

Draft Metrics Under Consideration by Iowa Children's Mental Health Board
February 4, 2020

Component	Proposed Outcome	Suggested Metrics
Health Promotion, Prevention and Well-Being	Outcome 1: All children receive a behavioral health screening.	Multiple possibilities under consideration
Health Promotion, Prevention and Well-Being	Outcome 2: All children are free of impairment from un-addressed behavioral health concerns or issues.	Increase in graduation rates
		Increase in number of students who are satisfied with their educational experience
		Increase in the number of students connected to extra-curricular activities
		Decrease in suspension/expulsion and exclusionary discipline practices
		Decrease in student absenteeism
Targeted Interventions and Supports	Outcome 3: All children have access to a gold standard of care.	Increase in number of children who have insurance with adequate coverage
		Increase in number of children who have access to appropriate, culturally responsive local behavioral health services with quality providers
Targeted Interventions and Supports	Outcome 4: All children have a support system.	Increase in number of families receiving respite services
		Increase in number of crisis intervention services that are not law enforcement
		Increase in number of behavioral health services and supports in schools
		Increase in number of students who report having a support system at school
		Increase in family engagement and involvement during treatment and post-discharge
		Increase in number of people who know how to access services

Draft Metrics Under Consideration by Iowa Children's Mental Health Board
February 4, 2020

Component	Proposed Outcome	Suggested Metrics
		Decrease in youth suicide ideation, attempts, and completions
Targeted Interventions and Supports	Outcome 4: All children have a support system.	Increase in number of families receiving respite services
		Increase in number of crisis intervention services that are not law enforcement
		Increase in number of behavioral health services and supports in schools
		Increase in number of students who report having a support system at school
		Increase in family engagement and involvement during treatment and post-discharge
		Increase in number of people who know how to access services
		Decrease in youth suicide ideation, attempts, and completions
Complex Needs	Outcome 5: Children with complex behavioral health needs will live safe, healthy, successful lives.	Increase in children living with parents or family members
		Increase in high school graduation rates
		Increase in appropriate use of inpatient hospitalization
		Increase in access to comprehensive, coordinated treatment and supports
		Decrease in contact with law enforcement and juvenile court