Dear Fellow Iowans:

This Iowa Official Register has served as a historical and biographical record of Iowa's governmental institutions and leaders for over 150 years. First authorized by law as an Act of the 24th General Assembly in 1892, the Iowa Official Register is the official almanac of Iowa. Earlier versions were published intermittently starting in 1860. Believed to have first appeared in a red jacket in 1894, the Redbook, as it is nicknamed, has retained its now familiar color since 1907. As required by Iowa Code section 2A.5, this Redbook contains historical, political, and other information and statistics of general value but not of a partisan character.

This Edition and Earlier Editions on the Internet. This edition can be accessed at www.legis.iowa.gov/publications/otherResources/register. All past editions of the Redbook can be accessed at www.legis.iowa.gov/archives/register.

2017 Roster of State Officials. This edition incorporates the 2017 Roster of State Officials which lists members of the General Assembly, state officers and deputies, judicial officers, and members of boards and commissions. The State Roster is published annually pursuant to Iowa Code section 2A.5 and is available on the Internet at www.legis.iowa.gov/publications/otherResources/roster.

Contents. Please refer to the Table of Contents to learn more about the historical and current government information presented. The current government information has been updated for the 2017–2018 fiscal year, with most information updated through September 2017. Most legislative branch information is updated through the 2017 Regular Session. Election results and local government official information are not included in this edition but can be accessed on the Secretary of State's Internet site at <https://sos.iowa.gov/> and at local governments' Internet sites at www.iowaleague.org/Pages/Home.aspx and www.iowacounties.org/.

Appreciations. I would like to express my appreciation to all those government officials and employees and contributing authors who provided information for inclusion in this edition. This official register belongs to the people of Iowa. It is their record of their government institutions and officials during the 2017–2018 legislative biennium. I also wish to thank the staff of the Legislative Services Agency for their work in compiling and publishing this edition.

Suggestions. I hope readers find the information contained in this edition valuable and I welcome suggestions for improvements. Suggestions should be submitted to Richard Johnson, Legal Services Division Director, who served as the principal editor of this edition, at the Legislative Services Agency, in Room G01, State Capitol, Des Moines, Iowa 50319, at 515.281.3566, or at Richard.Johnson@legis.iowa.gov.

Sincerely,
Glen Dickinson, Director
Legislative Services Agency
