

Services. However, the board may revoke and remand to prison any person it has released on parole for any reason it deems proper. It also retains the power to grant a final discharge to any parolee or probationer under the supervision of the Bureau of Adult Correction Services of the Department of Social Services, usually on the recommendation of the supervising officer.

The board also serves in an advisory capacity to the Governor, since under the law all applicants for restoration of citizenship rights, pardons, or commutations, in felony cases, must be referred to the board by the Governor for study and recommendation before he may act upon them. By statute, each member serves as chairman during the last two years of his appointment.

Bureau of Labor

(Office located on Fourth Floor Office and Laboratory Building)

Commissioner appointed by the Governor.

Term two years. Expires June 30, 1971.

JERRY LEE ADDY, Commissioner.

The office of labor commissioner was created by the Twentieth General Assembly in 1884.

Under the provisions of law, the commissioner is a member and executive secretary of the private employment agency commission. He also acts as secretary of the Iowa Employment Safety Commission, and is chairman of the Committee on Child Labor.

The bureau is responsible for the enforcement of laws relating to occupational health and safety, child labor, passenger and freight elevators, installation and inspection of steam boilers, generators and superheaters, private employment agencies, arbitration and conciliation, and investigation of occupational accidents.

Seven industrial technicians devote full time to inspection of factories, mills, work shops, theaters, buildings, public buildings, passenger and freight elevators, private employment agencies and general employment conditions. Four construction technicians devote full time to inspection of construction. One industrial hygiene technician devotes full time to industrial environmental health.

The Iowa Bureau of Labor has instituted labor safety programs, available to management and labor, in both the construction and industrial fields. Since the passage of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970, the Bureau of Labor has begun developing a comprehensive program to gather statistical information concerning occupational health and safety.

The law requires that one of the inspectors shall be a woman who shall give special attention to places employing women and children. A migrant child labor inspector enforces the migrant child labor law.

The boiler inspectors for the state are responsible for the inspection
