The Commission on the Aging was created by the Sixty-first General Assembly to investigate problems of the aging in Iowa; to make recommendations to appropriate state agencies; and to operate with private and governmental agencies at all levels in demonstration programs of services needed by the aged. The commission selects its own officers for two-year terms, meets at least four times each year, and is served by a fulltime executive secretary.

The objects of the commission's concern include problems relating to employment, health, financial status, recreation and social adjustment of the aged.

The president of the senate and speaker of the house each appoint three members of this thirteen member commission. No more than two of the three appointees named by these officials may be from the same political party. Seven members are appointed by the governor.
