering a 1-year child. ~~It's not birth control!~~ The child feels pain! I know that child feels pain. It is not birth control!

Yes, women should have control of their own bodies. However, that child has it's own body + no voice to speak out at this point.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Saundra Murphy (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred: I can't remember exactly when - April or May of 1981 or 1982 somewhere in Dallas, Texas. I have always tried to suppress it and only thru the healing I am receiving from God - do I remember more & more.
2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No. I was told that it was a simple procedure that would not take long and it would be done and over with and I would forget all about it. I would be given some medicine that would put me 'out of it' but I felt a lot of pain.
3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No. I wasn't told of any - I was told there wasn't any besides feeling a bit nauseous from the medicine they were giving me. Besides that I wasn't suppose to have any problem whatsoever.
4. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No
Have you had breast cancer? No - not yet
5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes.
If so, who? A Nurse at the health department - my sister, and the nurse at the clinic; when I wanted to leave.
6. How has your abortion affected your: Depression worsened, eating disorder, drug and alcohol addiction, increased - heightened, sleeplessness, nightmares, problems with relationships, uncontrolled crying spells, suppressed anger - pain - bitterness, sterility, withdrawal, suicide.
7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? I have been distant, angry, untrusting of others, closed out family & friends. My mother received a lot of pain because of me subconsciously blaming her & wanting to hurt her.
8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? It is murdering your child and it will effect you & others around you; physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually. It may leave you unable to have children as it has me and at a very young age. I wanted to grow up, get married, & have children. It effects everything.
9. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion is murder and should not be allowed to happen. It only adds to the drug, alcohol, suicide, and relationship problems. I wanted to leave the clinic but was told if I waited even another week it would be too late. Pregnant means you are carrying a child and that child has a right to live, my child was fully developed - I was further along than they claimed.

I was in a lot of pain, something fell on the floor - an instrument he was using. I tried to get up but they strapped me down. I saw my child's arm and I screamed. The doctor just sort of laughed, picked it up, and continued to pull pieces of my baby out of me as I cried. I was carrying a child not just some tissue blob. My story is probably more heinous than others but it doesn't change the fact that every woman I've ever met that has had an abortion; has mental, physical, & emotional problems. And these procedures were, mostly, more "professional" and "routine". There is even more to my story than this but I am already writing on the back and I don't know if that's okay or not but I felt I needed to put more than was on the front. There are consequences to abortion - none of them are good or moral. No wonder our generation of kids are killing each other - we allowed it to be legal to kill our children.

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Karen Portela, (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is Karen Portela (Print Name) My address is over the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

In June of 1992 I got pregnant. I was not the kind of person that something like this happened to. I had a wonderful family and was very popular and outgoing. I thought there was no way I could go through with a pregnancy. Not only would it hurt my family, but I had plans. I had to finish college. I went to a Planned Parenthood where I was told my options, but I left with a handful of abortion information. So at 9:00am at a clinic in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, I had an abortion. At first I felt relieved. I thought my problems were over and that I could get on with college. Exactly two weeks after the abortion, however, I found myself drunk, lying in a fetal position, crying "I didn't want to kill my baby". That night was the beginning of alcohol abuse that lasted well over a year. When the abuse finally ended I began to realize how much I had changed. I was no longer outgoing. In fact I had very few real friends because anytime people came into my life I pushed them away. I spent my life feeling empty and afraid. I went through periods of depression when I could not make myself wake up, much less get out of bed. The only emotion I seemed to feel was anger, and it was consuming me.

Please return to: Texas Justice Foundation, 8122 Datapoint, Suite 812, San Antonio, TX 78229

I sought professional counseling and thought I was better, but my life continued to spiral downward. I found myself pregnant again. During this pregnancy I gave my life to Jesus Christ. I have been through individual counseling and was involved with a support group at a Crisis Pregnancy Center. Though it was a very long, hard process, in February of 1998 I accepted that though I had an abortion and it was wrong, I am forgiven and can move on with my life. I am finally at peace.

you will live to regret it. God allowed you to have a life, you owe it to your baby.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared DIANE A. BAILEY (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: April 26, 1975 at THE Cleveland Clinic
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? THERE WAS NO COUNSELING WHATSOEVER, ONLY THE EXCHANGE OF MONEY.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? YES If so, who? my then boyfriend Marc either I was to get an abortion or he would leave me, I was scared to death.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? Afterwards I tried to escape the agony of guilt & shame thru drugs & alcohol & considered suicide frequently as well. On at least 2 occasions I would get a knife and begin to slide the blade across my wrists ~ never having the nerve to proceed further but always hoping I would die. I sought counseling but nothing ever took the guilt away. Now I am a Christian & know I am forgiven but I cannot shake the guilt & shame around for years.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Some are stand-off-ish. Others don't want to talk about it. My niece named her 2nd daughter after my daughter I aborted.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Abortion straight up is indeed murder and once you've made that horrendous decision you don't only become a woman who has had an abortion, but you are now the mother of a dead child.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Please consider the extreme consequences. Murder is murder. You can not conceal that simple & plain truth. There are thousands of shattered lives, both male & female that are held in bondage to this guilt & shame that comes with that life-changing 'choice'. NO one wins when abortion is thought to be the better choice.

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: 7/78, CLEVELAND, OH
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: I WAS NOT TOLD THAT IT TEARS THE BABY APART PIECE BY PIECE, THAT THE BABY WOULD FEEL PAIN. I WAS NOT TOLD ABOUT THE YEARS OF EMOTIONAL TORMENT I WOULD EXPERIENCE
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? NO. I MAY HAVE BEEN INFORMED ABOUT THE PHYSICAL RISKS, BUT NO ONE EVEN BEGAN TO TELL ME ABOUT THE EMOTIONAL & PSYCHOLOGICAL CONSEQUENCES.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? NO
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? YES. BY THE MAN WHO I WAS PREGNANT BY.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? IT HAS AFFECTED ME EMOTIONALLY. I WAS UNABLE TO BOND WITH ANYONE. I HAVE SUFFERED DEPRESSION. IT CAUSED YEARS OF SELF-DESTRUCTIVE BEHAVIOR.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? FOR YEARS I WAS UNABLE TO NURTURE MY DAUGHTER. I WOULD NOT ALLOW MYSELF TO
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I WOULD TELL HER, EVEN PLEAD WITH HER TO RECONSIDER. SHE MAY NOT EXHIBIT ANY PHYSICAL SCARS, BUT THE HURT AND LOSS WILL EXHIBIT ITSELF PSYCHOLOGICALLY. HER BABY IS A PERSON; NOT A "FETUS". IT WILL FEEL PAIN. IT WILL SUFFER.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? JUST BECAUSE A "FETUS" DOESN'T HAVE A NAME DOESN'T MEAN IT'S NOT A PERSON. AT 28 DAYS ITS HEART BEATS; DOES THAT CONSTITUTE LIFE? IT IS THE MOST UNNATURAL ACT OF THE "CIVILIZED" WORLD FOR A MOTHER TO KILL HER OWN BABY

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Karen Berger-Manga (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 6/11/85 513 West Market St. - Akron OHIO
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No, I was lied to and told my baby wouldn't feel a thing & I was not told that there may be problems with infertility & the cancer risks involved.
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No Have you had breast cancer? I have fibrocystic
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? The baby's father was (great disease) very immature (along with myself at that time). He said it was "the baby or me" (so couldn't have them both)
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? The abortion haunts me to this day. I know now that God has forgiven me thru Jesus' death on the cross that my debt is paid. But as a mother of 2 children now - I can't forget & often wonder how our lives would differ with the life of my deceased baby/child. Emotionally, it has been difficult to let your guard down, to trust and to believe that you are worth anything. I still remember (as if yesterday) the Dr. who did the abortion looking down into the container the afterbirth had in & shaking his head. I wonder why, but of course - no
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Makes trusting others difficult. It tends to make one be more "self sufficient" which is not what Christ wants us to be. It also makes you feel unworthy of anything good.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell her my story and then tell her about how a child is a gift from God & thru His grace & mercy, she'd be much better off carrying her baby to term. God will then help her make the right choice if she then is uncertain about keeping her child... there are so many wonderful loving people who would love to adopt.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would say that "How can they feel that abortion should be legal when there are laws against killing animals/harming animals - especially if pregnant... are animal lives more important than human lives?" I would tell them maybe they should experience first hand the pain and suffering having an abortion caused so many women... how the injection forcing the uterus to dilate then the insertion of the suction catheter literally sucking life right out of you. Then the foreorn feeling that people would reject "I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct." you if they knew what you had done.

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: Founders Womens Clinic Broadstreet Columbus Ohio
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO If not, explain: I was asked under "valium" (Why are you here?) That was the extent until "AFTER" the abortion. When we were herded into a conference room and given condoms and a quick "what to do if..." pep talk
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? NO I was damaged, hemorrhaged, infection, problems for years after, never another "normal" period, resulting in severe endometriosis and complete hysterectomy
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? me! If so, who? Fear of being found out. It was not my live in boyfriends. (Sin begets sin)
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I am 44 yrs old and childless, I desperately miss what could have been. I know in years past I drank, did drugs and many other self-abusive behaviors to bury my grief and pain. I know this led to bulimia, which led to diabetes! My hysterectomy led to osteoporosis. Would you like to read what I have written over the years?
- How has your abortion affected others in your life? My mother grieves for me, my loss and her dead grandchild.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? DO NOT DO IT! There are alternatives. You cannot fathom the long term consequences when the reality sets in and you realize you are not just unpregnant you ARE the mother of a dead baby. That pain doesn't go away.
- 9) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Life begins at conception. God says thou shall not kill anyone including babies created in his image. By legalizing abortion every "judge" carries the blood of the innocent on their hands. Every judge is as responsible as I am for the outcome of my choice, though their guilt

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 08/95 in Columbus, OH. (Planned Parenthood)
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I was informed of the two part process to terminate my pregnancy. I don't believe anyone could have adequately informed me of what I was doing: the consequences of my actions.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? I believe as a scared 16 year old teenage girl there were alot of people who pressured me into doing what I did. I wish I had been stronger. I wish abortion wasn't an option.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? At the time of my abortion I did not think that it would affect me at all, but it didn't take long to turn my life upside down. I would sit and cry for hours, I would write letters to my unborn baby apologizing for what I had done. My grades slipped by itself. I suffered and I was depressed for a long time. I didn't think I ever deserved children and I turned away from the Lord because I didn't think I could ever be forgiven. Every relationship I started
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? years later the father had a really hard time coping and dealing with what he had advised me to do. His relationship to her church for counseling. My parents and sisters were horrified by my actions.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? To never ever kill her unborn child, go through the pregnancy and then decide. Ask family for help or put the child up for adoption. There are so many families who want babies and don't have the option. PRAY!
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Why is murder legal? If my child were 1 min. old and I killed it would that be ok? NO! So why can I destroy this tiny life growing inside of me with absolutely no consequence from our justice system? Aren't we supposed to protect the weak and the helpless?

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day appeared Jobi Dishon, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) When and where did your abortion occur? July 21, 1988 Columbus, OH
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? (Check One) Yes No If no, explain: I was never given information regarding child development.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? Never given information regarding physical, emotional and/or mental side effects.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Yes No Have you had breast cancer? Yes No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes No If yes, who? _____
- 6) How has abortion affected you? I have felt guilty, angry, pain, sadness; I've tried to numb this by drinking and taking drugs; I have suffered from low self-esteem, sleep disturbances, eating disorders, sexual dysfunction and anniversary reactions causing great depression and physical sickness every year around the anniversary of this tragic event. I am an extremely over-protective mother and have had a hard time learning how to parent without anxiety, or as much anxiety as I cause myself with this over-protectiveness.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? The abortion has negatively affected my parenting skills, my relationship with my husband, friendships, and family members due to depression & personality since.
- 8) Based upon your experience, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? To know everything about procedure, location, doctor, after affects (not just given by facility). I would NEVER recommend anyone having abortion. This decision will affect your entire life; it is not something that goes away; you never forget.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? That a child is being murdered. A child develops at the time the egg meets the sperm - a chain reaction happens telling the woman's entire body that she is pregnant. It affects a woman physically when a pregnancy is terminated by a reason other than natural.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: October 6, 1995 - Westerville, OH.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? Yes I was - However, I was unaware of the specific link between abortion and breast cancer.
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? not Have you had breast cancer? no
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? The father of my baby.
I was not married to him - he had also been my first love several years earlier. I did not want to lose our relationship a second time.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? It has totally changed my life. I have actually always been pro-life. I went against the very core of my beliefs when I aborted my precious baby. The anguish I have experienced has been overwhelming - to the point that at times I wanted to "jump out of my skin". I wish I could go back in time and reverse my selfish choice. Through my most regrettable time in my life, even though I felt I did not deserve it, God has gently taught me about his unconditional love, mercy and grace. I have been blessed with a very supportive husband and two precious children since my abortion. My experience has grieved my husband as well.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? God has gently taught me about his unconditional love, mercy and grace. I have been blessed with a very supportive husband and two precious children since my abortion. My experience has grieved my husband as well.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? First and foremost - Do not have an abortion. Consider life-affirming alternatives - ie adoption. The concern regarding the procedure does not even compare with the lifetime of anguish associated with having an abortion.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? They are focusing too much on the right to choose and are losing sight of the horrible act that follows a choice of "yes" to abortion. Life begins at conception - and abortion kills this precious life. There are countless women and men who struggle everyday with their past decisions to choose abortion. What many view as a right to choose is in reality, a sentence to living with extremely deep anguish and regret. What about the baby's rights? I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct.

AFFIDAVIT

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion.

