

ing performance management systems, coordinating the strategic planning process of state government, and developing and recommending policy initiatives to meet Iowa’s needs.

The department is directly attached to the Office of the Governor and controlled by the Governor. It is comprised of the Budget and Finance Division and the Performance Results Division.

The department director is appointed by the Governor, subject to confirmation by the Senate, and serves at the Governor’s pleasure. The director serves on various committees as directed by the Governor and the General Assembly, including the School Budget Review Committee, the Technology Governance Board, and the State Appeal Board. The director is the Governor’s chief fiscal advisor.

Budgetary duties include preparing the Governor’s annual budget recommendations for presentation to the General Assembly, drafting bills supporting the budget, monitoring the use of appropriations granted through the legislative process, and reviewing all final appropriation bills for the Governor’s consideration.

The department oversees the development and maintenance of state and local budgets, including the budgets of cities, counties, and schools. It provides staff assistance to the City Finance Committee and the County Finance Committee.

It is responsible for implementing the Accountable Government Act, including planning, performance measurement, and reporting. It manages the Results Iowa website and guidelines for executive branch agencies, along with a continuing analysis of the quality and quantity of state services through the use of periodic performance-oriented “results” meetings with departments and the Governor.

The department coordinates the state’s quality and reinvention initiatives, including LEAN, to streamline and improve processes to efficiently meet customer needs.

Finally, the department also prepares economic and revenue projections for the Governor’s appointee to the Revenue Estimating Conference.

The State Appeal Board is governed by four separate chapters of the Iowa Code. Chapter 73A covers public contracts and bonds and allows citizens to appeal from decisions of municipalities on public improvements. Chapter 24 covers local budget laws whereby citizens can appeal regarding budgets adopted by municipalities. Chapter 669 covers tort claims filed by people against the state of Iowa when a state agency or any of its employees may have caused negligence, a wrongful act, or omission.

The board reviews all claims under Iowa Code chapters 25 and 669 after receiving recommendations from the Special Assistant Attorney General for Claims, and may pay such claims. Claims denied under Iowa Code chapter 25 are referred to the General Assembly.
