“Before iJAG, I knew I had potential but I didn’t know how to unlock it. From the moment I walked into my iJAG classroom, my specialist saw that potential in me ... I’ve had many opportunities because of the person I now am, and I am the person I am because of iJAG.”

– Lexi Vazquez, 2025 iJAG graduate

About Lexi

- Served as vice president of the State Career Association
- Represented Iowa at the National Career Development Conference, competing in public speaking
- Currently attending the University of Iowa and was selected to give the welcome speech to her freshman class at “Kickoff at Kinnick”

Who we are...

Iowa Jobs for America’s Graduates (iJAG) is a statewide nonprofit organization that partners with Iowa schools to deliver in-class career development programming. This includes leadership training, soft skill development, work-based learning, and civic responsibility—equipping students with the tools they need to succeed both in school and life.

What we do...

iJAG partners with school districts, employers, state agencies, legislators, and volunteers, with support from a Board of Directors, to help youth become career- and future-ready.

Our impact and outcomes...

iJAG improves student attendance, graduation rates, and transitions to college or career while boosting workforce development, workplace satisfaction, and economies.