The State of Ohio

County of Dejance

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Angela Eckstein (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1977 Texas - 1979² Indiana Hard to remember actual dates
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO - my parents took me to both clinics, I was 14 yrs & 16 yrs old. I don't believe they were properly informed.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? YES If so, who? My parents made the decision - I felt like an innocent bystander.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? There isn't near enough room here to adequately explain it. I felt alone, afraid, in trouble (persecuted), with a few years & having never discussed it I dealt with a lot of depression, failed relationships (even with my own children). I have since found Jesus and am able to help others considering that dreadful alternative. - Devastating
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? distort, disappointment. But now it is a learning tool for them. My children now know my story & want to help me to help others.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? There is more to it than anyone will ever tell you at an abortion clinic. They don't tell you how much pain you will be in - in your soul. What does that say about it?
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? There's no such thing as Pro-Choice - you are either Pro-life, or Pro-death! Most women who've had abortions will tell you they felt they had NO-Choice!

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

- I want to tell my story.

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion.

The State of Ohio

County of Franklin

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Jeanette Elwell-Cossin (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts: J, Elwell-Cossin

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: BUFFALO NY NOV 1990 I was 20yr
2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? and had 1 daughter
No

5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No If so, who? because I was rejected by loved ones and had no friends @ the time so I made a secret decision. No one pressured me or told me Not to.

6) How has your abortion affected you? Adversely; horribly; deathly influenced me to. I said "No" but the first time I was pregnant 18yr my mom took me to abort and I know when I finally let the truth out but miscarried 2 months later)
I felt a little free. I waver from fear of rejection, guilty that innocent blood on my hands. Don't hate myself as much. I use to push myself love/hate and hit myself not knowing why I had so much rage in me. Wanted to be close to my children and attempt all these spiritual teachings with them and feel disconnected when doing it. I am finding forgiveness that frees me from anger and helps me to say I love you to me and children. I have learned to say yes to life. I still have wounds of despair, loss.

7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My daughter Christina age 12 said, "I never get to see my sibling or hug them. I had visions that I had a brother or sister my age all these years" before I asked my mom "did she ever had an abortion" Jeanette told my mom just this year she said,

8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? "We all make "mistakes" It is better + best to give life, because death hopefully I can set past breads death You will live with the truth you must the past." face + knew the truth to be set free. Abortion brings lies, secrets, + chains of pain

9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? One bad decision is the beginning of a long road to many more bad decisions which adversely affects, me, my children, my family, work, city, communities and this Nation, as evidenced in my life and continued use of 44 million abortions and it has now included last trimester abortions, and any others deemed unworthy.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct." I am glad I accepted God's salvation in my life. I want to live. I am glad my unborn man had me

- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It has affected my now husband (the father) deeply, & my mother, as it would have been her first grandchild.

I would tell them that abortion is a self-inflicted torture that women choose, because they don't know all the truth about its effects. Among other things.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? - 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It affected my family relationships and friendships very negatively.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Not to do it, because there are other alternatives that are less dangerous and will not leave you emotionally scared or feeling like an outcast. Plus the life inside you is real!
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would say that the life inside a woman is real and we should not kill it, because it kills a part of us. BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day appeared Mary Ann Hess, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) When and where did your abortion occur? New York City, New York 1991
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? (Check One) Yes No If no, explain: I was given misinformation re. death rates by my Planned Parenthood counselor encouraged ~~not~~ to speak with my family, friends, Church, or the child's father, told to make my decision quickly because my life was at risk.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No. In fact I was told that other than some heavy bleeding + cramping for a couple days there were none.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Yes No Have you had breast cancer? Yes No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes No If yes, who? Planned Parenthood Counselor.
- 6) How has abortion affected you? Guilt - especially had in 1973 when I looked at abortion in connection to my faith, distrust to drive off bridges occurring sporadically beginning 1975 - 2001 inability to hold babies without my breasts hurting (1975-1997), distrust of men (it took 3 years of dating to marry my husband), Abn shame, hidden anger, various fears in decision-making, Grieving Ronnie's loss began in ~~1997~~ 2001. Prior to that dealt only procedure. Contrary to Planned Parenthood's counsel each person I consulted have confided in, with whom I had been concerned would desert me as a pregnant 21-year old, hugged me in spite of my abortion + mourned with me.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Parents - pain bc lost grandchild. Adopted children - Pain of lost elder brother. Had to grow up under a strict parent. His Dad a divorcee.
- 8) Based upon your experience, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? No circumstance (all of which may seem overwhelming in the first 2 weeks of an unplanned pregnancy) is worth the agony of an abortion + the years of regret. Trust your family/friends. If
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion should be considered a crime against both women and children. Psychologically you wouldn't give your child to adoptive parents if you're the easiest to deal with a dead one. Organizations that promote them are very concerned re! abortion sales - not about abortion alternatives. They do not encourage potential consumers to come to terms with how the abortion will affect them in their individual social contexts.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 2 Abortions, Late 1970's Akron, Ohio
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I WAS NOT informed. They never said that they were going to kill a tiny baby. They never said I might very well regret what I was doing.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____

- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I have had a lot of guilt for over 25 years. I didn't care about my hygiene for several years + I was permissive sexually for lots of years. I didn't value myself + knew what I had done was horrible. I couldn't have healthy relationships with guys, wanting to manipulate them with sex.

- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It has been difficult for my children to have a warm relationship with me.

- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell them to never, ever get an abortion. It is always wrong. It is always murder. I would tell them to keep looking for someone who will help them save their baby's life. We must honor God with all human life He creates.

- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Murder is never legal. Abortion is the worse form of child abuse. AMA 1859 - Abortion is "slaughter of countless children" such unwarrantable destruction of human life. 1571 Abortion is "work of destruction, the wholesale destruction on unborn infants." Human life begins at conception no new DNA is added only stages of development proceed. Life is a continuum from the point of conception: no one has the right to enter a womb to destroy the smallest of human life.

AFFIDAVIT

To be completed by women who have had abortions

The State of OHIO
County of FRANKLIN

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day appeared [Redacted], who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- When and where did your abortion occur? Columbus OHIO 1985, 1986
- Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? (Check One) Yes No If no, explain: There was no counseling on what abortion would do to my mind, my heart, my soul.
- Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? absolutely NOT!
- Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Yes No Have you had breast cancer? Yes No
- Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes No If yes, who? _____
- How has abortion affected you? When I had my abortions, I resolved to never touch that part of my heart again. I pushed it down so far, I totally denied I ever had one. The guilt and shame were so horrendous, my next exclaim was O. I lived in the "prison" for 16 years before I finally "told my story" Even after I was saved, I still kept it deep inside. I felt like the worst sinner in the world, no one would want to hear what I had done. I had built a wall around my heart and no one was gonna get it. My precious Lord's Savior, tore down the walls and sent me to POHC where I got healed from my pain and torture. PRAISE GOD for CRISIS Pregnancy Centers!!!
- How has your abortion affected others in your life? it put a rift between my older children and I. I felt like such a horrible mother.
- Based upon your experience, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? God has a plan for every life, if you don't want this baby, there is someone who will accept it into a loving home and care for it as their own.
- Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? There is no amount of counsel that can prepare you for the after effects of abortion. The guilt and shame are crippling to the mother. This QUICK FIX brings a lifelong set of problems in itself.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

(Questions For WOMEN Who Have Undergone Abortion)

The State of Ohio

County of Lucas

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared S [redacted] J [redacted] (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: April 1983, Jackson, Michigan

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No. I really don't remember much of any kind of conversation with the clinic. I knew what was going to happen to the baby but had no idea of how it would affect me long term or of any details

3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No. Not informed on anything really.

4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No - No

5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? No

6) How has your abortion affected you? It effected me emotionally & in a lot more ways than I ever realized. Have had bouts of depression & for 17 years spiritual separation from God.

7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? They've had to deal with me & my emotional problems & depression.

8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion? They need to know all the facts of how this is going to effect them. I would tell them not to do it & if she does not want to keep the baby adoption would provide her with the same solution only may better. She can go on with her life & also give the baby life.

9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I can see very few circumstances where abortion is the solution for the mother or the child. It should be illegal except for rape, incest or to save the life of the mother. Abortion ruins people emotionally & spiritually & in many other ways.

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion.

The State of Ohio

County of Darke

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared [Redacted] B.L. [Redacted] (Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: New York City, N.Y. 1973
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No. Not ~~at~~ at all. No one along the way spoke of these things. No one call me a mother or the baby (any thing). No one encouraged me to reconsider or wait.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? YES If so, who? The father of the baby.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? It brought deep depression and fear. Eleven years later I came to know the truth stated in Scripture. "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." (Matt. 11:28). It was a tremendous relief to have forgiveness from God in Christ Jesus. By then I had become sterile from PID, suffered a breakdown of my basic health, and felt the family dog was more worthy of common courtesy than I. God has forgiven me. I must follow His lead. A total hysterectomy has followed. I fight an overcoming sense of danger in the ordinary situations of daily life.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I have built up walls to stay away from them; to protect both me and them from the hurt.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Many things we do that look like a solution (to a perceived problem) in reality prove to be far worse than the ^{initial} initial dilemma. If you choose abortion, you will live out this reality all the days of your life.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? No - it is irreversible. It breaks the heart of the mother; breaks the back (strength & personhood) of the father; and is no less barbaric than beheading of the baby. It lays a three-fold burden of guilt, shame and despair on our society.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared M. L. (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Dayton Ohio - Summer - 1975
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? Absolutely Not
No one told me my baby's heart was beating or that he had 8 ribs eaves!
No one mentioned emotionally consequences
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No Have you had breast cancer? No
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? Fear of reproach from parents Actually, no one knew. I guess the fear of telling my family
I was pregnant - out of wedlock did pressure me into the abortion
- 5) How has your abortion affected you?
I believe my abortion was the beginning of my devaluing human life - even my own. Twenty-five years later, I'm still struggling with low self-esteem. I talk to the post-abortion breast group at the Crisis Pregnancy Center - I believe in Christ & have. I finally 25 yrs. later, forgiven myself - Time does not heal all wounds
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I believe it has, because it was the first step in my devaluing human life - But also I now work at a Crisis Pregnancy Center & counsel with others the consequences of their abortion
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would first give her information on the development of her baby - ultrasound an - give a testimony
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? uninformed
I feel those that want to keep information from the women are driven by money & self-interest. What right does this society have to hide information about psychological effects of abortion - I feel now like I was a sheep being led to slaughter. At the very least, if a court says a woman has a right to "choice" "I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct." have a right to "know" all the facts!

1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred: OSU hospital, Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 1997
2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: NO, all that was said was "you know what your doing, right" and right before "no turning back now"
3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? NO, nothing at all was even suggested about the after effects or consequences
4. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? NO
Have you had breast cancer? NO
5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO
If so, who? _____
6. How has your abortion affected you? totally life changing, knowing that I killed my own child.
7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? yes, my husband, my kids
8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? you don't realize what you're doing now, but when that reality hits you, you will not be able to handle it, it will be totally unbearable! Please don't do it. You're a mother now, no matter what happens!
9. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? When a woman is pregnant it is no longer her body, she shares it with another human life. This is recognized by the court if a woman is pregnant in a car accident & the baby is killed, someone could be charged with murder. Why is the mother and her dr. allowed to be murderers?

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 7-3-76 Michigan
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?
I really don't recall. I believe that I was just in such a state of mind to just get it over and go on, that I just went through motions, nothing they said sunk in. I don't remember any faces that I saw.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? I don't know Have you had breast cancer? NO
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I really didn't dwell on it. It, the killing of my child, wasn't as much of a matter then as it is now. Then I wasn't a christian, so I could just bury the thoughts. Now my child is much more of my life, then at the time. I can successfully touch hearts of the saved and unsaved with my witness. I was a sinner who did something very very wrong, but even though I did something so horrible, Christ still loved me and wanted me to be one of His. So no matter what others have done, He can do the same for them. And that's how I deal with it emotionally, I gave it to God, and my child is being cared for in the eternal world, where I'm going to see him.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I have shared the death of my child with my 2 children as they became adults and I'm not sure how they feel. I never shared it with the child's father or my parents
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? "I can't stop you, but I've had one, would you have time to listen to my story?"
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I learned years after that it's murder. The blood that is shed is not the mother's. The mother's blood never enters the baby's blood system. They (the court) needs to have a touch from the father and have their eyes opened and their hearts to feel the pain of death

I deeply regret 1) having premarital sex and 2) having an abortion. I have to live with the guilt of this poor decision for the rest of my life. It doesn't go away. I am thankful for God's grace in forgiving me for this sin, because I have repented - But I will always remember that very poor choice I made.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? if honest

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? please don't! First & foremost I would discourage having premarital sex. Second, if you do get pregnant & can't care for the baby - please give it up for adoption!

- 1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred: 12/89 (I think Dec 23.) Riverside CA clinic on Tyler Ave near 91st
- 2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No. I didn't know that the baby could feel pain and that the abortion would be chipping it apart.
- 3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion: No. I didn't know the psychological risks, physical risks and I was under the influence of marijuana at the time.
- 4. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No.
Have you had breast cancer? No.
- 5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No.

If so, who?

- 6. How has your abortion affected you? I've had post abortion syndrome, I drank even more heavily, used drugs daily instead of recreationally, I attempted suicide twice, I've been hospitalized.

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion.

