

Roy R. Gillette, Ames; Marvin R. Seiden, Jr., State Comptroller, Des Moines; Russell L. Wilson, Board of Control, Waterloo; and Melvin H. Wolf, Board of Regents, Waterloo. Governor Harold E. Hughes, President of the Senate Robert D. Fulton, and Speaker of the House Vince Steffen are ex officio nonvoting members of the commission. A. E. Reyhons, director of the Legislative Research Bureau, serves as commission secretary as directed by statute.

The Iowa Commission on Interstate Cooperation was established in 1941 as a means of enabling Iowa to participate as a member of the Council of State Governments. In addition to three ex officio members, commission membership includes five senators appointed by the president of the senate, five representatives appointed by the speaker of the house, and three administrative officials appointed by the governor.

The purpose of the commission is to encourage friendly contacts by state officials and employees with those of other states and to promote greater cooperation between the state of Iowa and other units of government. The commission has authority to form committees to perform functions for which the commission was established.

DEPARTMENTAL RULES REVIEW COMMITTEE

Senator Adolph W. Elvers, Elkader, Chairman; Representative Floyd H. Millen, Farmington, Vice Chairman; Senators Donald G. Beneke, Laurens; Alan Shirley, Perry; Representatives Ray V. Bailey, Clarion; and Walter F. Maley, West Des Moines.

The Departmental Rules Review Committee created by the Sixtieth General Assembly is a bipartisan body composed of three legislators from each house of the general assembly. Committee members are appointed for two year terms by the respective presiding officers and are required to meet at least once every two months during the legislative interim. All administrative rules proposed by state agencies are reviewed by the committee. The committee has the authority to make recommendations to agencies regarding proposed rules, including suggestions for correcting portions of rules which committee members find objectionable.

STATE CAPITOL PLANNING COMMISSION

Amos B. Emery, Des Moines, Chairman; Senators Vincent S. Burke, Sioux City; Stanley Heaberlin, Pleasantville; Representatives Milton Distlehorst, Burlington; Charles E. Grassley, New Hartford; Mrs. Maurice Noun, Des Moines; Raymond B. Crites, Cedar Rapids; H. E. Montgomery, Des Moines, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds; and Frank Bunker, Des Moines, architect, State Board of Control.

The State Capitol Planning Commission was established by the Fifty-eighth General Assembly in 1959 and is composed of legislators, residents of the state appointed by the governor, the superintendent of the state department of buildings and grounds, and the architect employed by the state board of control. The commission's purpose is to advise on location and architecture of buildings and on other aspects of the development of Iowa's state capitol grounds. The commission was provided funds by the Sixtieth General Assembly for planning future expansion and development of the state house grounds. A report of the commission's findings was submitted to the Sixty-first General Assembly and adopted by the assembly as the "master plan and guide for future expansion and development of state capitol grounds of the state of Iowa." The Sixty-first General Assembly has appropriated funds to the commission to continue studying the expansion and development of the state house grounds during the present biennium.
