The Department of Credit Unions was established Jan. 1, 1979, by the 67th General Assembly. The administrator is appointed by and serves at the pleasure of the governor subject to confirmation by the Senate. The seven member review board is appointed by the governor for staggered three-year terms, also subject to confirmation by the Senate. Two of the board members may be public members; however, at no time shall more than five of the members be directors or employees of a credit union. A list of nominees may be submitted to the governor by any credit union located in the state. The board may adopt, amend and repeal rules pursuant to Chapter 17A or take such action as it deems necessary or suitable to affect the provisions of Chapter 533, Code of Iowa.

The administrator is charged with the supervision, control and enforcement of the laws, bylaws, rules and regulations pertaining to the organization and operation of credit unions operating under a state charter. It is the intent and responsibility of the administrator and department staff to protect the interests and corporate rights of the more than 500,000 members of Iowa credit unions. This is done through regular examination and analysis of the operation in each credit union, with such remedial action taken as deemed necessary. In addition the department provides an orderly process for the chartering, merger, conversion and liquidation of state credit unions; advises governmental bodies and agencies and individuals in matters of credit union affairs; provides fundamental and technical assistance to credit unions; properly disposes of public complaint or inquiry pertaining to the management of state credit unions; provides state liaison with authorized member account insurers and maintains an equitable fee structure and offset of department expenditures.

CRIMINAL AND JUVENILE JUSTICE PLANNING AGENCY

Richard Ramsey, executive director; Lucas Bldg., Des Moines 50319; 515-281-3421

The purpose of the Criminal and Juvenile Justice Planning Agency is to coordinate criminal and juvenile justice activities in the state, including planning, research, program implementation and the administration of grants and other funds. There is a Criminal and Juvenile Justice Council which establishes policy for the agency and advises the Governor and Legislature.

The governor appoints seven members to the council each for a four-year term and the appointees are subject to confirmation by the Senate. The council composition shall be:

1. Three persons who are either a county supervisor, county sheriff, a mayor, city chief of police or a county attorney.
2. Two persons shall represent the general public and shall not be employed in any law enforcement, judicial or corrections capacity.
3. Two persons who are knowledgeable about Iowa's juvenile justice system.

The commissioner of the Department of Human Services, and the commissioner of Public Safety, the attorney general and the chief justice of the Supreme Court shall each designate a person to serve on the council.