The State of OHIO

County of DELAWARE

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared TERESA J. PUTTS (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: ONE MAY 1978, 2nd MAY 1983 IN Columbus, OH
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO, there was no mention of psychological or spiritual effects. The physical effects were glossed over. I was even told that the 2nd abortion would not increase my risk physically in terms of bearing children.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? I was very alone. ESTRANGED relationship with parents. I was on my own with NO MEDICAL coverage and preparing to start college (with first one). Boyfriends did not try to talk
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? ME OUT OF IT. I tried to put it behind me - forgot it - not think about it. Since I have found healing, I realize I had an aversion to children. I did not delight in them. I was afraid to have them for fear I'd hurt them. (I grew up in an abusive environment). I buried myself in work and kept myself busy. I was very pro-choice for many years until I came to the realization I had killed human life.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Unfortunately, I encouraged and helped other women have abortions (at least a couple). That's my biggest regret. I also had difficulty in relationships and how I interacted with others. I needed to find healing in that area.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Consider alternatives that give life. You will have to live with any decision for the rest of your life, and killing your unborn child is a very difficult decision to live with. The procedure is not once and done. There are ramifications that you will live with. Need to find women need all the facts. The facts about the unborn child being a human being, the facts about how long it is for the procedure to go wrong, creating great physical complications, the facts about that abortion syndrome, the facts related to breast cancer. Additionally, the legalization of abortion has put many women under duress to abort (abuse parents, boyfriends, etc), because it is the "easy way out". They do not understand the ramifications either.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? See item 7.

(Questions For WOMEN Who Have Undergone Abortion)

The State of Ohio

County of Stark

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Samantha Linehart (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: error 1986 1987 Feb or March in Germany while I was in the Army.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: I think so. Not by the clinic, but I already knew what it was. I didn't think of it as, "destroying life", and knew one suggested that idea either.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? NO. Not any of the emotional effects or possible physical long term effects. I was only told about possible vomiting up to 48 hrs after. Nothing else.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? NO
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? Not a pressure, but an encouragement. Every body I had to talk to about it thought it a good "responsible" idea since I was a Soldier with responsibilities.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I became emotionally "turned off" numb. to all emotions & obsessed with getting pregnant again. To this day I regret having it every day.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband at the time, was deprived of affection. We are divorced later. My husband now has had to support me in my moods & in coping. My son some how has missed not having an older sibling.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion? Don't do it! you regret it for the rest of your life. You may not feel that way now, but it will come back to haunt you. A conscience can't take another life without consequence.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? You have to take in effect the emotional involvement of a pregnancy & the emotional consequence to the woman after an Abortion. It is taking a life! What about the rights of the unborn child? Unwanted children can be adopted out to families who can't have children.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Carolyn Schenkberg (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: 1973 Washington DC
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No
They told me nothing until it was over. Then they said I could miscarry any subsequent child and gave me birth control pills.
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No Have you had breast cancer?
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? The father of the baby.
No one else ever knew I was pregnant.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? Within the first year of the abortion, I used to sit in the chair and cry for hours, I decided to stop myself by sitting in the grass with the car running. Just before I was almost to walk to work, I crawled back into the house and cried. I did not get pregnant again and almost miscarried. I've spent most of my life depressed and have had nightmares regularly. I used to trust no one until I finally found counseling and forgiveness. I would give my own life to bring back the child I aborted.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My children think I'm very protective. I have been a secret until 2 years ago but I divorced the father of the baby aborted and our last child, my children do not know of the abortion.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? NEVER, NEVER, NEVER even consider it. The pain and guilt are really unbearable. The thought of what that child could have been, what he looked like, what his personality would have been, will never leave you. You'll always miss him or her.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? It is God's decision to allow a woman to become pregnant under any circumstances. He has a plan for that child and that woman if she'll turned to Him. He never makes mistakes. Everyone should know now due to modern technology that the fetus is alive at conception. Who really wants to kill a baby? The mother will NEVER forget what she has done. It WILL Affect her forever!!!

- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? No If not, explain: I don't remember being told much about the procedure until it was actually happening. The after effect was told to me as it happened also. I did not have the information to think about before the abortion.

- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No Have you had breast cancer? No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? The baby's father

- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My daughter was unable to have brothers and sisters.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Not to do it! You will have to face with God someday and you'll have to deal with it. Actually, as hard as it felt dealing with it, it felt worse when I didn't deal with it.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? It's taking the life of an innocent human being - it's murder, and after you make the abortion, you live with the fact that you did the terrible thing & you can't take it back - it's over!

- 6) How has your abortion affected you? Guilt, guilt, guilt. I always think of it on the anniversary. My baby would be 13 this August. I think of that every year. Unbelievable sadness. I drank heavily, suffered nightmares, bad relationships, shame, cervical cancer, irregular pap smears. I can't believe I killed my first baby! NO ONE WANTS TO DISCUSS IT. IT'S MY SECRET. I NEVER HEARD ABOUT WHAT AN ABORTION ACTUALLY DID TO THE FETUS OR MOTHER. IT'S A LIE THAT IT IS A GOOD THING. IT IS A DEATH SENTENCE FOR BABY & VERY POSSIBLY THE MOTHER PHYSICALLY MENTALLY SPIRITUALLY.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? NO ONE WANTS TO DISCUSS IT WITH ME.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would tell her how the baby looks, what it does at 8wks & show her pictures. Offer alternatives & tell her that her & her baby are valued and loved. I would plead with her not to do it. I would share all I had experienced.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? THAT ABORTION IS MURDER - PREMEDITATED. IT TAKES THE BABIES LIKE AND RUINS THE MOTHERS. IT IS INFANTICIDE & GENOCIDE. GOD WILL HOLD THEM ACCOUNTABLE FOR THEIR ROLE IN THIS.

- 6) How has your abortion affected you? Initially - I became angry and depressed. My Boyfriend Broke up with me. I FEEL totally alone. Slowly other kids at school found out About my Abortion and was Astounded and Embarrassed. I sought Counseling For thoughts of suicide and depression. The Doctor used Hypnosis on me??! And stated I needed to get in touch with my Female personhood! It took years to overcome the trauma of my Abortion!

- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? I would plead with her NOT to HAVE AN ABORTION, THE EMOTIONAL, PHYSICAL AND SPIRITUAL CONSEQUENCES ARE DEVASTATING!!
- 9) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? AN ABORTION CHOICE DOES NOT EMPOWER A woman, RATHER AN ABORTION DECISION LEAVES A woman IN HER OWN PERSONAL PRISON. Her PRISON IS FILLED WITH PAIN AND SADNESS AND THE CRIES FROM HER UNBORN CHILD!

- 1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred: May 1987, Akron, Ohio
- 2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: I was to some extent - I saw a video which described the procedure.
- 3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No.
- 4. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No.
Have you had breast cancer? No.
- 5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No.
If so, who?
- 6. How has your abortion affected you? I've struggled in different areas of my life due to my abortion. The most recent is w/my daughter and parenting her. Sometimes I feel anxious and I can be very overprotective w/her - not trusting to leave her w/ anyone ect.
- 7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband & I have suffered in our intimate relations due to my abortion.
- 8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I am in a unique position because I have also put a child up for adoption. So I could explain to her the fact that I have felt much less guilt & anger towards the adoption as opposed to the abortion.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared

C. A. A. (Print Name),

who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: I had an abortion on approximately February 8th, 1985; at the Northwest Women's Clinic in Columbus Ohio. The clinic at that time was located at the corner of E.N. Broadway and High Streets, on an upper floor of the building there.

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No. There were ten women (myself included) who sat in a room together. We were each taken out, one by one, first for this supposed "counseling" session. Some lady who never even looked at me said "Why are you here?" I replied "Daddy is a drunk." She wrote something down and said "OK, you can go back to the room." She did not refer me to something like Al-Anon, mental health counseling, or anything that actually might have benefited me. (I did, in August of 1986, begin going to Al-Anon and my husband also got sober in AA by the grace of God.) I have since had the feeling that taking your body to an abortion clinic to see if you need an abortion is like a female taking her car to a transmission shop to see if you need a new transmission: Of course you're not going to get out the door without paying them money.

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No; no.

I would say mostly myself—my husband (who was my boyfriend at the time) felt it was the only thing to do. I did not want the abortion, but I was a single mother living with my parents and was too afraid of their reaction to tell them I was pregnant. I often find myself wishing that I had run into a sidewalk counselor or someone who could have just helped me through that difficult time.

5) How has your abortion affected you? The worst way has been emotional. I cannot add up the tears I have cried or the pain of the regret I have felt. I had a suicide attempt in 1986 in which I drank spot remover in order to kill myself, and other suicide attempts and thoughts in 1987 (sitting by the Olentangy river and considering throwing myself in it, etc.) I spent years hating myself, and about four years in which I even "forgot" I had an abortion. In 1989, I had a stillborn baby girl (that's when I remembered my abortion and named the aborted baby Jamie). In 1999, I had a miscarriage.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I think it has been very hard on my husband, who knows very intimately how I have grieved over Jamie. He does not know how to handle my talking about it, that has been very difficult. Also, I think that the years of depression I have had have affected my only living daughter, [redacted] who was born in 1979. She had problems with drugs which, thank God, are now over with. There's some deep-seated stuff there that I can't even get into, but it is hard for me to hug her and be affectionate towards her. I have undergone some counseling, and one of the things I've had to work on is my bitterness towards my parents, that I felt I couldn't talk to them. (Although I take responsibility for the abortion, I find myself blaming them and then fighting that blame.)

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? (I already have said this to a young woman considering abortion, my daughter): Don't do this to yourself. You are playing roulette with regret, an evil form of regret that is a living hell. Forget all that "feminist talk," nobody lives with this except you. You can pretend that the baby is not alive or is not a real child, and you can pretend that there is some "moral" aspect to abortion that makes it okay But you can't keep pretending all your life, and that is what abortion affects: all your life. I would tell any woman considering abortion that truth can be denied, and truth can be challenged, but the truth that there really is a baby who will tug at your heartstrings cannot be changed.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would like the court to know that they're not doing women any favors by making abortion legal. I remember thinking even as I drove into the parking lot of the abortion clinic that, surely if this were immoral, the Supreme Court would not have ruled that it was okay. Many tears and heartaches later, I know now that the Supreme Court made an evil decision in 1973. Roe v. Wade helped me to pretend that what I did was okay.

Well, I also remember watching something on C-SPAN where one of the Supreme Court justices was talking with young people, and a young woman said that individuals should be free to make choices, even ones that may hurt them. I remember thinking at the time that, while the courts should always protect our freedoms, none of us should have the "freedom" or "choice" to harm others. I don't have (and certainly don't want) the freedom to beat a child with a baseball bat in the privacy of my bedroom, why should I have the freedom to pay someone $300 to vacuum away a child in my womb? I have lived the proof that abortion is evil because of the way I've felt over the years. If the courts were to compile accurate statistics regarding abortion: the psychological harm it causes to people, the exploitation it encourages (I would say that women have gained very little from abortion, and are looked at even more so today as sexual objects only), the physical harm it does to women (like not being able to carry babies afterwards), etc., the conclusion could only be that this is the devil's industry.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

6. How has your abortion affected you? I believe this unresolved, unforgiven, unspoken act directly affected our marriage which ended in divorce. Due to guilt and shame, I did not talk about it for 7 years. Some 10 years later, God used it to bring me to the end of myself when I admitted my responsibility and sin and received Christ's forgiveness and subsequent healing.

7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? I believe it was a barrier to intimacy - emotionally, physically and spiritually - with my second, and current husband for many years. I was an over-protective mother to our daughter and co-dependent with her to some degree. I now work at a Pregnancy Care Center and share my experience openly with others.

8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Abortion seems like a quick and easy solution at the time due to our fears, but in the end, it turns on you, as you come to the realization that you gave permission for another to take your own flesh and blood. You are then left with the fact that your child is dead, your heart is broken, and you are living a life of denial and dysfunction. I would take her to a Pregnancy Care Center where she could talk things through, get all the correct information, feel loved and cared about. I'd tell her this crisis can be turned into God's opportunity to grow and find strength she never knew. Because of going the hard way, she will meet other crisis decisions with faith and courage. Most of all, she will know the JOY of giving LIFE to her child without any regrets.

9. Based on your experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? My abortion was illegal, so I knew it was wrong. How can something legally wrong for so many years, suddenly become legally right? Deep inside the consciousness of a woman, she knows what she did...she allowed her baby to be killed...and she knows what she deserves. My motive was selfishness...I wanted to please my husband and not lose him. Strangely (but not really), is the fact that most women still hide their abortions. And I know why. Because deep in their hearts they know it is still wrong...and terribly unnatural for a mother. They know, or will come to know, a baby's heart beats at 18-21 days...that brain waves can be measured at 6 weeks, and at 11 weeks all the baby's organs are complete and functioning. But most of all they know what would have been had they not permitted the abortion. And they always wonder...what would he/she have looked like?...what would they have become?...and most importantly, what would our relationship have been like? And that is what will haunt them to their dying day. Though they suppress and deny it, it is there. So how does this help women I ask you?

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Helen Mannea, (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is Helen Louise Mannea

Please check the applicable boxes:

- I want to tell my story.
 I understand that someone will contact me.
 You may use my full name.

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred; Cincinnati (Clifton) Ohio (clinic on Auburn Ave. affiliated w/ Planned Parenthood and referred to by private medical obgyn at corner of MacMillan and Auburn. given abortions on or about 8/1980 and 8/1981 by Dr. Lumpkin who was also a physician at Christ Hospital.

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I went to an obgyn recommended by a co-worker after a positive at home pregnancy test. The doctor confirmed the pregnancy and I was excited, but not sure of what next. I told him I didn't know much about being pregnant and having babies and voiced my concern about my husband's blindness. He then said that I should decide if I wanted the baby or not, and referred me to a clinic down the street affiliated with Planned Parenthood where he said they would explain what was involved and the options to me. At this point I had not even considered not having the baby. Although I felt ilprepared and uncertain about what was involved. The clinic told me that they would talk to me about abortion, but that I had to make up my own mind about the pregnancy. I went to the clinic, hoping to glean some information about pregnancy and having a baby. They told me that abortion was a safer option than going through with a pregnancy and that it didn't preclude any future pregnancies. I still knew basically nothing about being pregnant and having a baby – even at my age at the time (in my twenties).

