Organized in January, 1857, its purposes are to preserve the history of Iowa and further its dissemination among the people of the state. In fulfillment of these purposes a permanent program of activities has been gradually developed and put into execution. This includes (1) the discovery, collection and preservation of materials of Iowa history; (2) researches in the field of Iowa history; (3) publication of the materials of Iowa history; (4) dissemination of the materials of Iowa history through public depositories and members. The society publishes a monthly magazine, The Palimpsest, and a quarterly magazine, The Iowa Journal of History. In addition, it issues numerous books on the political, social, economic and religious history of Iowa. It has published seven volumes on the Messages and Proclamations of the Governors of Iowa, six volumes in the Applied History series dealing with state, county and local government. Among the better books are Mrs. Shambaugh's "Amana That Was and Amana That Is," Gingerich's "The Mennonites in Iowa," Swisher's "Iowa—Land of Many Mills," Petersen's "Steamboating on the Upper Mississippi" and "Iowa—The Rivers of Her Valleys," Richman's "Ioway to Iowa," and Cole's "Iowa Through the Years" and "I Remember. I Remember." Galland's "Iowa Emigrant," Ross' "Iowa Agriculture" and Petersen's "Iowa History Reference Guide," are recent publications.

The library of the society now includes about 105,000 titles. There are 5,000 active and life members. The official depositories within the state number 236 and the out-of-state depositories and exchanges total 130.
