

SEC 9 The county surveyors, respectively, shall be entitled to such compensation, from each person, to whom they have rendered their services, as surveyors, as may be, or now is, allowed by law.

APPROVED, December 25, 1838.

TERRITORIAL TREASURER.

AN ACT to provide for the appointment of a Territorial Treasurer, and defining his duties.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Iowa, That there shall be appointed, by the Governor of the Territory, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, a Territorial Treasurer, who shall hold his office for the term of three years, and shall, previous to entering upon the duties of his office, give bond to the United States in the sum of five thousand dollars, with three or more sufficient securities, to be approved of by the Secretary of the Territory, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and shall, also, take an oath in the following form, before one of the judges of the supreme court: "I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm,) that I will faithfully, and honestly, execute the duties appertaining to the office of Treasurer of the Territory of Iowa: I will not, on any occasion, or pretence, apply, otherwise than according to law, any moneys, securities, or effects, which shall come into my hands, belonging to the Territory, or to the United States of America."

Territorial treasurer, by whom appointed and for how long.

Bond and securities, in what sum, by whom approved, and condition.

Treasurer's oath.

SEC. 2. The Treasurer shall receive all monies, belonging to the Territory, that may be raised by taxation, or otherwise, and shall procure suitable books, in which he shall enter an account of his receipts and disbursements.

What moneys he shall receive. His books, accounts, receipts and disbursements.

SEC. 3. The Treasurer shall, in no case, pay money out of the treasury, but according to law, and shall annually report, to the Legislative Assembly, a true account of his receipts and disbursements, with the necessary vouchers for the same, and shall deliver to his successor in office, all books, moneys, accounts, or other property, belonging to the Territory, so soon as his successor shall become qualified.

Prohibition.

Annual report, and vouchers.

Transfer of money, &c., to his successor.

SEC. 4. The Treasurer shall receive for his services, such sum as may hereafter be allowed him by law.

Compensation.

APPROVED, January 24, 1839.