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? I was definitely not informed about any possible side effects of any sort. But I have not had breast cancer either. I was given a lot of statistics about the success rate and ease of abortions, how any considerations of past generations about complications etc. had been handled by the new technologies and procedures, and then given a few days window in which I needed to know if I were going to accept the procedure. I was told that abortions did not effect future pregnancies. They had said that many women had come to them in a similar position as myself and had successful abortions, and later had successful pregnancies. I was given simple logistics about the pessary insertion (point of no return), the waiting period, the date of the abortion etc. and the dire consequences of not following through with the abortion once the plug was inserted. Any questions regarding pregnancy childbirth etc. were not answered as they didn't deal with that there. Nothing whatsoever was discussed concerning the developing life within me. It was rather discussed as a logistical risky problem that they could help me out of. At the time they recommended the abortion because my husband was legally blind. Since the abortions, many years later, I have given birth to two healthy normal girls with no hereditary vision problems. What I had really sought and couldn't find either at the original obgyn, or at the clinic was support in going through the doubts and fears of pregnancy and birth and what I was headed for.

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? Whereas I don't remember anyone pressuring me to have the abortion, Everything moved forward avoiding any questions about the option of keeping the child and where I could go to get help with that learning. This is where I think we now need the most effort to be placed in order to avoid abortion. I was told that 8-12 week abortions were safer than childbirth. I felt for some reason I wasn't supposed to have a child and that I was somehow incapable or unworthy, and that it was a dangerous risk. My husband's vision problem was a concern as I was the only one working at the time and feared not being able to handle a family full of blindness. I had not known the support that God provides in our lives, if we turn things over to him. Subsequent to the abortion, my periods were excruciatingly painful and I feared I had endometriosis. I consulted an obgyn in Tampa Florida concerning this and he explained how the female body was designed to work and said that I didn't have endometriosis. He said that often, he found that after a normal full term pregnancy, the cramping would no longer be a problem. He took time to talk to me about pregnancy and my fears, and gave me the support to feel more comfortable. And then said that if I chose to become pregnant his exam showed that I was fertile. I did become pregnant a year later, and not being high risk, I then had to seek out another obgyn in Tampa to follow through with the prenatal care and birthing. I went to a birthing center in North Tampa where I prepaid for the prenatal care and birthing etc. When I got close to the 7th month of pregnancy, I showed a slight increase in blood pressure. That doctor told me I had to take Phenobarbital to get the blood pressure down, OR to go into the hospital for monitoring. One of the nurses on staff discretely mentioned she had to do that and her child was born addicted. I read the side effects of Phenobarbital that the pharmacist gave me and chose not to take the medication. It indicated in no uncertain terms in the written material the pharmacist gave me about the drug; that it should not be taken in the third trimester (right where I was), or there would be a high likelihood of birth defects. It said nothing about lowering blood pressure. So the next time I saw the doctor he told me that I could no longer use his birthing center as he considered me high risk but that he would still be my doctor, if I went to Tampa General Hospital for monitoring, and that I had to take the Phenobarbital or loose the baby. After all I had gone through in the first pregnancy, I was devastated. I filled the prescription but didn't take any and went into the hospital for monitoring as he had convinced me that my baby and I were about to die if I chose otherwise. I spent two days on an IV of magnesium "something", and was hooked up to a blood pressure monitor, fetal monitor, and had a catheter inserted. I had to lie flat on my back (bad news for circulation to the fetus as I had read elsewhere.) for two days, and was given blood and urine and bp tests every hour for two days. My arms looked as if I were a junkie from the hourly blood tests he ordered, and of course I was unable to sleep for the entire time. Finally they unhooked me and said that I had to stay upstairs another night. Then another doctor, the urologist, came in and said that he couldn't advise me as my own physician, but that I had no signs of any kidney problems, toxemia, or excessive high blood pressure, and that I was healthy, and all readings from the fetal monitor were normal. Up to this point my doctor had me believing that I and my baby were about to die if I didn't do as he instructed and the nurses brought me the 4x/day doses of Phenobarbital per my doctor's prescription, (which I actually did not take, knowing the serious possible consequences of this action, except once when the nurse stood there to watch me.) I disposed of them in the toilet, and slept as close to 24 hours a day as I could so they wouldn't try to sedate me and risk my baby's health further. The doctor from the birthing center came in again after the urologist left; and said that since my baby was 35 weeks old that he thought the lungs were mature enough that I should let him deliver the baby then and there rather than risk the effects of toxemia, which the other doctor said I definitely didn't have. I was able to get a release from the hospital. My cousin, who was out of state, called and I told her what was going on. Her brother and sister in law were also living in Tampa at the time, and they prayed for me and took me to see their obgyn. At that point, things began to proceed normally. The new obgyn was part of a group of doctors in North Tampa, and they conferred and said that I did not show any signs of toxemia, and that the scare the first doctor had put me under had probably precipitated a rise in the blood pressure as my blood pressure was not consistently high. But we watched closely just to be safe. In the end my baby was delivered naturally without any intervention or anesthesia at Tampa Women's Hospital. One other side note is that when I went in to get my records to transfer to my new physician; there was a list of deliveries on the desk beside me where I was waiting for them to fish up my records which seemed to have been "misplaced". On that record the doctor from the birthing center had listed several babies delivered that week at birthweights of 3.5, 4, 2.5 lbs. Two had stillbirths. I felt a shot of fear run thru my body as I knew that I was so very close to having had the same thing happen to me. And after the first abortion, I was very emotional about such things. I am so thankful for my cousins call and prayerful support. I now have two healthy babies both delivered successfully and naturally. The second, delivered in Cincinnati at Bethesda Hospital by Dr. Brunsmann. By this time I was much wiser to know what I was going to go through and what I was up against. It helped me to choose a supportive and caring doctor. We need to reach out and support young pregnant mothers to help them understand what is happening to them so they can make wise decisions and not cause the loss of needless lives and the consequent pain that accompanies that. Every day I praise God for the lives of my beautiful and "perfect" young girls. And pray that God will lead me in a way that I can give help to those young mothers who are so lost and confused in the medical world and jargon and just need to know who they were created to be.

5) How has your abortion affected you? My abortions were born out of several fallacies, and complete misinformation. I honestly haven't allowed myself to think or feel much about what happened. But, I do have an inner sense of darkness that something about me is not right. And there is no doubt whatsoever at the moment that baby is sucked out of your body that your body and very soul is in the midst of a deep struggle not to let that life go. Even without having been aware of the fact that that baby was actually "alive" in me at that time, clearly on the deepest of levels my body and soul knew absolutely. I know that if I were to dwell on it a great inner pain is hidden deep inside myself. But it doesn't serve life, so I don't listen to those feelings except to direct me away from such dangers in the future. I do know that everything to the very pit of my soul resisted it. And my entire body repulsed against taking this life from me. The abortion left me in such a disconnected void. But you are too physically weak at the time to deal with what happened in any real way. And then all the concern of the people around you is getting you to drink a soda and get healthy enough to get up and walk away from it. And all I wanted to do was to laydown and cry the deepest most painful tears of my life. I often have wished that I would have had the courage, knowledge, and support to have said no. One never forgets a horrible emotional experience, but you go on by putting aside the pain so you can deal with your daily life. The people at the abortion clinic were kind and supportive before and after the abortion. But there was definitely no space for considering how to handle a pregnancy and a child's birth. Nor was there any awareness of the painful experience a mother has when her baby dies. Even if your mind doesn't know your heart and your body do.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I really do not know, as after the abortion, my husband and I haven't discussed this nor have I had any reason to share this with others. My parents never knew. It is a part of myself that I do not readily accept and reveal to others, some undefined darkness that lingers inside me.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would offer support to her in overcoming her fears in her ability to adjust her life to support a baby. And help her to understand love, life, birth and God's abundance when we turn to him. I would share my experience leading me to do what I had done and offer her support as she discovered her worthiness and completeness in God's eyes. Then I would share with her my two successful births and the beautiful children whom I bore in natural childbirth and love and who transformed my life.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I wish not only that abortion were not an option presented to pregnant mothers, but that the facts about childbearing and support were available to them so they could find their way through the medical jungle to understanding the conception and birth of a life. I also would like to see that birth control were not so available to teens; because it was the readily available birth control without consequences attitude that I was presented with at Planned Parenthood in Cincinnati that sent me down the path of relating to sexuality without consequence. Very few teens understand the beautiful way that we were created to function. Had they not presented sex as an inconsequential and matter of fact act, I would not have been so willing to submit my body to the needs of the males who approached me or sought approval and comfort thru pre-marital sex. I feel that the damage began way back where the whole context of sexuality was set; totally unrelated to marriage, family and procreation. We need to set up an easily accessible forum where those who know can stand up and speak the truth to young females, (and males too), before they too find themselves on the medical conveyor belt due to lack of understanding, so they can make truly informed choices not based on partial and biased truths. I feel that there is no female who would want that option if they knew the truth of what happens and how it tears your very soul apart. And if they had a supportive way of dealing with sexuality and pregnancy in the bigger context of who they are and not just as a coin toss choice to solve an immediate problem. Mentioning the truth to women is not enough. We need a forum to work through what we find ourselves going through without knowing what it means to be sexually active. And what it means to become pregnant and give birth as God has planned.

I would tell the court that there is no question that abortion of any sort is wrong and that if our legal system is to reinforce our social agreement that life is valuable, then to allow abortions to be legal is a hideous contradictio. I believe that once we cease to value life with both our actions and our laws, we are all vulnerable to the consequences of such a choices of violence and are on the path of self-destruction. Even if I were to site the many many reasons that abortion is so very damaging; there are also many other implications that we do not yet understand as to the effect that this has on ourselves, and the lives of those around us. Do I think that having had the abortion in any way made the quality or even the ease of my life any better? Absolutely not. It did make me a different person. And for that I am deeply remorseful. For the sake of my two beautiful daughters, I would beg the court to disallow this option to even be a consideration available to confuse them.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day appeared Becky Abell, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) When and where did your abortion occur? 1983 - Tulsa, OK abortion facility
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? (Check One) Yes No If no, explain: I was asked to give $2500, fill out a form, take a blood test, & wait for a nurse to call me into the room where the abortion would be done. That was it.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? NO - Not at all
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Yes No Have you had breast cancer? Yes No
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes No If yes, who? _____
- 6) How has abortion affected you? During the many years of denial of the abortion, I experienced horrendous bouts of anger, depression, panic attacks, thoughts of death (my death), fears. I was constantly at the doctor's office, trying to find a physical reason for my disordered life. I drank alcohol secretly, I avoided anything to do with babies. Five years after my abortion, I married and gave birth to my son. It was during that pregnancy I realized I had destroyed a life through abortion. My downward spiral began. I was an overprotective mother. I "overdid" everything -- to compensate for what I had done.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I had trouble maintaining good relationships. I could not let anyone get close to me -- to know my secret.
- 8) Based upon your experience, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? Her baby is a valued life. She will deeply regret the abortion. She will experience emotional, physical + spiritual trauma. She can choose to adopt - out her child, to give it life.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Life is valuable. Babies cannot speak for themselves -- for their life. We must protect the innocent lives that do not have a voice. Women who have aborted are devastated. The pain is real. We must stop playing God. The fallout from abortion is traumatic.

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Beth Abercrombie, (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is Beth Abercrombie (Print Name). My address is

I am over the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

When I was in my 20's, I had 2 abortions. One in Indianapolis, Indiana and one in Long Beach, California.

The 1st one, in Indiana, I was treated with care - however no information of the life I was carrying or alternatives to abortion were given.

The 2nd abortion, in California, I remember the harsh words of the doctor saying, "Shut her up!" when I was on the cold table feeling the pain of suctioning. The nurses treated me rudely because the doctor seemed mad at them, too. I feel like one of the many "cattle" being processed that day. One number, not person, in a very busy business.

The main affect was I grew more and more afraid and indifferent to children. I had very sad dreams - and woke up sobbing.

Abortion is murder. I know that from the depth of my heart. It should never have been legalized.

6. How has your abortion affected you? yes - shame and guilt; poor sexual intimacy with husband. Had time for myself. But still have bad feelings and my husband had help through the years. Both have used time to heal and continued to
7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? heal through volunteer work with a crisis pregnancy center.
8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would and have had opportunities) share my personal experiences, share Christ's love, try to educate her on what abortion is, and does.
9. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion does not help women, it exploits them. It leaves one dead and one wounded. A deep wound that can heal with God's help, but leaves a scar on life.

- 1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred: I had an abortion on June 20, 1969 in an Apartment Complex in Tulsa, Oklahoma
- 2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: I was told nothing.
- 3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No
- 4. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No
Have you had breast cancer? No
- 5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes
If so, who? my mother
- 6. How has your abortion affected you? I became an alcoholic and struggled with depression for over 20 years. I've been to hell and back. I would hear a baby cry. I was suicidal. Angry
- 7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? My abortion put up walls between me and my children and I became verbally abusive to them.
- 8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I tell them about the development of the baby and I tell them about the hell I went through. About hearing babies cry when none were around, being suicidal, an alcoholic.
- 9. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would tell them that they are helping to send women to hell. They take better care of dogs than they do of human beings. These are children that feel pain and have a right to live.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared M [REDACTED] H [REDACTED] (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: JUNE 1975, NORMAN, OK
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I WAS INFORMED OF THE DANGERS TO ME BUT I DO NOT REMEMBER BEING TOLD THAT WHAT WOULD BE DONE TO MY BABY (SUCKED APART LIMB BY LIMB?)
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? _____

5) How has your abortion affected you? FOR THE FIRST TWENTY YEARS AFTER I CHOSE TO KILL MY OWN CHILD I SUFFERED TERRIBLY WITH GUILT AND SHAME FROM THE DECISION THAT I MADE. AFTER TWENTY YEARS OF CARRYING THIS SELF-INFLICTED BURDEN I PARTICIPATED IN A BIBLICALLY-BASED POST-ABORTION HEALING PROGRAM. THROUGH THIS PROGRAM, I WAS FINALLY ABLE TO ACCEPT THAT GOD HAD FORGIVEN ME FOR THIS HORRIFIC ACTION AND THAT BY HIS GRACE AND HIS MERCY, HE COULD RESTORE MY LIFE AND USE MY LIFE FOR HIS GLORY!

