Lynching of the Barber Brothers

The Barber Brothers were captured and lynched in Iowa in 1883. Governor Buren Sherman had offered a reward for the capture and conviction of William (Bill) and Isaac (Ike) Barber. The brothers were suspected of shooting and killing Marion Shepherd, the Westfield Township constable who had been deputized by the sheriff of Fayette County to arrest Ike and Bill for stealing a horse and cart.

After the Barber brothers were apprehended and incarcerated, they were dragged from the jail at Waverly, Iowa, and hanged by a mob of citizens. Because the brothers were hanged, the reward was not paid to the individuals who helped in their capture. The 20th General Assembly passed a bill compensating those responsible for the capture of the Barber brothers.

In 1890, the 23rd General Assembly appropriated $200 to the parents of George Henry Karsting.* Mr. Karsting had never collected the money appropriated by the 20th General Assembly because he was shot by one of the Barber Brothers while assisting in their arrest and died soon afterward.

THE CHASE.
THE MURDEROUS BARBERS.
Special to the State Register.

WAVERLY, June 5.—On Sunday afternoon last two boys discovered Isaac and William, the murderers of Marion Shepherd, of Fayette, in a school house near Sumner in Bremer county. They informed Deputy Sheriff A. H. Jarvis of the fact, and in company with two others that officer and his companions armed themselves and proceeded to the school house. The brothers were not there, but search was made for them in the adjacent ground. Their coats, boots and cartridge belts were found and the officer and one man who were together secreted themselves in the bushes to await the return of the outlaws, who soon appeared and were about to pass within a few feet, when Jarvis bailed them. They were armed with revolvers, and immediately opened fire and Sheriff Jarvis returned it. The sheriff received an ugly wound in the shoulder, but the Barbers made good their escape. One of the sheriff’s posse, at a distance of about ten rods, fired several shots from a repeating rifle, but apparently without effect. Wilson Grove was guarded Sunday by armed citizens and on Monday morning completely surrounded and scourged by three or four hundred armed men, the whole country taking part in the chase, but the outlaws were not to be found, and at this writing, Tuesday, 8 P.M., the indications are that they will not be caught. Deputy Jarvis’ wound will not prove fatal.
MOB VENGEANCE.

The Barber Brothers Taken from Jail at Waverly, Iowa, and Hanged—They Meet their Fate Fearlessly.

THE BARBER BOYS LYNCHED.

Waverly, Ia., June 9.

The Barber brothers were taken from jail Friday night by a mob of about one hundred people and hanged. The particulars of the affair are as follows: A large number of persons congregated around the jail at an early hour in the evening, and a mob was talked of on all sides. At about nine o'clock a man appeared with a rope, followed by about two hundred people, and demanded the delivery of the two Barbers. The Sheriff was obturate. They then proceeded to the door of the court-house, and smashing it in were soon inside. There were now two doors between the outlaws and the mob, who immediately procured a crowbar and sledge and commenced operations upon the doors, it taking over two hours for them to get at the Barbers. After breaking the doors down the desperadoes were taken through the hall to the stairs, one of them being dragged part of the way down the long stairway. After getting into the street the Barbers were allowed to make a confession. Bill Barber said he had never killed a man until last fall; that he had been accused of killing seven men in Illinois. He said this was false. Ike Barber said he had no hand in killing Shepherd last fall, that he had never killed a man nor assisted in doing so until the past week. The desperadoes appeared to have plenty of grit, although Bill shed a few tears. They conversed in a strong voice, and did not expect or ask for sympathy. The leader of the mob was captured by the Sheriff. The county officers did the best they could to protect the prisoners, but it was of no avail.
Main newspaper text:

If an order can be obtained from the Governor, they will be taken to the Anamosa Penitentiary for safe keeping.

At 11o’clock to-night word comes that the mob at Waverly is attacking the jail with crowbars, pickaxes and all kinds of weapons, trying to effect an entrance. If the mob gets hold of the Barbers, they will be strung up at short notice.

The Latest — Hung by a Mob

Dubuque, June 8 — The “Herald’s” special from Waverly says the Barber boys were taken from jail by a mob at 11:30 to-night and hung to a tree, half mile east of the jail. The mob was composed of men from Fayette county, and were led by a brother of Marion Shepherd, whom the Barbers killed last fall. The sheriff refused to give up the keys, and the mob battered down the doors with sledge hammers, and after a short delay brought the criminals out with a rope around their necks. The boys did not flinch a particle and did not even plead for mercy during the whole ordeal.
