Co-Chair Horbach called the meeting to order. Minutes were approved and attendance was taken.

Co-Chair Horbach welcomed Attorney General, Tom Miller to present an Overview of Department Operations, Crime Victim Assistance and the Microsoft Anti-Trust Settlement. Questions and discussion followed.

Co-Chair Horbach also introduced Chairperson Elizabeth Robinson with the Iowa Board of Parole to discuss performance measures, deliberations and release status of inmates.

Along with discussion and questions was an invite for House and Senate members to visit during deliberations to get an inside look on how the parole process works.

Jennifer Acton and Beth Lenstra with LSA, handed out copies of the Bill Shells on the Judicial and Justice System along with a detailed document briefing the Governor's FY 2006 Recommendations for Justice System Appropriations Subcommittee. A brief review of the shells was given and discussion followed.

Seeing no further business, Senator Larson moved to arise.