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? MY MOTHER IS DECEASED NOW SO I CAN'T ASK HER, BUT I BELIEVE SHE CARRIED GUILT FOR HELPING ME HAVE THE ABORTION. ^{BECAUSE OF} HAVING AN ABORTION, IT MADE IT SEEM OK FOR TWO OTHER FRIENDS OF MINE TO HAVE ABORTIONS.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I WOULD ENCOURAGE HER TO GET THE MEDICAL DESCRIPTION OF WHAT WILL BE DONE TO HER CHILD DURING THE ABORTION. I WOULD ENCOURAGE HER TO GO TO A CHRISTIAN CRISIS PREGNANCY CENTER FOR COUNSELING BEFORE SHE MAKES HER DECISION. I WOULD ENCOURAGE HER TO CHOOSE "LIFE" FOR HER CHILD AND PLACE THE BABY FOR ADOPTION IF SHE CANNOT PARENT THE CHILD.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Anita R. Jones (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: I had 3 abortions. My father took me for the 1st one when I was 20, I had one at 22 and one at 25.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: I was not informed. I did not think of the fetus as a baby but as a mass of tissue.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? Absolutely not.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? I have not, but know now that the risk is high.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? My father pretty much took over when he found out I was pregnant and took me to the abortionist. A boyfriend took me for the 2nd. I went for the 3rd.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? The abortions increased my self-destructive behavior. I didn't realize the truth until about 15 years later - the fact that I had killed my children.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I think it has affected my children. I think they wonder how I could have done this.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Get help - there are people wanting to help & wanting to adopt your baby. The guilt you will eventually feel for participating in the death of your baby is almost unbearable - God's forgiveness brings a certain amount of peace but the memories are always there!
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion is murder of the innocent. We have laws forbidding murder of people outside their mother's womb, we should also forbid murdering preborn people.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: July 1972 - San Diego, Calif.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No - I suffered from mental anguish as well as hurting physically. I was only told basically where to go + what time to be there.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No If so, who? _____
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? The next day after, I went into a deep, dark, depression for over a year. I cried almost every day and for some time I turned to alcohol to ease the pain of the horrible guilt I felt. My life before then had been normal and mostly happy. I had always made straight "A's" and was an honor society student. I was not prone to drinking alcohol or anything similar in high school. I had the abortion because I was afraid and insecure. IT was the worst choice I ever made in my entire life. I deeply regret it.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I did not tell very many people. The ones who know were sad and disappointed about it.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Don't do it! Anything you have to go through to have the baby will not be nearly as bad as going the rest of your life wondering about that baby and how it did not have a choice.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? When I was young, I used to think that everything that was legal was also ethical. Afterwards, I found that to be totally untrue. By making abortion legal you give others like I was a very misleading idea. - 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? No If not, explain: I was not informed of fetal development. I was told about the procedure in terms I was not familiar with.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No No body told me of the emotional consequences of abortion. The physical consequences were read to me but I was told that didn't happen. They just had to tell me for legal.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? yes If so, who? My mother and family doctor.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I spent years in a depression, unable to cope well with everyday life. It has hindered my bonding with my children. I lost all desire to do anything productive. I could not concentrate on school, eventually I flunked out. I became suicidal because of the guilt. I could not be around babies.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband has had to deal with the hurt of my past abortion. My mother refuses to talk about her role in the abortion. She doesn't spend any time with babies.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? An abortion does not fix the problem of an unplanned pregnancy. I spent years feeling guilty for having an abortion wondering what my life would have been like. I feel I sacrificed my child for my family's acceptance, and they still don't accept me.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion is taking the life of another human being. It hurts women and tells women that there is no hope. Women are lied to in the name of choice. My choice wasn't even considered.

- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes ... If so, who? my baby's father (My boyfriend) at that time when I was younger
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? Because I had a lack of spiritual knowledge of what God says about abortions I had become very sad, I had regret and was unsure. I would say what if I had kept the baby?
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? One of my friends had an abortion when she was young as well
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Abortion is not of God, its murder and its selfish to have an abortion, because a pregnant mother is making the decision out of what they can accomplish when the child is gone and they are not giving the child a chance to speak for him or herself.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? All hands that participate in killing life in the womb should be judged the same for all hands that participate in killing life outside the womb. Abortion and all the extra worries, sadness, regret, only adds to the problems that the mother may already have.

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: October 1990, Family Planning Clinic, Wichita, KS.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? no If not, explain: The clinic did not give me any detailed information on my other options, or the specifics of the procedure.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? NO, not at all. I had my pregnancy test done at Planned Parenthood and they did not tell me anything. They said I could have a "discount" if I used a certain abortion clinic.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? NO If so, who? The pressure was self-inflicted. I knew everyone would be disappointed in me if they found out I was pregnant.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? The guilt has been overwhelming until I found forgiveness from God and learned to forgive myself. I would have physical symptoms anytime the word "abortion" was mentioned. I have been "emotionally numb" in alot of situations in my life.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I was a senior in HS. when I had the abortion and I told almost no one. The person it has affected the most besides me is my husband. It has handicapped our relationship at times.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? It is true - the baby will physically "go away". But he/she will always be with you. The emotional scars aren't worth it. There are other options out there. I wish I would have taken them.
- 9) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Girls these days are panicking when they find out they're in an unwanted pregnancy. You must not let them make a life-changing decision in a crisis situation that takes a human life from the baby. It also takes the heart out of the mother.

1. Tell when and where your abortion occurred: 5/83 in a Tulsa clinic

2. Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No, I was not informed at all of the nature of abortion. I was told that I needed to be cleaned out, the procedure was called a D+C, that it (the baby) was a glob of tissue, not referring to any human life.

3. Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? Not at all

4. Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? No
Have you had breast cancer? No

5. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No
If so, who? _____

6. How has your abortion affected you? Grieved for loss of baby, eating problems, depression, didn't feel good about myself, shame & guilt.

7. How has your abortion affected others in your life? My parents
~~A human life, a baby that is forming inside you~~

8. Based on your experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? That an abortion is terminating a human life, a baby that is forming inside of your womb, God's creation, and you will suffer and can suffer from emotional & physical scars if you choose to have an abortion.

9. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion is murder. Do we not convict murders and send them to prison by terminating a life? Early ultra sound show that a baby is forming and there is a heart beating. Just because some women want to have the right to choose to terminate this life, does not mean that it should be legal knowing the full facts surrounding an abortion.

I did not know how I was going to look at them again. The pain of what my choice brought was so immense.

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: Spring 1971
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No - I was told to contact a minister and he would arrange it in NYC as it was illegal in Pennsylvania at that time.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? Boyfriend

5) How has your abortion affected you? I was profoundly affected by it. I became promiscuous and more involved with drugs. I was suicidal at various times over the next 9 years. I was married in 1974 and was a mother of a 2 1/2 yr old by 1980. That year I was extremely depressed and emotionally troubled, almost to the point of suicide or divorce. But that year, by the marvelous grace of a gracious God, I began reading the Bible on my own, and within a few months became a Christian. That experience of forgiveness turned my life and my marriage around completely.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I helped a friend obtain an abortion a few years after my own. It has also affected my entire family in less obvious but no less profound ways. It has affected my mothering, my relationship with my husband, etc.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? I would beg her to reconsider, and encourage her to take these nine months of her life and do the right thing so that she can recover the rest of her life and not set it on a course of destruction.

Question 6

I have prayed for forgiveness and know I have received that for which I have prayed. For 27 years, I have not been able to forgive myself. The guilt is too heavy a burden. I cannot see a baby without seeing mine. I cannot hear a baby cry without hearing mine. My own grandchildren remind me of my own actions.

Question 7

My husband feels the same guilt as I. It was a decision made by both of us. The pregnancy occurred even while using birth control pills and was not expected at that time in our lives.

Question 8

Care for your own child. There are many agencies to assist you. Adoption is an option. There are many loving families that would welcome a new life. Humans should not be disposable. Cloning is now possible and appears senseless to us when the world is disposing of human life every day by way of abortions. Face your own actions and act responsibly--not run away. Future guilt is a very high price to pay.

Question 9

- A. There are many methods of birth control--abortion should not be used as one of those methods.
- B. A fetus--baby--is viewed as part of a womans body but is an attachment to her body.
- C. A woman is not allowed to govern her own body--ie--prostitution, surgery, self-mutilation, attempted suicide.
- D. Why are the fathers not allowed any legal standing? Since the man contributes the sperm, the baby is half his and also half his responsibility. The woman does not get pregnant alone.
- E. One living egg plus one living sperm equals one living being, not just a bunch of cells. No death involved from even before fertilization so no need to know when life begins.
- F. Science can now detect life at 12 weeks.
- G. A generation of descendents is being destroyed and this will negatively effect future financial contributions (soc sec and medicare) and production of items necessary for society to function.
- H. We have developed cloning while terminating the product of natural human fertilization.
- I. Many are opposed to the death penalty as inhumane punishment for certain crimes but impose the death penalty (abortion) on innocent babies.

My telephone number and e-mail address is [REDACTED] I am over the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

I have had 4 ABORTIONS. I NOW KNOW THAT I MADE A grave error IN Judgement. I would ASK THAT ANY ONE CONSIDERING IT see their PASTOR OR SOMEONE WHO CAN give them the true STORY ON ABORTION.

Please return to: Texas Justice Foundation, 8122 Datapoint, Suite 812, San Antonio, TX 78229

I am writing this letter in hopes that my story will help persuade the decision makers regarding the overturn of the Roe vs. Wade decision.

My name is Lee Ann Monty and at 20 years old I made the decision (with the "help" of others) to abort my child. This has proved to be an awful "choice", one that has had far worse consequences than I ever imagined possible. I sincerely hope this "choice" is no longer available to anyone.

My abortion experience was very traumatic and even writing about it now over 10 years later is very difficult and uncomfortable. Only with the help of God will be able to tell my story.

I was unmarried and barely 20 years old when I became pregnant. I was in a very unhealthy relationship that my parents did not approve of. They were supporting me financially as I was still in college. So their opinion carried a great weight in my life at the time. I loved them very much and never wanted to disappoint them in any way. Clearly when I discovered I was pregnant I knew they would be heart broken. I did not know what to do. I just pretended that it wasn't happening and passed from reality into sort of a denial. I continued living as normal as possible for as long as I could. Meanwhile my romantic relationship was getting worse and worse. My boyfriend knew about the pregnancy and wasn't pushing me either way. He had been responsible for 2 other girls' pregnancies, which resulted in abortion. He was casual about the idea of abortion but would have kept the baby if I wanted to. We were both very irresponsible, neither of us having very stable income or educations. I could not imagine (at that time) us becoming parents and successfully raising a child. One more "complication" in this situation is that we were an inter-racial couple and my parents "feared" for what the child's life would be like. Having us for parents and being bi-racial didn't seem quite fair. I would like to add here that I think a bi-racial baby or any other baby is valuable, important, and precious. All babies are 100% worthy of life. After all God is the creator and giver of life. We are just stewards of his "little blessings".

Finally, it started becoming obvious something was going on with me. My parents became suspicious and the time came when I had to tell them my secret. Hiding this from my friends and family had taken its toll on me. I was reluctant to reveal the secret I had kept for so long. I was unknowingly becoming attached and protective of my unborn child.

I wanted only to tell my mom but when both my parents approached me together, I had no choice but to tell them both at the same time. They did not yell at me like I expected them to. They asked me what I was planning to do. I said I didn't know what to do. They instructed me to first find out how far along I was. Now I know why they needed to know that. My dad had already decided how to handle this "unfortunate" situation. We would just get rid of it. I was to have an abortion and that was final. Then life could just resume back to normal. Let me just say that did not happen, it never does for anyone that has an abortion. There are always consequences.

They made an appointment at some clinic for me to be examined. I refused to let either of them go back in the exam room with me. I did not inform the examining physician that abortion was even being contemplated. I don't know how far along I was that day but when he put the Doppler on my uterus, there was a distinct "noise". He excitedly said the sound I was asking about was the heartbeat and that I was carrying a healthy baby. I will never forget his words or the sound of my baby's heartbeat. From hardly move. My mom slept in the same room with me at night, they were worried I would run away or maybe hurt myself. My parents tried to cheer me up and convince me this was a good idea. I really do believe my parents had what they thought was in my best interest at heart. My dad said to me one day before my appointment that this was necessary because he wanted my life to be perfect. He said, "I know you love this baby and want to protect it, but you are my baby and I love you and intent to protect you".

Unfortunately, the day I was dreading came, we got up very early for the drive. I had a 9 o'clock appointment. I do not believe I uttered a word for the 3-hour drive to the city where the clinic was located. I was too sad and confused, I could not believe this was happening to me, this just could not be my life, but it was happening and all too fast.

Before I knew it, we were parked and I was sitting in the waiting room. After the money was paid and the paperwork filled out, my name was called. My mom stood up first and helped me rise to my feet. I walked cautiously thru the door leading back to the "death chamber". We were seated before a lady who asked me some questions. Some of them my mom helped me answer. I started crying and she asked if I wanted to do this. I had so many questions but could not think. My mom answered her saying that I was just very emotional and this was defiantly best. She then asked if I wanted to be awake or asleep during the procedure. I said I did not under any circumstances want to be awake. I did not want to see, feel or remember anything.

