CHAPTER 59.

H. F. 74. AN ACT to prevent and punish the improper use of money at elections.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Agreement to induce voters to refrain from voting.

Service for candidates on election day forbidden.

Penalty.

Agreement by voter to refrain from voting.

Penalty.

Contracts by committees of political parties.

SECTION 1. If any person shall make an agreement with another to pay him any sum of money, or other valuable thing in consideration that such other person shall refrain from voting at any election, or shall induce other qualified electors to refrain from voting, or that such other person shall perform any service or labor on any election day in the interest of any candidate for any office, who is to be voted for at such election, or in the interest of any measure or political party, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and on conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding ninety days.

SEC. 2. Any person who shall, in consideration of any sum of money or other valuable thing agree to refrain from voting at any general or municipal election, or to induce or attempt to induce others to refrain from voting at such elections, or agree to perform on election day any service in the interest of any candidate, party, or measure, in consideration of any money or other valuable thing, or who shall accept any money or other valuable thing for such services performed in the interest of any candidate, political party or measure, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in the preceding section.

SEC. 3. Nothing in this act contained, shall be so construed as to punish individuals or committees of any political party for making contracts in good faith for the conveyance of voters to and from polling places and the payment of any reasonable compensation for such service.

Approved March 31, 1894.
