

CHAPTER 106.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF BOARD OF RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS.

S. F. 11.

AN ACT to repeal section twenty-one hundred thirteen (2113) of the code relating to the powers and duties of the board of railroad commissioners and enacting a substitute therefor.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Repealed—powers and duties. That section twenty one hundred thirteen (2113) of the code be and the same is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

“It shall from time to time carefully examine into and inspect the condition of each railroad, its equipment, and the manner of its conduct and management with regard to the public safety and convenience in the state; make semi-annual examination of its bridges, and report the condition thereof to the company to which they belong; and if found by it unsafe it shall immediately notify the railroad company whose duty it is to put the same in repair, which shall be done by it within ten days after receiving such notice. If any corporation fails to perform this duty the board may forbid and prevent it from running trains over the same while unsafe. And should any railroad or transportation company in this state fail to provide proper shelter for its patrons at stations where two or more tracks are operated, or fail, or refuse to connect by proper switches or tracks with the tracks or lines of other railroad or transportation companies the board may require such railroad or transportation company to provide the same in such manner and upon such conditions as it may determine. When, in the judgment of the board, any railway corporation fails in any respect to comply with the terms of its charter or articles of incorporation or the laws of the state; or when in its judgment any repairs are necessary upon its road; or any addition to its rolling stock, or addition to or change in its stations or station houses, or change in its rates of fare for transporting freight or passengers, or change in the mode of operating its road or conducting its business, is reasonable and expedient in order to promote the security, convenience, and accommodation of the public, the board shall serve a notice upon such corporation, in the manner provided for the service of an original notice in a civil action, which notice shall be signed by its secretary, of the improvements and changes which it finds to be proper; and a report of such proceedings shall be included in its annual report to the governor as provided in the next section; but nothing in this section shall be so construed as relieving any railroad company from its present responsibility or liability for damage to person or property.”

Approved March 27, A. D. 1907.
