RUSSELL W. BOBZIN, Secretary and Director, Polk County.

The board of parole was established in 1907 by the Thirty-second General Assembly.

The statutes of Iowa provide: "When any person over sixteen years of age is convicted of a felony, except treason or murder, the court imposing a sentence of confinement in the penitentiary, men's or women's reformatory shall not fix the limit or duration of the same, but the term of such imprisonment shall not exceed the maximum term provided by law for the crime of which the prisoner was convicted," thus leaving to the court imposing the sentence no discretion as to the length of confinement. The board of parole is charged with the duty of investigating and studying each case, and is authorized to release on parole any prisoner, except those sentenced for life terms, after serving portion of the maximum time it deems proper. Parole rules are provided which must be observed by the person on parole and for the violation of which he may be remanded to prison. By statute, each member serves as chairman in the last two years of his appointment.