She said "Ok, You will be asleep before they started". We were then escorted back to the waiting room. This time I paid attention. There were about 30 people sitting in various positions. Young and scared looking girls accompanied by either a parent or a boyfriend it appeared. As names were called and girls rose one by one disappearing behind the door, others would emerge from the same door. They were in visible pain, their posture and face told. I began to squirm. I wanted out of there. Just then my name was called and I got up, then began to walk slowly to the lady who had called me from the open door.

As I followed her down the hall I noticed very distasteful art. Pencil like drawings of women's genitals hanging on the wall. She led me to a room where I was instructed to undress and put on the gown that was provided. She said the doctor would be in soon. As I got undressed I mentally noted everything about the room. It was cold, and scary, I was alone with my baby and I knew our time was short. I watched as the second hand slowly went around on the clock above the door. My hands rested on the little mound formed on my abdomen. I started to get very nervous and I began thinking of ways to get out of there. It was now or never. Never arrived.

My thoughts were interrupted when the door swung open and a tall man in white lab coat entered the room. Closely followed by two heavyset women. I wanted to speak; I had so many questions, "Like what is that thing?" What's that covered by the gray plastic bag?" But not really wanting to know. Even so, I was not allowed to speak. The doctor ordered me be quiet and listen to his demands. He said, "Scoot your butt down to the end of the table and lay back." I said that I would like to slow down, I was not sure I wanted to do this; I added this was my first opportunity to tell somebody. He then barked out, "Scoot down and lay back." I protested and said, Let's wait a minute, I don't want to...." Then the nurse pushed me back and the other nurse to the right grabbed my arm and started to place the IV into my arm. I began panicking and crying. I pleaded, "No!" I then heard a loud noise start and felt the most excruciating pain. I began screaming that they were hurting me and to get away from me. I had changed my mind, but they would not stop.

The nurse on my left then pinned my arm down between her and the table and was lying on my chest and covering my mouth with her ungloved hands. She said, "Stop screaming, you will scare the other girls!" I said, "No! Please stop. I want them to be scared." But it was too late. The pain I felt was the suctioning which was pulling my little one out of my body. Within a few more moments it was over. The anesthesia had taken effect but too late for my comfort, I saw, heard, and felt everything. Even more painful, I remember everything. It was a horrible, traumatic experience.

I was put in a "recovery" room, what a joke. When they put me in there, I was just waking up from the anesthesia. When I became conscious I started screaming again. The nurse who wheeled me in there told me to be quiet. She went and got my mother from the waiting room. My mom helped me lay down in a recliner. A few second later a girl rolled off her gurney and fell on the hard cold floor. My mom jumped up and hurried over to help her, as she now lied crying on the floor. I begin to look around and grasp what was around me. The only people in the room besides the ones who just underwent an abortion were my mom and one other mother. The room was wall to wall with gurneys and reclining chairs. Each one of them was occupied by girls, most of them laying in the fetal position; those that weren't, were balled up and rocking back and forth. Everyone was experiencing the same feelings: pain, nausea, heavy bleeding, and cramping. There were no nurses to attend to us. We were not treated as patients and even if we were to be, they did not have enough staff to accommodate post abortion women. While my mom was helping the other girl I started vomiting. The other mother rushed to the sink to get paper towels or anything to help comfort me. She returned with a wet washcloth and a bedpan. She sat with me and as she held my hand she patted my forehead with the cool towel. My mom came back and thanked her. I would have thanked her, if I had had the strength.

The next hour or so was spent watching girls hobble out of the room and watching others be wheeled in just as I was. We re told to stay until the bleeding had slowed down. When you thought you were ready go, you had to find one of the few nurses who scurried from room to room, you could leave after showing her you bloody pad. If the nurse approved of the looks of the pad after asking how long you had been wearing it you were released to go.

Once I could muster up enough strength to walk again then I was able to leave that horrible place. I could not have walked out without assistance. I was escorted out with the help of my parents, my mom one side and my dad on the other. I limped out almost completely doubled over in pain. I have never spoken of this event with my parents. We never talked about what it was like as if I was ok with it. It is like it never happened. Almost like one Saturday that didn't exist. But I know it existed and I think in their minds somewhere they know it existed too.

That day was the beginning of many days of mental anguish. I was diagnosed with post-dramatic stress disorder and anxiety disorder. I have suffered many, many panic attacks. Experienced numerous unusual fears that are connected to the trauma I suffered as a result of the abortion. I have been through five years of professional counseling and to this day I am still on medication for anxiety and depression.

If I could give advice to anyone considering an abortion, which I have, I would say please, please, don't do it. Not only is it cruel and horrific for the baby, it is horrific for the mother as well. Abortion claims two victims every time. I still experience sadness and always will until I am united with my "lost" baby. God's mercy and forgiveness will allow me to hold him or her. Because I believe Jesus lives, I also believe my baby lives too.

I will beg the court to please make abortion illegal. Stop this unnecessary pain, torture, and murder. Maybe we don't have a cure for cancer or aids because the one who was destined to discover the cure was aborted. Just a thought...

Thank you for your time and consideration. I am hoping and praying you will make the right decision for life.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

My name is Jennifer Shacklett (Print Name). My address is [REDACTED]
My telephone number and e-mail address is [REDACTED]. I am over the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

I was separated from my husband due to marital problems. He took both our children until we could appear in court. I was lonely. I called a hotline and met someone on the phone. I took a taxi that he paid for and went to his house. We had sex and the next morning he took me to work. I never saw him again. I can't even remember his name. Two weeks later I found out I was pregnant. Was positively tested pregnant approx. 2 more weeks after that. I did not know what to do. I was already losing my 4 + 2 yr old and now I am pregnant again. I called an adoption clinic who called me back and asked a few questions. They said they would contact me again. A few days went by and I sought advise from others.

I was afraid my husband would never even consider taking me back if I was pregnant by someone else.

I finally decided "babies come from God so I will just send it back to Him." I reasoned and justified that it was okay because no one should bring more babies into this horrible world anyway.

So I called an abortion agency - they made an appointment for that same weekend.

A guy I barely knew as an acquaintance - who assisted strippers in paying their bills - took me to the clinic.

He paid for everything. I never saw the exchange of money. I have no paperwork. I signed my name and gave permission for him to do it all.

I went back to an office. The man asked if I was ready. He asked if I had other children. I was pretty numb at this point. It all happened so fast.

I changed into a gown - they took me in - gave me anesthesia - then it felt like only minutes. I was told it was over and to go rest in a room for a few minutes. I remember thinking - is that it - that quick. Then emotions I had not dealt with surfaced - I kept hearing in my mind that I had murdered my baby. Before it was abortion - now it was murder - Guilt like I had never felt before hit me. When I got home, I sat in my bathtub streaming and crying, rocking back & forth that I had murdered my baby. I felt like I was dying inside. Like I was being ripped inside out. I literally wanted to die. The pain emotionally was severely intense.

About a week later the adoption agency called back - I lied and told them I had a miscarriage.
I kept going to the emergency room and telling them
I was bleeding too much - I was seeking emotional help - They kept saying I was fine - I did not know how to tell them I was emotionally dying.

A couple days later - I received counsel and prayer from two very godly women. The Lord Jesus spoke to my heart and reassured me of His love. It has been a healing process ever since then. I rely on His grace alone.

I could have a beautiful 3 yr old son today - but I made a "Choice" to murder - to be selfish.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Lori Ann Smith (Print Name),
who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred:

I had 2 abortions. One in Tulsa in 1981 and another in Tulsa in 1983

2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does?

I was told about the nature of abortion but not the long term consequences. I also didn't know at the time that a babies heart was already beating

3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer?

I have not and I have not had breast cancer

4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who?

Yes I was pressured by my husband both times. I was not pressured by the P.P. Clinic but I was not given any other options.

5) How has your abortion affected you?

I have regretted both abortions. If the subject of abortion comes up I hurt and begin to cry. When I was told that abortion is murder I was distraught. I truly believe I committed murder 2 times.

6) How has your abortion affected others in your life?

My husband also regrets me having the abortions. I have only told a handful of people.

7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion?

I have told my niece not to do it because she will regret it the rest of her life. I begged her to consider adoption instead. She ended up not being pregnant.

8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal?

I would say that it should not be a choice because the baby doesn't get to make it a choice. I would say it's not safe because the baby dies 100% of the time.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

AFFIDAVIT

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion

The State of Oklahoma County of Texas

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared S. W.
(Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

1. Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: November, 1980 and April, 1984 – both in Lubbock, Texas
2. Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? I was not adequately informed of the risks. I was given a Valium before the procedure, and they told me briefly what they would do; that they would numb the area, and then there would be a loud sound and pressure while a vacuum removed the tissue. I would have some bleeding comparable to a period afterwards, and then I would be fine. I was treated like I was in a herd of cattle headed for slaughter. It was very impersonal, and I was made to feel sub-human and dirty. No one told me what the abortion would actually do to the baby or the risk to me emotionally and physically.
4. Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes. If so, who? My mother, being uninformed herself, said I had no choice – that was what I had to do, no questions asked. The second time I became pregnant, a doctor told me that due to a car accident I had been in after I had conceived and the x-rays, surgery, and various drugs given to me, that the baby would probably be deformed, and he advised me to terminate my pregnancy. I, to this day, doubt what he told me. He just knew what I wanted to hear.
5. How has your abortion affected you? How have my abortions not affected me? Emotionally and physically I have since never been the same. A month after my first abortion, I started hemorrhaging, and I lost a lot of blood and was hospitalized for several days. In the months and years afterwards, I felt worthless and had zero self esteem. I was in a downward spiral and became very sexually promiscuous. I became pregnant again a little over three years later and the obvious choice seemed to be to have another abortion. I believe, without a doubt, that my abortions caused me to have an incompetent cervix. After I was married and after many years of trying to conceive (another common thread among women who have had abortions), I endured fertility treatments and finally became pregnant again, but I lost my three babies because of my damaged cervix. The clinic never told me that when they forced open my cervix to get their instruments in that it could damage my cervix and cause me not to be able to carry a pregnancy to term. With the two children I have had since, I had to have my cervix sewn shut and be on bed rest part of the time to keep from losing them also. The emotional scars are intense. It is impossible to forgive myself for choosing to kill my own children. My God has forgiven me, and I know I will see them both some day. I pray that they have forgiven me too. I now have five children in heaven all because this horrible procedure is legal and so readily available. I carry the guilt and shame of what I've done with me every day.

6. How has your abortion affected others in your life? My mother shares my emotional scars because she insisted on my having it done. She drove me there, paid for it, and wiped my tears away after it was over. It wasn't until God opened our eyes, and we looked at my darling little ones born premature at 20 weeks that we both realized the horrible mistake we had made. It is not a blob of tissue like you're told – it is a baby! It has also affected my husband, and I am sure the fathers of the children I aborted.

7. Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Please don't do it. You'll regret it the rest of your life. This pregnancy will undoubtedly change your life forever no matter what you decide, but let it have a happier ending instead of a tragic one. This is your child growing inside of you. It is not just tissue; it is a baby that doesn't deserve to die because it is an inconvenience to you. If you can't love and raise this child yourself, you can place it with someone who can. That is the most unselfish gift in the world. I would give anything if I could go back and change what I did. I can't, but it's not too late for you. Please don't kill your own child.

8. Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion killed two of my children. I have to live with that fact for the rest of my life. I cannot fathom how our nation has become so blind as to say it's okay to rip a child apart or suck its brains out. Those of you making the decision to keep abortion legal cannot possibly have first-hand knowledge of how abortion affects a woman, let alone what it does to an innocent child. If you did, you would prevent it. This is such a black and white issue. My aborted children were separate human beings; they were not like an infected appendix that needed to be removed or blobs of tissue that had no feeling. In many cases, these babies feel every bit of the torture it takes to kill them. If I were now to neglect one of my children, and it died, you would go after me for murder; but blind as I was, I twice chose to kill the child in my womb, and you call it choice. Abortion stopped the beating hearts of my children in the most barbaric, heinous way. I would do anything to undo what I did. I know I can't bring them back, but I will do everything in my power to prevent this from happening to another baby and to its mother. If you won't consider the babies, please consider the women abortion affects. Abortion does not help women; it hurts them tremendously. The abortion industry takes advantage of hurting women, and it makes outrageous profits by victimizing these same women. You will find the majority of women who have had abortions are now on the other side fighting to stop it. Please know there must be a reason why. The pain and grief lasts forever, not to mention the physical damage it causes. I pray that God will open your eyes, and you will help to stop this lie that hurts so many.

- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? I have always been too ashamed of telling anyone.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? That if your pregnant have the baby, you can do it, you will never regret. If you go through an abortion, as you realize it was your baby, you will always hurt, and regret.
- 9) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Just because it is legal doesn't mean it is O.K. and safe. - 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: Lovejoy Clinic 1st one / ^{Bow Health Center P.C.} Portland Women's Clinic 2
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? No/NO If not, explain: I WAS TOLD (and understood) that abortion would eliminate my "pregnancy"; however, I was not aware of the consequences and side affects that would last a lifetime. See answers to Question 6 & 7.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No & Yes. I knew it would end the life of the baby but I had no idea how it would affect me & my choices & my self-esteem the rest of my life.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? No/Yes? If so, who? My second abortion was with my present day husband. It has affected our relationship from Day One. He did pressure me into having the abortion and I did submit to his coercion & threats.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? Without realizing it, I suffered from what is called "anniversary grief" and depression. The ^{other} post abortion syndrome symptoms I experienced (and to a certain degree still experience even though I've gone through intensive therapy) are: 1) self abusive behavior (smoking & drug use started immediately after both abortions) & suicidal thoughts 2) recurring "baby" dreams 3) Guilt & anxiety 4) Overly protective of my children 5) Resentment toward spouse.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? Of course - all the things I listed in Question 6 have affected my marriage and my children in many ways - both obvious as well as subtle (consciously and subconsciously)
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? Reconsider & look at all the alternatives. "Don't do it - you will always regret it!" A part of you and your identity as a woman will always be injured regardless of how much intensive therapy and healing you experience.
- 9) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? In the very "core" of every woman is the desire to bear children and the need to protect them at ALL costs. When a woman "chooses" to have an abortion (for ANY reason), she violates (and (unknowingly chooses to) destroy) herself as well as her child.

