Technical Code Corrections/Clarifications

Child Development Assistance (256A)

In 1988, the Iowa Legislature established IAC 256A creating the Child Development Coordinating Council (CDCC) and identifying members to serve on the CDCC. The duties of the CDCC are outlined in 256A.3 which includes the development of criteria for awarding grants under section 279.51, subsection 2 as well as the authority to award grants for programs providing child development services to children meeting identified risk factors (known as Shared Visions Programs). Since its inception, the field of early childhood has evolved in Iowa; suggestions represent the current context and terminology

Child Development Assistance (256A.3.4)

The Department proposes to rescind and reserve as the language is redundant. Suggestion came from the Child Development Coordinating Council itself.

Child Development Assistance (256A.3.7)

The Department proposes to rescind and reserve as the language is redundant. Suggestion came from the Child Development Coordinating Council itself.
