STATUE OF JAMES HARLAN IN THE NATIONAL STATUARY HALL.

S. F. 188.

AN ACT providing for placing a statue in bronze of James Harlan, Ex-Senator of Iowa, in the national statuary hall in the capitol building at Washington, D. C., and appropriating money to pay therefor.

WHEREAS, Under the provisions of section eighteen hundred and fourteen (1814), Revised Statutes of the United States, the state of Iowa is authorized to provide and furnish statues in marble or bronze "of two deceased persons who have been citizens thereof and illustrious for their historic renown or for distinguished civic or military services," and

WHEREAS, The Hon. James Harlan, ex-senator of Iowa and secretary of interior under Lincoln, now deceased, is worthy of being selected as one of the citizens of Iowa whose statue shall be placed in the said national statuary hall, in the capitol building at Washington, D. C., therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Executive council to procure statue and have it placed. The executive council is hereby authorized to enter into a contract with such party as it may select to provide and furnish a clay model of a statue of ex-senator James Harlan, of such size as the executive council may determine, and upon the completion of such statue to the satisfaction of the executive council the said executive council is hereby authorized to have said statue cast in bronze and to place the same in national statuary hall in the capitol building at Washington, D. C., in accordance with the provisions of said section eighteen hundred and fourteen (1814) of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

Sec. 2. Appropriation—how drawn. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay for the moulding and casting such statue in bronze and placing the same in the national statuary hall in the capitol building at Washington, D. C., and the auditor of state is hereby authorized to draw warrants therefor upon the order of the executive council.

SEC. 3. In effect. This act, being of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa.

Approved March 20, A. D. 1907.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Register and Leader, and the Des Moines Capital, March 23, 1907.

W. C. HAYWARD,
Secretary of State.