AFFIDAVIT

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion

The State of Oregon
County of Clatsamas

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Angela Kingsley (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: Lovejoy Clinic, Portland OR - 1988
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO If not, explain: The woman I spoke with at lovejoy was very cold. I wasn't informed of any consequences, side effects, nothing. I felt like a piece of meat in a butcher shop.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? NO, I was simply told it's a blob of tissue that needed to be removed. I was told nothing.
- 4) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? NO Have you had breast cancer? NO
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? Yes If so, who? My mother & the lady at Lovejoy.
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I constantly think of the baby that I could have had. I grieve on a continual basis the same way a mother grieves for the child that was killed.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? It's a topic I'm only able to discuss with my husband. The rest of my family considers it a dark hidden secret never to be discussed.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering abortion? It's a decision she will have the rest of her life to think about. The very moment a baby is conceived, it is a human with a soul. Abortion is nothing more than a fancy name for murder.
- 9) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion is nothing more than a temporary fix to a life long consequence. What a 9 month pregnancy does to a woman giving up her child for adoption is nothing compared to the mental torment of what abortion does to the mind.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? IT IS NOT GOOD FOR WOMEN WHO INSTINCTIVELY HAVE A NEED TO NURTURE AND COMFORT. THE EFFECTS OF ABORTION ARE FAR REACHING AND PROFOUND IN A WOMAN'S LIFE; MORE THAN THEY WILL REALIZE. I TRIED TO FORGET BUT THE EFFECTS WERE PERSISTENTLY EVIDENT IN MY LIFE, AND UNDENIABLE. - 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband lost a child, my sons lost a sibling, my family should have another teenager at the table. My husband and I had to work through so much pain as the consequences set in.

Why is it legal for a mother to kill her child because it's inconvenient, unwanted, a problem? Why is her body more important, her choice more important than a living child? - 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: Jan. 28, 1970
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO If not, explain: My Dr. had set up an apt. for me to talk to someone at a Planned Parenthood Clinic, there was no explanation of any kind. No one told me of the needles into my stomach or going through labor to have the baby come out.

AFFIDAVIT

THE STATE OF Oregon §
COUNTY OF Benton §

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared _____, (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is Rev. Sharon E. Barney (Print Name). My address is _____ _____ am over the age of eighteen years, and I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this affidavit, and I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that the following facts are true:

The year was 1974. I was a young mother of 23 years old. Our daughter was two and our son was one. My husband and I lived at Loring Air Force Base in Maine.

I had heard about abortion becoming legal. I knew my younger sister had done this and how it upset my father. I never dreamed it would be a decision I would be confronted with. After all I had two beautiful babies.

I remember missing my period and being stricken with worry. I made an appointment for a pregnancy test. It was positive. The Doctor must have seen the fear on my face. As I headed out the door, he said, you are not thinking of abortion are you? I reluctantly muttered, yes. He responded, our third child was unexpected and we are so happy to have this baby today.

I was too wrapped up in my own thoughts, to consider how important a statement that was for me to hear. I clearly remember driving home with the wind whipping through the window, hoping it would blow away all the fear and confusion I felt within.

I believe the reason I considered abortion is because of fear and confusion. I sincerely felt if I had another child that I couldn't "handle" it. It took all my energy to raise the babies I already had. My emotional weaknesses came from an unstable background in the home.

Please return to: Texas Justice Foundation, 8122 Datapoint, Suite 812, San Antonio, TX 78229

SEB

My husband thought if I had an abortion, I would not be able to handle that. He felt it would emotionally break me.

I counseled with a nurse at the hospital. She used my emotional instability to tell me I should not bring another child into the world. My heart wanted to keep the baby, but my mind told me I couldn't.

She directed me to the hospital psychiatrist. He told me I was at a bridge and was afraid to cross over. He convinced me I should get the abortion. He said I had to make the decision quickly. This enhanced my fear.

I was too young, afraid and confused to make my own decision. My husband was going to support my decision. I knew he did not want me to do this, but I was afraid of "going crazy" if I didn't.

We went to the hospital. I still felt reluctant. They gave me anesthesia. I remember seeing in my mind, a shadow of the embryo. I remember feeling like I wanted to keep seeing it and then in a moment it was gone. It's almost like I heard my mind snap.

I awoke crying and hearing the nurse say, wake up Sharon, you're just fine. How could I be fine if this made me cry? How could I be fine, if I didn't wake up feeling better?

I remember sitting in my chair the next day with the thought, I wish I could have felt like keeping the baby. I knew it was a baby. I had two. Again, I feared I couldn't handle it.

Right after that thought, I heard a still, small voice say, everything is going to be okay. Was that God? I couldn't think into it any more. I had no religious belief, except I have always felt like there had to be a God.

All I know is, the voice I heard stayed with me and it helped me to focus on each day. I knew in my heart what I did was not right. The event was always with me. The feeling of regret was ongoing. I did not even realize until years later, looking back, that I had much deeper problems with depression, my sexual relationship and multiple health problems that I believe were directly related from this choice.

SEB

It was not until 1982 that I found a true relationship with the Lord. In 1986 I saw one of the first Crisis Pregnancy Centers to open in Renton, Washington. I was curious and went to the open house. In my mind, I wasn't thinking, oh, I had an abortion so I can help people or that I needed healing. I have always loved helping people and knew you could take volunteer training.

Little did I know what I was getting myself into. At the training, they did some role playing. I felt insecure about this. Then I thought, I would use my own experience and wouldn't have to make one up. The others would never know. As I told my story, I felt some emotions rising up in me and it took all I had to not let them out. I would go home and feel sick, like something was brewing inside my soul that I couldn't control.

Then during a viewing session of a film, the truth was made known to me. There was one other girl and myself. This video had a girl, lying on a table, under anesthesia. She was having an abortion. All of a sudden my eyes saw the truth of what happened on that day.

You see, maybe I had two babies, but I had never had an abortion. No one gave me the information on what actually happens. I didn't know to ask questions because my trust was in the information given, which was limited.

Now here I was, years later, witnessing what happened to me. I wanted to run out as I saw this girl's body shake uncontrollably, the sound of the vacuum and most of all, she was crying while under anesthesia.

I couldn't wait to get out of there. I held my own, got in my car and raced home. I curled up on the couch, comforted myself with a blanket and rocked. I felt like throwing up and my eyes filled with tears.

My husband came home from work. He took one glance at me and said, what's wrong! I said, I know now what I did. He instantly knew this day would come. We held each other and cried. It was the beginning of our healing.

I was led to this CPC for my own healing. Yet, God allowed my gift of counsel to be used during this process.

SEB

I remember Him impressing on my heart, I would be doing a drama on post-abortion, to help minister to others how women need healing. I recall saying no, I don't want to do that because it is such a controversial subject.

My husband and I moved to Alaska. I had seen the center in Eagle River where I lived. I was curious to go by and say hello, but didn't want to get involved again. I was very ill with Chronic Fatigue Syndrome.

One day I went by to get a book for a friend who was in a crisis pregnancy situation. I told them I used to volunteer in Washington. They wanted me to get involved again and I said I would have to pray about it because of my illness.

I was lying down, not feeling well and the Director called. I was feeling like I wanted to be involved, but was too ill. I expressed that to her and we hung up. Afterwards, I cried and I knew in my heart, I had to take a step of faith and trust God. So I did.

At this time, God brought to my remembrance, the post-abortion drama. I wrote a poem about the post-abortive woman. I was listening to the "Song of India." I saw the drama choreographed in my mind and the poem spoken to it. I knew this is what God wanted me to do. I remember feeling, I could only do this if God truly directed me.

The Post-Abortion Facilitator encouraged me to do the Bible Study, "Forgiven and Set Free." I didn't think I needed to since I was healed, but I chose to do it. I was being prepared for much more.

An area of anger rose up within me. I was feeling like I wish my husband could have convinced me not to have chosen the abortion. I went to him with my feelings. He admitted he wasn't strong enough back then to take a stand and we both cried and had another time of healing. This only came about because of doing the study.

I volunteered for about a year. I eventually became Director of Client Services and the Post-Abortion Facilitator. I had my days when I was in much pain, with my illness, yet this was one of the best times of my life to grow in helping women be set free. Truly, the very regret in my life, God turned into a wonderful blessing of freedom for me, my husband and freedom for others.

The post-abortion drama was performed at a Mother Daughter Tea of 500 people (mostly women), a Sanctity of Human Life Sunday Service and for the Ministerial Association with Pastors from several denominations. I had the opportunity to take the post abortion Bible Study into the local women's prison in Eagle River and to speak at Aglow International meetings. Many times when I flew out of Anchorage, I would sit beside men or women in the airplane who were post-abortive and would end up telling me their story.

If I had not stepped through the doors of CPC in Washington, I would not have had the opportunity to be healed. If I had not stepped back into the doors of CPC in Alaska, I would not have received the fullness of my healing and my husband's. But because I did, I had the wonderful God given opportunity to lead others down the path to freedom and the beautiful cycle goes on.

Why are we helping women to find healing from this act, if it is truly not a right choice?

Enclosed is a copy of an Anchorage News Article I wrote with a comment for the State Representative. Also, a poem to share that was written after I finished the Post-Abortion Bible Study.

I wonder what would happen if those who have fought to pass Roe Vs. Wade, would think after witnessing the act of abortion? Or to sit and listen to the woman who was bleeding profusely while riding home on the bus after an abortion. Or watching the wrenching face of a girl who allowed her 4 month old baby to be taken out of the womb prematurely?

Maybe then the truth would compel them to overturn this law and take a stand for humanity.

They have listened to the womens' cry wanting the right to abortion, it is now time to listen to the cry of the women who have had abortions!

Sincerely,

Rev. Sharon Barney

"Precious Child"

(A song written for my child)

My precious child of long ago
I have a song for you
About the love that's in my heart
It's so long overdue

I never got to know you
I miss you just the same
I never got to hold you
Or give your precious name

I think of you in heaven
In the arms of Christ
The one who offers forgiveness
Who's blood was sacrificed

He helped me to forgive myself
For that deceitful day
He offered to me healing
When my heart cried out to pray

I always will regret the lie
That drove me to that choice
I won't let it control me
In God's love I can rejoice

I long to meet you honey
So we can hug and touch
To be close together
I love you, Oh so much

As I end this song love
There's one thing I desire
To name the one I never knew
My precious, Jacob Josiah

AFFIDAVIT

THE STATE OF OREGON
COUNTY OF GRANT

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared RHONDA L. COATS who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is RHONDA L. COATS (Print Name).

I had just turned 15 years old in 1975, and I was looking forward to my sophomore year in high school with classmates that I had known since Kindergarten. Although kids talked a lot about sex; who was, who wasn't, etc., there had never really been any helpful information sent our way. I knew the birth control pill existed, but in such a small, rural town, I had no idea how to get it without getting caught. I also believed that I wouldn't need it. Like most teenagers, I believed that kind of thing happened to "other" girls, the ones who had low morals, bad families, etc. It didn't occur to me that I was in that category until I became pregnant within weeks of losing my virginity.

Technically I had been sexually active since I was about 4 years old when my older brother and his friend tried to force me to perform oral sex on them. It was only a couple of years later that my father began using me for his sexual satisfaction. With those experiences I learned the only thing I was ever going to be good for, and that I was ever going to get attention for, was through sex. I was proud of myself for waiting until I was 15 to have intercourse. I was devastated when I found out I was pregnant.

My mother was not a gentle, caring, nurturing woman, and I was more afraid of her than I was of being pregnant. The thought of keeping the baby never crossed my mind. The last thing on earth I wanted was bring a baby into my home where he or she would grow up in such a cold, heartless atmosphere. I told my boyfriend, who had a good job, but no money to help me. In desperation I asked my grandfather for the funds - $250.00. He told my mother. She paid for the procedure, forbid me to see my boyfriend again, and told me that no matter how much pain I might be in I wasn't getting out of school the next day. She slapped my face when I told her it might not have happened if she had been home and cared about me. The experience was never spoken about again.

I carried the shame and guilt for the next 25 years, like a bundle of bricks upon my back. There was never a time when I ever truly experienced real joy, love, or happiness. I would come close, but never quite get there. By December of 2000, I had made so many similar and equally devastating choices that the only choice I had left myself was to give my shattered, torn life to Jesus. I was almost instantly aware of the sensation of having been forgiven for killing my first child, for divorcing 4 husbands, for leading my 4 children through the nightmare of watching their mother try to fill the void in her heart with the unsatisfying love of men, and the chaos that was a constant in our lives.

The freedom from guilt and shame can only come from Jesus Christ, and the acceptance of that gift has changed my life and the lives of my children in every way.

