

mal or fowl by dog, dogs or wolves may present to the board of supervisors of the county in which such killing or injury occurred, a detailed statement and account of such killing or injury, stating the amount of damage claimed therefor and verified by affidavit such claim to be filed with the county auditor not later than ten (10) days from the time such killing or injury occurred or was known to the owner or his agent. Claims filed as herein provided shall be heard by the board of supervisors at the first regular session after the filing thereof or at such time as the board of supervisors may determine upon, and the same may be established by affidavit if less than ten dollars ($10) in amount, if more than ten dollars ($10) to be established by oral proof or affidavit as may be determined or required by board of supervisors. No claim shall be allowed where it is shown that the injury and damage complained of was caused by a dog or dogs owned or controlled by the claimant. The board shall hear and determine said claims as soon as practicable after they are filed, and shall allow the same or such portion thereof as they may deem just, and shall find and enter of record the value of each animal killed or the amount of damage done thereto, and shall authorize the auditor to issue warrants for not exceeding seventy-five per cent (75) of the amount of damages thus found, the same to be paid by the county treasurer out of the Domestic Animal Fund, and if disallowed they shall so enter it upon their record.

Sec. 5. Warrants—how drawn and paid—balance. The county auditor shall on the first day of July, 1907, and on the first day of January and July of each year thereafter furnish an itemized statement to the county treasurer of all warrants that have been issued for the six (6) months preceding such date as provided herein, and the treasurer shall on or before the tenth (10) day of each of said months pay said warrants issued by the auditor, as aforesaid, out of the Domestic Animal Fund, provided, however, that if such fund is then insufficient to pay said warrants in full he shall pay on each pro rata, and provided further, that no claim shall be allowed under the provisions of this act for any damages sustained for animals killed or damaged prior to the taking effect of this act. When the balance in the Domestic Animal Fund after paying the warrants issued thereto, as hereinbefore provided exceeds the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) the board of supervisors may transfer the excess to the general county fund.

Sec. 6. In effect. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in the city of Des Moines, Iowa.

Approved April 1, A. D. 1907.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Des Moines Capital, April 2, 1907, and the Register and Leader, April 3, 1907.

Secretary of State.

CHAPTER 21.

COMPENSATION OF COUNTY SUPERVISORS.

H. F. 43.

AN ACT to repeal section four hundred sixty-nine (469) of the code, and enact a substitute therefor, providing for the compensation of county supervisors.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Repealed—compensation. That section four hundred sixty-nine (469) of the code be, and the same is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

“The members of the board of supervisors shall receive four dollars per day each for each day actually in session, and three dollars per day exclusive of mileage when not in session but employed on committee service, and five cents per mile for every mile traveled in going to and from the regular, special and adjourned sessions thereof and in going to and from the place of performing committee service. But in counties having a population of ten thousand or less they shall not receive compensation for session service of more than thirty days in the year; in counties having population of more than ten and less than twenty-three thousand, for not more than forty-five days of such service in a year; in counties having a population of twenty-three and not over forty thousand, for not over fifty-five days of such service in a year; in counties having a population of forty and not over sixty thousand, for not more than sixty-five days of such service in a year; in counties having a population of sixty and not over eighty thousand, for not more than seventy-five days of such service in a year; in counties having a population of eighty and not over ninety thousand, for not more than ninety days of such service in a year; in counties having a population of over ninety thousand for not more than one hundred days of such service in a year. The time spent by the board of supervisors as a ditch or drainage board and in considering drainage matters whether as a single board or jointly with one or more other boards, shall not be counted in computing the number of days which any board has been in session, but the members of the board shall be entitled to compensation at the same rate for the time spent in ditch and drainage matters in addition to the compensation allowed as hereinbefore set forth, but in no case shall said board be allowed more than fifty days additional time in one year for time spent in drainage matters. If on the same day the board acts both as a county board and also for the purpose of considering drainage matters, the board shall be paid for one day only, and from the general fund or drainage fund as the board may order.”

SEC. 2. In effect. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force upon its publication in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in the city of Des Moines, Iowa.

Approved March 15, A. D. 1907.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital, March 16, 1907.

W. C. HAYWARD,
Secretary of State.
