STORAGE AND TRANSPORTATION OF POWDER IN COAL MINES.

S. F. 81.

AN ACT prohibiting the storage and transportation of powder into coal mines while miners or other employes are working therein. [Additional to chapter nine (9) of title twelve (XII) of the code.]

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Transportation of powder into coal mines. That no person, firm or corporation, shall be permitted to transport, carry or convey by any electrical process whatever, any powder or other explosive, into any coal mine where twenty or more persons are employed therein until after the coal miners and other employes have ceased their work and have departed from the mines.

SEC. 2. Storage of powder—what permitted. No operator or other person in charge of any coal mine, shall suffer or permit under any circumstances the storing of powder, or other explosives, in any coal mine except as follows: Each miner shall be permitted to have in his separate and individual possession at one time not more than two kegs containing twenty-five pounds of powder each, and other explosives sufficient for one day's use. Such powder, or other explosives, shall be kept by the miner in a wooden or metallic box or boxes securely locked, and said boxes shall be kept at a reasonable distance from the track; nor shall black powder and high explosives be kept in the same box.

SEC. 3. Supply for following day—where deposited. It shall not be construed as storing powder, as defined in section two hereof, to deposit the powder, or other explosives, at the end of the electrical or mechanical haulage at the face of the mine for the following day's use; provided, that it is transported, conveyed or deposited in conformity with the provisions of section one hereof.

SEC. 4. Transportation and delivery—by whom done. The transportation and delivery of all powder and other explosives in said coal mines shall be done by the operator or by men employed by him for that purpose.

SEC. 5. Penalty. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days.
