CHAPTER 114.

AN ACT to levy a tax to provide for the erection of necessary buildings for the State university of Iowa. H. F. 188.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That for the purpose of providing for the erection, improvement, and equipment of such necessary buildings as shall be determined upon by the board of regents of the state university there shall be levied a special tax of one-tenth (1-10) of a mill on the dollar upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property of the state for the erection of buildings for the state university; and the proceeds thereof shall be carried into the treasury to the credit of said state university, said levy to commence with the first levy made after the passage of this act; the same levy shall be made annually after said first levy for four (4) successive years. Any amount in excess of the sum of fifty-five thousand dollars raised by any one of such levies shall be paid into the state treasury.

Tax of one-tenth of a mill for erection of buildings.

Levy to commence with the first levy made after passage of law.

SECTION 2. The money realized from such a levy shall be held by the treasurer of state; and drawn as provided in chapter 31 of the acts of the Twenty-third General Assembly.

Money to be held by state treasurer.

SECTION 3. The amounts so realized by said levies shall be in lieu of all appropriations for the erection of buildings for said state university during said period of five years.

Approved Mar. 17th, 1896.