Don't tell me that there are no lasting effects from having an abortion. Don't tell me that it's a choice – the choice is to be responsible in the first place. The choice is to stop using abortion as birth control. In 1975 there was shame in becoming pregnant at the age of 15, today it's accepted and almost expected. And don't tell me that the women who have submitted to the 4.5 million abortions since Roe vs. Wade didn't feel anything after their baby was torn out of their bodies. That singular act will stay with them and haunt them every day of their lives until and unless they accept the grace and forgiveness of Jesus Christ. I know I will meet my baby someday, and I am looking forward to the time when I can hold her and finally ask her to forgive me too.

who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell approximately when and where your abortion occurred: May 25th 1994 @ our local hospital in Williams Lake, British Columbia Canada. I was 17 years old - junior in high school.
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature and consequences of abortion, what it is, what it does? No. I was told because of my age - it was the best choice for me. That it was a clump of cells. I was not shown fetal development or explained the emotional scars that I would feel for years after.
- 3) Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No and No.
- 4) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? Most of my pressure came from my boyfriend. My friends that knew told me they would support whatever decision I made.
- 5) How has your abortion affected you? I suffered severely for 5 years from Post Abortion Stress. Hiding behind a mask of "happiness" - I was a depressed, insecure, person searching for people and things to fill the void left from my aborted baby.
- 6) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My life following the abortion was full of empty relationships and the imaginary walls that go up when you dislike your self and the things that you've done. I suppose my hurts - in turn hurt others - with a negative attitude and hard heart.
- 7) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? In order to make an informed decision - you must first have the facts. The truth about abortion is that it is an easy way out. It is a decision you can never go back on. Not a day goes by that I don't think about my loss. Every child deserves a chance at life.
- 8) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? Abortion changed my life forever. If I knew then what I know now I would have never chose to end the life of my child.

"I have read the above and foregoing statement and the same is true and correct."

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared KATHLEEN MCGEE, who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

Tell when and where your abortion occurred: In Los Angeles approximately 25 years ago

Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? If not, explain: No, I was given information about where I could have the abortion done and an appointment was made for me.

Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No.

Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? No.
If not, explain:

Were you informed of any link between abortion and breast cancer? Have you had breast cancer? No. No.

Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? If so, who? No.

How has your abortion affected you? It has created a lot of sorrow. I was not happy for a long time. Until I became a Christian I was not able to overcome the sadness. I suffered with depression and still do on occasions. I think about how my child would have been had I let the child live. It caused me to have a "no care" attitude. I remember after the procedure was done, I felt very nervous and I tried leaving the clinic without checking out. I was going down the stairs but one of the clinic workers said I had to return and check out. I just wanted to get out of there.

How has your abortion affected others in your life? It caused me to have a detached attitude toward my other children and people in general. My selfishness continued until I became a Christian. I was not able to really understand how it affected them until I became a Christian and saw myself for what I was and realized what I had done to my first child. My son has gotten in trouble since he was 13 years old and is still not doing well. My oldest daughter and younger daughter have become Christians and are doing very well.

Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman thinking of having an abortion? I would say, "No, don't do that! It is the image of God and it is a gift of God. The child will be more of a blessing than a burden. God will help you take care of the child."

Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I would say, "You can make a law that it is OK, but in a woman's life it will not be OK. It will not be OK in her mind, in her emotions. This is a forever thing that will be with her in her mind. She will never forget the child she killed. The sadness will never go away. Every year I think of how old the child would be now if I wasn't so selfish."

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared K [REDACTED] F. L [REDACTED], (Print Name) who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

My name is K [REDACTED] L [REDACTED]

It was 1975, I was unmarried and unsaved. I did not consider myself promiscuous even though I took the birth control pill; I had been with each of my partners for an extended period of time and was "in love" with my current one. I was attending college with the plan of becoming a teacher for exceptional children.

I had been experiencing problems with my menstrual cycle, the flow was less and less, when I saw a doctor it was brushed off. On one such appointment I was informed I was pregnant. I sought out several instructors and other individuals for counsel, though I admit I had already considered abortion as my option, all those whom I questioned were of the same culture and mindset. I didn't want the boy to feel obligated to marry me, a naive and old fashioned idea, and I couldn't in vision myself raising a child alone; all the time retaining the message that it was just a bit of tissue and not a baby. The boy, later to become my husband, agreed to the procedure but later told me he had wanted to stop me. This caused turmoil in our marriage for quite sometime. In what I now consider a twist of irony my abortion was performed at the Lovejoy Clinic, as I later realized there was no love and no joy.

I had all too easily obtained a government subsidy to cover the cost of the abortion, no requirement for showing health risk only low-income inability to pay for myself. So with a minimal description of what was to be done I forged ahead. The grief, remorse, guilt and feelings of shame began about a month later and continued for over 12 years; ending only when I became saved.

One year after my procedure I was diagnosed with uterine cancer and though I obtained a second professional opinion that confirmed the diagnosis and then had to have a hysterectomy, five years later I was told no cancer had really been found. I had lost my ability to ever have a child again, I was devastated and my marriage suffered again. My career choice of teaching was given up, I had difficulty being around children and when someone brought a baby around work or family members had children, I silently went off to cry sometimes for hours or days.

My husband and I had spoke of adoption after my hysterectomy, but marital problems and financial difficulties delayed it till my husband lost interest and was content to be without children, I cried for three days when this realization was made.

I am now in my fourth year of recovery from breast cancer. In another odd twist as I was praying for the abolishment of abortion I realized that breast cancer was probably a judgment and consequence of the sin of abortion.

K [REDACTED]

KFL

This has recently been confirmed by news that those who have abortions are at a greater risk for breast cancer.

In closing I hope that the truth about abortion will be made clear. Sonograms and ultra-sound confirm when the heartbeat starts, when bones and body parts form, why do we perpetuate the myth that it is not life, or not a baby.

As long as our nation continues in the culture of death, sorrows grief and death will be multiplied for All. I made a choice I wish I had never been given. Laws covering the patient being informed of risks and facts of what is to be done are in place, these should apply to abortion; or in actuality there should Not be a right to kill the unborn simply because they are a perceived inconvenience.

Due to family members who could be affected by my story I wish only my Initials to be used. I pray my story may help end the silence, the pain, the death.

KFL.

A Need for Compassion

I need your compassion, as do many other women like me. I am a post-abortion woman. At the age of 54, I am finally confronting the damage that three abortions have done to me. I was one of the lucky ones: I did not suffer any physical damage to my cervix or womb. But the extent of the emotional, mental and spiritual damage in my life is quite overwhelming to me. Here is a bit of my story – my history, my recovery and my healing.

At 18 in the 60's, I was sexually active and terrified that my parents would find out how I was living my life. I got pregnant and the father was long gone. I didn't even know his last name. Now what was I supposed to do? Like many young women at the time I did two things. I got drunk, and I had an abortion. That seemed to be the answer in those days. That answer (that choice) scarred me for life. It changed me forever.

Unbeknownst to me, I spent the next six years running from the anguish going on inside. My drinking and my promiscuity increased dramatically; I discovered some of those wonderful hippie drugs we all loved; I started a deadly relationship with food and yo-yo dieting, and I fell in love a dozen times and couldn't make one of the relationships work. During this time, I did meet the man of my dreams. He was perfect – well, almost. He had one flaw – he was married. So in 1974 when we wound up pregnant, there was only one easy choice – another abortion. I was so drunk the day of that abortion that I do not remember any of the details. That day is a fog to me except for one feeling that has remained – a deep pain.

For the next 11 years of my life, my coping tools all got worse – the drinking, the promiscuity, the food problems, and two marriages falling apart. Then, several things happened that began my long, slow journey of recovery and healing. God blessed me with a son in 1981, and in 1985, God gave me the gift of sobriety. My sobriety eventually led me back to my Catholic faith, which I had abandoned in my college days.

But my return to my faith did not occur until after I had one more abortion. In 1991, my married friend and I were pregnant again. This time I was sober. This time I wanted to keep the baby. I was given a choice – the baby or him. I was angry and hurt. But after so many years of craziness and foggy thinking, I caved in and had my third abortion.

For 36 years I was an ardent pro-choice advocate until circumstances of one fall day in 2003 again changed me and the course of my life. Neither of my vehicles was available to me, so I couldn't go to my regular church for Sunday Mass. I went to a church closer to home, and after Mass picked up a church bulletin. There was a small box ad about Rachel's Vineyard post-abortion Retreats that gave a web site address (www.rachelsvineyard.org). Being the good computer junkie that I am, I jumped online to the web site. I sat there reading through the site sobbing, with tears streaming down my cheeks. I knew in my gut that it was time for me to deal with my abortions.

I finally attended my Rachel's Vineyard Retreat in April 2004. There are no words to describe this profound experience. What I write about it is fairly superficial detail. Thirty-six years of denial, shame, guilt, pain, sadness, and anger came to an end. I was shown how to look at the abortions through new eyes. I shared my experiences with 10 other post-abortion women. This was the first time I had ever told anyone about this part of my life. The acceptance and love and forgiveness offered to me began my healing. I faced my three children, named them and asked for their forgiveness. Through the miracles of this weekend retreat I know that God has forgiven me, and I am on my way to forgiving myself.

Like all good 60's kids, I wanted a "quick fix", although I knew one weekend was not going to fix 36 years of torment. My healing is a process, a journey just begun. I made my dead children a promise, which I quote in full "I promise you that I will no longer be silent about you. I will not hide in shame or guilt. I commit to turning our pain and sorrow into something good and positive. I will find a way to honor your existence and your deaths. I will let Jesus guide me in memory of you."

I am discovering many ways of keeping this promise. I shared my story with my family. They were all unbelievably caring, loving and supportive. Again I am blessed. Not all post-abortion women get such positive, compassionate responses. Some have families who do not want to hear their stories, who cut them out of their lives, who get angry and mean. That is not what we need for our healing. I pray that all families try to understand the depth of the pain of the post-abortion woman and find compassion.

One of the joys of my retreat was the discovery that I can use my God-given talents for writing and speaking to keep my promise and to, perhaps, help others understand the difficulties of the post-abortion journey. So I am writing letters to editors and articles such as this. I am speaking out when appropriate. I walked in a Memorial Day parade this year in memory of Luke, Grace and Benjamin. I proudly wore a T-shirt that says "Women Regret Abortion". I will share my story openly and freely. I will not hide in silence, guilt or shame any longer.

Forgiven & Free

In April 2004, I attended a Rachel's Vineyard retreat weekend for post-abortion healing. These are some reflections about the six months since my retreat. I am a changed person. I am different today than I was in March 2004. I am forgiven and free today. How has this happened? What is different in me today – how do I know I've changed?

A metaphor for the process I'm going through dawned on me today during my morning prayers. When I arrived at my RV retreat, I was like a shattered mirror. At 18, I was a whole, beautiful mirror. My glass was totally shattered into millions of pieces when I had the first of my three abortions.

I brought all those broken pieces of glass to my retreat – the painful shards wounding me spiritually, emotionally & physically. The brokenness had been ripping me apart for 36 years. The very action of going to the retreat acknowledged how broken I was.

The retreat process helped me to lay all my brokenness at the feet of Christ. I was able to ask Christ and my children for forgiveness. The mercy and love of Christ helped me to name and claim my wounds. Christ gave me a frame for the broken pieces of glass. At the retreat, I began to put the pieces of my broken mirror back together inside that frame.

The early part of the process was really painful. I had to pull all those broken pieces of glass out of my soul and look at them. This is hard and painful work. With Christ's love all around me, comforting me and guiding me, I was able to do this work.

I returned home from the retreat with my broken glass pieces and the frame of Christ's love. Since then, I have been laying those broken pieces in their proper place inside the frame. This is slow work. Sometimes I get a piece in the wrong place, and have to work on it some more to find where it belongs. Christ's forgiveness and mercy hold all those pieces in place. And the rewards for the work are splendid. Each piece that is put into its right place looks beautiful and makes the rest of the growing mirror that much closer to whole again.

Dear Sir/Madam,

Thank-you for trying to do something to change our countries laws concerning abortion. We, the women who have abortions, grieve silently for many years. If anything can be done to prevent future generations from thinking that abortion is nothing but a simple surgical procedure with no consequences, please find a way.

God has called you to a great task. Do not be discouraged in any way. Know that simply taking a stand and being heard has a powerful effect in the hearts and minds of those who think very little of God's gift of life. Thank-you for seeing the potential our country has through President Bush's administration to turn and value life. No matter what you are able to accomplish, it is pleasing in God's eyes and will bring you great reward. Thank-you for fighting for us, the ones who treated the lives of others without love.

By God's Grace,

B. A. A.

- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My husband (father of aborted child) does not like to discuss matter
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Strongly advise against it. It was my decision and I thought I knew everything. AFFIDAVIT

To be filled out by women who have had an abortion.

The State of Pennsylvania
County of Dauphin

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Karen Bodle (Print Name), who, being by me duly sworn, upon oath, stated the following facts:

- 1) Tell when and where your abortion occurred: November 1975 Chester, PA
- 2) Were you adequately informed of the nature of abortion, what it is, what it does? NO If not, explain: I was never told that my baby was fully developed and had a beating heart at 12 weeks. I was never told that I could suffer emotional consequences because of an abortion.
- 3) Were you adequately informed of the consequences of abortion? No. I was never told that I could suffer emotional consequences because of abortion.
- 5) Did anyone pressure you into having an abortion? no If so, who? _____
- 6) How has your abortion affected you? I suffered a nervous breakdown and spent about 6 weeks in a mental hospital. I had 2 miscarriages after my abortion. I felt shame and struggled with depression. I felt dirty on the inside. I believed that people would reject me if they knew I had an abortion. I had deep emotional pain and was not allowed to grieve the loss of my child.
- 7) How has your abortion affected others in your life? My daughter is afraid that I will hurt her because I aborted my first child.
- 8) Based on your own experiences, what would you tell a woman considering an abortion? Abortion kills a child and is never a solution. No matter how difficult your current situation is, there is help available. Your life and your baby's life are both precious and must be cared for and protected.
- 9) Based on your own experience, what would you tell a court that believes abortion should be legal? I believe that the life of a child begins at conception and that our Constitution should guarantee protection for that life. I have lived through the devastating emotional consequences of an abortion and know that it harms women and families.
