

IASB Performance Review Information

IASB typically does performance evaluations for employees on an annual basis, usually around the end of the fiscal year. If raises are to be given that year, they are given at that time. After review of the executive director, evaluations are filed in the employees' personnel files. Nearly all employees have received a review in the past year. The evaluation form that has been used over the past several years is attached.