The meeting of Administration and Regulation Subcommittee of Appropriations was called to order at 9:35 a.m. by co-chair Senator Roger Stewart.

Minutes from Thursday, January 19 were approved as printed.

Senator Stewart introduced Mark Schuling, director of the Department of Revenue.

Director Schuling, who is new to the position, gave a resume of his background and told of the major accomplishments in the department in 2005-2006. He then turned the presentation over to:

Mike Lipsman who discussed tax credits tracking and analysis system.

Next Cindy Morton began presenting the new requests for fiscal year 2007. Donna Van Haalen and Stu Voss also spoke.

Questions were asked by committee members.

Following completion of presentations and questions, Chair Representative Tom Sands, replacing Senator Stewart who had another meeting, reminded members to bring the HAVA information they have received to the meeting tomorrow.

Meeting was adjourned at 10:35.

Senator Roger Stewart
